The potato market is showing signs of strength and the effect has been to raise prices here. Shippers who were getting all the potatoes they wanted for seventy cents per barrel are now paying ninety cents and there is a prospect of the price going still higher. The United States market is taking potatoes in increasing quantities and reports from Toronto are that there the market shows similar signs.

John Kilburn, of this city, who was operating in the lumber woods of Quebec for Murray & Gregory, arrived here Saturday from headwaters of St. John river. His statement of conditions as far as the drives are concerned is more encouraging than previous reports. He says that at Priestley Rapids lumber not exceeding 6,000,000 feet is hung up, but there are bright prospects of it being brought out.

W. J. Noble has been appointed manager of the drive and is near the scene with a crew of men ready to go to work as soon as the water comes up. A three foot rise will bring the logs out all right. It has rained heavily there since Mr. Kilburn left.

Mr. Kilburn brought his own drive out of the brooks without mishap and the great bulk of it now is in safe waters. A small portion is with the lumber at Priestley Rapids, almost all of which is owned by the St. John Lumber Company.
