VERDICT OF THE PEOPLE.

GREAT BRITAIN'S PRONUNCIATION AGAINST HOME RULE.

Lords Hartington and Salisbury Settling Upon the Lines for a New Government—The Parnellites Determined to Fight for the Full Measure—Tory Gains Yesterday.

LONDON, July 13.—Midnight.—Up to this hour 365 Conservatives and Unionists, 159 Gladstonians and 72 Parnellites have been elected. The standing of the parties now is:

Total number of seats	670
Number of elections held	606
To be held	64
Conservatives elected	299
Unionists	66
Gladstonians	159
Parnellites	82
Conservative and Unionist majority	124

The Chiefs of the Dissentients.

LONDON, July 13.—Lord Hartington has arrived in London. Lord Salisbury will return here on Friday, and will confer with Lord Hartington and other Unionists on Monday. An agreement has been arrived at by which Lord Salisbury accepts Lord Hartington's Home Rule policy, which involves the maintenance of the full powers of the Imperial parliament. By it the powers conferred on local councils in Ireland are delegated, not surrendered, by parliament, which body receives the right to control and revise the action of the councils. The appointment of judges and legal administration are centred in the Imperial parliament. Lord Hartington is still reluctant to join a Conservative ministry, although he has pledged himself to support coercive measures and the general policy of the Conservatives.

In Gladstonian circles confidence is expressed that the premier will resign. Mr. Gladstone will hold a conference with his colleagues on Saturday. The Parnellites say they will never accept Lord Hartington's scheme and will fight and wait until they have secured the passage of the full Gladstonian measure.

Lord Hartington on England's Enemies.

LONDON, July 13.—In his speech at Derby last night Lord Hartington upraided the members of the Government, who, he said, while serving the Queen had formed an alliance with members of the Parliamentary party having at least connection with associations whose aims were treasonable and whose ends were obtained by nefarious means. "If we yield now," he concluded, "to our Irish American enemies, in order to obtain a temporary respite, we or our successors will sooner or later have to fight the battle over with diminished means. If we exercise old English judgment, fortitude, patience and courage, we will defeat and crush the nefarious designs of conspirators against the Empire." Lord Hartington was enthusiastically cheered.

Mr. Parnell Repudiates the Fenians.

LONDON, July 13.—Mr. Parnell has written a letter in which he says: "The statements of Lord Hartington that the Irish party and National League are in union with American Fenians are untrue. I know nothing whatever of any Fenian organization in Ireland or America beyond what I have learned from the newspapers. I have never had any communication with the leaders of such organizations or accepted any alliance with them. I do not even know who the leaders are. No union of the National League and Fenians has ever been proposed. If such a proposal had ever been made I should never have consented. I have always successfully endeavored to keep the National League within the strictest bonds of legality. In spite of the unblushing falsehoods which have partially and temporarily frustrated the moderate aspirations of Ireland, the Irish people will continue to maintain a peaceable and legal aspect, declining to afford any pretext to Lord Hartington or his Tory allies to resort to the brutalities of coercion."

Mr. Healy is Probably Right.

LONDON, July 13.—At the regular fortnightly meeting of the National League to-day the treasurer announced that the donations received from the United States for the Parliamentary Fund within the past two weeks amounted to $80,000. T. M. Healy in an address, said although Irishmen were disappointed at the result of the elections, they should not be despondent. The defeat, he said, was but temporary. One million electors had written "Home Rule" on their polling papers as against the unholy existing triple alliance. A coalition government, Mr. Healy contended, could not exist three months.

Labby's Counsels.

LONDON, July 13.—Mr. Labouchere writes to the Daily News urging Mr. Gladstone not to resign on the ground that he has a majority on everything except the Irish question, and that the Unionists are not likely to support a general vote of want of confidence in him.

Some Results.

LONDON, July 13.—McCartan (Parnellite) has been elected to Parliament for South Down.

Molloy (Parnellite) has been returned for the Birr division of King's County.

The Tories in to-day's elections gained South Dorsetshire, where Hambro defeated Sturgis (Gladstonian), and the Leek division of Staffordshire, where Davenport (Conservative) defeated Crompton (Gladstonian).

Wilson, the Gladstonian candidate for the Skipton division of Yorkshire, has been defeated by Morrison (Unionist). This is a Unionist gain.

Polling in the Newmarket division of Cambridgeshire had to be postponed to-day in consequence of rioting. Several policemen were hurt during the disturbance.

The Tories have won the southwest division of Essex and the Torquay division of Devonshire, electing in the former Makins (Conservative) over Parker Rhodes (Unionist) and Spicer (Gladstonite). In Torquay Malloch defeated McIver (Unionist).

They Found the Arrow.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 13.—News has just reached the city to the effect that a searching party sent out by the Buffalo Yacht Club found the missing sloop yacht Arrow this afternoon three miles off Sturgeon Point on the American shore. The boat was capsized, and the three young men, Fuller, Townsend and Cowles were clinging to the bottom for dear life. They were much exhausted, but were promptly taken aboard of the rescuing boat and cared for.

Coming to the Convention.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 13.—President Egan has received a message from Timothy Harrington stating that the report that the Parliamentary Deputation is not going to the National League Convention is a malicious falsehood. Some members of the delegation, Mr. Harrington says, are already named, and he will send the names of all in a few days.

He Didn't Start.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Col. Wm. H. Gilder who intended to leave New York this afternoon to undertake to find the North Pole was detained on the charge of stealing a $1000 bond. Dolly Adams, the professional swimmer, was the complainant. Gilder was held in $1500 for trial.

THE LAW WILL BE ENFORCED.

No Truth in the Report that the Fishery Regulations Have Been Suspended.

OTTAWA, July 13.—The report telegraphed from Ottawa that members of the cabinet were urging upon their colleagues the release of the David J. Adams and Ella M. Doughty is officially denied. The fishing laws are stated to be, if anything, more rigidly enforced just now than at any period since the present policy was adopted. Though several violations have gone unpunished, it is said to be been simply owing to the absence of the Canadian cruisers.

GREAT PRIORY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Election of Officers and Other Business at the Annual Meeting in Windsor, Ont.

WINDSOR, Ont., July 13.—At the annual meeting of the Sovereign Great Priory of the Knights Templar of Canada to-day in the absence of Col. McLeod Moore, Grand Master, who was ill, the throne was occupied by D.G.M. Dr. Henderson, Q.C., of Kingston. (The Grand Master's) allocution, read by Grand Chancellor Spry, feelingly touching on the loss to the order by the death of Dr. Robert Ramsay, K.C.T., of Orillia, and others, and referred to the troubles brought about by the existence of Scottish encampments in New Brunswick, and the reasons for the issue of an edict of non-intercourse with these bodies was defined. The Grand Master recommended the establishment of provincial priories in Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. The allocution made reference to the conferring by H. R. SCOTT ACT MARTYRS.

Outrages Committed at Smith's Falls and at Hastings.

SMITH'S FALLS, July 13.—The stable and outbuildings belonging to Wm. Graham, license commissioner, were burnt this morning. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary. The buildings were totally destroyed, together with a horse and other contents. The loss is about $500. In endeavoring to save the horse Mr. Graham was so seriously burnt that he now lies in a critical condition. Mr. Graham is the man through whom information has been given to the license inspector of breaches of the Scott Act.

HASTINGS, July 13.—This village has become most notorious since the passage of the Scott Act. On Saturday night the glass was broken in the store windows of Mr. G. T. Jackson, and Mr. J. W. Doxsee and Constable Striker had two plows stolen, as well as damage done to their property. Last night A. C. Huycke, J.P., before whom cases of infractions of the law have been tried, had his orchard totally destroyed by some persons, who stripped the bark from every tree. Excitement runs high, and efforts are being made to secure evidence against the parties suspected.

A Fusilade Kept Up for Two Hours—The Police Powerless.

DUBLIN, July 13.—An Orange lodge in Coal Island, a small village in the County Tyrone, was attacked last night by a number of men belonging to the National League. The attacking party were armed with rifles, and kept up a fire for two hours on the lodge. The police were powerless.

Convicts on Strike.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 13.—Two hundred convicts employed at the Dane coal mines, twenty miles from this city, have refused to work and a riot is feared. The guards are unable to control them. The men are strongly fortified and say they will not return to work until they are assured of better treatment. It is feared that the remaining 300 will join the strikers.

International Moulders.

LONDON, Ont., July 13.—At the morning session of the International Moulders' Union the principal business was the reading of reports from several of the Committees. It was announced during the meeting by Mr. Marsh, of Troy, N.Y., that he had just received information of the final passage of the act introduced by Hon. J. J. O'Neil, of Missouri, for the purpose of legalizing a "National Trades Union," and of its confirmation by President Cleveland. The announcement was greeted with applause, and it was unanimously decided that a resolution of thanks be drafted.

A Genuine International Lawsuit.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Wallace Graham, solicitor for the Attorney-General of Canada, has served upon the United States Government, through its attorney at Portland, Me., a document reciting the circumstances of the seizure of the schooner E. M. Doughty, and giving a statement of the law under which the vessel was detained. The paper is likely to become historical, on the base of which an important question of international interest will be tried in the courts.

Fell Forty Feet.

Free as a Bird.

—The blistering heat of July being upon us in all its ancient force, it is gratifying to know that Toronto has so many cool resorts where the sweltered can enjoy himself boating and fishing with one of those delightful two-dollar white flannel boating shirts from quinn's the shirtmaker, which are conceded by everybody the best value on earth.

THE PYTHIAN PROCESSION.

FOUR THOUSAND KNIGHTS MARCH THROUGH THE STREETS.

A Great Demonstration—Reception of the Supreme Lodge—Toronto's Welcome—Notes and Incidents of the Day.

The great Pythian demonstration, which has been boomed so much during the past few months, is now in full swing, and is proving as big a venture as Toronto ever undertook. Every incoming train brings pleasure-seekers, every hotel is full, business men are rejoicing, and the streets are crowded, night as well as day.

Service at St. James'.

At 9 in the morning Douglas Uniformed Division, No. 2, and Douglas, No. 21, marched to the Queen's and Rossin and escorted the Supreme Lodge members to the lodge rooms, where business was commenced at 10 o'clock. The services at St. James' Cathedral were conducted by Very Rev. Dean Whitmarsh, chaplain of the Indians Brigade, and were most impressive. The public thronged the galleries, and the ground floor was occupied by Knights.

Reception of the Supreme Lodge.

At 11.30 Ald. Steiner, Defoe, Pepler, Drayton and James of the City Council Reception Committee, all rigged out as became their position, arrived at the Orange Hall, where the Supreme Lodge was in session. The committee had been led to understand that the lodge was to be at the Cathedral. In consequence they were a half hour late. The Supreme Lodge knocked off work to receive the deputation and all the brethren in the neighborhood, together with the Civic Committee and a deputation from the Grand Lodge of Ontario, headed by Past Grand Chancellor McKellar, filed into the chamber of mysteries. Supreme Prelate, Dr. King, introduced Acting Mayor Defoe and Past Grand Chancellor McKellar, and Supreme Chancellor Van Valkenburg, called them to places on the platform.

Ald. Defoe, looking even more dapper than usual in his black frock coat, shepherd's plaid pants and white satin tie, regretted Mayor Howland's unavoidable absence and said that he felt honored by being called upon to perform the pleasant task of welcoming the Knights of Pythias to Toronto on this, the occasion of the Supreme Lodge's first session in Toronto. On behalf of the mayor, corporation and citizens of Toronto he extended a hearty welcome. The Supreme Chancellor introduced Past Grand Chancellor McKellar as a representative man and a representative Knight. The P. G. M. read a brief address on behalf of the Ontario Grand Lodge. He was proud to welcome the Supreme Lodge on their first visit to Toronto. His lodge desired to express thankfulness for the manner in which the Supreme Lodge had looked after the interests of the brethren in Ontario. The oecumenical character of the order was proven by the good fellowship prevailing among Knights on both sides the line. The Supreme Lodge had done well in electing to the high office of Supreme Prelate a man so highly respected by brother knights and fellow-citizens as Dr. J. S. King of Toronto.

Dr. King made a few remarks and the Supreme Chancellor, on behalf of the Knights at large, thanked Ald. Defoe and through him the citizens for the courtesies already shown and those promised. He reserved more extensive remarks till the evening and dismissed the deputation.

The Supreme Lodge in Session.

The Supreme Lodge entered upon its biennial session at 10.30 in the morning, Supreme Chancellor Van Valkenburg in the chair. The attendance of representatives was good. On the platform were past Supreme Chancellors J. G. Rathbone of Iowa, Sam. Read of New Jersey and G. W. Lindsay of Maryland. Representative George Hawkes of Pennsylvania was appointed Assistant Supreme Keeper of Records and Seals. Representative Charles A. Lee was re-appointed official reporter for the sixth consecutive time. A series of reports from the Committee on Credentials and Returns was adopted. Supreme Representatives and Past Grand Chancellors were instructed in the Supreme Lodge degree. The Supreme Chancellor appointed Supreme Vice-Chancellor Douglass and Representatives Buchanan of Oregon, Williams of Maine, Mustard of Virginia as a Committee on Distribution of Reports. A session will be held daily from 10 to 12.30 and from 2.30 to 6. It will take until the middle of next week to wind up the business.

The Afternoon Parade.

The procession in the afternoon was one of the finest and largest ever held in the city. About 3 o'clock the various divisions left their quarters for Clarence-square. The neighborhood was crowded with people anxious to see everything. The windows of every building were filled with spectators. Even the trees and lamp posts were occupied by irrepressible urchins. The scene was one of splendor. The waving plumes, with swords and helmets glistening in the sun, made an imposing spectacle, and it seemed as if the days of chivalry and knight-errantry were returned. The ranks were formed with military precision and speed and the procession started up Brock-street at 4 o'clock. The route taken was Brock, Queen, Queen-street avenue to Queen's Park, College-avenue, Yonge, Adelaide, Jarvis and King streets. It must have been witnessed by upwards of forty thousand people. The crowd thronged every inch of the way, and the police had great difficulty in keeping the route of the streets clear. All vehicles were stopped, and no accident or obstruction marred the pleasure of the march. The Knights displayed great proficiency in drill, and called forth the admiration and applause of the spectators. The American bands came in for a good share of the praise. They kept good step and played first class music.

Over 3000 Knights took part. The divisions in the procession represented Ontario, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Maryland, Florida, District of Columbia. Brigades came from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Michigan. A division is composed of from 27 to 50 men. A brigade is made up of two full regiments, each of which consists of ten divisions. The most noted bands were, 1st Regiment Band of Massachusetts from Boston, 1st Regiment Band of Ohio from Cincinnati, Major Nevin's Military Band from Chicago, Glen Rock Band from Washington, Carnahan Military Band from Connersville, Indiana.

On arriving at the Queen's Park at five o'clock, the Knights rested for about 15 minutes under the trees, which considerably refreshed them. They showed to the best advantage on King-street. The block pavement was clean and watered. Every wagon and hack was ordered off, and the heat of the day was past. The Knights handled their swords neatly, and performed the different movements without a blunder. They won the hearts of the ladies who thronged the windows. At King and York streets the procession stopped and in a few minutes proceeded down York to the Queen's hotel where the Knights passed in review before the Supreme Grand Chancellor and the Major General. They disbanded about 6.30.

Supreme Lodge Reception at the Rink.

Some 1500 Sir Knights, ladies and citizens attended the public reception of the Supreme Lodge at the Caledonia Rink in the evening. Past Grand Chancellor McKellar, of the Ontario Grand Lodge, presided. Of the lengthy list of speeches his came first. He expressed regret for Gov. Robinson's unavoidable absence and said that he had been entrusted with the task of extending on behalf of the citizens of Ontario a hearty welcome to Toronto's visitors. Ald. Defoe's remarks followed. The Acting Mayor, and by the same token, Mr. Defoe fills the temporary position well, was arrayed in faultless evening dress and did the council credit. He expressed regret for the Mayor's absence and said he would feel still further regret if anyone should imagine that Mayor Howland was treating the city's Pythian visitors with indifference. He assured his hearers that His Worship had made all his arrangements with a view to being present, but that at the last moment he had been obliged to absent himself. Toronto was proud to acknowledge the honour done her by the Knights of Pythias. While extending to Canadian citizens the welcome they were entitled to in Toronto, he desired to assure the American visitors of the feelings of affection towards them in every heart. He hoped for a continuance of the present good fellowship between the two countries.

Supreme Prelate Dr. King, who had come in for sounding compliments from the previous speakers, delivered a rousing speech, brimful of humor, of enthusiasm for the cause, and of annexation doctrines. Said he: "The constant crossing and recrossing of the boundary line between the two countries cannot but have a tendency to obliterate it." A big "hear, hear" from Dr. Wild, who was in a front seat. After Dr. King had taken his seat he jumped up again and said: "I've made the biggest mistake I ever made on a platform. I forgot to tell you that our Supreme Chancellor is a Canuck. We gladly welcome him back to the land of his nativity. Don't we?" Brother Van V. nodded cheerfully and the audience shouted.

Past Supreme Chancellor Justus H. Rathbone of Washington, the founder of the order, led off the list of speeches given in answer to the welcoming addresses. Supreme Chancellor Van Valkenburg made the address of the evening. He spoke quickly and eloquently and covered a lot of ground. He enlarged on the beauties of the Canadian and English characters, and claimed for the American character the same good qualities. Her Majesty the Queen and Dr. King came in for their quota of praise. The rapid growth of the order was dwelt on. Its principles were such that it was stamping out communism, socialism and dynamite as a means of adjusting differences between capital and labor.

Addresses were also given by Supreme Representative Judge S. P. Oxler of Indiana, for the North; Supreme Representative Essex of Arkansas, for the South; Supreme Representative Josiah Drummond of Maine, for the East, and Supreme Representative George H. Morrison of Nevada, for the West.

The speeches were diversified by the rendering of a good musical program. Mrs. Bradley, Mr. Warrington and the Royal Grenadiers' Band were the performers.

The Island at Night.

About 3000 people excursioned to Hanlan's Point last evening to witness the display of fireworks. Despite the surging crowd no accidents occurred and everything passed off satisfactorily. The hurdy gurdy was liberally patronized and the refreshment room of the Hotel Hanlan did a rushing business. The pyrotechnic display was a very creditable affair. The pieces presented were "Welcome to K. of P.," "Supreme Lodge, K. of P., Toronto, '86," "U. R., F. C. B., K. P." and "Good Night" besides a large number of skyrockets and other fireworks which added to the brilliant effect. Returning home the crowd was in the best of spirits. As the gates were closed to keep back the tired and surging throng many jokes were perpetrated which created a hearty laugh. Such banter as "Hello Reddy, what are you in for. I did not think you would come to disgrace us by getting locked up," was hurled at the discomfited excursionists who failed to pass the gate. All things considered the trip was an enjoyable success.

The Supreme Prelate at Home.

Supreme Prelate Dr. J. S. King held an At Home from 1.30 until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, 232 Sherbourne-street. The grounds and house were handsomely decorated. Many of the Knights and also prominent citizens paid the doctor a visit. They were well received and hospitably entertained. This burgh was represented by Lieut.-Gov. Robinson, Ald. Defoe, Ald. Steiner, Ald. Maughan, Ald. Roaf, Lt.-Col. G. T. Denison, Rev. Dr. Wild, Rev. G. M. Milligan, Rev. H. P. Hobson, Rev. Hilary Bygrave, Dr. Chas. O'Reilly, Dr. Canniff, Dr. W. T. O'Reilly, and others. Among the visitors were: Gen. Wm. Ward, Washington; Hon. Halvor Nelson, Prof. S. H. Willey, J. B. Brayton, and Hon. John Van Valkenburg, Supreme Chancellor.

To-day's Program.

Divisions quartered in the city will meet at 9 o'clock a.m. at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Queen-street east, and parade to the train and boats, which will carry them to the Exhibition Grounds. Here the grand prize drill competition will commence at 10 o'clock. In the evening at the Mutual-street Rink a concert will take place under the direction of Will F. Tasker. Miss Louise Pyk, the celebrated Swedish dramatic soprano; Mr. Ivan E. Morawski, the eminent Russian basso; Mme. Dory Burmeister-Petersen, solo pianiste, and Prof. Martens, piano accompanist, will take part.

Pythian Paragraphs.

Loving mothers wheeled their baby carriages through the crowds, just as usual.

Very little business was done after 3 o'clock. No one could afford to miss the procession.

The crowds at the procession and during the day were singularly good-natured and orderly.

For some unknown reason the non-uniformed divisions did not take part in the procession as expected.

Bandmaster Toulmin, of the Royal Grens claims that his band was the cleanest and best dressed in the procession.

"Do you know where I can get a hotel that is not full, or a good boarding-house?" was the query yesterday.

There were twenty-six mounted aides in Major-General Carnahan's staff. Twelve were unable to obtain horses.

The American screw steamer Cyclone arrived from Cleveland yesterday with 65 passengers, chiefly Knights of Pythias.

Business people are wondering what they will do with all their American money. Advice—pay it into The World in subscriptions.

The procession started out in column of four and retained that formation until they reached King-street, when they went into division line.

All the stores on King and Yonge streets should light the gas in their front windows during the evenings of this week. Two or three leading houses have set the example.

Members of the Supreme Lodge have received tickets admitting them to all entertainments under the auspices of the Knights, and passing them to the Island.

The clouds, which had been gathering early in the evening, broke into rain about 12.30 this morning, and it was still raining at 4 o'clock, with every prospect of showering all day.

Major-General Carnahan and staff were entertained by Chief of Police Draper at his residence after the procession. The officers speak very highly of the Toronto police force.

Acting Mayor Defoe respectfully requests storekeepers to hang up their shutters this afternoon and give themselves and employes opportunity to go up to the Exhibition Grounds and see the drill competition.

Advertising vans followed the procession and were quite amusing. One was a stuffed horse with a colored boy on top displaying a set of harness. Another was an imitation Shanghai rooster which the Zoo imported from New York.

At a procession the sight of a policeman's coat usually strikes terror to the heart of the unlooking civilian. Duty must be done no matter how disagreeable, but please, Mr. Policeman, don't shove us around so.

Hundreds of people attended the service at St. James' Cathedral for the purpose of seeing the Supreme Lodge officers, but as those gentleman had more important business on hand these hundreds were disappointed.

A pedestrian dropped into The World last night to tell the staff what he considered a huge joke. "Say," said he, addressing the baseball man, "a fellow from Missouri stopped me on the street and wanted to know if the Queen lived here. What do you think of that, eh?" And he went away to tell someone else.

—Here are a few of a good many figures submitted by Dr. King and Chancellor Van Valkenburg in their speeches at the rink last night. In the 22 years of its existence the order has reached a membership of 180,000. It has 2600 castle halls, 151 divisions, 24 jurisdictions, and 100 sections in the endowment rank.

Ald. J. M. Cameron, of Cincinnati, a member of Damon Division, No. 83, of that city, occupied a prominent place at the head of the table at the Board of Works Committee meeting yesterday. On leaving he thanked the committee for their courtesy, and expressed gratification at the city's reception of the Knights.

Mayor Hersley of Long Branch, N.J., announces that he is determined to close up all gambling houses and places of bad repute.

THE BANK OF COMMERCE.

A NEW PRESIDENT AND NEW BLOOD INFUSED INTO THE BOARD.

Henry W. Darling Succeeds Senator McMaster—Geo. A. Cox and John I. Davidson Added to the Directorate—The Bank's Future.

In another column will be found the regular report of the annual meeting of the Bank of Commerce. From it it will be seen that three new names have been added to the Board of Directors, viz., George A. Cox of Peterboro, John I. Davidson (Fitch & Davidson) and Henry W. Darling (McMaster, Darling & Co.) the latter becoming president in place of Senator McMaster, who resigned office yesterday after twenty years of faithful and arduous service. In the history of all the financial corporations in Canada, past and present, there is not an example of one man giving more time, more energy, more attention to the interests of a bank and of its shareholders than that of the old senator and the Bank of Commerce. With a singleness of purpose he has watched the interests of the bank for these many years, enjoying in all that time the unbounded confidence of shareholders, customers and officers. His was a conservative policy, but no one has yet been able to show that it was not in the interests of the institution. Now he retires, confident that the concern is in first-class condition, that the new blood will bring with it new life and new energies, and that as far as the future is concerned the prospects are of the brightest kind. Mr. McMaster is 76 years of age, has served a long life to business activity, and now when he feels that his powers and health may be abating he begins to set his affairs in order and to place the interests with which he is connected in such a shape that their future shall be assured. He will continue on as a director, and the shareholders have his assurance that he will still take an active interest in its affairs.

At the meeting yesterday the by-law increasing the board from eight to ten was unanimously accepted as was also the choice of new directors. Geo. A. Cox will be a strong man, able to bring new business, of first-class judgment, and competent to render still further service to the concern. Mr. Darling, the new president, is just entering on his prime, has made a success of everything that he has set his hand to, and his hands have been full for the past fifteen years. He is in touch with the business and the business wants of the day, and instead of his active connection with mercantile pursuits being against him it is one of the very reasons why he should be in the president's chair. He has the pyrotechnic display was a very creditable affair. The pieces presented were "Welcome to K. of P." "Supreme Lodge, K. of P., Toronto, '86," "U. R., F. C. B., K. P." and "Good Night" besides a large number of skyrockets and other fireworks which added to the brilliant effect. Returning home the crowd was in the best of spirits. As the gates were closed to keep back the tired and surging throng many jokes were perpetrated which created a hearty laugh. Such banter as "Hello Reddy, what are you in for. I did not think you would come to disgrace us by getting locked up," was hurled at the discomfited excursionists who failed to pass the gate. All things considered the trip was an enjoyable success.

The Supreme Prelate at Home.

Supreme Prelate Dr. J. S. King held an At Home from 1.30 until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, 232 Sherbourne-street. The grounds and house were handsomely decorated. Many of the Knights and also prominent citizens paid the doctor a visit. They were well received and hospitably entertained. This burgh was represented by Lieut.-Gov. Robinson, Ald. Defoe, Ald. Steiner, Ald. Maughan, Ald. Roaf, Lt.-Col. G. T. Denison, Rev. Dr. Wild, Rev. G. M. Milligan, Rev. H. P. Hobson, Rev. Hilary Bygrave, Dr. Chas. O'Reilly, Dr. Canniff, Dr. W. T. O'Reilly, and others. Pythian Paragraphs.

Loving mothers wheeled their baby carriages through the crowds, just as usual.

Very little business was done after 3 o'clock. No one could afford to miss the procession.

The crowds at the procession and during the day were singularly good-natured and orderly.

For some unknown reason the non-uniformed divisions did not take part in the procession as expected.

Bandmaster Toulmin, of the Royal Grens claims that his band was the cleanest and best dressed in the procession.

"Do you know where I can get a hotel that is not full, or a good boarding-house?" was the query yesterday.

There were twenty-six mounted aides in Major-General Carnahan's staff. Twelve were unable to obtain horses.

The American screw steamer Cyclone arrived from Cleveland yesterday with 65 passengers, chiefly Knights of Pythias.

Business people are wondering what they will do with all their American money. Advice—pay it into The World in subscriptions.

The procession started out in column of four and retained that formation until they reached King-street, when they went into division line.

All the stores on King and Yonge streets should light the gas in their front windows during the evenings of this week. Two or three leading houses have set the example.

Members of the Supreme Lodge have received tickets admitting them to all entertainments under the auspices of the Knights, and passing them to the Island.

The clouds, which had been gathering early in the evening, broke into rain about 12.30 this morning, and it was still raining at 4 o'clock, with every prospect of showering all day.

Major-General Carnahan and staff were entertained by Chief of Police Draper at his residence after the procession. The officers speak very highly of the Toronto police force.

Acting Mayor Defoe respectfully requests storekeepers to hang up their shutters this afternoon and give themselves and employes opportunity to go up to the Exhibition Grounds and see the drill competition.

Advertising vans followed the procession and were quite amusing. One was a stuffed horse with a colored boy on top displaying a set of harness. Another was an imitation Shanghai rooster which the Zoo imported from New York.

At a procession the sight of a policeman's coat usually strikes terror to the heart of the unlooking civilian. Duty must be done no matter how disagreeable, but please, Mr. Policeman, don't shove us around so.

Hundreds of people attended the service at St. James' Cathedral for the purpose of seeing the Supreme Lodge officers, but as those gentleman had more important business on hand these hundreds were disappointed.

A pedestrian dropped into The World last night to tell the staff what he considered a huge joke. "Say," said he, addressing the baseball man, "a fellow from Missouri stopped me on the street and wanted to know if the Queen lived here. What do you think of that, eh?" And he went away to tell someone else.

—Here are a few of a good many figures submitted by Dr. King and Chancellor Van Valkenburg in their speeches at the rink last night. In the 22 years of its existence the order has reached a membership of 180,000. It has 2600 castle halls, 151 divisions, 24 jurisdictions, and 100 sections in the endowment rank.

Ald. J. M. Cameron, of Cincinnati, a member of Damon Division, No. 83, of that city, occupied a prominent place at the head of the table at the Board of Works Committee meeting yesterday. CONTRACTORS TO BE HURRIED UP.

The City Engineer Reports on the Tannery Hollow Break.

The Board of Works met yesterday, present: Chairman Carlyle, Ald. Turner, John Woods, Allan, Crocker, Steiner, Shaw.

On motion of Ald. Turner, a sub-committee consisting of Ald. Jones, Baxter, Crocker, the chairman and the mover was appointed to consider the desirability of adopting the local improvement system in its entirety as far as relates to all streets and sidewalks. Ald. Turner got through another motion to the effect that the engineer be instructed to enforce all contracts for work on which contractors are proceeding at a slower rate than specifications call for. Ald. Shaw moved that since Contractor West had been allowed three weeks to finish the Boswell-avenue pavement and had failed to complete the work in that time $10 a day for overtime be deducted from his account. The motion was lost.

The engineer reported that he had arranged for the removal of the debris from the site of the Tannery Hollow retention wall preparatory to its reconstruction, and that the work would be proceeded with at once if the council thought it advisable. He recommended lining and extending the present culvert at a cost of $2464. On motion of Ald. Shaw the matter was referred to a sub-committee.

The engineer recommended the construction of sewers on Adelaide-street from Portland-street to Bathurst-street; Christopher-street from Centre-street to Chestnut-street; Nassau-street from Augusta-avenue to Bellevue-avenue; Renfrew-lane from St. Patrick's Square to McCaul-street; Taylor-street from Sumach-street to River-street; the construction of a block pavement on Huron-street from College-avenue to Grange-avenue; and the extension of Tate-street from its present western limit to Cherry-street.

About Parks and Drives—A Preliminary Meeting.

A preliminary meeting of citizens who take an interest in the getting up of a system of parks and drives for Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Osler & Hammond. In the course of the discussion, which was entirely informal and conversational, two rather opposing views were brought out. Mr. John Hallam, who has put himself in the front of the movement, stated his views. He looks forward to the time, which he hopes is not far distant, when Toronto will have its series of parks—east, west and north—all connected by a chain of magnificent drives. But he thinks it best to make a beginning with the Rosedale ravines, where there is scenery of great natural beauty, and where, as he believes, the proprietors will not only give the right of way free, but will also, along with other citizens, subscribe something like $50,000 in cash towards the cost of the undertaking. Others think that the better plan is, with competent professional advice for guidance, to lay down at once a complete system of parks and drives around the city, estimate the cost, and then ask the citizens to vote what is necessary. This latter is the plan favored by Mr. Gordon Brown, who has explained his views in several letters already published in the city papers. Mr. Brown, who was among those present, reiterated his conviction that no half measure could be successful, and advocated the submission of a complete scheme to the citizens all at once. Mr. Osler and Mr. Chapman were entirely in favor of Mr. Hallam's plan. Hon. G. W. Allan thought that the plan still required a good deal of explanation. At last Mr. Hallam was asked to take the chair, when the ball was moved by Mr. Osler, seconded by Mr. Chapman, and resolved nem con., that the following be a committee, with power to add to their number, to obtain plans and estimates, and to report to a future meeting, viz.:

Messrs. John Hallam, Sheriff Jarvis, Geo. Gooderham, Wm. Christie, Mark Irish, Edward Gurney, Barlow Cumberland, W. D. Matthews, W. B. Hamilton and Dr. Morton.

Mr. Hallam feels quite confident that free right of way through the three ravines can be obtained, and $50,000 besides by private subscription. The land would be deeded to the city, and the money handed over, on undertaking by the city to complete the work. And he thinks that it need not take many months to have the work finished.

Irish Tithes.

Editor World: In reply to a correspondent in Saturday's issue you state that the Disestablishment Act of 1869 abolished tithes in Ireland altogether. This is not exactly correct. The act of 1869 made no difference whatever in this respect to the Irish tenant farmer. He still pays his tithe, or more properly rent charge, to the landlord as before. The landlord deducts 25 per cent. for collecting and pays the balance to the Irish land commissioners instead of the Irish church officials as formerly. Every owner, however, is permitted to purchase the interest if it may be so called of the land commissioners at 22½ years purchase, but comparatively few have done so. IRISHMAN.
