VI. And be it Ordained, That at the expiration of the Fishing Season, annually, the Directors of the Fisheries shall order the stakes, stones, and kellogs to which the said Fishing Nets shall have been affixed, to be removed and taken away to some place above high water mark, by the respective owners or persons fishing with such nets, and if any person or persons who shall have fished with such nets respectively, shall neglect and refuse to remove and take away as aforesaid, such stakes, stones, and kellogs, when so ordered, every person so offending, shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of Five Pounds.

VIII. And be it Ordained, That if any Director shall refuse, neglect, or omit to insert in any Draft of the Fishery the name of any person entitled to a draft, if such person shall require the same, either personally or in writing, or by any agent, on any day within the time limited for that purpose in the notice of the Directors and at the place therein specified, between the hours of ten in the morning and four in the afternoon, provided such person so demanding the same, do pay or tender to the Director on whom such demand shall be made, One Shilling for inserting such name, the Director so refusing, neglecting, or omitting to comply therewith, shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay a fine of Forty Shillings, which sum, after the recovery thereof, shall be paid by the Chamberlain to the person whose names shall have been so omitted.

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (Free Church.)
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, (Liberal.)
AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory.)

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is at the same time equally attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer,) "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

and as none of it will remain unsold after the 1st May next, the prices at which it will be offered, will be such as will put competition at defiance.—They would particularly call the attention of the public to the Valuable selection of in Broad Cloth, Pilot, Beaver, Witney, Canada Lyons Cloth, Cassimere, Doeskins, Tweeds, &c.; and as they have always had the reputation of having the best selected and largest assortment of such articles in the City, (and this Autumn the Importation was unusually large,) they are now determined that it shall be sold the cheapest.

As every article will be sold at the same general low rate, it will be worth the attention of the Trade, as well as the Retail buyer, to give the Stock an inspection.

N. B.—As this Sale is really what it is represented to be, a clearing out Sale, no credit will be given. GILCHRIST & INCHES.
