BIG LEAGUERS AT HOME PARKS TODAY

Baseball Comes Into Its Own in New York.

Babe Ruth Makes a Record Home Run, But Pipp's Error Loses Game — Late News in Sport World.

(Canadian Press) New York, April 8.—Baseball came to its own here today, the fans being out to see their favorite teams in action. The Giants were hoping the weather would permit them to meet the Chicago White Sox at the Polo Grounds...

Brooklyn team continued their streak against the Yankees at Grand Central stadium by winning 4 to 3. Ruth led off with a home run, but a series of errors by the Yankees broke all records, but Wally Pipp committed an error the ninth that resulted in defeat for the team.

Carl Mays, who threw a ball over the stand when he was taken out of game in the south and who drew a $200 fine from Manager Huggins, was here yesterday. He was silent as his relations with the manager. Baltimore, April 8.—An X-ray picture taken yesterday showed that Max Baer's second baseman of the Baltimore Internationals, has a cracked toe and torn ligaments in his shoulder and probably will be out of the game for a month.

Cleveland, April 8.—The Cleveland Indians regulars are at Columbus, on the last day of their training season. They will play the Senators today and tomorrow. Cleveland is scheduled to play the Athletics and Uble tomorrow, each likely to use innings. Philadelphia, April 8.—Local baseball fans will have their first opportunity to judge the respective merits of the 22 candidates of the Philadelphia Nationals and Americans. They are to meet at Shibe Park this afternoon.

Pittsburgh, April 8.—Earl Hamilton pitched three innings yesterday against a Springfield, Mo., club. The veteran began his career at Springfield, did not allow a man to reach first base and the third inning retired the side on strikes. The game, seven innings, was won by the Pirates 2 to 1. Washington, April 8.—The Washington team will meet the Boston Braves here today. Maguire will start for Washington and probably Marquard for the Braves.

Detroit, April 8.—The Detroit Americans invaded Indianapolis today for games with the Hoosiers today and tomorrow. But for Mohardt's error in the sixth inning of yesterday's game at Memphis, the Tigers probably would have left the city with a 13 to 0 victory to their credit. The misplay paved the way for 'emph's single run. Pitcher Vines was an easy mark for the Tigers who registered 12 hits before Fowlkes went in to pitch. The latter held the major league record for one blow.

Detroit Claims Young. Detroit, April 8.—"Pep" Young, Detroit American infielder, has been claimed on waivers by the Philadelphia Athletics. Young is with the Tigers at Memphis, and it is expected he will immediately join Philadelphia. The local lead waivers on Young several days ago, when he again was in the line-up. His throwing that caused his removal from the line-up last year.

Technical Knockout. Grand Rapids, Mich., April 8.—Frustrated of Rochester, Minn., scored a technical knockout over Homer Smith of alamosa, Mich., in the seventh round of a scheduled ten no decision bout here tonight.

ENGLAND'S "MYSTERY TOWER" TO BE SCRAPPED

Known as the "mystery tower" of Shoreham, this huge structure was built during the war at a cost of more than $5,000,000, but it was never used. It is now to be scrapped. Its purpose has given rise to much speculation, but is a closely guarded secret of the British Admiralty. Its destruction will leave for salvage only a few steel girders.

IMPERIAL HOTEL PROPERTY SOLD

Successful Bidder was H. A. Powell, K.C., Acting on Behalf of Another—Business to Continue. The Imperial Hotel property in King Square was sold today at public auction under power of sale contained in an indenture of mortgage given by the King Square Realty Co., Ltd., the executors of the estate of the late James P. McInerney. The property which consists of the Imperial Hotel and a freehold lot, was knocked down to H. A. Powell, K.C., for $13,500. Mr. Powell said after the sale that he was acting on behalf of another man whose name he did not care to make public, but said that the new owner would continue the business as at present. F. L. Potts was auctioneer.

CANNOT BAR THE ORIENTALS

B. C. Act to Deny them Work on Government Contracts is Disallowed. Ottawa, April 8.—(Canadian Press.)—The governor-general has disallowed the act of the legislature of British Columbia, which prohibited the employment of orientals on government contracts in that province. The provincial government in the first instance prohibited the employment of Asiatics by order-in-council, and the legislature subsequently passed an act to validate the order-in-council. The constitutionality of the act was attacked in the courts, and the supreme court declared that it was ultra vires of the province. The act had accordingly been disallowed by the governor-general.

BOLSHEVIKI PUT PRELATES TO DEATH

London, April 8.—The Bolsheviks in Russia from 1919 to 1920 killed one metropolitan, five archbishops and sixteen bishops, of whom thirteen were shot and nine tortured to death, according to a telegram sent by Archbishop Anthony, metropolitan of Kiev, to the Archbishop of Canterbury, says the London Times.

ROYAL HONEYMOON DRAWS TO CLOSE

Paris, April 8.—Princess Mary and her husband, Viscount Lascelles, left Paris at noon for London after their honeymoon. They were accompanied to the station by the Earl and Countess of Granard, at whose home they stayed while here, and by the former Princess Patricia and her husband, Captain Ramsay.

NEW DEFENCE PLAN FOR AUSTRALIA PLANNED

London, April 7.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—The Melbourne Herald free press shadows the main features of the new Commonwealth defence scheme, says a Reuter despatch from Melbourne. There is to be a substantial reduction in the personnel of the permanent forces and maintenance of a compulsory service with a fifty per cent. reduction in existing units and a more intensive system of training.

SQUADRON BACK TO HALIFAX NEXT WEEK

Halifax, N. S., April 8.—The Canadian naval squadron, including the light cruiser Aurora, destroyers Patriot and Patricia, and submarines 14 and 15, is expected here at Halifax on Wednesday, after wintering in southern waters.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "you look quite perky this morning. Spring must be getting into your blood." "It is," said Hiram, "but what tickles me is what the farmers are going to get out of you folks here in town." "Haven't you been getting enough?" asked the reporter. "Even if we was," said Hiram, "we ain't lookin' no gift horse in the mouth." "It ain't the dark," said the reporter. "Well," said Hiram, "if a man comes up an' gives me more'n a thing's worth—I'm gonto accommodate him—ain't I?" "Has someone been doing that?" asked the reporter. "Not yet," said Hiram, "but if you fellows is goin' to pay twelve cents for four cent electricity us farmers 'll expect to get ninety cents for thirty cent eggs an' three dollars for dollar potatoes. You'll treat everybody alike—won't you?" "In the words of Mrs. Asquith—I wonder," said the reporter.

RALLY TO AID OF AGED ACTRESS

News of illness and want of Rose Coghlan brings Quick and Practical Result. New York, April 8.—News that Rose Coghlan, 71 year old comedy star was ill and almost penniless in her rooms yesterday brought an avalanche of friends to her aid. From Mrs. T. Dolphin of Alameda, Cal. came an offer of a big house, an automobile to ride in for the rest of her life. The actress has accepted an invitation to spend the summer in a big house on Long Island. Miss Coghlan received yesterday enclosed a $100 check from David Belasco. Another brought $225 from Carl Hunt, an old friend. A theatrical benefit is being planned.

PITTSBURG STEEL RAISES PRICE OF SOME PRODUCTS

Pittsburgh, April 8.—The Pittsburgh Steel Co. yesterday announced an advance of approximately 10 cents a hundred pounds in minimum prices on jobbers' carload lots on wire products, cast iron and steel. It was explained that the increase was ordered "to adjust harmonize" schedules.

FIREMAN KILLED, SECOND MAN IS BADLY SCALDED

Brandon, Man., April 8.—Alex Ross, fireman on the C. N. R., was killed, and F. Parsons was badly scalded in a wreck yesterday two miles west of Maryfield. The wreck was due to the sinking of the rails. Both are Brandon men. Ross leaves a wife and a daughter of three years.

IN PARLIAMENT

More Estimates Yesterday — House to Rise for Easter Recess on Tuesday Night.

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, April 8.—In the House of Commons Monday will be private members' day. There are a large number of resolutions and one or two bills on the order paper. If these are exhausted the government will resume in supply and the estimates of the department of agriculture will again be taken up. The Senate will not sit. Yesterday in the Commons motion for the adoption of the second report of the select committee on agriculture and colonization, which has the wheat problem before it, debated at length. The report proposes to ask the opinion of the supreme court on the re-establishment of the wheat board. An amendment moved by Hon. Arthur Meighen, referring the report to the committee for further consideration, carried. The committee was also given authority to inquire into the "voluntary pool" co-operation on the part of the producers. Premier King gave formal notice prior to placing under government orders a motion to ratify the treaty drawn up at the Washington conference. Third reading was given a bill creating the department of national defence and also to amend the salaries of the Senate and House of Commons act. A bill amending the penitentiaries act, making it necessary for prisoners suffering from infectious diseases to be treated in county jails before being sent to penitentiaries was given second reading and reported from committee.

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR ENDURANCE EVENT

Better Quality of Horses Expected in Three Hundred Mile Riding Test. Burlington, Vt., April 8.—The 300 mile endurance test for horses, which has been held every fall since 1918, will be entirely within the state of Vermont this year. This announcement was made on behalf of the board of sponsors. Last year the ride was from Camp Vail, N. J., to Washington, D. C., with the finish at Washington Monument. This year the riders will start from this city on Monday, October 16, and will end here on Friday evening, October 20. Details of the route to be followed will be arranged by the judges later. While there have been some changes in the rules they are in general the same as last year's. The horses will cover sixty miles a day for five consecutive days, each horse carrying a minimum weight of 225 pounds. This is 20 pounds less than was carried last year. Riders must cover the daily course in not less than nine hours and not more than eleven hours. Last year the maximum time was 12 hours.

MRS. EVA FOSTER IS FOUND DEAD IN BED

Father was Founder of Amherst Boot and Shoe Factory. Amherst, N. S., April 8.—Mrs. Eva Foster, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Pridie, the former of whom was founder of the Amherst Boot and Shoe Factory, was found dead in her bed this morning. Mrs. Foster had been suffering from heart trouble for some years, and it was due to this cause. She recently returned after an extended trip to Europe. She is survived by one son, Archie, and a daughter, Mrs. Frank Scott, who two years ago was overseas with a provincial newspaper party. Two brothers also survive her, William in Amherst and Harry in western Canada.

STUDENTS MAKE PROTEST RAIDS

Bishops College Youths Stone Residences in Objection to Principal's Resignation. Sherbrooke, Que., April 8.—Apparently displeased over the resignation of Rev. Dr. Bedford-Jones as principal of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, students made a series of raids at the college. They attacked the residence of the registrar, J. C. Stewart, and also that of the vice-president of the college, Prof. Robertson-Smith, doing considerable damage with stones.

MAN DRUGGED IN MONTREAL AND ABANDONED IN SNOW

Montreal, April 8.—A verdict of manslaughter was returned here yesterday in the case of Georges Bolvin, alias Baker, and Adrian, alias Georges Senecal, on a charge of murdering Ferdinand Paquette, lumberman, of Montebello, Que. Paquette had drunk beer containing a heavy dose of morphine, and was taken very ill on Dec. 1 last. Bolvin and Senecal took him away from the hotel where the drink was finished, and abandoned him in a dying condition at a deserted spot in the east end. The body was found there in the snow.

INTO THE WATERS TO GET THE BOTTLES

Ogdensburg, N. Y., April 8.—The sight of many partially filled bottles of Canadian whiskey and beer floating on the surface of Lake Champlain recently was more than a crowd of people at Rome's Point could stand. Many jumped into rowboats, while others did not hesitate in wading their feet in an attempt to salvage some of the liquor which was being destroyed by Customs officers, reports reaching here state. Customs officers who had broken down and thrown into the lake 3,500 bottles of liquor which had been seized were compelled to use force to keep the crowd back when it discovered that many of the bottles did not sink immediately.

MINERS TODAY GET MILLIONS

Last Pay Day While Strike is On.

Total of $80,000,000 Paid Out — Baxter Divulges News of Recent Resolution Aimed at Himself and Others in Cape Breton. (Canadian Press) Indianapolis, April 8.—Idle coal miners of the country starting today and continuing next week, receive their last pay estimated at $80,000,000 by union officials and regarded by them as a strike fund. The big wage distribution is for the final half of March—fifteen working days. This is the only big cash payment that will come during the suspension, the union was chest not permitting any general strike benefits. The miners' last pay is among the best sums received for several months. From both the union and operators sources here it was said that the miners would receive on the average of $50 to $60 each with some operators estimating as much as $75 a man.

CAMBRIDGE WINS RELAY RACE

Victory Over University of Pennsylvania and Oxford in Four Mile Contest. (Canadian Press) London, April 8.—Cambridge won the four-mile relay race at the Queen's Club here today. The University of Pennsylvania was second and Oxford third. The time was 18 minutes and 7.2-5 seconds. Cambridge was in the lead at the end of every mile of the race. The order of the runners at the end of the first mile was: Mountain, Cambridge; Hewelton, Oxford; Herr, Pennsylvania. At the end of the second mile, Pennsylvania was second and Oxford third, the runners in order being: Tatham, Cambridge; Kerr, Pennsylvania, and Weekly, Oxford. At the end of the third mile the teams were in the same order, the runners being: Seagrove, Cambridge; McLane, Pennsylvania, and Brunner, Oxford. At the end of the fourth mile, Stallard, Cambridge, led Brown of Pennsylvania, by seventy-five yards, while Brown led Milligan of Oxford by ten yards.

UNIONS ACCEPT THE PROPOSAL

Danish Workers to Resume on Monday, but Unskilled May Secede.

Copenhagen, April 8.—The Danish trades unions by a vote of 385 to 122 decided yesterday to accept the public mediator's compromise proposal, which had already been accepted by the employers, thus bringing the two months' lockout to an end. Work will be resumed on Monday. There is a possibility that unskilled labor may reject the terms of the compromise and secede from the central organization of trades unions.

NEW STATUE OF VIRGIN MARY FOR LORETTO

Rome April 8.—A new image of the Virgin Mary, made to replace one destroyed by fire about a year ago, in the celebrated holy house at Loretto, is to be conveyed to St. Peter's soon, to be blessed and crowned by the Pope. It will then be carried to Loretto by Italian aviators, whose patron is the Madonna of Loretto. The new statue is of cedar wood, as was the original, and is of similar proportions.
