—A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. S. M. Thomson, Dalhousie street, Brantford, the other day, when Miss Katie Cook, daughter of Mr. William Cook, of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Dunsdon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Hutchinson, pastor of Park Baptist Church. The bride was becomingly attired in traveling costume, and was attended by Miss Carrie Emslie, of Hamilton. Mr. Wm. Ferguson, of Brantford, supported the groom. A dainty dejeuner was served after the ceremony.

—Ingersoll Chronicle: "Evergreen Home, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Smith, of Mount Elgin, echoed with hymeneal gladness on Wednesday, it being the occasion of the marriage of their eldest daughter, Millie B., to Dr. H. A. Wilson, of London. The pleasing ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Collins, of Mount Elgin. Mr. Thos. Wilson, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Maud Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. At 4:30, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Annie Wilson, of London, sister of the groom, the contracting parties entered the parlor. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in a gown of white silk alpaca, trimmed with duchess satin and Valenciennes lace. She wore the usual tulle veil, fastened by lilies of the valley, and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. Miss Maude Smith, the bridesmaid, was becomingly attired in a gown of pale green organdie, and carried a choice bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony congratulations, the guests present, to the number of 90, partook of a delectable supper. The newly-wedded couple left on the evening train for London and other western points. After a short residence in Ontario, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson will move to Nebraska. Varied and costly were the wedding presents, among which was an elegant gold watch for the bride, the gift of her father. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful opal pearl ring."

WESTERN FRUIT PROSPECTS.

Government Inspector Fisher has returned to the east via Windsor, after an extended trip through the southern part of Essex county gathering data for an extensive report on the San Jose plague. He secured numerous specimens of this plague in its various stages. He reports the fruit trees to date as in an uninjured condition by the late frigid wave, noticing but a few trees that seemed to be affected, and he felt assured that if no further cold snaps came they will be all right.

FORMER LONDONER WEDS.

The St. Thomas Times thus chronicles the marriage of a former Londoner to an estimable young lady. Very many friends of the groom in this city will wish him and his helpmeet long life and much happiness in the new sphere upon which they have entered: "A quiet wedding took place in Trinity Church at 10 o'clock this morning when Mr. James S. Brierley, proprietor of the Journal and Montreal Herald, was united in marriage to Miss Alice Gossage, daughter of Col. B. W. Gossage, of this city. Rev. Canon Hill performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Brierley left on a wedding trip to Toronto. Miss Eleanor Brierley, sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor. The bride was becomingly attired and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of persons."

EXCITING PAPER CHASE.

The juniors of the Y. M. C. A. gave a paper chase yesterday afternoon. A finer day could not have been desired, and the boys entered into the sport with snap and vim, and report having enjoyed their run immensely. The hares were C. Williams and A. Treleaven. They started at 2:22 and arrived back at 2:59. The hounds finished in the following order: Gordon Butler, Percy Williams, Laurie Reynolds, Gus Schaef, Stuart Pavey, Fred Chapman, Charles Screaton, James Porteous, Geo. Walsh, John Ferguson, Allan Fisher, Harry Treleaven, Fred Jeffrey, J. Rodgers, C. Hutton, C. Swift and R. Spry. The route taken by the hares was Queen's avenue to Waterloo street, then south to King, through a lane to York, east to Colborne, down Colborne to Simcoe, up Simcoe to Maitland, then to Hill street, across the railroad track to Trafalgar, and William streets, down river bank to Wellington, and north to the association building. The start was made at 2:28 and the finish at 2:10. Gus Schaef acted as master of the hounds, and L. Reynolds and J. Ferguson as whips.

St. Andrew's Service of Praise.

A Delightful Concert and a Large Audience—Rev. Mr. Johnston "Gowned" by the Ladies.

St. Andrew's Church was so full last night that the ushers were looking for "Standing Room Only" signs to hang out in the vestibule. The display of Easter millinery, which is very flowery this year, gave the audience an imposing and picturesque appearance. Mr. Wheeler, the clever organist and choir master, is to be congratulated on the public appreciation and artistic merit of the anniversary praise service. He provided abundance of talent which was fully equal to the requirements of a well-selected programme. The church choir was present in full force, and distinguished itself in two anthems, Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Hartson taking the solo parts very creditably. The visiting artists made a favorable impression, and insured themselves a future welcome. Miss Florence Muir, of Port Huron, sang three numbers, and revealed a sweet, well-cultivated soprano voice. Her solo, "Rock of Ages" (Boex) was very sympathetically rendered. Miss Janet Grant, of Toronto, has a contralto of power and richness. All her numbers won well deserved applause. Mr. Alex. Gorrie, of Toronto, proved to be an admirable tenor, and sang with rare style and expression. Perhaps his most popular selection was the Scotch favorite, "Land of the Leal," which was given with much feeling and effect.

Mr. Wheeler himself made several delightful contributions to the programme, and showed a thorough mastery of the organ. Bach's "Prelude and Fugue" (C minor), which demanded great technical ability, was brilliantly executed, and displayed Mr. Wheeler's classical attainments. "The Scene Pastorale," a delightful descriptive composition, was given with poetic appreciation, and elicited the varied and magnificent effects of which the instrument is capable under a proper touch. Mr. Wheeler's other selections were airy and delicate, and were also interpreted with grace and skill.

The entire programme was as follows:

Part I.

Anthem—Down on the Hills Gently Falling ..... Sullivan-Hodges
The Choir—Solos by Mrs. C. E. Wheeler and Miss Hartson.
Organ—Prelude and Fugue (C Minor) ..... Bach
Mr. Charles E. Wheeler.
Aria—If With All Your Hearts (Elijah) ..... Mendelssohn
Mr. Alex. M. Gorrie.
Solo—Plains of Peace ..... Barnard
Miss Florence Muir.
Solo—The Better Land ..... Cowan
Miss Janet Grant.
Organ—Scene Pastorale (The Storm) .. E. M. Lott
Mr. Charles E. Wheeler.
Scotch song—The Land o' the Leal .. Lady Nairn
Mr. Alex. M. Gorrie.
Recit. and Aria—{Behold a Virgin / O, Thou That Tellest} (Messiah) ..... Handel
Miss Janet Grant.

Part II.

Solo—Rock of Ages ..... Boex
Miss Florence Muir.
Organ—(a) Gavot (12th Sonata), ... Padre Martini-Guilmant
(b) Elfentanz ..... Grieg
(c) The Answer ..... W. Wolstenholm
Mr. Charles E. Wheeler.
Solo—The Rowan Tree ..... Lady Nairn
Miss Janet Grant.
Hymn—Be Thou Near Me ..... New Hymnal
Mr. Alex. M. Gorrie.
Organ—Overture to Stradella ..... Flotow-Buck
Mr. Charles E. Wheeler.
[This overture is taken from Flotow's "Stradella," and is arranged for the organ by the eminent American organist, Dudley Buck.]
Anthem—There Is a Holy City ..... Shelley
The Choir—Solo and duet by Mrs. C. E. Wheeler and Miss Hartson.
Solo—Come Unto Me ..... Coenen
Miss Florence Muir.
Duet—Jesus, Lover of My Soul ..... Schnecker
Miss Grant and Mr. Gorrie.
Doxology.

During the intermission the ladies introduced a pleasant feature—the presentation of a pulpit gown to the pastor, Rev. Robert Johnston, and of three handsome pictures to his estimable wife. The spokesman was Rev. E. H. Sawer, of Westminster, who performed the duty with his usual geniality. Mrs. D. B. Dewar and Miss L. M. Fraser invested Mr. Johnston with the gown—a beautiful silk robe, which was very becoming to its good-looking wearer. Mr. Johnston expressed the thanks of himself and his wife, and hoped that the congregation would also let the robe of charity cover his shortcomings and failures. He commended the choir and other performers of the evening, and specially eulogized Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler for their indefatigable work in the musical portion of the church work.

MR. H. HANCOCK'S VICTORY

Over Kidney Disease, Won by the Help of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Galt, April 11.—The greatest "speech" delivered for many years, in Galt, was made recently by H. Hancock, Esq., proprietor of the fine hotel the Iroquois. It was short and pithy, and conveyed to every sufferer from kidney disease the glad news that they need suffer no longer.

Mr. Hancock's statement runs thus: "For over a year I suffered with terrible backaches. Nothing I used gave me the least relief till I began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used only a few boxes, but today every vestige of pain has vanished completely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only cure on earth for Kidney diseases.

The estimate of the number of tramps in the United States varies between thirty and sixty thousand.

How to Cure All Skin Diseases.

Simply apply Swayne's Ointment. No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose, etc., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any other remedies do me good.
