GRAIN AND FLOUR.

The local market has put in another day of quietude and there does not seem to be any indication of an improvement.

Wheat—Winter wheat offered freer and holders that would not sell a week ago are reported to have changed their views to-day; there has been a little nibbling from millers, but their wants appear to have been easily satisfied, odd cars of standard white selling north at 90c. Exporters are doing nothing. Manitoba wheat is dull and unsettled; No. 2 hard lying west changed hands at $1.06 and same price was wanted at the call board.

Oats—Quiet and firm; white lying east sold at 30c to 31c and north and west at 30c; mixed sold east at 30c.

Peas—Market quiet and prices steady; a round lot lying west changed hands at 59c to 60c and one car lying in the same direction sold at 58c.

Barley—Quiet and seemingly not so firm; a dozen cars of No. 3 extra sold north and west at 43c.

Millfeed—Bran dull and nominally unchanged; for shorts equal to $12 Toronto freights was bid.

Flour—Easier; two cars of straight roller were bought at $4.20, Toronto freights, in wood; extra found purchasers at $1.90, Toronto freights, and at $1.85 west, bags included in both instances.

CATTLE MARKET.

Market was generally dull. It was particularly so for all export stuff, latest cables being unsatisfactory. About 45 carloads offered, 40 of which were fresh. These included about 1000 cattle, 250 hogs, 25 calves and 150 sheep and lambs.

Cattle—Demand for exporters was next to nothing; a few extra good animals averaging 1400 pounds each sold at 4½c. The general run of cattle sold at 4c per lb. There was no material change in the price of butchers' cattle. Run was not large, but it was in excess of requirements. Moderately good cattle fetched 3½c to 3¾c per lb., while a few extra choice heifers found purchasers at a fraction or so more. Springers were in firm demand and nearly all were taken. The greater part sold at $30 to $40, while anything extra good fetched $50. Stockers were not wanted. A few bunches, weighing 1125 to 1175 lbs., were picked up for the stables at $37 to $44 per head. Two loads of bulls, averaging 950 to 1700 lbs. each, were bought at 2c to 3⅛c.

Hogs—Dull and easy; hogs weighing 160 to 220 lbs sold at $4 to $4.25 per cwt, while for one lot of 42 off the cars $4.30 was paid.

Sheep and Lambs—There was no demand for shipping sheep and they were easy at 3½c per lb; butchers' sold at $3.50 to $4.25 per head. Demand was poor for lambs and about 300 were left over; prices ranged from $3.25 to $3.80 per head.

Calves—Dull at $3 to $8 per head for animals ranging from 180 to 200 lbs live weight.
