PROGRESS IN THE LEAGUE MATTER

Bryan Treaties May Be The Basis

SOMETHING DEFINITE SOON

Apparently Intended to Internationalize Guardianship of Smaller Nations, With No Chance for Domination Over Them by Any One

Paris, Jan. 20.—(By the Associated Press).—As the peace congress supreme council resumed sittings today, marked progress was being made in a comparatively rapid plan for the formation of a league of nations and harmonizing them into a unity of ideas which can be taken up as a concrete proposition. Much headway was made last night at a conference at the Muret residence, attended by President Wilson, Lord Robert Cecil, Leon Bourgeois, the French proponent of a plan for such an organization, and General Jan Christian Smuts, who has formulated a plan for a league. Preliminary conversations over the structure of the league of nations are still in the stage of being discussed in notions of the supreme council, and are not technically before the peace congress as a whole, but the fact that the congress has advanced the question to the foremost place in its programme is taken to indicate that such progress is being made in the supreme council as to warrant expectation of a definite and somewhat detailed programme soon. If this programme, it is believed, will represent the common thought of the leaders of Great Britain, France and the United States, and therefore may furnish a starting point from which all the peace delegates may participate in the work. With discussions now past the point where it seems to be agreed there shall be no super-sovereignty nor a common police force, the question of whether a nation shall contribute force in carrying out the decisions of the league may be left to each nation individually in each instance. The general plan most talked about embodies an enlargement of the principles contained in the treaties negotiated by William Jennings Bryan. These provide for a delay of a year before declaring war and investigations of disputes by a special commission, and that no declaration of war shall be made thereafter without giving certain notice. Such a plan, current discussion in Paris brings out, is intended by those who favor it virtually to establish a concert of power among the principal nations for a preservation of world peace. This would be extended to what would be virtually a guardianship of the smaller nations, applying to them the principles which govern participation in the league by their greater sisters. By this plan it is apparently proposed to internationalize the guardianship of smaller nations, with the idea that there shall be no domination over them by one nation, economically or financially. Aside from the attention being paid to the Russian situation, the society of nations question is now in an advantageous position and steady development may be expected.

BAD BLOOD FATAL TO GOOD LOOKS

Easy Enough to Restore Both By A Simple Home Remedy That Costs But A Quarter

Bad looks and bad health go together. To look young, to be happy, to enjoy life, and be always at your best you must keep your blood pure, your liver active, your bowels well regulated. These are the prime essentials to a happy, really old age. If you want a positive guarantee of good health, you can easily find it in the regular use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which for forty years have been keeping thousands of people in the pink of condition. It's no experiment to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills as a regular round of life. They are composed of certain exact herbs that search out disease, regulate, tone and strengthen the system. If in need of better health, if lacking in strength, if subject to headaches, dizziness, constipation, lack of appetite, and indigestion, it's safe to say you will be cured quickest by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills, sold everywhere in 25c tins.

NEW JURISDICTION IF THE KAISER IS TO BE PUT ON TRIAL

Report of Two Eminent French Jurists

HIS RESPONSIBILITY

Letter in Which War of Terrorism Was Promoted Is Quoted—Unjust to Allow Him to Escape Responsibility for His Actions

Paris, Jan. 20.—Some points in a report to which Premier Clemenceau referred yesterday when he said he had consulted two eminent jurists on the penal responsibility of the former German emperor, were made public yesterday. The report was drawn up by Ferdinand Lacombe, dean of the Paris Law Faculty, and Dr. A. G. De Lapradelle, professor of rights of nations in the same faculty. The object of the inquiry was to investigate, from a purely juridical point of view, if the crimes committed by the German emperor, what tribunal should judge him and whether his extradition could be demanded. The authors of the report give a long argument against the bringing of the former emperor before a tribunal of common law, because his will commanded but his hand did not execute. They say that he was not the principal offender and that therefore he could be punished only as an accomplice. An international tribunal consequently must be found. They consider The Hague arbitration court founded at the 1899 conference incompetent to try the emperor, as the court was meant for cases where no penalty is to be applied. They argue that an entirely new jurisdiction must be created, which should be the first instrument of a league of nations and in which should appear exclusively the states which fought Germany.

The two French jurists prove that the extradition of the former German emperor ruler cannot be requested, as he is not a political refugee. The report says: "It is anti-juridical to assimilate war with conspiracy. Crimes of war are crimes of public law and international law, not political crimes." The authors of the report commence by establishing that no penalty is possible against a nation any more than against a company, but that the manager or director of a company can be punished. "The emperor in the first place," says the report, "as King of Prussia, is president of the confederation by virtue of a special law in which human will does not enter. The German government depends only on God and the sword. With such a conception of power it would be unjust to place the highest degree of responsibility on the emperor, which alone could allow the emperor to escape responsibility for his actions, his responsibility for the war, for which, under the constitution the decision belonged to him alone, his responsibility for violation of Belgian neutrality, which was willed by him; responsibility for acts of terrorism by his troops, which he willed and ordered."

The report quotes a letter from the former emperor to the Emperor of Austria in the early days of the war in which the German emperor wrote: "My soul is torn asunder, but everything must be put to fire and blood. The throats of men and women, children and the aged, must be cut and not a tree nor a house left standing. With such methods of terror, which alone can strike so degenerate a people as the French, the war will finish before two months, while if I use humanitarian methods it may prolong it for years. De-

The big dinner was at twelve noon and in our mess we had dinner at two p. m. We had a large room and the table ran the full length of it. We had everything that was required to make a dinner successful. On the menu there was turkey with apple sauce and all the things that go with it. Then followed plum pudding and other deserts and we even had speeches, songs and toasts afterwards, and it was all a howling success from beginning to end. "I have not received any of my parcels from you yet, but they will be good when they get here. I hope you all had them with all they could hold.
