BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, July 8—A very delightful outing was enjoyed last Friday by a party of young ladies, who motored to St. Andrews. There were four cars. Miss Gladys Blair with four young ladies in her car, Miss Mildred Todd with six guests, Miss Doris Clarke with five young friends, and Miss Marjorie Baskin with four ladies. On their arrival they motored to the Pentlebury light, where a dainty luncheon was enjoyed on the sandy beach near the lighthouse. Afterwards they motored about town called on mutual friends, and it was not until late in the evening they arrived home safely, having enjoyed a most delightful day.

On Monday Miss Gladys Blair with Misses Marion Murray, Violet Perry and Mr. Rupert Perry as her guests, motored to St. George to visit her friend, Mrs. Thomas R. Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Scovil, of St. John, have secured a pleasant cottage at Birch Glen, near the Ledge, some four miles from town, and are already installed there for the summer, where they make numerous friends who visit them most welcome.

A very happy event which occurred last Saturday was the reception and tea given by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Black to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. Black came here from Sydney (C. B.) only last autumn, but have made many friends since their residence here. A number of ladies presented Mrs. Black with a dainty 5 o'clock tea set in gold and white china, as a souvenir of the occasion that comes to so few. Dainty refreshments were served to those who called, and at 7 o'clock high tea was served to the invited guests. Fifty years ago, when Mr. and Mrs. Black were married, they came from St. John to Calais on a wedding trip. It was the celebration of the Fourth of July, and with their friends they walked about the city to see the sights. On Saturday evening, accompanied by friends, they went to Calais and walked about in the same way as they did fifty years ago. Not so alert and youthful, perhaps, but quite as happy, and enjoying the pleasure of the celebration as in the old days. Most hearty and sincere congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Black on their golden wedding by friends both in St. Stephen and Calais.
