SOLDIERS SENT TO FRONT LINES FOR VOTING AS LIBERALS

W. T. R. Preston Declares He Has Proof of the Outrage.

AFFIDAVITS UNANSWERED

Election Overseas Was the World's Worst Piece of Rascality.

TORONTO, June 26.—W. T. R. Preston, addressing the Ontario Liberal Convention today, said in all the history of the world there never was such rascality as that which was performed in the election overseas.

He said much had been said of the war times election act, but, so far as the soldiers were concerned, it was not the act but the administration of it which was dishonest.

"There are soldiers lying today in Flanders fields for no other reason than that they voted for the Liberal party. I am prepared to prove that before any royal comission. Fifteen men of a forestry battalion were threatened if they did not vote for the Government they would be sent to the front line trenches. Fifteen were marched off for that.

"You may believe or not, as you like, I have evidence. I would not have believed it unless I had evidence of a dozen cases. To this day the Government has not attempted to answer the affidavits of these men.

"Do you know that when the cry was made in Canada that there were no reinforcements in England, 20,000 Canadian troops were rehearsing the battle of Vimy Ridge on the Surrey Hills for the benefit of a London cimetograph company?"

"ALMOST MARRIED," GRAND FEATURE FILM, DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

May Allison's Latest Success a Summer Headliner That Proves Real Treat.

"Almost Married," May Allison's latest success, is an irresistible combination of love and laughter; it is a comedy romance, breezy and light in theme, just the sort of picture to appeal strongly to theatre-goers in warm weather. Miss Allison's role in this picture is widely different from anything that she has done in the past. She plays the part of a Swiss mountain girl, whose golden voice brings her to New York and fame. Her characterization of this appealing beauty is distinctive and brilliant. Among the many interesting scenes is a reproduction of the Midnight Revue in which the original cast of the show appears.

Situations that, to say the least, are amusing, are many in this excellent photoplay. Evidence that London's movie fans appreciate a good picture, and will turn out to one like this, even in the heat, was shown by the capacity houses that greeted both performances on Thursday. In Detroit, it was the feature in several theatres, recently. In short, you cannot afford to miss seeing pretty Miss Allison in "Almost Married."

Francis and Alexander, two charming young misses who present an offering entitled "1776 to 1920," made a decided hit. This song and story revue consists of a program of exclusive song numbers written especially for it. Included in the act is some bright patter and a little travesty and dance. Rounds of applause and many well-deserved encores and curtain calls greeted this clever duet. As an added attraction the Grand orchestra gave an overture.

Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran in "The Expert Eloper," kept the house in an uproar of laughter. The more conservative patrons who generally crack a smile were forced to hold their sides.

"Seeing Canada," a Canadian scenic film with Lake Louise and other beauty spots in the Canadian Rockies as "location," completes this extraordinary performance which is sure to draw crowds to the box-office.

MILITARY PATIENTS PROTEST AGAINST INSTITUTION ORDER

Which States That They Can Wear Civies Only When Out on Pass.

Methods employed by the officials of Byron Sanatorium once more have aroused the military patients to rebel. On Wednesday morning an order was issued, according to patients, to the effect that all military patients, of whom there are about 200 in the institution, were no longer to wear civilian clothes except when out on pass, which, they say, is about four days in the month. Everyone, it stated, was to report to the quartermaster's stores for suits of "blues." As these clothes are much heavier than "civvies," the man say that they refused to go to the orderly-room. A military policeman asked the men to go, but they still stood firm.

Thinking to bring the men to time, passes which they applied for, were not granted, state the men. One soldier, whose home is out of town, had arranged, several days before the trouble broke out, to go home. His pass had been "O. K'd" by one of the doctors, and soon after the order was issued, he went to get his pass, according to his story. It was refused him, as also was his voucher to obtain his railway ticket at half fare. He has not had a pass since coming to the sanatorium five months ago, and thought that he should be given some consideration.

While away from the institution, he requires treatment, and was to have been given a letter to officials of the sanatorium in the city to which he was going. This was withheld also.

As it was imperative that he go home, he left without a pass, resolved to take the consequences when he returns. If he does not get treatment it will mean that his condition will become worse, requiring a longer stay at the sanatorium.

Soldiers going to Springbank would have to wear the blue suits, which, they say, look far from dressy, appearing more like pyjamas than anything else. They are resolved to continue their fight against the order which they think is a foolish one. In the winter, they would not object to wearing them, but will not do so in this weather.

In an effort to corroborate the story, The Advertiser called the Sanatorium but was told Dr. Bell, the superintendent was away and was referred to Major Chesham of the S. P. R. commission, Royal Bank building. It was impossible to reach the major in time for this edition of The Advertiser.

MANENTI ARRESTED IN HAMILTON FOR POLICE HERE ON SERIOUS CHARGE

After more than a month's search instituted by city detectives, Joseph Manenti, 26, an Italian, and former resident of this city, was arrested on Thursday evening in Hamilton on the instruction of the police here, and is held at the Carling street station to appear in police court tomorrow on a charge of having forged American bank notes in his possession while he was in this city last month.

In connection with the charge against Manenti, Lebert Kresella, 19, also an Italian, arrested on May 26, on a similar charge and bailed to appear on June 30, will be tried after his evidence in conjunction with Manenti's is heard by the magistrate.

Tecumseh Ave. Mothers' Club Closes Its Season

Tecumseh Avenue Mothers' Club held its closing meeting of the year at the school Thursday evening, there being a good attendance.

The meeting was a social one for members and friends, and an excellent program was given. An orchestra gave several selection in good style and received a hearty encore each time. The following took part in the program, all receiving encores: Readings, Miss Higman and Miss Perkins; solos, Miss Dann and Mrs. Parker, Mr. Sheiggs and Master Freddie Smith.

At the close of the meeting, the retiring president, Mrs. T. Lowes, was presented with a handsome hand-painted toilet set, Mrs. Knowles making the presentation and Mrs. Shur reading the address. Ice cream and cake were served.

MOVE TO GET

cally for the motion. Ald. O. G. Keene is in favor of it provided he can see his way to compelling the railway company to live up to its agreement. Ald. F. E. Harley is in favor of granting the increase before a vote is taken only on condition that the company will grant a better service than that called for under the present agreement.

That makes four certain and two possible supporters of Ald. Wilson's motion.

Against the Plan.

On the other side, Ald. L. S. Holmes, who could not be reached today, committed himself so emphatically yesterday to support of No. 1 committee's recommendation that a change of view is out of the question. Aldermen C. G. Moorhead, F. R. Watkinson, S. R. Manness, O. I. Cunningham and E. R. Seabrook this morning all declared positively that they would oppose Ald. Wilson's motion.

The votes of these six aldermen, therefore, will undoubtedly be cost against the resolution.

Mayor Against It.

If Aldermen Keene and Harley can be satisfied that their respective conditions will be fulfilled, and if on that assumption they line up as supporters of Ald. Wilson, the vote in the council, presupposing that all the members will be in their places, will be a tie, and the mayor will be called upon to cast the deciding vote. As already indicated, his stand will tip the balance against the resolution.

Another Problem.

Whether No. 1 committee's recommendation to hold an election will carry remains a moot question. Presumably it will not have the support of the aldermen who favor Ald. Wilson's proposal, and of those opposed to the increase resolution, not all are decisively in favor of taking a vote. Ald. Manness, for instance, believes that such a course is a waste of time, and he will not support it. Ald. Seabrook and Ald. Cunningham were both in favor of granting increases until the solicitor declared such a course was illegal. The former stated that he had taken a vote among the 350 employees of two factories, including 150 of his own men, and had found that practically they were unanimous in their opposition to fare increases.

DEATH OF M. CARAVELLA.

The death of Michael Caravella, a young London merchant, occurred yesterday, in his 36th year. M. Caravella, prior to his fatal illness, conducted a tailoring establishment on Park avenue, and resided in this city all his life. In addition to his mother, he is survived by four brothers—Anthony of Brooklyn, N. Y., James of this city, Joseph of Toronto and Philip of Pittsburg, and three sisters—Mrs. R. Burgess and Mrs. C. Burgess, both of Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Angela at home.

The funeral will be held from the family residence, 344 Dundas street, on Saturday morning, at 8:30 o'clock, to St. Peter's Cathedral, where requiem high mass will be sung at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made at St. Peter's Cemetery.

FUNERAL AT PETROLEA.

The funeral of Amy Barnes, wife of A. F. Barnes, 14 Hyatt street, who died on Thursday, will be held from the family residence on Saturday at 11:30 a.m. The service will be conducted at 11 o'clock. Interment will be made at Petrolea.
