Business Notice.

The ADVANCE office is open for business from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m. every week day

It is not open for delivery of papers in the evening. Town and local country subscribers will, therefore, please call for their papers at the delivery window before 6 p. m.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The insertion of advertisements can only be insured each week by their reaching the office before 6 p. m. on Tuesdays.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

ROYAL ARCANUM on Friday evening.

THE RINK.—The Paulsens on Saturday evening.

PRINTS.—One thousand yards of Prints are offered for sale by Mr. F. W. Russell, of Black Brook.

GO EARLY to Chatham Skating Rink on Saturday night.

BAY DU VIN entertainment notes and some correspondence crowded out—will appear next week.

PERSONAL.—Robt. Marshall, Esq., of St John, is spending a week or two in Chatham.

Mr. Alex. Marshall is recovering from the severe illness from which he has been suffering for several weeks. Mr. Marshall, however, is still quite ill.

THE RINK BAND and the Paulsens on Saturday evening.

BAND NIGHT at the Rink will be this evening, instead of Friday evening, owing to the Band having leave to play at the Temperance Sociable to-morrow evening. The Rink will, however, be open for skating on Friday and also for a portion, at least, of Saturday. It may be found necessary to close it on Saturday afternoon to prepare the ice for the evening. The World was in error yesterday when it stated the Rink would be closed on Friday.

SPECTATORS will be allowed to skate at the Chatham Rink on Saturday night between the appearances on the ice of the Paulsen Brothers.

AQUATIC.—The Ross-Nagle crew of Cardeton, intend to visit Boston the coming summer. It is expected that matches will be arranged between them and a crew from Halifax. A North shore four which distinguished itself on Miramichi waters last year, is very likely to receive a challenge early in the season.—Freeman.

The Derby champions who did so well at the Miramichi Regatta last season, are having some sharp work arranged for them. There are just as good oarsmen on the Miramichi as can be found elsewhere, and the Derby four only need practice and training to enable them to give a good account of themselves, even against the crew referred to by our St. John contemporary.—Advocate.

TAKE YOUR SKATES to the Chatham Rink on Saturday evening.

CURLING.—The Chatham Club is to play four rinks against the Thistle and St. Andrew's Clubs at St. John on Monday next.

A St. John despatch of yesterday to the ADVANCE gives the following in reference to the matches in which the Newcastle curlers are engaged,—

"Yesterday the Thistle Club Curlers, St. John, defeated the Newcastle Curlers by aggregate scores of eighty against forty-four.

"The Newcastle Curlers were dined at Dufferin and, then, left for Fredericton. This forenoon the result of play was Fredericton, forty-four, Newcastle, twenty seven.

"This afternoon the game was resumed at half-past two, when Skips Allen and Rutter [illegible] R. A. and J. R. Lawlor, [illegible] adding three or four points to their majority score of the forenoon.

"To morrow Newcastle will play against St. Andrew's Club here."

TICKETS for the Paulsens' skating exhibition at Mackenzie's Drug Store. Secure them before going to the Rink and avoid delay at the door.

CORRECTION.—We published the following last week,—

We are credibly informed that Mr. James Wilson, who owns the property known as Wilson's Point, is soliciting signatures to a petition addressed to the Dominion Government, asking that the Dominion assist in a railway from the Valley Railway, unless it shall connect with the International at this, so called, Wilson's Point crossing, or in the Parish of Derby.

Our informant says two persons who professed to have seen the petition referred to informed him of it. We have not heard directly from Mr. Wilson on the subject, but have seen two gentlemen who were assured by him that the ADVANCE was in error, as he had not solicited signatures to any such petition as that referred to. Such being the case we accept Mr. Wilson's statement as correct and regret having published the paragraph quoted.

We understand that Mr. Wilson's petition was one relating to some shore rights in which he is interested, which was misinterpreted by some who saw it as one connected with the Railway.

THE PAULSEN BROTHERS are to appear at Chatham Skating Rink on Saturday evening next, 8th inst.

THE FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. JOHN BANNON, of Chatham, on Friday last was very largely attended, and notwithstanding the prevalence of the most severe snow storm of the season, a good many from Newcastle, Nelson, Douglastown and the surrounding country were present. While the funeral procession was progressing from Mr. Bannon's late residence to the pro-Cathedral the Office for the Dead (as in the Breviary) was solemnly chanted at the latter place by the reverend clergy, most of whom had come from various points to be present at the obsequies. After the arrival at the Church the Solemn Mass for the Dead was chanted, His Lordship the Bishop being celebrant; Rev. Stanislaus Doucet, Deacon; Rev. P. W. Dixon, Sub Deacon; Rev. Wm. Vardley, Asst. Priest, in cope; Rev. Mr. Joyner of the Cathedral, Master of Ceremonies. The other Priests present and students of the Bishop's house composed the sanctuary choir, while the Cathedral choir performed their part in their usual place in the gallery. At the end of Mass a very appropriate address was delivered by Rev. John Connolly, S. J., who had been a classmate, at the Theological Seminary, Montreal, of Rev. T. J. Bannon, son of the deceased, and of several others of the clergy present. The address being ended the Libra and concluding prayers of the funeral service were chanted, and the remains were then conveyed to the cemetery, followed by the large procession, and duly interred. Rev. T. J. and Rev. E. J. Bannon, sons of deceased, followed the body as chief mourners all through the funeral. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John Brown, D. Finn, John O'Keefe, B. Stapleton, John Harrington and Jas. Neilson.

Letter from Mr. Adams.

We cheerfully make room for the following letter from Councillor Adams:—

NORTHESK, FEB. 29TH, 1884.

DEAR SIR,—I was very much surprised to read in the last Advance what you say was a copy of a private letter sent to me in reply to the error I wrote you about, which appeared in your issue of the 21st.

I must say I never saw or received any such letter, and it has not come to hand. It is very strange that papers and letters sent from your office should be lost. I wish you would try to discover the cause, as there were other things sent private papers last a few months ago. I waited a week and failed to get an answer from you and your not complying with my request in your paper, I wrote to the Advocate, denying the statement. In reference to the notices—you met me on the street in Chatham and asked me if there were not to be a meeting held in Alnwick. I said that I had heard it and a party asked me to write notices. I made a copy and said I would write them out in the morning. Before they called I had left Neguac and they received no notices, and I did not know about the meeting until you spoke to me about it. This I can prove by Ex-[illegible] Sewert, Mr. Simpson and others.

In your statement about being a fine thing on Sunday. That is another error on your part, as I do not remember of his name being mentioned. In reference to my vote; I said as a representative of Northesk I dare not vote any other way on the interest of that Parish; personally, as a business man down river I would be very sorry to vote to prevent the road from being built, for if it was not built to do the greatest good to the greatest number of people, I wished to see it built anyway no matter where the terminus may be. I told you I did not wish to speak in the Alnwick meeting, and if I had to, I would oppose you. The reason I had was that I thought they could look after their own business, and undoubtedly they would if you and other parties from Chatham had not come down.

Mr. Martin was one of your supporters and he voted to have no meeting, and told you the reason he did not want a reporter from Chatham, that they could manage their own business. I felt very much annoyed about there being no meeting, as I like to see a fair open discussion, where parties will tell the honest truth and give arguments in support of facts. I consider your self and the other Chatham gentlemen present my personal friends and yet consider you as such, and I felt sorry to think you had gone to trouble expense, and a very unpleasant drive of twenty eight miles in a snow storm to attend a meeting that terminated in such a manner, and I can in all sincerity assure you I felt no more like joking than you did, when enjoying the beautiful scenery along the Neguac Road on your drive back to Chatham, after midnight in a snow storm. All the joke I saw in the matter was that drive. You say "I came to the ground between two stools" such I never tried. My course has always been straightforward and honorable, and I do not think I shall come to the ground unless I should somebody be so unfortunate as to get mixed up with your party.

As you saw fit to give me the first intimation of a private letter through the columns of the Advance, I hope you will kindly print this. I have no desire to get into a controversy with you. I just state those few facts and hope they will not mar our previous friendship.

I remain, yours truly,

A. ADAMS.

[The editor's letter to Mr. Adams was sent on 20th Feoruary, addressed "Anthony Adams, Esq., Newcastle," which is the address on his ADVANCE is directed to us.—We regret very much that he failed to receive it, though the fault is not that of the sender. The letter was not, strictly speaking, a private one. The editor marks all letters intended to be private, as such, although the one in question would not have been published but for Mr. Adams' charging the editor of the ADVANCE with suppressio veri, which rendered its publicity necessary as a matter of self-defence. The editor observes that Mr. Adams shares the apparent uneasiness, if not wrath manifested by some of his Neguac friends, on account of the presence at their meeting, of Mr. Smith and "the other Chatham gentleman," which is a matter of regret, as the question at issue was an important one, affecting not only Alnwick, but the whole County and province; and we are quite sure the ratepayers of Alnwick, as a body, are not in sympathy with those who seem to think they have no interests outside of Alnwick. That parish is in accord with the editor of the ADVANCE on the railway question, although a few quite respectable people there seem to enjoy setting at making him as uncomfortable as possible, now and then, for political reasons. That kind of thing however don't hurt the editor any more than it does good to his opponents—especially as most of them are merely working under directions or suggestions from a well known quarter.

Mr. Adams' version of his interview on the street in Chatham with the editor on the subject of the Alnwick meeting differs somewhat from that of Mr. Smith. If, however, Mr. A.'s memory is refreshed he will, no doubt, recall the fact that he was in great good humor over the prospects of the fun there was to be at the expense of the Alnwick Councillors—in engineering which fun he seemed to think he had, so far, been "the main John Glazier." What the real facts were could not affect the ADVANCE'S statement in reference to Mr. Adams' connection with the notices, etc., for they were founded on Mr. Adams' own words, and if these did not tally with the facts so much the worse for Mr. A.

Mr. Smith takes issue squarely with Mr. A. in reference to the latter's version of his position on the railway question. Mr. A. did not say, "if it was not built to go the greatest good to the greatest number of people he wished to see it built anyway, no matter where the terminus may be." His words were, "Of course, I know the terminus ought to be in Chatham to accommodate the large down river business."

As a well wisher of Mr. Adams, Mr. Smith does not desire to have that gentleman as one of a party in which he would consider membership a misfortune. If Mr. Adams is happy in his own party,—and we havn't the most remote idea of what kind of a party it is—let him stay there by all means. Consistency is an essential qualification in the party of which Mr. Smith is an humble member, and it is not, therefore, probable that Mr. A. would enjoy association with it. A man who has one set of opinions on public questions in Northesk, and an entirely different set in Alnwick and Chatham and gets mixed up when giving an account of what he has said in connection therewith, ought to be much happier and better satisfied with his party than his party with him.

Notwithstanding all which we hope Mr. Adams will continue to be as usual Mr. Smith's easy-going friend.—EDITOR.]
