Pair of Show Mares Bring Top Price $500 At the Repository

The attendance at Burns & Sheppard's Repository yesterday was away above the ordinary. In fact, seldom has there been a larger attendance. The galleries were all full, as well as the ring, and the result was an exceptionally good sale as far as selling the quantity, altho as Auctioneer Watson remarked this was bargain day, and certainly some of the horses sold looked as if they were exceptional bargains.

The best pair sold were a pair of bay mares of excellent conformation with the very best of feet and legs, style and action fit for any show ring. They were indeed a grand pair. They were bought by J. H. Gilmour, weighed over 3000, price $500.

Mr. Strowbridge of Brantford bought a number, and the prices seemed cheap: a good brown mare, $87.50; brown mare, $80. J. R.
