A cricket match was played here on Saturday between the junior lacrosse clubs of Listowel and Stratford. The latter club came out a head by 34 runs.

Auction sale bills printed neatly, cheaply and on short notice at this office. Parties favoring us with their orders will receive a free notice of sale in the Standard.

Hosiery.—Women's, Misses' and Pretty Children's Hosiery. A nice lot of new goods in this line. Come and see them, at John Riggs, successor to Roy & Riggs.—11.

Newry Station.—Mr. Jas. Irwin, furniture dealer, Newry Station, announces an auction sale of his entire stock of cabinet furniture, at his showrooms on Thursday, 23rd inst.

Tweeds! Tweeds!—A large stock of Fall and Winter Tweeds and Worsteds to choose from. Suits made to order, fit guaranteed, and very cheap, at Roy & McDonald's.

Hosiery.—Women's, Misses' and Pretty Children's Hosiery. A nice lot of new goods in this line. Come and see them, at John Riggs, successor to Roy & Riggs.—11.

Cheap Stores.—S. Bricker & Co. are running off their present stock of cooking, hall and parlor stoves at wholesale prices, in order to make room for their fall purchases. Great bargains given. Call early.—28.

A Fact.—Dr. Michener sells School Books as cheap as the cheapest—will not be undersold. A large stock of High and Public School text books and all school supplies on hand, and orders promptly filled.—33.

Accommodating.—The G. W. R. are constructing an additional siding along side of Mr. Gibbs' flouring mills. This will be a great convenience, as loading and unloading can be carried on between the cars and the mills direct. This is certainly obliging on the part of the Railway Company. The mills are now running to their full capacity, and will doubtless continue to do so throughout the season.

Messrs. J. M. & A. Climie have this week received two more large droves of cattle which they have purchased in the Northern Peninsula. They have now between 90 and 100 head in their feeding stalls.

Toronto Exhibition.—Before purchasing your tickets, remember the Great Western Railway Co. is the only line landing passengers free at the show grounds. Tickets at reduced rates for sale at Livingstone's Drug Store.—33b.

The Canadian Northwest is the title of a monthly magazine recently started in Selkirk, Manitoba. It promises to be a valuable source of information concerning that important part of the Dominion which its name includes. See advertisement.

Palmerston is considering the propriety of celebrating the opening of the Stratford & Huron Railway to that town. Our northern neighbors could not do better than be guided by the page of Listowel's history which the Telegraph reads to them this week.

Our townsman, Mr. Wm. Hess, is on a trip to Boston and New York this week, where he is combining business with pleasure. Messrs. Pinkerton, of Wallace, and Mr. Joseph Cousins and family, left here for Michigan this week. Tickets were procured at Livingstone's, town agency G. W. R.

Mr. Peter Knapp has sold out his boot and shoe store on Wallace street to Messrs. Karges Bros., who have opened out a fine assortment of this line of goods. Their announcement will be found in another column. Mr. Knapp purposes devoting his entire attention to his tannery business.

The Mornington Agricultural Society has become defunct. A Herald correspondent reports an imaginary inquest held on the "remains," the verdict of the jury being to the effect that death resulted from strangulation, and recommended that the nurses be indicted for manslaughter.

He Blew Out the Gas.—Listowel's prospective gas consumers, take warning. A case of quick death through the agency of gas occurred in Toronto a few days ago. Patrick Considine, an employee in the De La Salle Institute, blew out his gas before going to bed, and during the night was suffocated. He died Sunday afternoon.

Another "Live" Druggist.—Mr. Hacking wishes us to state that he has been supplying his customers during the past two years with King's Discovery and Golden Compound, and that he is selling the Electric Bitters at 40 cents per bottle. He asks us also to state that he has full lines of all the new remedies, at the lowest prices.—33.

The Mount Forest Horticultural Society's Fall Exhibition will be held on the 14th, 15th, 16th and 17th inst., and gives promise of being much in advance of former years. Hon. C. F. Fraser and Mr. Clarke, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, are expected to be present on the 15th. The committee have our thanks for complimentary badge.

Mr. C. N. Scott, late Superintendent of the P. D. & L. H. Ry., but who is now connected with the Northern Pacific Railway, has our thanks for copy of guide to the interesting region in which he is at present located—Washington Territory. We trust that friend Scott enjoys his new position, and that the Pacific slope breezes agree with him.

Dr. Michiner's book and drug store is the place to procure Wall Papers—sole agent in town for English Wall Papers, which are over 3 inches wider than the American Wall Papers, being a saving of one roll in every eight. Not "at and below cost," but cheaper than any other dealer in the town or county. Call and you will be convinced that you can get better value for your money than elsewhere.—33.

"The Crusader."—This is the title of a temperance paper which has been started in Stratford, under the editorship of Mr. S. Ranton. It is to be published monthly, at 50c. per annum. Its motto is, "Total abstinence for the individual; prohibition for the state." The Crusader contains a considerable amount of original and selected reading matter, and will no doubt find favor with the temperance people of the community.

Going to Gorrie.—Messrs. Bean & Gee, of this town, have decided to go to Gorrie, where we believe they purpose opening business in Leech's stand. While we regret the departure of two of our highly respected citizens, we can heartily congratulate the people of Gorrie and neighborhood upon gaining two upright business men, whom they will find both industrious and obliging, and worthy of their patronage.

Cattle Fair.—The cattle fair on Friday was a slight improvement on the preceding two or three fairs. Anything like marketable cattle found ready sale. From $20 to $30 was the range of prices for young cattle. The largest transaction that we heard of was the sale of 14 head of steers and heifers by Mr. Campbell from near Molesworth, to Mr. Small of Hamilton, for $25 per head, less $5 on the lot. We understand that a yoke of cattle was sold by Mr. Black of Moorefield for $100. A number of other sales were reported.

For the Northwest.—On Tuesday morning last, another large party left here to try their fortunes in the great Northwest. There were about thirty persons in all, including Mr. Jas. Warnock, of Molesworth; Alex. Hamilton and family, Elma; Mrs. Daniel Hamilton and family, Wallace; Mrs. Dunsmore and family, Listowel, and Mr. Joseph Bruce, Newry. They left by the early train in order to join Paterson's special excursion party at Paris. Jno. Living stone jr., provided them with through tickets to Winnipeg. We wish them all success in the new land which they purpose making their home.

Pushing Ahead.—A large gang of men, with the assistance of a train, are at work laying the rails on the line of the S. & H. Ry. The "diamond" at the G. W. R. crossing was set on Monday, and track laying commenced about 4 o'clock that day. By Tuesday evening the rails were laid about a mile out of town, and the work continues to be pushed on at a very rapid rate through the township of Wallace. It is expected that Palmerston will be reached some time next week. The semaphores have been erected, and the G. W. R. have placed a man at the crossing. A shanty is being built for his convenience at the intersection of the roads.

Garden Party.—A Garden Party and Conversazione will be given at the residence of John Campbell, Esq., under the auspices of the Church of England Young Men's Association, on Monday evening next, to commence at 7 o'clock. We are informed that it is the intention of the young men to make this a success, and that they are making every effort for that purpose. The grounds will be lit up so that croquet and other out-door amusements may be indulged by the lovers thereof. A Conversazione will also take place inside. A glance at the following programme will convince any one of the high order of talent secured for the occasion. Admission 25c. Refreshments will be served during the evening. We think that young men should be encouraged in works of this kind, and therefore bespeak for them a large attendance.

Musical Convention.—The Musical Convention which has been held in the Osborne hall during this week has been very successful. The sessions of the Convention have been largely attended, and those who have taken part in them speak very highly of the manner in which Mr. Sarvis has conducted the convention. That gentleman's thorough knowledge of music and the interest which he takes in training his class eminently fit him to conduct a convention such as the town has witnessed during the present week, and no doubt the musical portion of the community will be materially benefitted by the instruction which they have received. Should the public show their appreciation of the musical talent of our town by generously patronizing the concert given by the members of the convention on Thursday evening, we understand that another entertainment will be given by them this (Friday) evening.

Building operations in Listowel are somewhat lively just now. The brickwork of A. McDonald & Co.'s new block is about finished. The brick cornice which is being put on the front of this block sets it off finely. Messrs. Hay & Kidd's brick livery and Mr. Wm. McKeever's brick block are being pushed ahead rapidly. Mayor Scott's magnificent residence, which is one of the finest west of Toronto, is now nearly completed. He purposes moving into it next month. Rev. W. F. Clarke has purchased a property on Main street east, on which he is making extensive improvements. The Messrs. Hess Bros. have lately erected a large addition to their finishing rooms in order to accommodate their rapidly increasing business. At the present time this firm have in their employ in the neighborhood of 100 hands, and notwithstanding this force they have had to commence running overtime. Mr. Geo. Zilliax is making an extension to his store, having found his present quarters not sufficiently large for his business.

Lovell's Advanced Geography.—We have received a copy of this work from the publishers, Mr. John Lovell & Son, of Montreal, and we are sure the Canadian public will welcome this valuable addition to the list of authorized text books. The Advanced Geography is much ahead of any former publication of its kind, both as conveying a faithful epitomized knowledge of the present geographical and political divisions of the earth, and a much more accurate and comprehensive knowledge of the Dominion of Canada, and especially of that part of it to which the eyes of the old and new world are at present directed, than it was possible to gain from any previous text book. The work contains 45 colored maps, and over 200 illustrations; the letter-press is excellent and it is strongly bound. The arrangement of the text is brief yet comprehensive, and will be found such a ready source of information that it will be valuable as a work of reference as well as an educator. We look for its speedy introduction into our schools.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review justly rebukes the managers of educational affairs in that town, and contrasts their laxity with the public spiritedness of the Listowel High School Board. In alluding to the opening (?) of the fine Central School lately erected in Woodstock, it says: Most citizens will feel surprised that a building which has cost the town $20,000 and in which all citizens should feel a just pride, and taxpayers, especially, a peculiar interest, should be opened without the slightest demonstration or formality. Such buildings elsewhere are usually opened by the Minister of Education or some well known educationalist. Such an opening this week in Listowel was made the occasion of a large and important gathering, and has brought that progressive town prominently before the country. But our School Board is either too modest or too sleepy to make any parade about so small a matter as the opening of a new school building; and, consequently, Principal Dennis and his small band of Model School pupils were allowed, on Monday morning, to open the splendid building "in silence and alone."

Reaper Building in Listowel.—We had the pleasure on Monday last of being present at the testing of a new reaper built at the Listowel foundry. As a combination, the design and pattern have been got up at our local shop, so that the machine in toto is not a copy from any other, but in detail the different parts are all such as have been tested and found in the highest degree satisfactory. The first trial of the new machine was made on the farm of Mr. John McKeever, on the 3rd con. of Wallace, last week, and the start was made in the presence of a number of neighboring farmers, well able to judge of the points of a reaper, and who were all quite taken up with the new machine, and have no fears of it holding its own with anything they have seen in these parts. The builders wished, before the season was over, to particularly test it in the point of durability, and it has now been through enough of rough cutting to set that point at rest. Mr. McIlwraith intends to have it on exhibition at our local fall shows, where the agriculturalists of this section will have an opportunity of examining the improvements claimed for it.

Christ Church.—The improvement committee of Christ Church having succeeded in raising about sufficient funds, have let the contracts for making such repairs and improvements as have been deemed necessary. Mr. E. B. Sutherland has been engaged to do the carpenter work, including shingling; Mr. Jos. Purcell will do the plastering, and Mr. Wadsworth the painting, calcimining and papering. The lecterns, communion chairs and stalls for choir will be furnished by Messrs. Paterson, Woods & Co. In addition to these improvements, we believe it is the intention of the ladies of the Church to hold a Bazaar during the days of the Fall Exhibition in Listowel, the 29th and 30th Sept. and 1st Oct., the proceeds of the Bazaar to be applied in furnishing the Church with matting and such embellishments as will add materially to the appearance of the interior of the building. Rev. Mr. Bartlett and the members of his congregation have entered heartily into the work of carrying out these improvements, and when they are completed we have no doubt that Christ Church will be a very inviting place of worship.

The Canadian Monthly for September is a very readable number of this excellent magazine, as may be inferred from the following captions of its contents: Gordon's Mountain and Prairie, by Principal Grant, D. D., Kingston; Fourteen Years Ago, a poem, by Esperance; Going on an Excursion, by E. A. W.; The Asylums, Prisons, and Public Charities of Ontario, by Jno. W. Langmuir, Toronto; Per Totam Noctem, a poem, by Charles Ritchie, Montreal; Olympia Morata, by Fidelis, Kingston; Love in Absence, from the German of Goethe; Only a Letter, by F. Blake Crofton, B. A., Truro, N. S.; An Aril Dawn, a poem, by Kate Seymour McLean; University Training, by A. G., M. A., Toronto; The Toronto Girls' Coterie, No. III.; Morality and the Gospel Once More, by Frederick Stevenson, D. D., Montreal; To a Beautiful Girl, from Victor Hugo; A Legend of the Upper Ottawa; A Summer Night, by C. Pelham Mulvany; Cloud Bound, by M. Matthews, Toronto; It Might Have Been, a sonnet, by Sara Duncan, Strathroy; The Women of the North-West, by H. Rowan Maynard, Ottawa; The Castle by the Sea, from the German; Episodes of a Law Office, by a Toronto Practitioner; The Bennett Case, by N. Flood Davin, Toronto; The Heroism of La Petite Marie, by Blanche L. Macdonnel, Montreal; On a Little Oatmeal, by A. G., Toronto; Sonnet, by F. Henry Carter; Round the Table; Book Reviews; Bric-a-brac. Rose-Belford Publishing Company, Toronto.

Town Council.—Regular meeting held in Council Chamber on Monday evening, 6th inst. Present the Mayor, Reeve, and Councillors Nichol, Dillabough, Heppler, Freeman, Martinson, Binning and Bradley. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed. The following accounts were read and referred to Finance Committee: Dr. Nichol, expenses to Detroit, $17.29; Geo. Adam $12.33. Tenders for printing town By-laws were read from Innis & Davidson, Guelph, $70, or 65c per page; Ferguson & Elliott, $70. Mr. Binning directed the attention of the Council to clause 42 of the Rules of Council, which requires that "no motion to rescind a resolution entered upon the minutes shall be received or put, unless a notice of intention to introduce such motion to rescind shall have been made in writing at a previous meeting." He said that the proceedings were out of order. Mr. Hawkins had been awarded the contract for printing the By-laws at the last regular meeting, and the Council had since rescinded the resolution without giving due notice. He did not think that this was business. It looked as if the Council had taken the printing away from Mr. Hawkins just because it was he who had got it. Mayor Scott remarked that he would have preferred that the resolution had not been rescinded; it seemed to him regular to let the tender on that night; however, he thought the course taken by the Council quite legal; in any case the By-laws ought to be printed. Concerning the tenders before the Council, he thought that it would cost the Council more than $5 extra to have them printed out of town, owing to the expense of comparing proofs. It was moved by A. D. Freeman, seconded by Jacob Heppler, that Ferguson & Elliott's tender for printing By-laws, for the sum of $75, be accepted. Mr. Bradley said that the whole cry on the night that Mr. Hawkins' tender had been thrown overboard was to give it to the cheapest man; the Council were not carrying this out; he should vote against this resolution. The yeas and nays were then taken as follows: Yea—Nichol, Dillabough, Heppler, Freeman, Hay, T. E., and Martinson. Nay—Bradley and Binning. Mayor Scott introduced the question of lighting the town with gas, stating that a gas company had been formed in town, and that the company wished to ascertain to what extent the Council would patronize them, as that would likely determine whether the company would go on and construct their works. He understood that if the Council would decide upon lighting the town hall, and the streets to the extent of ten or a dozen lamp posts, with gas, the company would proceed with their works immediately. Dr. Nichol said that his support would depend upon the cost; he was aware that gas light was much preferable to light from coal oil, and he would be in favor of gas for lighting the town if it was nearly as cheap as coal oil. Reeve Hay—who with his brother W. G. Hay comprise the gas company—stated that he had been making extensive enquiries during the past few weeks in London and other places where gas was used. Most places paid a fixed price per post for gas. In Ingersoll, 30 posts were used, and the corporation paid $22.50 for each post. Woodstock had 36 or 37 posts, and the cost of each post was $23. In London the new company supplied the city with gas for $16.50 per post. In Stratford the measurement system was in vogue, and the cost per post was about $16 or $17. The cost per thousand feet of gas in each of the above places was as follows: Ingersoll, $3; Woodstock and Stratford, $2.50; London, $1. The company propose to charge $2.50 per thousand feet, which he thought would be very reasonable, considering the limited demand there would be for it, for a time at least. The gas would be manufactured from petroleum, which besides being cheaper, made a nicer light, had no smell, and was considered preferable to gas manufactured from coal. Should the town erect ten or twelve posts, the company would supply them with gas for about $20 per post. In answer to a question as to the difference between the cost of gas and coal oil for lighting streets he thought that the cost of the latter would be about $11 or $12 per post. The posts would be provided by the town, and would cost about $12 each. Mayor Scott stated that he had been making enquiries in Toronto and elsewhere, with a view to putting gas in his house, and had gone so far as to let the contract, at a cost of about $750; but had since abandoned his intention of putting in private gas, believing that a company might be formed. He had encouraged the Messrs Hay to go into it, and had agreed to put gas in his house and office, and in at least two stores. He was not interested in the company directly or indirectly, further than the extent of his patronage. He thought that it would be a great advantage to the town to have gas, and it would give it a better standing. He considered the company's offer very reasonable, and thought that the town should jump at it. Mr. Freeman was willing to encourage the company. He thought it would be better for the town to pay for the quantity of gas consumed than by a fixed rate, as a part of the time it would not be wanted. Mr. Binning thought there should be a full meeting to discuss this matter. He noticed that the prime mover of economy was not present, and that gentleman would no doubt wish to have something to say upon this question, which meant quite an expense to the town. The cost of lighting the streets with coal oil would be about $140 per annum; to light them with gas would cost nearly double. He had always been in favor of lighting the streets; but he thought the lighting should not be confined to the centre of the town. If those streets which were not centrally situated could not have gas they should be lighted with coal oil. After some further discussion, it was moved by H. Martinson, seconded by W. Bradley, that in case a gas company be established in Listowel, the town patronize said company to the extent of at least ten lamp posts and lighting the town hall—carried. It was moved by A. D. Freeman, seconded by W. Bradley, that a Committee, consisting of Dr. Nichol, J. Heppler, Dr. Dillabough, J. Binning and J. W. Scott, be appointed to procure ten gas lamp posts, and ten lamps suitable for the same, and that said Committee recommend where said posts shall be placed—carried. It was moved by Dr. Dillabough, seconded by Dr. Nichol, that the account of C. Hacking for $9 for railway ticket to Montreal, be paid—carried. It was moved by Dr. Dillabough, seconded by Jacob Heppler, that the pro rata assessment of Listowel, as part of the Listowel High School District, for High School building, be paid—carried. Mr. D. D. Campbell drew the attention of the Council to the damage done to shade trees along the public thoroughfares by the Telegraph Companies. It was decided to ascertain whether the Telegraph Companies had the right to mutilate any trees which happened to be in their way, and to take action accordingly. Council adjourned.

Doctors Gave Him Up.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"

"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters, and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die!"

"Well-a-day! If that is so, I will go this minute and get some for my poor George. I know hops are good.

The supposed murderer of the young woman on the Liverpool Road, near Annapolis, N. S., last Wednesday, has been arrested in the person of Jos. Thibaudeau, the keeper of the poor house in Digby county. The murdered girl has been identified as Charlotte Hill, an inmate of the poorhouse. Thibaudeau has been committed for trial.
