SALE OF BURNT TIMBER.

More of the Assets of the Province Turned into Cash—A Good Sale.

Hon. Mr. Hardy, Commissioner of Crown Lands, yesterday accepted tenders for the purchase of the large block of burnt timber limits recently burnt over and which had for that reason to be put on the market. What was calculated to make over 50,000,000 feet of lumber was sold to four firms, realizing $122,000, exclusive of the regular timber dues, which will have to be paid as well. The purchasers were: Hill & Booth, Pembroke, 30,000,000; R. Booth, Ottawa, 5,000,000; Moran & Co., Pembroke, 5,000,000, and Walters & Co., Lindsay, 11,000,000. Mr. Hardy stated that he was well satisfied with the prices obtained.

He Could Not Be Worked.

Editor World: Mr. Jennings was appointed City Engineer nearly two years ago. The change for the better which took place under his management was a revelation to the citizens of Toronto everywhere commented upon and considered as an important step in the right direction. It is true that mutterings were heard amongst the aldermen that they were not able to "get at" the engineer in the manner customary in past years, when the engineer's office swarmed with speculators, contractors and aldermen looking for jobs; but this was considered by the public generally as a hopeful sign. The malcontents in the council finally appear to have raised the question as to Mr. Jennings' authority to control the appointments and salaries of his own staff. This matter was, however, referred to the City Solicitor and an opinion given favorable to Mr. Jennings, who gave the aldermen plainly to understand that if the agreement under which he took the position of City Engineer was to be broken it would be simply looked upon, in effect, as a want of confidence. On this understanding the majority of the council deliberately passed a vote, which it was well understood would leave Mr. Jennings no alternative but to resign, although there is very little doubt that had an amicable and friendly adjustment of the matter been really desired there would have been no trouble in reaching such an agreement.

A labored attempt is now being made to justify the proceedings of the council, but it is more than ever plain to be seen—from a lengthy letter which appears in to-day's paper from Ald. Hallam—that the underlying cause of all the trouble has been the difficulty which the gang above mentioned found in "approaching" Mr. Jennings in the style which has so notoriously prevailed in past years, and that the salary question was simply a pretext to remove the difficulty. The idea of the City Council being seized with such a spasm of virtue that they must proceed in such an extraordinary manner to get rid of the best engineer which the city has ever had in order to maintain a "Great Principle" is simply ludicrous. Certain aldermen have simply been unable to bamboozle Mr. Jennings, and "that's what's the matter." H. P. DWIGHT.

Toronto, Oct. 12, 1891.

Hallam Re Jennings.

Editor World: In your Monday's issue you insert a long epistle from Ald. Hallam, in which he gives a rehash of the speech which he delivered before the Board of Trade meeting. But this aldermanic bantam throws no new light on the matter, unless he wants the public at large to know that he is chuck full of vanity and both insincere and untruthful. He states that Mr. Jennings would now be City Engineer if the meeting had allowed his so-called amendment to be carried as a motion moved by himself, but his vote at last Monday's council meeting re Jennings proved him insincere; and his assertion that the meeting yelled like madmen, as not a yell was uttered by any member, proves him untruthful, but stamping had to be resorted to to down this egotistical little alderman. Now bear in mind, Mr. Editor, I don't think Mr. Jennings an angel, by a long shot, but I do think Mr. Jennings to be an honest practical engineer, such as the City of Toronto requires.

A MEMBER OF THE B. OF TRADE.

Toronto, Oct. 16, 1891.

"Like Father Like Son."

Editor World: On the 6th inst. there appeared in The World a sensational paragraph under the above heading, reflecting most injuriously on Prince Albert Victor of Wales. I felt satisfied when I read it that time would show that the report had no foundation, and such has proved to be the case. Now, I have noticed not infrequently in our Canadian dailies paragraphs gathered from American sources reflecting on various members of the royal family, which have in almost every instance proved to be wholly false, and I do not hesitate to say that The World has been a marked offender in this respect. Why is this? Are Canadian newspapers so antagonistic to British connection that they deem it their duty to follow in the wake of American newsmongers whose mission it is to please the low foreign element in the United States by scattering broadcast all kinds of malevolent rumors respecting those whom as British subjects we should honor? And not only do our papers do this, but they endorse these lying reports and add to their malevolence by publishing sensational headings like the above, by which not only is the young Prince held up to odium, but his father is made the subject of vile insinuations and abuse.

All Canadian newspaper men, as well as others, seem to agree that O'Brien, the disreputable Montreal reporter, was properly brought to trial. Has the recent conduct of The World and other Toronto dailies been less worthy of condemnation? There is no way, even if you tried (which so far as I have noticed you have not done), to modify the effect of reports of this kind, and it is, therefore, the more necessary that the truth of such reports should be ascertained, or at least known to be probable, before a Canadian newspaper lends its potent aid to their dissemination. I believe The World is a paper open to conviction, and I therefore write this hoping that the publication of this letter may produce good results in reference to the matter complained of, not only in your own paper but in all others published in Canada, thus leaving it to foreign papers to disseminate their own untruths about our rulers, should they desire to do so. Let us never forget that we are British subjects as well as Canadian citizens, and let us prove by our conduct that we glory in both facts. OBSERVER.

Women Find Help

The Work of a Skilful Specialist and Surgeon.

"For six years I never knew what it was to feel well," said Miss Mary Holmes of 240 Spafford-street, Newburgh, Ohio. "During all these years the pain that I endured, language cannot describe. Repeatedly I prayed for death to cut short my physical agony, and as each month came my dread increased till my torture of mind was simply inexpressible. During all these years I treated with physician after physician of the various schools of medicine without help or hope until I placed myself in the hands of Dr. McCully. When he took my case so shattered were my nerves that on the slightest provocation fits of crying would come on that would continue at intervals for hours; my stomach often refused its food, my appetite was poor. I constantly bloated, which with costive bowels added to my ever recurring monthly agonies and from month to month I became more and more a confirmed invalid. In Dr. McCully's hands I at once began to improve; the first month there was a complete relaxation of pain, the bloating ceased, my bowels became regular and the change in my nervous system was equally marked. Three months' treatment cured me and I am now sound and well."

Here is one of the cases that it was proposed to cure by removal by operation of all the female organs; this is one of the cases we referred to in our last ad. in The Telegram and in Truth. Ignorance, hard cash and surgical glory—or death to the patient.

BUTTER AND EGGS.

The difficulty in getting good butter and fresh eggs in Toronto arises from the length of time it takes, under ordinary circumstances, for these articles to get from the farmer into the hands of the consumer. The farmer sells to the country trader, and after a stock accumulates he sells to the commission man. In time the consumer buys through the city grocer. Our plan is direct. We sell direct to farmers throughout the country and buy direct from them. The consumers get their butter and eggs direct from us. All who buy from us have been pleased. The goods are fresh and at the same time very reasonable in price. Ordinary dealers charge about 5 cents a pound more for a similar quality of butter than the prices we quote.

OWEN SOUND, May 6, 1891.

The Owen Electric Belt Co., Toronto:

GENTLEMEN.—Some weeks ago, on the advice of our doctor, after everything else failed, I procured one of your No. 4 Electric Belts for a very severe attack of lumbago and weak back. At the time I got the Belt I was so bad that I could not stand up without assistance, when sitting down and to get around was almost out of the question, so intense the pain. Now, after wearing the belt for a short time, the pains are all gone and I feel as smart and well as ever. I know that it was the Owen Belt that cured me and I have much pleasure in recommending it to the suffering. W. J. Lewis, Conductor, C.P.Ry.

TORONTO, July 2nd, 1891.

For over twenty years I had been a martyr to rheumatism, suffering at times the most excruciating pains, from which I could get but little relief, for doctors' medicines, pain killers, electric oils, etc., seemed to have no effect on me, and it was only when I got an Owen Belt that I realized what it was to be without pain for any length of time. I feel I am thoroughly and permanently cured and have been so for several months, for the Belt's action on me was most marvelous, removing the pain in a few days. I have been a resident of Toronto for thirty years and am well known. H. SCHMIDT, 82 Vanauley-street.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD

To show an Electric Belt where the current is under the control of the patient as completely as this. We can use the same belt on an infant that we would on a giant by simply reducing the number of cells. Other belts have been in the market for five or ten years longer, but to-day there are more Owen Belts manufactured and sold than all other makes combined, our Chicago factory alone being the largest of its kind in the world.

MR. J. C. PALMER, Proprietor of Palmer House and Kensington, King-st., Toronto, states: "I consider Anti-Dandruff the best preparation that is known for the removal of Dandruff. I also say it is a nice and clean preparation to use for hair-dressing; it is cooling, cleansing and stops falling of the hair."

We have evidence to prove that a few but only a small proportion of Druggists and Hair Dressers in Toronto have stated to our Patrons that they knew the formula of Anti-Dandruff!

And can furnish the same preparation at a Less Price. We simply place the matter before the public in a manner that cannot be mistaken. We challenge any person in either Canada or the United States to correctly reproduce this formula.
