THE FIRST INTENTION OF A HOME IS THAT IT BE "A GOOD PLACE TO LIVE IN."

It should express cheerfulness, restfulness and harmony. The production of this "atmosphere" in a home is not a matter of cost, but largely a matter of color and design in wall decoration.

At The Theaters

AT THE GRAND.

PRINCESS PATS WILL SEE FORMER COMRADES IN "BIFF, BING, BANG" AT THE GRAND TONIGHT.

Tonight is Princess Pat's Regimental night at the Grand Opera House, when the famous P. P. C. L. I. and its excellent band will attend to witness the second edition of "The Dumbells" in the musical extravaganza, "Biff, Bing, Bang."

"The Dumbells" open a week's engagement here with this evening's performance, with two popular matinees on Wednesday and one on Saturday. Among the players in this novel musical revue are several former members of the famous Pats. The performance tonight should play to capacity, as should every performance during the week. "The Dumbells" will put forth their best efforts to give the local members of the famous Princess Pats a veritable send-off, as the regiment will leave London Wednesday next for their permanent headquarters at Winnipeg.

Seats for all performances this week are now available at the theatre box-office, and in view of the reception accorded these soldier-actors in other cities this current season, those who are desirous of seeing "Biff, Bing, Bang" should make their reservations as early as possible, as the present sale points to capacity audiences at every performance.

"SAN TOY" COMING TO GRAND.

"San Toy," the brightest musical comedy gem in all the gay galaxy of old London Gaiety Theatre successes, will be the offering at the Grand for three days, October 4, 5, and 6, with special popular Wednesday matinee.

The 1920 revival is under the personal direction of the noted English manager, F. Stuart-Whyte, whose annual pantomime has become an important factor in the development of Canadian things theatrical.

In presenting "San Toy" to the Canadian people, Mr. Whyte spared no effort or expense to make it the outstanding feature of the present season, and has provided a cast and chorus chosen from the very best artists available in London.

In the matter of staging, both scenery and costumes, lighting and effects, everything that goes to make a super-perfect production, "San Toy" is supreme. Seats on sale Thursday, September 30, at 9 a.m.

AT THE ALLEN.

KATHERINE McDONALD, FAMOUS AMERICAN BEAUTY, IN SPARKLING ROMANCE OF OLD ENGLAND AND BRITTANY AT ALLEN.

Where there is light there are shadows; the brighter the light, the more intense and deep the shadows. Paris, the Mecca of the art students, the Babylon of pleasure-seekers, with its evenings of wine, women and song, forms an entrancing background for many of the scenes of Katherine MacDonald's new picture, "The Notorious Miss Lisle," the American beauty's most artistic production, which is showing at the Allen today, tomorrow and Wednesday.

The romance opens in Merrie England, among the society circles of the younger set, and it is from these that Miss Lisle flees to Paris and later to quaint old Brittany, after her participation in the sensational divorce case, which causes the tongues of the scandal-mongers to wag. The scenes of England and of the picturesque shores of Brittany are beautiful in the extreme; the settings of Paris, as lively as that so famous champagne which sparkles in the cafes and cabarets at night. The story abounds in thrilling and sensational situations, and has many sparkling humorous touches, which will help you to appreciate the emotional romance just that much more.

The overture by the famous Allen orchestra wll be "Mignon," from Thomas Opera; the comedy a laughable Christie production, and the always-interesting Allen News pictures, with the Will Rogers Digest and unique nature studies.

Don't forget this is special attraction week at the Allen, and save an evening or afternoon to see "Treasure Island" when it comes to the Grand Thursday, Friday and Satuday.

AT LOEW'S—PEARL WHITE FIRST IN NEW FOX STUDIO.

When the mammoth studio of Fox Film Corporation, the largest of its kind in the world, was opened on West 55th street, New York, the first star to make use of it was the famous Pearl White. The studio occupies an entire floor in the immense new Fox building, which has been described as "the film city, two minutes from Broadway."

Miss White was in the midst of staging the much-talked-of drama of the underworld, "The White Moll," from the pen of Frank L. Packard, author of "The Miracle Man," when the studio was opened. All her "sets" were moved and the finishing touches were given to the extraordinary production under the new roof.

The "White Moll," a special production, the scenario for which was written by E. Lloyd Sheldon, abounds intense situations and moments of supreme excitement. It is the feature photoplay attraction at Loew's for the next three days. Richard C. Travers is Miss White's leading man.

A Sunshine comedy, Loew's screen pictorial and Loew's supreme vaudeville completes the bill for the next three days.

HARRY CAREY TO BE SEEN IN VANLOAN FILM, "BLUE STREAK McCOY," AT THE PATRICIA THEATRE TODAY.

An appealing story of thrilling action, self-sacrifice and love, written by H. H. VanLoan, a prominent screen author, will be shown at the Patricia Theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday, when Harry Carey is presented in his latest Universal feature, "Blue Streak McCoy."

Job McCoy drifts into the border country of the southwest. The Ranger service appeals to his adventuresome spirit, so he joins and becomes active in protecting the mining interests. Marlowe, a prominent operator, has a son who recalls to Job his own youth, and the two become great friends. Marlowe's niece, Diana, also strikes his fancy and stirs him to better deeds. Unfortunately, Marlowe's wife is attracted by her husband's manager, Otis, who plans to steal his employer's gold and elope with her. Job interrupts their plans, wins the admiration of Diana, and the sincere gratitude of Marlowe, who offers Job any favor it is within his power to grant. How Job stifles his great desire and masks his feelings in order to bring happiness to his "buddie" and the girl he loves are told in the concluding scenes of what has been called the year's best western story, "Blue Streak McCoy."

Reeves Eason, who directed the picture, selected some notable players for the leading roles in support of Mr. Carey, among the principals being Ruth Royce, Ray Ripley, Breezy Eason, Chas. LeMoyne, Ruth Golden, Lila Leslie and Charles Arling.

WESTERN FAIR A GREAT BENEFIT TO LOCAL JEWELERS.

On account of the high rate of exchange the owners of the concessions at the fair, being Yankees, spent all the Canadian money they could spare in London, and naturally purchased Diamonds, as they are worth 30 per cent more in U. S. A. It is a good idea always to buy Perfect Diamonds from John A. Nash, My Jeweler. His store is 206 Dundas street, "Where You Will Eventually Buy." b

GOOD IN WORLD DUE MOSTLY TO WOMEN

Advised To Share Dream With Man and Do Great Things.

Rev. W. E. Pescott, in a sermon delivered in the Dundas Street Methodist Church last night, declared that women's influence in the world was paramount, that the good that was in the world today was mostly due to woman, and that a nation's civilization stood only as high as its women. Quoting John Ruskin on Shakespeare, who, he said, held the mirror to life more truly than any other man, he declared that in all Shakespeare's plays there wasn't a tragedy or an evil that didn't come about through the sin of men and not a redemption except through woman.

"Study your Shakespeare and see," declared the speaker. "According to him, men bring degradation and shame and women bring redemption. And it's not only Shakespeare. It's the story of human life. The presence of woman has made the church ten times as powerful. If it wasn't for the women in the church, the membership and service would be sadly depleted.

"The nineteenth century has been called the century of commerce and invention. I say it would be far better to call it the era of the emancipation of woman," said the speaker. "The story of women's degradation in the centuries which preceded this, her shame and her ignorance, is the crowning infamy of man. And it seems to have taken the very best type of civilization to put her in her right place.

"Woman has been the standing conundrum of history. Although now she has come to her own, it was many centuries before she discovered that she had an 'own' to come to. Indeed many women have not awakened to that realization yet. Man to his everlasting disgrace has done anything he liked to women until the present day. He has put her in the stall with the cattle, and he has put her in the gallery, powdered and belaced, so that he might beg a touch of her lips or the flash of her eye, and then fight for her in the ring, and 'tis true sometimes he has lifted her up to the heights of Olympus.

"Of course, there is the other type of woman—we call her the society woman, with a large hat and a small head. Instead of arousing in man the best that is in him, and giving to him all the good that is in her, she absorbs his vices, his gambling and smoking and vulgarity. It tells you that the best asset that hell has in the world, is a pretty woman, carnally dressed.

"Young women! The most priceless thing that you can do for the world, is to dream a dream and share it with some man, so that together you may do great things.

IRISH IN QUEBEC ARE INDIGNANT BECAUSE OF TORONTO'S ACTION

Mayor Church Declines To Permit Meeting in Queen City.

MAY BOYCOTT CITY

Threat of Penalties Comes As Result of Refusal.

[By Canadian Press.]

QUEBEC, Sept. 26.—The Quebec branch of the Self - Determination League of Canada has issued the following statement in connection with the refusal of Mayor Church of Toronto to permit the holding of the Irish Self-Determination League convention in Toronto.

That City of Lost Souls.

"So Toronto's Mayor Church has banned and barred the Irish convention that was to be held in that city of lost souls. Thanks, many thanks, from true Irish hearts all over Canada. That action of the mayor and of the monopolists of all the patriotism that exists in this country was to be expected. Not to deviate from its traditionally narrow and bigoted course would have surprised those who know best the weak mentality of Toronto's ultra-lip-loyalists.

"Like the Belfast House brigands and looters of Catholic property, from whom most of these elite brethren trace their pedigree, we can expect nothing else but intolerance and injustice. Politically, religiously and seriously, Toronto stands out in bold and isolated pre-eminence for all that is despotic, hypocritical and autocratic. Let it go ahead in the even and unenviable tenor of its ways.

Can Boycott Toronto.

"But, after all, Toronto is not self-sustaining, though its egotism is. The friends of Ireland all through Canada can pay it back in divers unexpected ways. Some of us who have visited it for years have shaken the dust forever from our feet. We can boycott Toronto 100 per cent more than Toronto can boycott us. We can and will boycott its banks and business houses, its financial concerns, its insurance companies, and its loud-mouthed fanatics who come among us to sell their cheap wares, and try to pull the wool over our eyes when it suits their pockets.

"The golden stream that has flown for years from this and other provinces into Toronto may be diverted in part to other and more liberal cities. Where is the Canadian to be found who does not know that every measure for the uplift of Ireland, and for the winning back to her of her stolen heritage, and even we may add, for the liberties enjoyed by England and Scotland today, we ask where is the Canadian, if he knows anything about history, who can deny that all the legislation, whether it was emancipation, tenant right, land laws, the prohibiting of the flogging of soldiers—an act of Parliament which even Chamberlain credited entirely to Parnell—but which act the Canadian Army and Navy League show their ingratitude by forgetting—and finally the home rule bill?—all these acts were stoutly opposed by the ignorant bigots of Toronto.

"History is there to prove that reactionaries and slackers they ever were, they are the same today, and doubtless they promise to remain so, forever on the wrong side, the side of their political slave masters, the old Tory jingoes of England. They are heart and soul with the 'Black and Tans,' whose jailbirds and hooligans recruited from the London slums by the modern Aedipus Tyrannus MacCready, and his hyphenated Britishers. Hamar Greenwood and Andrew Bonar Law.

"We wish them joy in out-Prussianizing the Prussians, their cousins—Germans—but we venture to predict that their day of reckoning will come as it came to the Hohenzollerns. They are the grave-diggers of the British Empire—not the Sinn Feiners, whose sole aim and desire is to work out their own salvation without being pestered and persecuted with foreign interference.

"Free speech in Toronto is a dead issue—and these are the folks first to denounce other provinces who would dare "gag" their own scheming politicians.

"The Toronto mayor's plea for objecting to the holding of our convention is a poor one; the trouble, if any, would be all part and parcel of Toronto's own making."

HELD SECRET MEETING.

TORONTO, Sept. 26.— A secret "provincial convention" of the Self-Determination for Ireland League in Canada was held in this city today, according to information supplied to the local press tonight by a delegation from the said convention, which they said was attended by 500 delegates. Delegates to the national convention of the league, which is to be held in Ottawa on October 16 and 17, were appointed at the meeting here, and, according to the "official" information about the gathering, resolutions were passed pledging support to the Irish in Ireland in their "self-determination" campaign and condemning Mayor T. L. Church of this city, the Toronto police, the Orange Order and the Meighen Government for "brute force" and "intolerance" in connection with their attitude toward the Sinn Fein in Canada.

A few days ago announcement was made that the Toronto police commissioners had decided to prohibit the holding of meetings by the Irish Self-Determination League of this city. No previous announcement of the "provincial convention" was made, and apparently the police were not aware of it.

STILL HE LIVES.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Terence MacSwiney, the hunger-striking lord mayor of Cork, Ireland, gave evidence of great exhaustion this morning, according to the noon bulletin of the Irish Self-Determination League reporting the mayor's condition.

BRITISH FINANCIERS READY TO INVEST MONEY IN CANADA

Are Waiting For Stabilizing of Exchange, Says J. A. Robb.

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—(Canadian Press)—There are hundreds of thousands of pounds of British capital being held awaiting favorable opportunities for investment in Canada, and these funds will be sent across the Atlantic as soon as the exchange problem has righted itself sufficiently to appeal to British investors, according to J. A. Robb, M.P., for Huntingdon, Que., who has recently returned from a trip to Britain. The high taxes being placed on idle capital in Britain are responsible for the desire to invest in Canada, Mr. Robb stated, saying that it would be necessary for Canada to exercise caution and refrain from penalizing investors too heavily by way of taxes which could be avoided. Otherwise, he thought, investors would be driven to seek other fields for the employment of their capital.
