The Important Case of Graham v Temperance and General Life Assurance Company—To-Day's Lists.

In the important case of Graham v. Temperance and General Life Assurance Co., judgment was reserved upon two appeals by the defendants. The plaintiff claims a declaration of the right of himself and all other persons insured in the temperance branch of the defendant company to the profits earned by that section, and that such profits should be paid. He also wants an account and an apportionment of the profits between his section and the general section. He claims that a large part of the moneys of the temperance section are diverted into the general section. The defendants say that they are entitled to use reasonable discretion in mixing whiskey and water, so to speak, or rather in setting aside profits, that they had acted properly in doing so, and that the plaintiff was not entitled by his policy to the account which he desired. The question of the right to the account was first tried before Justice Street, who found in favor of the plaintiff, and upon that finding an order of the Divisional Court came into force dismissing an appeal from Chief Justice Armour directing the defendants to produce their books of account for inspection and examination by plaintiff.

To-Day's Lists.

Single Judge, at 11 a.m.: Ferguson v. Township of Southwold.

Court of Appeal, at 11 a.m.: Payne v. Caugbell (to be concluded), Armitage v. Day, Kolkey v. Lennox, Elmsley v. Harrison.

WHEELER FOUND GUILTY.

The Ex-Collector of Taxes at East Toronto Village Convicted of Malfeasance —Sentence To-Day.

In the County Court yesterday, before Judge Morgan and a jury, the case of L. E. Miller v. G. Ahner and his wife, K. Ahner, all being Jews, occupied another day, the jury bringing in a verdict at 6 o'clock last night in favor of the defendants. The suit was for the recovery of a Persian lamb jacket and a man's seal coat, which the plaintiff claimed as his, and for $50 damages for wrongful detention. Judgment was entered for defendant Ahner, with costs. In the finding of the jury the ownership of the coat and jacket was vested in the Ahners. Mr. G. P. Deacon for defendant and Mr. John McGregor for plaintiff.

Charge Against a Tax Collector.

The trial of John P. Wheeler, formerly tax collector of the Village of East Toronto, charged with appropriating funds belonging to the village, occupied the attention of Judge McDougall and a jury yesterday. The evidence went to show that the collector's accounts had been badly kept, and that when his attention was called to the fact that there were shortages he made good the amount. The Crown declined to drop the case for the reason that several erasures had been made in the books. The case went to the jury at 6 o'clock.

The jury returned at 9 o'clock, bringing in a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy.

The judge will pass sentence this morning.

H. H. Dewart conducted the Crown prosecution and Mr. A. F. Lobb (Lobb & Baird) appeared in behalf of Wheeler.

True Bills.

The grand jury yesterday returned true bills against Hiram Young, theft; James Fitzhenry, assault; and James Shields, theft.

The trial of James Shields, the Queen-street grocer, who is charged with theft, was traversed to the September Sessions.

DROWNED IN THE DON.

The Body of William Mason, Who Had Been Drinking, Was Taken From the River Yesterday.

Some boys on a fishing expedition up the Don yesterday morning noticed a man's body floating in the river just below the Queen-street bridge. They gave an alarm and the body was fished out at Reinhardt's brewery, and the patrol wagon from No. 4 station took it to the Morgue.

The remains were identified as those of William L. Mason, a pedlar, who occasionally worked at Leslie's Nurseries, and lived at 291 Sackville-street. David Holden, a fellow-workman of Mason's, identified the body, and said deceased had been drinking in his company on Monday and was somewhat intoxicated when he gave him a good start on the way home, leaving him at Wilton-avenue and Sumach-street. Mason said he would not like to go home under the influence of liquor, and it is supposed that in his drunken condition he fell across the piles, injuring his nose and forehead and being rendered unconscious before he rolled into the water, which is shallow at this point.

THE REFORMS IN CUBA.

Royal Decree Arrives From Spain Putting into Force the Promises of Two Months Ago

Havana, May 18.—To-day there arrived from Spain the royal decree putting in force the reforms which the Government decided on March 15 should be established in the Provinces of Santa Clara, Matanzas, Havana and Pinar del Rio.

El Pais, the organ of the autonomists, and all the other dailies congratulate the Queen Regent on the event, which is coincident with the birthday of Alfonso XIII.

An Honorable Reconciliation.

New York, May 18.—A Cuban memorial has been sent to the Secretary of State by 250 banking, shipping, manufacturing, importing and exporting individuals and firms in this city, Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis and other cities of the United States. After reciting briefly the commercial losses of the United States because of the Cuban war, the memorialists express the hope that the Secretary will "determine upon the expediency of taking measures which may facilitate an honorable reconciliation between the contending parties."

BICYCLE ACCIDENTS.

There Were Quite a Number of Them Yesterday Old Man Injured.

A youngster named McKay, 646 Euclid-avenue, was cut and bruised by a collision with a bicyclist named Charles Robinson, who was riding on the sidewalk.

Miss Mary Campbell, a bookkeeper, employed by Lockart & Co., grocers, was knocked down by a bicyclist at College and Manning-avenue and received somewhat serious injuries. She was removed to her home, 86 Borden-street.

William Durell, an aged and well-known East End resident, is in the General Hospital with a sprained ankle and other injuries as the result of a collision with a bicyclist at Wilton-avenue and Victoria-street yesterday. Mr. Durell was present at the Queen's coronation in 1837, and had proposed to go to the Jubilee celebration this year.

White Ribboners.

The Y members at a recent meeting tendered a reception to Miss May Gordon, of Ottawa, an organizer of Y. Unions, who delivered an able address on the duty of members as plebiscite-workers. Miss Gordon, like her mother, as provincial superintendent, is an able speaker, and promises to become a talented platform orator.

To-morrow is "Crusade Day" in Central Union, when it is the duty of all members as far as possible to secure new applicants for membership.

Literature will be presented on Saturday by Gordon Union to the Queen's Own, by Central Union to the High Kilters, and by Northern Union to the Grenadiers, in connection with their Queen's birthday outings.

Central Union Band of Hope members will picnic on the Queen's Birthday in High Park, and on that day no meeting of the union will be held.

The District Union will hold a garden party on June 18 at the residence of Mrs. McDonell (Sunnyside), Parkdale.

Matters in Wall-street.

New York, May 18.—The Evening Post says: There was general improvement in the stock market to-day, although the advances which were made had little significance so far as a general and continued movement was concerned. The irregular and, in the main, unimportant fluctuations in the earlier trading were in the highest degree typical of the state of feeling which at the moment prevails among the people who regularly or casually resort to Wall-street. It was a waiting market, with even the professionals undecided as to the proper course to adopt. In the recovery the Granger shares were most prominent, but the coal stocks also showed much strength, which was distributed pretty generally throughout the list.

The Duty on Books.

It is believed that if tariff changes are made the book duty will certainly come in for revision. The prohibition against introducing reprints of English copyrights has been temporarily suspended, by order of the Controller of Customs. In consequence, large imports of the cheaper editions which are produced by United States publishing houses are coming in. These will pretty well stock up the book stores for the summer trade. The ad valorem duty of 20 per cent. on English books is also expected to be cut down, though a reversion to the old specific duty of 6 cents per pound is not anticipated.

Foreign Mission.

The Foreign Mission Committee of the Presbyterian Church holds its regular semi-annual meeting in the church office, Confederation Life Building, to-day and to-morrow. The convener, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, will preside and members will be present from Montreal, Windsor and intermediate points. The entire foreign mission work of the church for the year will be reviewed, the report prepared for the general assembly and the estimates fixed for the incoming year.

Death of Mr. George F. Lott.

Another old and respected resident of the North End passed over to the majority yesterday, when Mr. George F. Lott of Scollard-street passed away in his sixty-ninth year. The deceased gentleman was a former well-known hotelkeeper and a large property-owner in that section of the city and was ever enthusiastic over athletic sports. There never was a public boxing contest given in this city for many years past in which the substantial form of George Lott was missing. The funeral takes place this afternoon to St. James' Cemetery.

Brockville Wants a Pastor.

St. John's Presbyterian Church, Brockville, is about to select a pastor from among a number of candidates. The last one to appear before the congregation was Rev. Mr. McKenzie, M. A., D.D., of St. Stephen, N.B., graduate of Queen's College, Kingston, and Glasgow University. His two sermons last Sunday made a favorable impression upon his audience.

Dizziness and Weak Eyesight How to Cure Them.

Mrs. J. Dell, Chatham, Ont., says: "For two years I could never go to sleep before two or three o'clock in the morning. I suffered much from vertigo and dim eyesight. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have removed the dizziness, restored my heart to healthy action, strengthened my eyesight, and I can truly say they are a blessing to anyone suffering as I did."

Claims to be Paid.

A number of men claimed small amounts of wages from R. T. Kelly for breaking up the old Cibola. The matter was in yesterday's Police Court and the claims were ordered to be paid.

The exports of flour and wheat during April were 6,277,439 bushels, the smallest of any month since September, 1890.

The weather and crop outlook in the Western States, according to early advices, has scarcely been surpassed this year. Reports from spring wheat sections in particular told of increased area, largely in excess of former anticipations. Snow, the crop expert, confirmed these glowing prospects, but cut his estimate of winter wheat area down to 21,700,000 acres, or a couple of millions less than was figured on last December. California was about the only spot in the entire country where bad crop news could be found this morning. Dry weather was the chief complaint.
