LOST IN CHATHAM:—A black-enamelled watch with chain attached. The finder will be suitably rewarded on returning it to this office.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH:—On Sabbath morning next the pastor will preach; and in the evening the Rev. Charles Stewart D. D. Dean of Mount Allison University.

Ayer's Pills lead all aperients and purgatives. Their action is gentle and thorough.

CATARACT OPERATION:—Dr. J. H. Morrison of St. John recently successfully removed a cataract from the right eye of the Rev. J. Robertson of Black River.

JUPITER, the Equestrian Lion with the Cook & Whitby Circus which performs in Chatham on 13th inst., is the only lion in the world that goes in an open ring and rides a sensational act on a bare backed horse.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is recommended by physicians as the only sure blood purifier.

LADIES' SALE AND TEA:—The annual sale of Needlework by the Ladies of S. Mary's congregation will be held in the Curler's Rink, Chatham, on Thursday, Aug. 9th at 2 o'clock. Tea will be provided, and useful needlework will be offered at very low prices. The Ladies may expect numerous patrons.

THE ADVOCATE takes up the cause of postmaster Adams of Chatham, approves of his methods of defence and joins him in abusing the editor of the ADVANCE, intimating that it is improper to complain of the postmaster's neglect of duty. As the Advocate endorsed the complaints we made of the postmaster's neglect of duty when they were preferred, its change of base is, of course, due to influences which are as transparent as they are unworthy.

S. S. PICNIC, BLACK RIVER:—The Middle District and Little Branch Sunday School held their annual Sunday school picnic at Mr. McDougall's Point on the 20th of July. A company of nearly a hundred assembled on the grounds. The amusements provided were heartily engaged in by the young, while those of mature years enjoyed themselves in witnessing the sports. The tables were set on the grass, and the ladies deserve much praise for the handsome and profuse display cakes, pies etc, not forgetting the good tea and coffee which were provided by the parents.

A REWARD offered by the Board of Health of the County of Northumberland for information which will lead to the punishment of persons who deposit dead animals in the river Miramichi, to the endangering of the public health, will, it is hoped, have the effect of bringing the guilty parties to justice, or at least, of putting a stop to the practice. When it is so easy to bury carcasses of dead animals that are unfit for food, the criminality of setting them adrift to pollute the river and endanger the public health is of the meanest class, and guilty parties detected should have no mercy shown to them.

A RASCAL:—A man hailing from Boston and giving his name as C. A. White, called on chief of police Clark at his office in St. John on Saturday last and offered twenty per cent of his earnings if the chief would protect him in a first-class gambling dive. Having obtained full particulars of what his caller intended to do, the chief touched the large bell in his office, and Captain Jenkins responded. "Put this man down below," said the chief. "I have a charge against him of bribery and corruption." White was a very much surprised man. He was taken to the cells and chief Clark laid information against him, on which he was committed for trial. Mr. Clark is evidently no Tammany official.

"THE RUDDER."—This is the season for aquatic sports, and this organ of these sports, is now at its best. The July issue has a full-page picture of the Strewsbury Yacht Club Landing, of the club house, and the harbor of this "little Hudson," with, of course, letter press description. The Valkyrie's career is described; a paper is devoted to a description of Mr. D. G. Smith's novel outing boat on the Miramichi. "How Yachts are Measured" is a paper of technical value. Under the heading "Our English Friends on Top," recent yachting events are described. There are several other articles and many pages of interesting news as to what is going on in the aquatic world. The Nautical Publishing Company, Watertown, New York.—[Globe

PERSONAL:—Rev. Jas. Crisp, who was on the Miramichi Methodist circuit twenty years ago as an assistant minister, and stationed at Newcastle, where he is now in pastoral charge, paid a visit to Chatham yesterday and was warmly welcomed by many old friends.

Dr. Murray Maclaren and Douglas Hazen M. P., have been enjoying a holiday time on the Tabusintac Fishing Club's waters during the past week. Dr. Maclaren is to come to Chatham to-day on important professional business, and is also summoned to Newcastle, where his services are needed.

Mr. D. T. Johnston continues to be very ill at his residence, Chatham, but hopes for the better are entertained, as he has decided to undergo a surgical operation to-day.

The many friends of James Mitchell, Esq., of Newcastle, regret that his illness continues so that he is still confined to his home, although there are indications of improvement.

J. Inglis Street, Esq., brother of E. Lee Street Esq., of Newcastle, was in town this week, looking as if the world agreed well with him. Old friends were glad to see him.

The Lawn Social.

The St. John's church lawn social and fancy sale to be held on Mr. Anderson's grounds to-day under the management of the ladies of the church—The Band of Willing Workers—bids fair to attract a large number of their friends, should the weather be favorable. The Nelson will make an extra trip this evening, leaving McCulley's wharf, opposite the grounds, at 10.30 for points up river. Arrangements were made yesterday to have a beautiful young moose early on the grounds this morning and it will be on exhibition all day at an admission fee of 10 cents, children half price.

S. S. Convention.

The seventh annual convention of the County Sunday School Association will be held at Chatham on Tuesday and Wednesday 7th and 8th inst.—the day sessions in St. Luke's S. S. Room, the Tuesday evening session in St. Andrew's S. S. Hall and the Wednesday evening session in St. John's Church. The opening session will be on Tuesday afternoon 2.30 o'clock in St. Luke's S. S. Room. A good programme of topics and plans for enlarged work has been prepared and will be of very great interest to all Sunday school workers. All interested in this work are cordially invited to attend all or any of the sessions.

A Very Sad Drowning Accident.

On Tuesday about 10 o'clock a. m., James J. Keenan, aged 19 years, son of James Keenan of Douglastown, went to the shore near the government wharf to make a small raft. After he had made it he laid his hammer upon the raft, and undressed. While undressing the raft went adrift and he rushed out to catch it, and did so, holding on for a short time, the raft continuing to drift. Suddenly he disappeared and was drowned, having let go, from excitement, perhaps, on being out of his depth and not a swimmer.

He was a general favorite with his young companions and all others with whom he came in contact. He had just passed through a most successful term at the Normal school, where he was well beloved by all who knew him, and obtained a school license of the first class—a most creditable thing for one so young. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved father and mother in the hour of their severe trial, for their loss is the greater in view of the self-denying efforts they so successfully made to equip the unfortunate young man for a bright future, upon which he seemed about to enter when he was taken from them.

A Peculiar Death.

At Rothesay, St. John, on Saturday evening last, Ernest B. Ruel, aged 21, youngest son of James R. Ruel, collector of customs, who had been racing with several members of the Rothesay canoe club, was crossing an arm of the Kennebecasis river when he fell from his canoe into the water. The mishap was soon noticed by his friends, but although some of them were quite close, they failed to reach him before he sank. Grappling was at once resorted to, but the body was not recovered till Sunday morning. From the position of the body, and the fact that there was no water in his stomach, the doctors who examined it state that Ruel was prostrated by over exertion and was insensible, if not dead, before he fell from his canoe, in which he was erect when paddling. Ruel was a law student and most estimable young man. This blow falls with double force on Collector Ruel, who was bereaved of his wife only a few months ago.

HAWKER'S PILLS are an unfailing cure for biliousness and sick headache.

The Way of the Transgressor.

Daniel McNeil, who is not unknown to the Chatham police authorities, seems to have followed about the same course of life abroad as he did at home. He appears to be now lying, dangerously shot at Presque Isle, Maine, where he was working on a railway: The Globe of Tuesday, referring to the shooting and subsequent events says:—

Mrs. Helen Cross, of Presque Isle, Aroostook, who shot Daniel McNeil, a Miramichi man, on Saturday, has been committed for trial. McNeil, who has some relatives about Portland, is expected to recover, but this is very doubtful. A despatch of yesterday's date from Presque Isle says: "It is charged that Mrs. Cross had been selling liquor until stopped by the authorities several days before. McNeil, they say, went to her house and demanded liquor. She refused, saying she had none, and told him to go away. He attempted to enter, when she seized a revolver and warned him off. He persisted and in a struggle which ensued was shot through the left lung close to the heart. The wound did not bleed and the injured man was not rendered immediately insensible. At the time of the shooting there were many friends of the wounded man present, and serious trouble was averted only by the arrival of the priest."

McNeil's mother, who after his father's death, married a man named McDonald, was left a widow a second time, and lived in the Foundry Lane, Chatham. She worked hard—going out to do family washing, cleaning etc.—so that she might maintain her children, of which there were four or five. "Dan" was always a trouble to his mother, for, even at an early age, he would get drunk and into all kinds of rowdyism, often going home and wantonly breaking the furniture and even assaulting other members of the family. Chatham was well rid of him when he left after his mother's death, when she could no longer protect and maintain him, and his experiences in Presque Isle appear to have be the natural sequence of his life and practices here.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Provincial Secretary Marshall is sending out a large number of folders, showing in a condensed form the past successes, present aims and future work of the provincial committee.

Copies of the folder can be obtained upon request to Mr. F. O. Petterson, a member of the provincial committee, or to general secretary Payson.

A Bible Workers' Training Class was organized in the Chatham Association last Wednesday evening. The object of the class is to fit young men to lead men one by one to Christ. The class meets every Wednesday night, at the close of the church prayer meetings, for an hour.

A moonlight excursion under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A will take place on Thursday, August 16th.

The thanks of the Association are due Mrs. F. O. Petterson for a nice picture for the parlor; to Mr. R. H. Hegan for the story of "The Black Phalanx"; and to another friend for the life of Sir John A. Macdonald, in two volumes,—valuable additions to the Association library.

Who will give a clock to the Association? One suitable for the reading room is needed.

Notwithstanding the excessive heat of last Sunday the young men's meeting was fairly well attended.

On next Sunday Mr. W. R. Robinson, of Newcastle, will deliver an address, especially to men. There will also be some good music—quartettes, etc. The meeting is free to all men, the Y. M. C. A. rooms are cool and refreshing, and it is desired that a large number may have the pleasure of hearing so able and forceful a speaker as Mr. Robinson.

To enable the two Bible classes to effectively carry on their work some aids to Bible study are needed. If some friend will donate a Bible dictionary, a Bible text book, or a concordance, these will form the nucleus of a very valuable library of reference—and one that will be greatly appreciated and frequently consulted and used by the young men in the Bible classes, and others who frequent the rooms.

Late English News

Word comes from Liverpool, Eng., that the agents of the Hawker Medicine Co., of St. John, N. B., as a result of the introduction of the Hawker remedies in the neighboring cities and counties, are overwhelmed with orders for fresh supplies of these great health giving remedies. Their success in England is as phenomenal as in Canada. No greater proof of merit could be presented to the public.

County Court.

In the case of the Queen vs Robert Murray. Mr. Tweedie, on behalf of prisoner, moved to quash indictment on the ground that the Deputy Sheriff, who summoned the Grand Jury, was not impartial, that he was the informant in the matter and was pecuniarily interested.

He read affidavit of the prisoner. Mr. Thomson, prosecuting officer, read affidavit of Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff in reply. Judge quashed the indictment, and remanded prisoner till the 21st August next, on which day he ordered a Grand Jury to be summoned.

Queen vs Thos. Ashton.

Mr. Lawlor, on behalf of the prisoner moved to quash the panel of the Petit Jurors on the ground that the Deputy Sheriff, who summoned a number of the said Petit Jury was not impartial, was pecuniarily interested and was the informant in the matter.

Messrs. W. R. Robinson, and W. C. Winslow were appointed triers to try whether Deputy Sheriff was impartial. They returned that he was not. The Judge ordered the panel to be summoned for the 21st August. Prisoner was remanded till that date.

John Sheriff vs. Bank of Montreal, Tweedie & Bennett for plaintiff, A. A. Davidson & W. C. Winslow for defendant. Verdict for plaintiff $179.60

Adam Hill vs. John Menzies.

Patrick Purcell's Body Found.

News has been received from Dundee, Ontario, (opposite St. Regis) that the body of Patrick Purcell, which was stolen three years ago, has been found in the St. Lawrence river just below Hopkins' Point. Purcell had become immensely wealthy through government contracts. He was buried in the Purcell family private cemetery near Cornwall, where he lived and, the next night, the body was stolen. Two of the three men who took the body were arrested, but the third, who knew where it was hidden in the river, escaped, hence it was not found. It had evidently been tied to something, for there was a rope around the neck. It was in an excellent state of preservation. Dr. Clouston says the body had been embalmed. The body was stolen from the graveyard on May 7, 1891, by body snatchers, who got the body presumably for the purpose of levying money for its return. All efforts to trace the body failed, though the best detectives were put on the case. Now it is supposed the theives, giving up all hope of gain threw the body in the River. After being stolen it had been embalmed and in this way they were enabled to keep it for so long a time.

The Circus—A Rare Treat.

Prof. Wm. Goetze's Band of 44 pieces heard here yesterday with Cook & Whitby's English Circus, was without exception the finest we have ever listened to. Their rendering of the classical overtures of "Wm. Tell" and "Semiramide" delighted thousands at the afternoon performance and in the evening the magnificent strains of Wagner's tremendous "Tannhauser" filled the immense canvas, packed to the ring bank, with enraptured auditors. Prof. Muller, our Albany maestro, states that there is but one band in America capable of playing this music at all, and that is Gilmore's. To musicians we have only to say that this matchless organization is composed or 8 clarionets, 2 flutes. 5 piccolos, 1 ololette, 4 saxophones, 4 French horns, 2 bassoons, 2 oboes, 6 cornets, 3 altos, 3 baritones, 2 tubas, 1 double b bass, snare and bass drums and bell player, and every man an artist. We have not space to mention the performance in detail, but will say it was a century ahead of any other circus that has ever visited Albany and easily made good its claim of being the "foremost show of all this world." A visit to it bestows a liberal education on its patrons.—Albany Enquirer.

Boating at Richibucto

The Globe's Richibucto correspondent says:—

"An interesting boat race took place on the Richibucto river during the the afternoon of the 23rd of July. No prizes were given. The race was to decide the frequent discussion as to which was the fastest boat on the river. The interest was two-fold greater, as one of the stars of the Miramichi fleet, the yacht Oriana was to compete. The breeze, although rather light, was steady. Six boats entered the race: J. L. Stewart's Oriana, Hains' U and I. Thompson's Lord Wellington, Hudson's Nimrod, Hollaron's No. 9, and Durant's Gleaner. The course was about two and a half miles. For the first mile the boats well bunched together. The U and I forged ahead, Oriana second, with Lord Wellington a close third. In the last half of the course Oriana got first position, (but did not hold it long; U and I again passed her and held her place to the finish. Oriana came in second, Lord Wellington third, Nimrod fourth and No. 9 fifth. The Gleaner did not finish the race."

Referring to the winning boat and Oriana the local paper—the Review says:—"Opposite Coy's Block the Oriana ran aground and was delayed for a short time but succeeded in getting off before she was passed by any of the boats in her rear."

"The race between these two boats [Haines' U and I and Oriana] was very exciting and though it is quite probable that the Oriana would have won if it had not been for the delay occasioned by her running aground, still the work of the Hains boat was remarkable considering the difference in size in the two boats. Altogether the race showed that while the Miramichi can show some very fast yachts, Richibucto's lobster boats can give them all they want in the way of racing."

Rare Opportunity to secure Canadian fine Art Work.

1ST 2ND 3RD, 4TH, 5TH, 6TH, 7TH AND 8TH NOS. READY.

A number of excellent art publications are being offered to the public through the leading papers of Canada and the United States, but none of them has the strong claims upon our people presented by that known as "Canada" which is being issued by "The Art Publishing Company" of Toronto and offered to our readers, as will be seen by advertisement in another column.

The object of this series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of the Dominion with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the superb natural and artistic beauties of their own country and the evidences of its material progress. To show Canadians by the easy process of the sight some of Canada's historical shrines, something of her national wealth and development, her glorious lake and river scenery, her entrancing landscapes and world-renowned natural wonders—to depict in panoramic photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people, their industrial hives, their great public enterprises and their national landmarks—the series will cover the whole vast domain of British America from the Arctic Ocean to the forty-ninth parallel, and from the fog banks of Labrador to the pure breezes of the Pacific Ocean. It is a country from which European kingdoms could be carved including lakes in whose waters, where primeval forests are reflected, old world principalities could sink from sight; with mountains, upon who massive breasts the Alps could be lightly carried; with a Niagara; and a St. Lawrence; with pastoral scenes of upland and meadowland, prairie stretches, rugged mineral treasures and timber areas. It is a country of magnificent natural beauties and varied interest: one to be proud of, and one that we should study more and learn more about.

This is the purpose of this scenic and descriptive series of pictures. It is to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the natural features of their own country. Our Dominion is so large and its distances so magnificent that some such means of studying it is necessary. Its beauties and wonders are scattered over such a wide area that neither by travel nor travellers' tales is it likely that the great majority of our people will ever know them.

The scope in Canada, it is clear, is a wide one, and the field rich with materials. The project is undertaken in the belief that the people of Canada will welcome an effort to place before them the natural scenery, material progress and national features of their country, and that they will extend to it their hearty support, The work will be carried out in the best manner known to the photographic, engraving and printing art. Every locality and section of the Dominion will be fully and splendidly represented, that the possessor of the completed work may truly feel that he has within its compass as thorough and complete an acquaintance with Canada as if he had spent years in travelling over it. The pictures will be accompanied by accurate descriptions of the subjects presented, and the object is not less to instruct the mind than to please the eye. This, then, is the purpose of "Canada," and if its accomplishment be carried out with the fidelity and completeness with which the company hopes to endow it, it will be a work of permanent merit, and of great national as well as artistic value.

Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, of the series may be ordered at once, and will be either delivered at the ADVANCE office on application, or mailed to any part of Canada. Each part will contain not less than 16 pages of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, thus ensuring upward of four hundred superb photographic views covering the whole domain of British America.

The parts will be sold at ten cents, and when completed will ensure the possessor a complete acquaintance with our country, and a valuable work of art.
