GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SIT TIGHT—YOU WILL TRAVEL FAST

Imperial Will Start Its Two-Real Thrillers Tomorrow!

As announced from the Imperial stage on several occasions of late the Keith house will tomorrow inaugurate a summer season of week-end specials composed of two-reel subjects dealing with melodramatic subjects such as railway adventures, cow-boy and Indian stories and military incidents of an exciting character. These stories are definitely designed to satisfy an insistent demand for red blooded action of the old-time heroic story character enjoyed by so many people old and young. They will take the place of a continued serial story during the hot weather when so many people are away on vacations and continued fictions are broken up and naturally do not inspire sustained interest. The first story tomorrow is entitled "The Midnight Flyer," a dashing, thrilling railway episode in which Helen Gibson, daredevil actress, is the heroine. Each story is complete in itself. These specials as before mentioned will appear Fridays and Saturdays and will be extra to all the other films such as five reel features, comedy, etc. They are at present creating a furore in New York and all the big centres.

SEE OPERA HOUSE SHOW TONIGHT; HERE'S THE NEW BILL FOR TOMORROW

With a bundle of old rags, colored and white, carefully placed, the Brightons, one of the features on the Opera House vaudeville programme for tonight, make beautiful pictures, seemingly like real oil paintings; quite a novelty for here and well forth seeing. There are four other good acts on the programme, with lots of comedy, good music, dancing, funny stories and everything that goes to make up a good show. Tonight is the last chance to see it, for tomorrow the programme changes.

The new offering opening tomorrow evening, includes Roatina and Barrette in a scenic comedy novelty, "Marrucia Going Up"; Dunlay and Merrill, in comedy singing and chat; The Powells, wonder workers in sand; Nelson Waring, a man and a piano; Fred and Albert, those different gymnasts in their sensational derrick lift and thrilling feats of acrobatic work; and the fourth chapter of the new serial, "The Lion's Claws," with Marie Walcamp. Usual two performances in evening, at 7.30 and 9,—tomorrow afternoon at 2.30. Same little popular prices.

CHAPLIN AT THE UNIQUE

In His Greatest and Latest Comedy, The "Dog's Life"—Price of Admission Advanced Slightly

For the balance of the week beginning today the great Chaplin in his latest and most successful comedy will be the attraction at the Unique. The cost of this comedy is in excess of any other yet used in St. John, and the price of admission will be raised slightly in the evening for the down stair seats only, for which fifteen cents will be asked. None should miss seeing the most mirth provoking of all the Chaplin fun makers.

FINE AT GEM

STAFF CHANGES IN BURROUGHS BUSINESS

Important Promotions Affecting Several in Lower Provinces

An important promotion for W. Bois Smith, who has been manger of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company for the maritime provinces and Newfoundland for several years, has led to several changes in the staff.

Mr. Smith leaves St. John to become agency manager for the company for western Ontario, with headquarters in Hamilton, Ont. He will be succeeded in St. John by George H. Selwood of the Toronto office who will have charge of the office here and will be agency manager for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. E. V. Morrow, formerly of this city, who has been the company's representative in Halifax, will become agency manager for the sister province. Arrangements for Newfoundland have not been completed. Miss Mabel Earle, who has been office manager in St. John, will go to Hamilton to accept a similar position there.

When J. B. Erskine, former manager here, left for Toronto in September, 1914, Mr. Smith took charge of the territory, and since then has expanded the business to such an extent that this important promotion has come in recognition of his excellent work. The fact that the territory is now being divided into three sections is an indication of the expansion which has taken place in the last four years. Mr. Smith will carry with him the best wishes of a host of friends who will regret his departure but whose congratulations on his promotion are most sincere.

The trip to Hamilton will be made by Mr. Smith in his automobile. He will be accompanied by his wife, G. R. Geyer, the company's chief inspector, and Miss Earle. They will leave St. John this evening or tomorrow morning and will go by way of Boston, the Berkshires, Albany and Buffalo. Mrs. Smith will return from Hamilton to spend the summer at Renforth.

E. V. Morrow, now manager for Nova Scotia, has made very rapid progress. He is in the All Star Club of the company's salesmen this year, and has received merited promotion.

Funeral of Capt. Frank H. Elliott This Afternoon—An Impressive Sight

The funeral of Captain Frank H. Elliott, who died in the military hospital in St. James street on Tuesday morning, took place this afternoon from St. Luke's church. Services were conducted at the church and grave by Rev. R. P. McKim. It has been some time since a funeral cortege so impressive has moved along the city streets. The Depot Battalion Band and a firing party from the depot, consisting of 100 men under the command of Captain R. J. Smith, M. C., attended. Brigadier-General Macdonell was present representing military headquarters and Lieut.-Colonel J. L. McAvity and Captain G. Earle Logan, representing the Depot Battalion. Members of the Great War Veterans' Association and the Knights of Pythias also walked. The pall-bearers were Captains William Pitt, J. V. Keirstead, R. Keswick, C. D. Knowlton, H. Warren and Roy Thomson. At the grave the last post was sounded and three volleys were fired by the firing squad. Interment was made in Fernhill.

An eight-foot Union Jack which was taken from St. John at the time the 26th Battalion sailed and which flew from the location of the intrepid St. John unit throughout Lieut.-Colonel McAvity's period of command, was brought from Sussex today by the colonel's orderly and wrapped around Captain Elliott's coffin. The late soldier was with the 26th when that same Union Jack floated over them.

REGISTRATION FIGURES HERE

The national registration figures for St. John-Albert were completed today by the registrar, Sheriff A. A. Wilson, K. C. There were 24,096 female and 19,896 male registrants, a total of 43,989. This does not include the fairly large number who have registered since June 22 with the various postmasters.

The number is less than Mr. Wilson's advance estimate but he is inclined to believe that the registration was fairly complete. The chief class unregistered is composed of elderly people who were under the misapprehension that it was not necessary for them to register, but who are doing so now. There were no cases of wilful refusal to register that the sheriff has heard of.

A NICE GAIN

St. John bank clearings for week ending today were $2,423,364; for the corresponding period last year, $1,925,284; and in 1916, $1,653,523.

Medical Ex-M. P. Fined.

Stratford, Ont., July 4—Dr. J. P. Rankin, ex-M. P., was fined $50 and costs yesterday for giving Robert Orvington an unnecessary prescription for a quart of whiskey.

The Tortures of Dyspepsia Corrected by "Fruit-a-tives"

"For two years I suffered tortures from Severe Dyspepsia. I had constant pains after eating; pains down the sides and back; and horrible bitter stuff often came up in my mouth.

"I tried doctors, but they did not help me. But as soon as I started taking 'Fruit-a-tives,' I began to improve and this medicine, made of fruit juices, relieved me when everything else failed."

PAT CASEY'S PRAYER.

(This story comes from France via Chicago):

An Irish soldier, after ten months of hard, active service, applied for a furlough. His request was granted, and then it dawned on him that he had no money to take advantage of his holiday. He wanted $100 to go to Paris.

He was at his wit's end, there being no time to be lost, when he recalled his old mother's advice to apply to the good God above in time of trouble. So he wrote and posted his letter.

"Dear Lord: Here I am after fightin' ten months in mud up to me neck. The work is somewhat unpleasant, but ye'll be glad to hear that I killed 50 Germans. Now, I'm a little tired and I have me furlough all right, but I have no money left, having spent most of what I had for prayer books. Ask Fr. Tom McCarthy if ye don't believe me. So, Lord, I ask ye in the name of all the saints for the small sum of $100. Sure, ye'll never miss it, and if ye send me the money I'll never forget yer in me prayers.

"PAT CASEY."

In due course this appeal reached the censor's office, which happened in this particular locality to be housed in the Y. M. C. A. quarters. The letter was passed around and aroused considerable attention and interest, as Casey was known to be a brave and cheerful fighter.

Contributions were sought, and finally the sum of $50 was raised. This was sent to the applicant, without comment, in a Y. M. C. A. envelope. The next day the following acknowledgment was received:

"Dear Lord: I've received your $50, as per application for furlough money, and I thank ye. May yer shadow never grow less. But I make so bold as to give ye a word of warnin'. Send the next money by the K. of C.'s Ye sent the last by the Y. M. C. A., and they nipped half of it.

MUST BE NO COMPROMISE

"This, then, is our conception of the great struggle in which we are engaged. This plot is written plain upon every scene and every act of the supreme tragedy. On the one hand stand the peoples of the world—not only the peoples actually engaged, but many others also who suffer under mastery but cannot act; peoples of many races and in every part of the world—the people of stricken Russia, still among the rest, though they are for the moment unorganized and helpless. Opposed to them, masters of many armies, stand an isolated, friendless group of governments who speak no common purpose but only selfish ambitions of their own by which none can profit but themselves, and whose peoples are fuel in their hands; governments which fear their people and yet are for the time their sovereign lords, making every choice for them, and disposing of their lives and fortunes as they will, as well as of the lives and fortunes of every people who fall under their power—governments clothed with the strange trappings and the primitive authority of an age that is altogether alien and hostile to our own. The past and the present are in deadly grapple, and the peoples of the world are being done to death between them.

Settlement Must Be Final.

"There can but be one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. No half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable. These are the ends for which the associated peoples of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace:

"1. The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly, and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world; or, if it cannot be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence.

"2. The settlement of every question, whether of territory, of sovereignty, of economic arrangement or of political relationship, upon the basis of the free acceptance of that settlement by the people immediately concerned, and not upon the basis of the material interest or advantage of any other nation or people which may desire a different settlement for the sake of its own exterior influence or mastery.

"3. The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct toward each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the common law of civilized society that govern the individual citizens of all modern states in their relations with one another; to the end that all promises and covenants may be sacredly observed, no private plots or conspiracies hatched, no selfish injuries wrought with impunity, and a mutual trust established upon the handsome foundation of a mutual respect for right.

"4. The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that cannot be amicably agreed upon by the peoples directly concerned shall be sanctioned.

In Single Sentence.

"These great objects can be put into a single sentence. What we seek is the reign of law, based upon the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind.

"These great ends cannot be achieved by debating and seeking to reconcile and accommodate what statesmen may wish with their projects for balances of power and of national opportunity. They can be realized only by the determination of what the thinking peoples of the world desire, with their longing hope for justice and for social freedom and opportunity.

"I can fancy that the air of this place carries the accents of such principles with a peculiar kindness. Here were started forces which the great nation against which they were primarily directed at first regarded as a revolt against its rightful authority but which it has long since seen to have been a step in the liberation of its own people as well as of the people of the United States; and I stand here now to speak—speak proudly and with confident hope—of the spread of this revolt, this liberation, to the great stage of the world itself.

"The blinded rulers of Prussia have roused forces they knew little of—forces which, once roused, can never be crushed to earth again; for they have at their heart an inspiration and a purpose which are deathless and of the very staff of triumph."

THE LLANDOVERY CASTLE.

Vernon, B. C., July 4—Two former Vernon nurses were on the Llandovery Castle, and are among the missing. Miss Gallagher was matron of the Vernon Jubilee Hospital for several years, and Miss Fraser was head nurse at the same time.

Her First Trip.

Ottawa, July 4—Nursing Sister Jean Templeman of Ottawa was on the Llandovery Castle and is believed by her father to have been drowned. She was a graduate of St. Luke's Hospital, Minneapolis, and was making her first trip on the hospital ship.

A Quebec Man.

Quebec, July 4—Corporal Hugh K. Bonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bonnell of Lockwell avenue, was in the torpedoed hospital ship.

P. E. Islanders.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 3—At least two Prince Edward Islanders were on the Llandovery Castle, Miss Rena McLean, daughter of Senator John McLean of Souris, and Dr. J. B. Foley, South Shore.

Six Who Were Saved.

Ottawa, July 4—It is known that the following in the Llandovery Castle were saved: Mayor Thomas Lyon, Corporal A. Knight, S. K. Taylor, G. R. Hickman, F. W. Cooper and W. R. Pilot.

BEGIN SENDING OUR BERRIES TO STATES

Fredericton, N. B., July 4—The first shipments of strawberries from this section to the Boston market will take place this evening. Boston reports are that yesterday New England strawberries were being sold at twenty-three cents and New York state berries 30 to 35 cents. The New Brunswick berries will enter the market just as the others are done. The Montreal market also is expected to take a considerable quantity of New Brunswick strawberries. Seventeen cents has been quoted by Montreal dealers.

The provincial horticulturist reports that the crop of strawberries in the Fredericton district is fair. In Kings county the crop is not up to the average. No report has been received yet from the Sackville and other districts.

ST. JOHN MAN WHO ESCAPED WHEN HOSPITAL SHIP WAS TORPEDOED

S. K. Taylor of St. John, who is mentioned as being among the twenty-four survivors of the steamer Llandovery Castle, was a member of the C. A. M. C. He enlisted when only seventeen years of age in the field ambulance corps, commanded by Lieut.-Colonel Corbet, and went overseas with that unit. He was transferred afterwards for duty on the transports and had made three trips to Halifax on this steamer.

He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of 266 Rockland road, with whom he had made his home. His friends in St. John are delighted to hear of his escape and his relatives are eagerly awaiting some word from the young man himself.

ONE OF CONVOY SUNK

An Atlantic Port, July 4—The Associated Press carries the following:—

In an attack by a German submarine on a convoy of merchant ships bound for America a vessel named the Orissa was torpedoed and sunk off the Spanish coast several days ago. The attack was reported on the arrival today of one of the members of the convoy, a big British passenger liner. Another torpedo narrowly missed hitting the passenger vessel.

Destroyers accompanying the fleet closed in and discharged depth bombs. Passengers did not learn whether or not the U-boat was destroyed, nor did they know anything regarding the fate of those on board the Orissa.

There are two British steamships named Orissa, one of 5,484 tons gross and the other of 5,353 tons gross.

WOULD SELL LEASED LOTS TO OCCUPANTS

The action of a sub-committee in awarding a contract for rebuilding the wharf on the north side of the West End ferry floats to S. H. Mayes for $3,480 was approved.

To Sell Leaseholds.

Regarding rentals on leased properties on both sides of the harbor, Commissioner Bullock referred to the action of the council several years ago in trying to secure increased rentals. He said that the city could not insist on increased rentals unless they were prepared to take over properties of those who refused to pay higher rates. He thought it better to rescind that order and get on a working basis. His idea was to capitalize the rentals on a four per cent basis and try to sell the lots to the leaseholders. He moved that the original order be rescinded, that back rents be collected and that leaseholders be notified that they may purchase their lots on a four per cent capitalization of their rentals, if closed before September, this to apply to all leased properties except harbor frontages.

The motion was carried.

Commissioner Bullock asked instructions regarding a property in Protection street, W. E., the title of which had been questioned. He could lease the lot for $4 0a year but possession was claimed by Mrs. Agnes Rogers, daughter of the late Adam Glasgow. He was asked to report further.

Commissioner Bullock reported that when he entered office he found a man named Quinn employed on the wharves as watchman, while he was on the payroll as a sweeper. He since had left the city employ but he claimed $36 from the city as pay due him at 2$ cents a day for 149 days, the difference between the pay for the two classes of work. The mayor explained that the number of watchmen had been limited by the council and he had been classed as a sweeper in order to keep him engaged. It was decided that no action could be taken.
