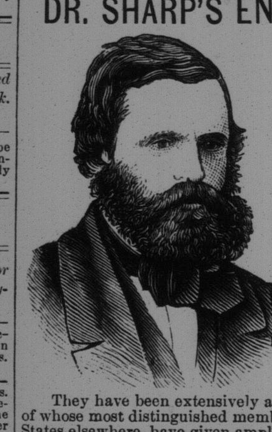
DR. SHARP'S ENGLISH TONIC BITTERS.



These well known and unrivalled BITTERS, prepared by a peculiar and elaborate Chemical process, from rare plants and herbs, and entirely free from all mineral, acid, and other noxious ingredients, have been found the most useful in Dyspepsia or indigestion, Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, and Irritability of the Bowels.

In all cases of Debility; whether arising from illness, fatigue, or other causes, they prove eminently serviceable and afford incalculable benefit; and, being devoid of all spirituous and other injurious stimulants, may be given with happiest effects to young children, correcting in them the tendency to the generation of worms, and other Bowel complaints.

FOR FEMALES these Bitters are peculiarly suitable, giving tone and vigor to the system, and imparting new strength to the frame, which protracted nursing or other exhausting causes may have impaired.

They have been extensively and successfully used by the Medical Faculty, many of whose most distinguished members in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, the United States elsewhere, have given ample testimony in their favor.

These Bitters produce a feeling of buoyancy, removing depression or melancholy, and hence are of great value in the treatment of Mental and Nervous affection. They produce a healthy flow of the secretions, and should be used by all who suffer from

DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS, SLEEPLESSNESS. NERVOUSNESS, LOSS OF APPETITE,

And all kindred complaints.

Everybody knows that Sharp's Balsam of Horeround and Aniseseed is the best cough medicine ever offered to the public.

Everybody ought to know that Sharp's English Tonic Bitters cannot be too highly commended for the diseases they are recommended to cure.

The sick should not delay a moment in procuring and using these bitters. Sold wholesale by T. B. Barker & Sons, St. John, and at retail by all druggists. The price is reduced, so as to come within the means of all, to 75 cents per bottle. PREPARED BY Sharp's Balsam Manufacturing Company, St. John, N. B., to whom orders may be addressed.

EAST AFRICA.

The Portuguese Determined Foreigners shall get no Foothold in Their Colonies.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

WASHINGTON, July 4—According to the latest advices received at the state departments, the Portuguese are determined no foreigners shall again get a foothold in the colonies of East Africa, now under Portuguese control. Not only have various concessions to foreign capitalists been revoked, but according to a report just received from U. S. Consul Smith, the Home Government has established a new Customs tariff for the Province of Mozambique, which promises not only to restrict the intercourse of foreigners with the inhabitants of the Province, but also to react disastrously upon the natives.

FRANCE.

Grave Charges Made by DeCassagnac Against the Minister of Justice.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

PARIS, July 2.—The belief exists in political circles here that a cabinet crisis will result from the charge made by De Cassagnac in the Chamber of Deputies last Saturday that Thevenot the minister of justice was an accomplice of Meyer in the Credit Mobilier frauds for connection with which Meyer has been sent to prison. It is rumored that both Thevenot and Rouvier, Minister of Finance, are determined to resign.

A RAILROAD WRECK.

On the Norfolk and Western Road—Forty persons Reported Killed.

LYNCHBURG, Va., June 2.—A special from Liberty, Va., says a fearful wreck occurred on the Norfolk and Western railroad near Thaxton, about 80 miles above this city. It is reported that forty persons are killed.

THE RAILROAD WRECK.

Anothe Account of the Disaster.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

PHILA, Pa., July 2.—President F J Kimball of the Norfolk and Western Railroad says that while the wreck reported is a serious one, and has resulted in loss of life, the report telegraphed from Lychburg that 40 persons were killed is greatly exaggerated.

Information furnished him up to 1 o'clock this afternoon is that five persons were killed, nearly all of whom were train hands and quite a number of persons were injured.

Aid for the Panama Canal.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The Mail advices from Panama of June 24th says the report that the French Government has reached the determination to help indirectly in the Panama Canal affairs by appealing to the Great French Credit Institutions for their support, now appears to be substantially correct for the bill for the relief of the company has already been introduced in the Chamber. The effect of this news here is very encouraging to the thousands interested.

Only Citizens to Get City Work.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

CHICAGO, July 2.—According to a law recently adopted by the city council, no man, not a citizen can be carried on the pay rolls of the city after July 1. The ordinance was so worded as not to interfere with existing contracts the result being that as yet hundreds of aliens and unnaturalized Irishmen are still working on the city streets, but when the contracts on which they are employed run out they will be discharged.

Dioscesan Matters

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

FREDERICTON, July 2.—The Dioscesan Church Society is in session here to-day and the ordinary routine business is being done. The Synod will convene here tomorrow.

Fell Asleep on the Track.

BROCKTON, July 2.—The 9.20 train on the Eastern branch of the Old Colony railroad, last evening, struck a man who was lying across the track. The engineer saw him before he was killed, but not in time to prevent his death. The body was cut into pieces, and it was not until today that it was recognized as that of Dennis Harding of this city. It is supposed that Harding was returning from Bridgewater and being intoxicated, fell asleep on the track. The engineer says he saw another man standing near the track a hundred yards from where Harding was found.

Professional in Baseball.

At Hamilton at the Knox church anniversary services last Sunday evening, Rev. S. Lyle, B. D., pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, was introduced and delivered an address on the subject of amusements. He referred to professional baseball in the following terms:

Go along our principal streets and see the crowds of pale-faced youth standing with their eyes fastened on a blackboard record to see how certain players stand in the league, and looking as if the fate of the nation depended on whether Hamilton was at the head or, as I believe it is now, at the tail of the league. (Laughter). It does not make one iota of difference to Hamilton, to its merchants, workingmen, or professional men—to the men who are making this city. These baseball players are the drones of society who are living on the sweat of our brows, sucking the life-blood of the men and women who are toiling, sucking it to the extent of $5,000 or $6,000 or $7,000 with travelling expenses and perquisites for three months' work in the year and only three. I approve of athletic sports, and I would, if I was a young man, play cricket again had I the time, and take part in athletic sports in other directions. These are good, manly things. But sport stops and games cease to be healthy amusement when selfishness steps in and true sport is spoiled by the foul breath of mammon. Let us have baseball by all means, but let it be played by amateurs wishing to develop muscles and lungs—not merely as an excuse for gambling and betting.

Alden's Manifold Cyclopedia.

The splendid speed of about one volume a month marks the progress of Alden's great popular cyclopedia, the Manifold. The sixteenth volume, now ready extends from Galvanized Iron to Gog and Magog. This odd beginning and ending illustrate a magnificent scope of the work, taking in as it does the very latest discoveries of science and the remotest traditions of antiquity, and all between, including an unabridged dictionary of language as well as a cyclopedia of universal knowledge. The small handy volumes, contrasting so remarkably with the usual unwieldy quarto or octavo volumes of other cyclopedias, the large handsome type, the numerous illustrations, the excellent printing and the neat strong binding, are features which every one can appreciate; and not less will the majority of readers appreciate the wonderfully low price: 60 cents a volume for cloth binding, or 75 cents for half morocco or if ordered immediately, the publisher offers the sixteen volumes now ready for the reduced price of $8.00 for cloth binding, or $10.40 for half morocco. At these prices it is prepaid, by mail or express, or may be ordered through booksellers or agents. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York, Chicago and Atlanta.

Accident on the C. P. R.

A serious accident occurred near Greenville, Me., yesterday. Only meagre particulars were obtainable to-day but from what could be learned from passengers arriving here this morning it appears that when near Greenville the boxes around the axles of the locomotive hauling the train caught fire through excessive heat, with the result that the train was brought to a standstill. A relief engine was telephoned for but through the carelessness of the driver in rounding a sharp curve the engine was run into the train.

The train hands seeing an accident inevitable, sprang from the relieving engine, but the driver, Charles Laskey, who was the last to jump, went over an embankment, seriously, though not fatally injuring himself. He had several ribs broken and his face badly cut. Of those on the waiting train only one lady who happened to be standing up in the car at the time of the accident, was injured, she having her arm sprained.

The train reached St. John 15 hours behind time, bringing a large number of passengers.

Facts About Feet.

From an eastern weekly we learn that Mrs. James Andriese has the most beautiful feet in New York. The shoe this lady wears is No 10, a child's size. Unfortunately the exact dimensions are not given so that we cannot compare with other famous feet. The Duchess of York was a famous beauty of the court of George III. Her shoe, which is still preserved, measured five inches in length, and the instep of her foot was from the lower arch to the top a distance of three inches. The duchess was somewhat above the medium height of women, and her carriage is said to have been remarkably graceful—in marked contrast to the uncertain movement which usually distinguishes women with unnaturally small feet.—[Chicago News.]

City Police Court.

Mrs. Donovan charged with having liquor on sale without a license was fined $20.

John McCaslin, Joseph Fitzgerald, Michael Hayes and Cornelius Bineen were fined $5 each for assault upon John McGolderick, and breaking windows in his shop on Walker's wharf.

The case of Mrs. Shoebridge, charged with having liquor on sale without a license, was postponed.

STUCK WITH A KNIFE.—A large Newfoundland dog owned by W. H. Thorne was making himself at home in the market this morning in a manner that proved so displeasing to Richard Cotter, that he let his angry passions rise and threw a large knife with such true aim that it stuck deep into the dog's side and the poor animal ran howling through the market with the knife sticking in him. At the foot of the market the knife dropped out and before the dog could reach King street he fell and died. The case will be brought before the police magistrate.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.—Yesterday, about noon, a man was seen reaching into a rear window of Messrs C. M. Bostwick & Co's. premises trying to steal something. He was scared away, however, before he could secure much of a haul. To-day Sergeant Hipwell got a description of the covetous person, and soon arrested Daniel Hayes. Hayes was identified as the man who tried to help himself, yesterday, and was accordingly taken to the police station.

THE SHORT LINE RAILWAY.—Excursion tickets will be issued on this line, as per advertisement to enable intending visitors to attend the celebration at Calais Me. on the 4th. July. A special train will leave St. John at 6 a. on the 4th. returning leave St. Stephen at 6.30 p. m. same day. The regular train will leave at 7.30 a. m. excursion tickets good to return on 5th. July.

A HUMAN CUCUMBER.

A Remarkable Yarn From the Great Town of Pineville.

From the St. Louis Republic.

Hanging in a barn in Old Pineville three miles from here, is the most marvellous freak of nature ever heard of or seen. Its existence, however, is vouched for by Messrs. James P. Whalen and Joseph Leahy of Louisville, who have just returned from Old Pineville. It is well known that when cucumbers are first cut from the vine there is a piece of the stem that exudes or bleeds. A prominent citizen of Old Pineville some time ago, named Jared Gibson, cut his hand, and the juice got into this cut, and his hand commenced to inflame, and an eruption similar to erysipelas made its appearance and extended up his arm, and finally spread over his whole body. Strange to say, there was no pain attending these eruptions of erysipelas, and he continued to gather and pack his cucumbers and prepare them for pickling. To the great surprise of everybody these little pimples assumed the appearance and form of small cucumbers, and continued to grow.

Although Gibson kept well and hearty he was compelled to stop work and take to bed. The doctors and quacks from around here visited him. One prescribed one thing and one another. One wished to bleed him; one wanted to cut the cucumbers off; another said not to let him have any water and they would dry up; another said stick a hole in each cucumber and they would die and new skin form; another wished to wrap him up in a mammoth poultice of barnyard manure and draw them all to one head; another said they ought to be scattered. All the doctors had a different remedy, but all disagreed so, there was some hope that the patient would get well. But the small cucumbers grew into big ones, and his whole body was covered with them from head to foot and they commenced to ripen and turn yellow and hang down, and the man looked like a huge bunch of bananas. When they got ripe they began to shrivel up and dry and so did the man. He died. The doctors procured the consent of his widow to permit an autopsy to be made for the benefit of science, and they cut him open, and to their amazement found no blood, no muscles, no sinews, no arteries, but found only one solid mass of cucumber seeds. It was so remarkable it would be useless to have the remains interred and foolish to have them cremated, and the widow concluded to keep them in the house. She had the corpse hung up by the hair in the barn, where it now swings, an inanimate evidence of what nature can do when she takes the notion.

Telegraphic Flashes.

Hon. John Costigan, Minister of Inland Revenue, expects to leave Ottawa for New Brunswick in a few days. He will probably spend a month among his constituents.

St. Jean Baptiste Society held a monster celebration at Montreal yesterday. Fully 8,000 persons were present and loyal speeches were delivered Mr. David, M. P. P. and Judge Loranger.

It is now certain that Mr. McFall went down with the ferry boat which sunk in 80 feet of water near Brockville, Ont, a few days since. He was last seen entering the cabin for a life preserver.

At Kingston, Ont., Bishop Cleary announced, yesterday, that he had no desire for promotion to the archbishopric of Waterford and Lismorl, and had requested the pope to permit him to remain in Kingston.

A wharf-laborer named James Hasks, died from sunstroke at Montreal yesterday. It was the warmest day known in that city for many years,

The compilation and printing of the debates of the House of Commons at Ottawa has just been completed. There are 1730 pages and 80 pages of index.

Business was suspended in Ottawa yesterday being Dominion Day. There were grand sports under control of the civic authorities.

Theodore Woolsey, ex-President of Yale University died at New Haven, Conn., yesterday of old age. He was born in 1801.

The procession at Toronto yesterday in celebration of Dominion Day was the most imposing ever seen there.

On Tuesday Mrs. Henry Jones who lives about 12 miles south of Kokomo Ind. had born to her twin girls inseperably connected on the hips and lower abdomen. No vital organs are connected except the spinal column, which is continuous from one end to the other. Each breathes and pulsates quite independently of the other. Both are perfectly formed and have the free use of their limbs. They appear healthy.

Equity Court.

In the Equity Court this morning before His Honor Mr. Justice Palmer the reports of the Barrister in re. Henry S. Miller vs James S. Gregory; William McDonald vs James E. Whittaker et al, and Mary Piddler vs John Mahony et al, were on motion of R. C. Skinner Esq ordered to be confirmed and the reports filed.

The matter of Sarah N. Smith et al vs Archibald McKay and Annie E. Cales was a motion for a writ of possession, of certain lands in Westmorland Co, made by Messrs Wells & Welch.

Ordered that execution mentioned in the statute be issued.

A. A. Wilson on behalf of Isabella E. Torrie wife of Robert Torrie of Moncton moves for the appointment of A. P. Barnhill as next friend in order to a suit in Equity to get a trust deed made by her former husband J. Wm. Bruce Jaimeson, whereby the income of his estate should be paid to his wife and children, interpreted by the judge, because of the alleged fact that Messrs John White and R. C. Skinner, the trustees, have paid her no part of the income for the past two years. She had received from the trustees her one third regularly until her second marriage and the allowance is with-held because some doubt has arisen as to how far the trustees are now justified in paying it to her.

Ordered as moved.

DEATH OF ELIZA TAYLOR.

Born a Slave and said to have been 106 Years Old.

Intelligence is received of the death of Eliza Taylor, which occurred at the Alms House yesterday. Eliza Taylor whose maiden name was Eliza Fisher, was, as has been stated by herself, born in Richmond, Virginia, in 1783. She was born a slave and her master was Royal Dobbins the owner of between two and three hundred human chattels. When four years and four months old, she with three or four hundred more of her race was put on board a British man-of-war bound for Halifax. The season was well advanced, the young slaves had no other clothing than the regulation gray cotton shirt, which continued to be their uniform until they were set free by Mr. Lincoln's proclamation, and as some uncertainty was felt as to whether the ship would be able to make the harbor of Halifax, she laid her course for Bermuda, where she remained till spring, all the time her colored cargo living on board. In the spring word came to Bermuda that Halifax was well stocked with servants and the ship was ordered to St. John. There Eliza Francis became a domestic in the family of James Peters, Esq., whose residence for a considerable portion of the year was at Gagetown. After living in Squire Peters' family some fifteen years, she ran away with James Taylor, a farm hand employed at French Village, near Gagetown, and they were married by Parson Willis then living on Prince William street Shortly after, with many people of their race, they removed to that part of Loch Lomond now known as Willow Grove, where most of her days have been spent. Mrs Taylor is survived by one son, and by her grandson Henry Thompson she leaves five great grandchildren. According to Mrs. Taylor's account, which it would be difficult to verify or disprove, she was 106 years old at the time of her death. She was certainly more than a hundred years old, and she passed through adversities unscathed that would have killed many cast in a different mould. There are many who will long remember the rollicking good humor which 10, 20, 30, or 40 years ago, she exhibited as she exposed for sale at the corner of Sydney street and King Square a few brush brooms, a pair of chickens or a pail of berries, and how in a contest of wit she was never left far behind. A very truthful portrait of Mrs. Taylor was published in one of the city newspapers about twelve years ago, but the infirmities of years have caused her for eight or ten years past to withdraw from public observation. Of late Mrs. Taylor had given much thought to her soul's salvation, and it is hoped that after her long pilgrimage, the pilgrim rests well.

THE FIRE AT McADAM.

A Large Destruction of Property caused by the Burning of the Railway Works.

The fire at which destroyed the Machine and Blacksmith shops at McAdam Junction on Sunday is much more serious than was supposed. Had the fire occurred at any other time than it did, much more property than was saved might have been got to a place of safety. As it was nearly all the available working force of the railway had been sent down the line to clear the track of the wreck caused by the derailing of a train on Saturday evening.

The fire which was caused by the explosion of a lamp under a glue pot in the pattern shop spread with such rapidity that the workman who was in the shop at the time barely escaped and as it was lost his coat which he had hung up in the shop. Mr. Haggarty, the Mechanical Superintendent who was sitting at his desk in the office which overlooks the shop, saw the fire almost at its inception and at once organized what men were there into a fire brigade and with the assistance of the only locomotive under steam at the Junction was successful in saving all the locomotives in the machine shop. Two of these were finished with the exception of a coat of paint and the completion of some of the minor parts. Some of the tools were also got out but the greater part of the machinery was too heavy to be moved in the short time before the building fell in. The heat was so intense that the men had great difficulty in working near the fire.

The works at McAdam upon which Mr Haggarty has lavished a large amount of labor were in splendid condition previous to the fire. The machinery was all as good as new, the whole of it having been rebuilt within a few years. Indeed since Mr. Haggarty took charge of the shops every machinery then in them has undergone a careful overhauling, and a large number of new machines have been put in operation. The fire has destroyed everything that was in the shops. There is not a machine that is not broken in some of its parts while some are entirely destroyed.

Arrangements will be made at once for the rebuilding of the shops as it is absolutely necessary that there be some place at which the rolling stock of the road can be repaired. It is not, however, definitely known when building operations will commence.

The Lansdowne Theatre.

Last night the "The Big Bonanza" was introduced to a St. John audience in the Lansdowne Theatre, and, surrounded as it was with so many charming features, it certainly made a very favorable impression upon those who had the pleasure of being present. The theatre was literally crowded and among the audience were many of the friends and admirers of that pains taking actor, Mr. Bunny, who it was understood would take a prominent part in this new play.

Much was expected from this gentleman and it is but simple justice to say that as Professor Cawallader, the student, who becomes a stock dealer, he answered very successfully every expectation that had been formed of his playing. His make up was good and his acting first class: Mrs. Jamieson, as his wife, acted well, but good acting always characterizes this lady's work, and she gave Mr. Bunney admirable support throughout the evening.

Mr. Hight, as Jonathan Cawallader the prosperous broker, was an excellent interpretation and Miss Hunter in the role of his wife, was very good indeed. Miss Hampton as Virgie, stepdaughter of the Professor, was also good, and in fact one of the best in the cast. While the little favorite, Miss Haswell, was as naive and interesting, as Eugenia, the daughter of the wealthy broker, as it was possible to be. Mr Fawcett as Uncle Rymple in his make up and acting was so true to character throughout the piece that he was one of the very best impersonations in the cast. Mr. McDowells, who seems to be suffering from a cold, acted well as usual and his character of Bob Ruggles was very well sustained. Miss Mowatt and the other ladies also did their parts well.

"A big Bonanza" will be played to-night again and to morrow night for the last time as an evening performance.

At the Mechanics' Institute.

A good sized audience thoroughly enjoyed the fun at "Peck's Bad Boy" last evening, the title role of which was well carried out by Eddie J. Heron. While in the presentation there is little or no opportunity for refined acting there is an opportunity to display the humorous and ludicrous side of nature, and each member of the company last evening played his or her part in this special line in a most acceptable manner. Miss Susie Howard as Jimmy Duffy the Bad Boy's chum, assisted in the tricks and pranks in such a manner as to call forth much additional merriment to that afforded by the Bad Boy himself. Warren W Asheley as Major Peck, and Harry J. Crandall as Max Schultz, the Groceryman, were in every way just what was expected of men who, while goodnatured of themselves were frequently put about by the practical jokes of the Bad Boy and his chum. John Fenton, as Patrick Duffy, the "North End" policeman acted an inimitable part, and fairly brought down the house by his topical songs and Irish dances. The Grocery-man. Minnie Clay, Jimmy Dffuy and the Bad Boy are all specialists, and were well applauded for their efforts in song and dance.

To-night another performance will be given, with new songs and special features which cannot fail to afford merriment and enjoyment for everyone who takes this opportunity of seeing the funniest play on the boards.
