MEMBERS TO HUSTLE.

The Grind at Ottawa Is Too Tiresome.

TO BE TWO SITTINGS DAILY

In an Endeavor to Hurry Through the Country's Business.

General Gascoigne Says the Canadian Regiment for the Jubilee Festivities Is an Admirable One—An Attempt to Throw Down the American Bank Note Company—More Railway Bonuses—Mr. Tarte to Go Abroad—Ottawa Topics.

Ottawa, June 8.—(Special.)—The desire of Parliament to get through its business is shown by the permission given to the Railway Committee to-day to hold its sittings while the House is actually in session. Only on very rare occasions is this done. The so-called scandal session of 1891 was a notable case in point, when Mr. Tarte's Committee had to hold sittings in the afternoon in order to complete its work.

Sir Richard Cartwright's motion for two sittings daily, commencing on Thursday, was adopted.

What Gen. Gascoigne Says.

Major-General Gascoigne returned from Quebec this morning. On being asked by your correspondent for his candid opinion regarding the Jubilee Contingent, he said he could conscientiously state that the regiment was an admirable one, and would create a very favorable impression in England. He accounted for the unfavorable reports sent out from Quebec the early part of last week by the appearance of the men in mufti. Since, however, the new uniforms had been supplied and fitted the regiment made a most creditable appearance, and he was greatly pleased with it. General Gascoigne leaves for the Niagara Camp to-morrow, thence to London, Kingston and the Quebec Camps.

Sufficient Notice Not Given.

The Standing Orders Committee of the Senate reported in favor of disallowing the petition of the American Bank Note Company for an act of incorporation because sufficient notice of application had not been given. Senator Clemow said it was most unfair for the Senate to throw out this bill on a mere technical objection. The rules of the Senate required that in addition to notice being given in The Canada Gazette, it was also necessary to give notice in the newspapers in the various provinces. The company had given notice in The Canada Gazette, but had, through inadvertance, neglected to give proper notice in the provincial papers. Of course the committee were acting within the rules in refusing the application, but he thought that inasmuch as a number of bills under similar conditions had been allowed this session, the present bill should not be treated differently. He gave notice that he would move that the report be referred back, with instructions to allow application. Senator Macdonald, Chairman of Committee, explained with reference to all other bills allowed on insufficient notice, that they were unopposed bills. This bill had been opposed and parties opposing had invoked the rule.

The Rate of Interest.

There was considerable discussion in committee on Sir Oliver Mowat's bill providing that the rate of interest shall be clearly stated on all promissory notes, on an amendment suggested by Senator Ogilvie exempting loan companies doing business under federal or provincial charters or under the Building Societies Act from the operation of the act. Sir Oliver saw no objection to the amendment, but saw little necessity for it. Senator Ogilvie said that it was merely to prevent the possibility of litigation. After considerable discussion the bill was reported without the amendment.

Railway Bonuses.

It is understood the Government proposes to renew the bonus to the Ottawa & Cornwall Railway at the rate of $200 per mile. It is said the Government also decided to give a subsidy of $6400 a mile for 165 miles of the Rainy River Railway, running from Fort William to Fort Frances.

Will Tickle Conservatives.

Hon. J. Israel Tarte will likely journey to Europe when the session is over.

Mr. Shutt on Manitoba Crops

Mr. Shutt of the Experimental Farm staff returned yesterday from his western trip. He says the prospects for excellent crops in the Territories and Manitoba are very bright. Rain is now wanted. Mr. Shutt states that great interest is being taken in dairying this year.

Ottawa Gets Left.

The Guards and Forty-third Rifles have decided to go to Montreal for the 22nd of June, and take part in military celebrations which will be held there on that date. The Dragoons will also go if satisfactory arrangements can be made about transportation of their horses. Ottawa, therefore, will have to work along without military display.

The Government Bug Man.

Mr. Fletcher, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, addressed the Agriculture Committee this morning on the destruction of weeds, and praised the introduction of broom grass as calculated to solve the problem of providing the Northwest with hay and fodder. He had heard complaints that the trees on Parliament Hill were being destroyed by a caterpillar, but the solution was very simple for the Public Works Department to provide a spray pump with paris green.

Early Closing in Ottawa.

A petition signed by the majority of the hardware merchants of the city was to-day handed to the City Clerk asking that an early closing bylaw be prepared and passed by which all hardware merchants in the city would be compelled to close their places of business at 6 o'clock each day, except on Saturdays and evening preceding public holidays. The petition states that there are 14 hardware stores in the city, and the owners of 9 of these petition for early closing.

The Yukon Road.

The Hudson Bay and Yukon Railway and Navigation Company's bill passed the Railway Committee this morning. It authorizes the building of the line from Chesterfield on Hudson Bay to Slave Lake, and also from a point on Mackenzie River to the Yukon River. The capital stock was placed at $2,000,000, and the company ask power to place vessels on all these waters. The work is to commence within three, and be finished within 10 years. The bill was reported.

Canadian Tidal Survey.

The report of progress of the Canadian tidal survey is out. There are now seven tidal stations in operation on the Atlantic coast. Tide gauges are arranged so as to give a continuous record throughout the year. As a result of operations of the survey for the past two years, tide tables for Quebec and Halifax have been published. Others will be published from time to time.

After the Aliens.

Mr. McMullen gives notice of a bill which, if it ever becomes law, will make business turn over in Southern British Columbia or Lake of the Woods district. It proposes to compel aliens, before they can hold mineral lands or timber limits in Canada, or participate in profits therefrom, to become domiciled in the Dominion and take out naturalization papers as subjects of Her Majesty.

Aid to Manitoba Schools

Mr. Fielding to-night amends the notice of motion regarding financial aid to Manitoba schools. It provides that the Government may pay over to Manitoba sums not exceeding $100,000 in any one year and not exceeding $300,000.

CANADIANS ON TOP.

Toronto Highlanders Won from Britain's Best Regulars in the Military Tournament at Islington.

London, June 8.—At the Royal Military Tournament at the Agricultural Hall, Islington, in the bayonet team fighting to-day, between the regulars and the colonials, the prize was carried off by the 48th Canadian Highlanders.

The above news reached the city at about 5 o'clock last night by a cablegram from Major Henderson to the Highlanders here, which read as follows: "We won against combined picked team composed of Coldstreams, Grenadiers and Scots Guards." The cablegram was bulletined in The World window and caused much rejoicing among the local volunteers, particularly of course the 48th, the members of which were the recipients of many hearty congratulations from their comrades in sister corps.

SOME HEAVY CASES

Which Are to Come On at the Kent Court of Sessions Now Open.

Chatham, Ont., June 8.—The general sessions of the peace for the County of Kent opened at the Court House this afternoon, His Honor Judge Bell presiding. The lists of cases are lengthy, especially the criminal docket, which is one of the most important that has come before Judge Bell for some time. It includes the charges against Brown and Moore, accused of the McConnell holdup, and the attempted murder of Detectives Mahoney and Campeau, and those against the three men Harris, Leonard and Lamont, alleged to have burglarized stores and hotels in Eberts, Darrell and Dresden. These men were arraigned this afternoon and will be brought up for trial on Thursday. A number of petty cases were disposed of.

In the civil docket, the case of R. Martin & Sons v. Roland Jenkins was held over, both parties consenting to trial by judge.

LORD LORNE ON CANADA.

Our Great Resources the Subject of a Paper in The Daily Graphic.

London, June 8.—The Marquis of Lorne, son-in-law of Queen Victoria, and former Governor-General of Canada, is the author of a lengthy and eulogistic review of the progress and present position of Canada, published in The Daily Graphic to-day. Dealing with the vast mining resources of the Dominion, he says: "The half-veiled proposal to repudiate debts owing to the British investors, heard from the platforms of some of Bryan's supporters in the election contest, should make us cherish more than ever the field of investment in our own colonies."

The Marquis of Lorne advocates the establishment of training ships on Canadian coasts to drill the marines and the militia recruited in Canada, and urges a spirit of compromise in England's naval dealings with the colonies, "as a means of insuring our trade in time of war."

Ontario Artists.

A meeting of the Ontario Society of Artists was held in their gallery, 179 King-street west, last night. The following gentlemen were present: Messrs. F S Challoner, W D Blatchly, F McG Knowles, E Wyly Grier, J M Martin, Hamilton MacCarthy, C M Manly, R F Gagen, W A Sherwood, W D Kelly, J A Radford, W Cutts, S M Jones, H Hahn, Mr C M Manly, vice-president of the society, occupied the chair. Mr R F Gagen read the report of the last year's work, which spoke highly for the society. Mr. M. Matthews, the retiring president, was complimented upon the great work which he had accomplished for the society. The following were appointed as the Industrial Exhibition Committee for the arrangement and hanging of pictures: Messrs J M Martin, E Wyly Grier, W A Sherwood and W Cutts. The Catalog Committee, consisting of Messrs F S Challoner, F McG Knowles, W D Kelly was also appointed.

Preacher's Son Killed His Father.

Barbourville, Ky., June 8.—Rev. Perry Lawson, a Methodist divine of this county, was shot and instantly killed this morning by his 15-year-old son, Isham. The father whipped the boy Sunday for some slight offence and the punishment rankled in the little fellow's heart, and cused the crime.

Moulton College.

The commencement exercises were continued last evening when the young ladies showed the result of careful training and study by the admirable way in which they gave samples of elocution. This morning the alumnæ meet and the annual banquet will be held in the evening. To-morrow the prizes will be publicly awarded, prior to the "breaking-up."

HORRORS OF RUSSIA.

Women and Children Buried Alive

IN THE NAME OF RELIGION.

Others Walled Up in Cellars and Allowed to Starve to Death.

A Correspondent of The London Daily News Sends His Paper a Gruesome Account of the Doings of Fanatics Near Odessa — They Worship in Caves and Cellars Which Are Filthy Beyond Description—A Poor Woman and Her Little Ones Buried by the Husband and Father, Who Mourned Because He Could Not Die With Them.

London, June 8.—A special correspondent of The Daily News, who went to Tiraspol, Russia, about 70 miles northwest of Odessa, to inquire into the cause of the self-immolation of a number of persons belonging to the religious sect known as the Raskolniki, says he learns that Feodore Kovaloff, on whose premises the bodies of fifteen victims were found, including those of Kovaloff's wife and two children, will probably not be indicted for the part he took in bringing about the deaths of these victims. After a formal inquiry is made into his mental condition he will in all likelihood be confined in a monastery.

The Man Is Sincere.

The magistrates who are examining into the matter are convinced that Kovaloff is wholly sincere in all that he does, and that he is absolutely unconscious of having committed a crime in having buried six persons alive and walled up nine others in the cellar of his house.

The prisoner belongs to an ultra-fanatical branch of the Raskolniki, called the Beguni. So rigorously exclusive are the members of this branch that they will not eat nor drink from the same utensils used by relatives who have married ordinary members of the Raskolniki. They will not worship in churches or buildings used by others, but only in caves and cellars, which are usually filthy beyond description. Their services are conducted in closely guarded secrecy.

Vitalia Was a Prophetess.

One of the chief personalities of a drama enacted at Ternofka, near Tiraspol, was a woman called Vitalia, who was a prophet, priest and preacher. She was the daughter of respectable, well-to-do parents, and was fairly well educated. She entered an orthodox convent in her youth, but later joined the Raskolniki. Some time ago she suddenly vanished, and was not heard of until her body was exhumed at Ternofka.

At the time of her self-immolation she was 40 years old. She was of an ascetic temperament, with commanding figure, and was possessed of persuasive eloquence. She had great power among the peasantry, who formed her chief audiences. An instance of her influence may be cited. In February, on the occasion of the taking of the census, Vitalia declared that the purpose of the enumeration was to prepare an image with which all of those who would shortly be summoned to the judgment seat of God. Her hearers unquestioningly accepted her statement, and when the enumerators came around to take the census their efforts to obtain the required information were in vain.

An instance of the influence of Vitalia was the wailing up of Kovaloff's wife and children. During the taking of the census Kovaloff arrived home one evening and found his young wife strangely depressed.

Kovaloff's Wife Was Troubled.

His inquiries as to what was troubling her elicited the information that she was afraid that the enumerators would enter the names of their two children upon the accursed record, with the result that they would ultimately be forced to join the orthodox church and thereby be irrevocably doomed to eternal perdition. The woman declared that she was therefore resolved to sacrifice the children with herself.

Kovaloff, who had hitherto been the least fanatical of the Beguni, was horrified by his wife's avowal. Failing to dissuade her he went to seek the counsel and enlist the help of Vitalia.

The prophetess hastened to the mother, and instead of trying to prevent her self-sacrifice, commended her for her holy and laudable resolve.

She finally convinced Kovaloff that by self-martrydom he and his family could alone hope for salvation. It was in obedience to her behests that Kovaloff performed the dreadful tragedy, himself meanwhile grieving continuously that he was not allowed to die with his wife and children.

The Czar has been profoundly impressed by the story, and is receiving minute reports of the progress of the inquiry.

To Investigate Thessaly.

Constantinople, June 8.—The British, Russian and Italian Ambassadors are sending representatives to Thessaly with instructions to report on the situation there.

The third meeting between the Turkish Minister for Foreign Affairs, Tewfik Pasha, and the Ambassadors of the powers, to arrange a permanent basis for peace between Turkey and Greece, took place to-day.

Packed in Like Sardines.

London, June 9.—The special correspondent of The Daily News at Tiraspol describes, in a second letter to-day, the scene at the place of entombment. He says the spaces were so cramped that the victims were obliged to pack themselves in like sardines, heads and feet alternately. One scooped a cavity in the clayey wall with his fingers to give room to lay his head and shoulders.

The interments all took place in the night time. The victims donned their best clothes, then their funeral shrouds and prostrated themselves resignedly and silently, always in the presence of some passive co-fanatic. There was not a single involuntary moan or movement while Kovaloff with his spade slowly covered them.

A report has just arrived at Tiraspol, says the correspondent, of suspected self-immolations practised for years past at the village of Pletzkee, about 16 versts distant, and the police have been ordered to make an investigation.

THE 'PRENTICE BOYS.

Ontario Grand Lodge Met Yesterday at Gananoque—Welcomed by the Town and Well Treated

Gananoque, Ont., June 8.—The twenty-seventh annual session of the Ontario Grand Lodge of 'Prentice Boys was opened here to-day, with Grand Master J. R. Gerrow in the chair. About 35 delegates were in attendance. The afternoon session was taken up with routine work, appointing committees and the Grand Master's address, which dealt largely with the financial condition of the order and the membership. The order was shown to be in a flourishing condition, with largely increasing membership and many new lodges being instituted.

Grand Secretary N. E. Hinch of Toronto, when asked what stand the Grand Lodge would take on the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty, replied that their lodge was non-political and did not deal with any political questions.

In the evening the delegates and members of the local lodge attended a special divine service in Grace (Methodist) Church, where Rev. Dr. Jackson preached a very interesting sermon to them, dealing largely with the benefits of fraternal societies.

After the church service the delegates repaired to the lodge room, where the business of the Grand Lodge was resumed.

Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 6, of Gananoque, presented an address of welcome and extended to the Grand Lodge an invitation to take a 50-mile trip through the celebrated Thousand Islands this afternoon, and also to partake of a banquet in the evening. The only other business of last night's session was the election and installation of officers, as follows:

R.W.G.M., Bro. E. J. R. Gerrow, Belleville; Deputy G.M., Bro. Lieut.-Col. K. B. Checkley, Linden Bank, North Augusta; Deputy, George B. Haines, Gananoque; Grand Secretary, S. B. Capes, Gananoque; Assistant Secretary, N. E. Hinch, Camden East; Grand Treasurer, Henry Angrove, Kingston; Grand Chaplain, A. M. Ketcheson, Belleville; Grand Lecturer, J. Carver, Kingston; Assistant Lecturer, Thomas Baker, Gananoque; Grand Director of Ceremonies, W. F. Grundy, Gananoque; Inside Tyler, Bro. I. L. O. Cobet, Kingston; Outside Tyler, James Kennedy, Tichbone Mills; District Deputy G.M. 1, and Past Grand Master Gerrow 2, W. H. Hart, Belleville, 3; John Munden, Gananoque.

At this morning's session a deputation of the Mayor and Town Council waited on the Grand Lodge, and on behalf of the citizens Mayor C. E. Britton welcomed the delegates to Gananoque.

Extended Insurance.

The unconditional accumulative policies issued by the Confederation Life Association guarantee extended insurance after two years, for an amount which is definitely stated in the policy. It is not necessary to apply to the association for this benefit. It works automatically. Paid-up policies and cash values also guaranteed. Full information will be sent on application to the Head Office, Toronto, or to any of the association's agents.

NOW IT'S ALL JUBILEE.

The Spirit of It Grows Daily, and Preparations Will Be on An Elaborate Scale.

What a gala time will be the 60th anniversary of Her Majesty's reign! What with celebrations and social functions all giving vent to the loyalty spirit, the town will be hardly able to contain itself, and whether it's things to eat, things to use, or things to wear, if it's not branded Jubilee, it's nothing. There'll be Jubilee ties, Jubilee collars, Jubilee boots, Jubilee everything, and, last, but not least, Jubilee Hats.

Right in the spirit of the idea Dineens have opened four cases of Jubilee hats, a specially handsome block in soft fedora with close curl brim, silk trimmings and Russia sweat; they come in four colors—black, brown, otter and pearl—in all sizes—and a Jubilee badge woven in silk in every hat. The hat is a particularly nice hat for wheeling; it's lighter than straw, and easier fitting, and makes a comfortable hat for street wear. In conformity with ruling prices during the big hat sale at the firm's temporary premises, 81 Yonge-street, the really $3 value will be sold out at $2. The window display will interest you.

The Scarlet Fever Scare.

For some weeks past the citizens have been alarmed concerning the possibilities of scarlet fever being spread through the milk supply. This excitement is by no means foundationless, but on the contrary is most probable, excepting in dairies where the utmost vigilance is exercised. The system of the Alpine Dairy Company is as near perfection as possible. They scald all of their bottles in water at 145 degrees of heat and then run them through dry steam, which would kill a germ if it had 50 lives. This is the only safe mode of carrying on a dairy business and such people should assuredly be appreciated and freely patronized. Mr. Hockin, jr., the manager of the company, would consider it a favor to show anyone through their creditable premises.

KING-STREET AFTER DARK.

King-street enjoys the distinction of being at once the most fashionable and the lowest thoroughfare in Toronto. During the morning it is filled with shoppers and is entirely respectable. In the afternoon it is frequented by the smart and fashionable people and is the most favored promenade in the city.

In the evening all is changed, particularly on that part of the street that lies between Yonge and Simcoe-streets. Darkness brings forth the imps of evil. No sooner do the electric lights cast long, quivering shadows than the vile brood of bad women, gamblers, runners, thugs, beggars and thieves take possession of the street and monopolize it until after midnight.

It is a notorious fact that decent women shun this thoroughfare after dark. Common modesty forbids them to run the gauntlet of lecherous eyes that burn with evil light from the faces of the social toads who haunt this thoroughfare under the cover of darkness.

Travelers have remarked that King-street is fast gaining a reputation that bids fair to eclipse that of any haunt of social outcasts in all America.

Gambling dens and resorts of even a worse character are to be found all along the street and the male portion of this disgusting fraternity are permitted to hang around the reading rooms and corridors of public houses that are otherwise respectable.

IT WILL BE GORGEOUS.

Government Will Spend a Lot of Money

ON DIAMOND JUBILEE DAY.

How the Parliament Buildings Are to be Illuminated by Electricity.

Ten Thousand Incandescent Lights Will Be Used in the Display in Honor of Canada's Queen—How the Beautiful Designs Will Be Carried Out—The Capital Will Be a Mecca on Jubilee Day.

Ottawa, June 8.—(Special.)—A grand sight is promised for visitors to the Capital on Jubilee Day. The Government has decided to not only decorate the Parliament Buildings on that day, but also to have an illumination at night. The illumination will, without doubt, be the finest ever seen in the capital. Fully 10,000 incandescent lights will be used in the display, which will be made on the centre block and the Capital. Fully 10,000 incandescent lights will be used in the display at the centre block. Eleven hundred will be used in lighting the main tower alone. Twelve hundred lamps will be festooned across the face of the building between the third and fourth floor windows. On the western tower of the block, in front of the fourth storey windows, there will be a crown of lights enclosed by a circle, and at the same height on the tower, some 60 feet east, there will be two stars within a circle. A short distance below the third storey windows of the western tower, and in line with the crown and circle, there will be the figures "1837," and extending horizontally across to the more eastern tower will be the words "Queen's Jubilee," and "1897." Over the main entrance to the block there will be an arch of lights, surmounted by a crown, and half way between the main entrance and the tower clock there will be a crown and letters "V. R. I." enclosed by a circle. At the Postoffice, lights forming the words "Jubilee" and "God Save the Queen," will be strung across the eastern face of the building and the fancy stone work over the clock will be studded with lights.

MONTREAL'S JUBILEE REVIEW.

Ottawa Soldiers Are Expected to Go Down and Help the Metropolis to Celebrate on the 22nd of the Month.

Montreal, June 8.—(Special.)—Governor-General's Foot Guards of Ottawa have definitely accepted the invitation to come to Montreal to participate in the Diamond Jubilee Review on June 22, and the Princess Louise Dragon Guards are also considered certain to accept. It is also expected that one result of the Guards' acceptance will be the abandonment of the proposal to hold a Jubilee Review in Ottawa. If that suggestion had been carried out Major-General Gascoigne had announced his intention of remaining at Ottawa. Now it is considered that there is every prospect of his coming to Montreal to take charge of the big parade. From the acceptances already received it appears that there will be at least 3000 men in line on Logan's Park, exclusive of the veterans, who will probably number 300 more.

A VERY SAD DROWNING.

Albert Kendrick, Aged 14, Swept Over Burk's Falls on a Plank.

Burk's Falls, Ont., June 8.—A very sad drowning accident occurred here about 10.30 this morning. Albert Kendrick, 14-year-old son of Mr. John Kendrick of this place, while crossing the dam at the falls, stepped on a plank, which, on account of the rapidly rising water, was swept over the falls, carrying the boy with it. The body was seen floating in the eddy below for a few seconds, but has not yet been recovered. Sincere sympathy is felt for the bereaved family. The father, who is dying of cancer, is almost frantic.

Summery Novelties.

This is the time of the year when changes come so abruptly that there is hardly time to catch one's breath between spring gone and summer come. As is usual at this season, soft neckwear has taken on a considerable importance. The newest creation, the Wolseley, which Quinn is now showing in the most seductive colorings, at twenty-five and fifty cents, is the tie of the hour for either gentlemen or ladies.

When you ask for Adams' Tutti Frutti see that you get it. Some dealers, to obtain a big profit, try to palm off imitations.
