YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

The evening service in the Exmouth Street Methodist church yesterday was in the charge of the young women of the congregation and was one of special interest. The pastor, Rev. H. E. Thomas, who conducted the service, delivered an appropriate sermon, taking as his theme, "The model young woman." The principal elements which were found in the model young woman of today he enumerated in turn and said that in the model young woman was found the highest degree of physical development. She was industrious, economical and cultured, and above all, religious. The ushering at the service was done by young women and the choir was composed entirely of young women. The offertory was taken by six young women. There was a dignity and impressiveness about the service which was particularly marked. The special numbers in the music included a solo by Miss Edith Magee and a duet by Miss Magee and Miss Barton.

The Methodist congregation in Westfield assembled yesterday for the first time in the new Sunday school, the first part of the new church building to be completed. The former church and parsonage were completely destroyed in the great fire at Westfield on Aug. 6, 1921, and already the new parsonage is in use and the new Sunday school completed. There was much rejoicing at the services held in the school room yesterday and it was filled to capacity both morning and evening. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Robert Smart, who delivered two impressive and appropriate sermons. The music also was especially suited to the occasion and Mrs. Smart acted as the accompanist. The new buildings are being lighted by electricity from the Musquash hydro development and it was a particularly favorable occurrence that the installation had been completed through that section of Westfield and the new lights were used on the day of the dedication.

The congregation of the Central Baptist church has extended an invitation to Rev. James Dunlop, the acting pastor, to remain in charge for the remainder of the winter. Mr. Dunlop, when he first undertook the duties of acting pastor, only consented to remain until the end of the year, He has not yet given a definite answer but is considering the invitation to remain for a longer period.

In the afternoon the Sunday school had a large attendance and Mr. Dunlop spoke to the Philathea class of young ladies, of which Mrs. Frederick Bryden is the president. Mrs. Bryden was the chairman for the meeting and Mr. Dunlop gave an able address on the "Psychology of Women's Work." Miss Bertie Campbell sang the solo, "Consider and Hear Me."

The evening service was conducted by the Baraca Brotherhood. The choir was composed of about forty young men under the leadership of Dr. I. W. N. Baker and special music was sung by a male quartette. Mr. Dunlop preached a forceful sermon, taking for his subject "God's search for an honest man."

Speaking on behalf of the British and Foreign Bible Society, Hon. J. G. Forbes addressed a large congregation in St. Phillip's church last night and received splendid support. The church was filled and the service was conducted by the minister, Rev. Claude Stewart. The music was greatly inspiring. For his text Judge Forbes took "Behold I set before you an open door." He told of the work of the Bible Society in Africa, in Europe, in Canada and in New Brunswick, and appealed to the members of the congregation to support that work. Judge Forbes is the president of the New Brunswick Bible Society and for fifteen years consecutively has been the vice-president of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

The first anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. J. A. Swetnam at the Waterloo street Baptist church was remembered yesterday morning by the pastor, who took for his subject, "The past, present and future of the church." He gave a short history of the church, in which he referred to the pastors who had had charge of the church during the last thirty years and their work during that period. He also referred to the deacons who had supported them during that time.

In the afternoon the Bible Class was largely attended and several new members were voted into the class. Allan Marley, the new president of the class, occupied the chair. H. E. Hoyt, the retiring president, after a short address, fastened the insignia of office

Continuing his series of sermons on the great hymns of the church, Rev. A. L. Fleming, in St. John's (Stone) church last night, had for the subject of his address, "Lead Kindly Light," which was written by Rev. J. H. Newman. The anthem sung by the choir was Gounod's "Send out Thy light." At the close of the service a short organ recital was given by J. F. Browne and the large congregation greatly enjoyed the service and the following recital.

Preaching in St. Paul's church last night on "Hell," Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot declared that the words of Christ in describing the last judgment, "Depart from Me ye cursed," contained a sufficient definition of "hell" and a sufficient evidence of its existence. The sermon was the third on the series dealing with the four last things, Death, Judgment, Hell and Heaven.

ARMED RUSSIANS FAIL IN EFFORT TO CAPTURE CHINESE COAL MINES

Vladivostok, Dec. 11—Armed Russians have crossed the Manchurian frontier at Aliurao and attempted to capture the Chinese coal mines, according to a report here today. They attacked garrisons of Chang-Solin, who, with reinforcements, repulsed the Russians.
