The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrins' wedding march, rendered by her sister, Miss Marion Dunn, who acted as organist. During the ceremony the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The bride looked very lovely in a gown of white satin brocade en train with pearl trimmings and wearing the regulation veil and orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley, and was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Dunn, charmingly gowned in pale blue silk with tunic of chantilly lace and garnitures of tiny pink rosebuds and wearing a Juliet cap.
