FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

CHIPMAN

Chipman, N. B., Sept. 22—Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, of St. John, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Branscombe.

Miss H. Burns, nurse in attendance with the late Mrs. Robinson Watson, returned to her home in Fredericton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Smith and her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Conn, of Winnipeg, spent a few days of last week in Fredericton.

The funeral of the late James Parkhill was held on Monday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. E. E. Mowatt, interment taking place in Red Bank cemetery.

Arthur Scribner left on Friday for Moncton, where he has a position, and where he expects to remain for the winter.

Mrs. Vernon Lamb, of St. Andrews, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Burton.

Dr. W. W. Blackman and W. J. Blackman, of Maine, are spending a week in Chipman.

Miss Sarah Ward left on Friday for Elgin, where she will be a guest of Mrs. Leonard Colpitts.

William White, of Boston, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Miss Flora Branscombe, of Cumberland Bay, was a guest of Miss Hassan at the Hassan House over Sunday.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brown on Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, Rev. David Price united in marriage their daughter, Miss Alberta Brown, and Joseph Wry, and also Jarvis Brown and Miss Zella McAllister, of Kingscroft (N. B.), and on the same evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jardine, Miss Mame Jardine and John Fulton, and Miss Agnes Hopkins and Eben Laugin, of Plaster Rock, were united in marriage by Rev. E. E. Mowatt. Mr. and Mrs. Langin will reside at Edmundston (N. B.), the other couples making their homes here for the present.

Mrs. A. L. Gallupe, of Portland (Me.), is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Harry Burton was at home to her friends for the first time since her marriage. She was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. Vernon Lamb, of St. Andrews, and by Mrs. R. C. Ritchie. Miss Doris King attended the door, and Miss Elspeth King ushered them to the dining room. Mrs. Harry King poured tea and Miss Margaret Porter and Miss Helen Baird assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Holly, of [illegible] John, spent part of this week [illegible] village.

Mrs. A. B. Woodley, of St. [illegible] guest of friends in the vil[illegible]

C. W. Bebe and daugh[illegible] Bebe, of Brooklyn (N[illegible] of Mr. and Mrs. A[illegible]

Mrs. Wm. Mac[illegible] spending the w[illegible] ents, Mr. and [illegible]

Rally day w[illegible] church here o[illegible] D. Price, con[illegible] the evening.

Mrs. Will[illegible] rilla Pape[illegible] of friends i[illegible]

Miss Mai[illegible] day for B[illegible] take a co[illegible] of Oratory.

The sch[illegible] destroyed [illegible] night, its content[illegible] total loss. The origin of [illegible] is not known.

Bishop L[illegible]anc, of St. John, was in the village this week attending the confirmation service in the Catholic church on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Dora Barton, of The Range, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler.

S. J. Parkhill, of St. John, was in town this week attending the funeral of his father, the late James Parkhill.

Mrs. M. B. Rees, of Cumberland Point, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Farris.

Mrs. Frank Reed, of Gagetown, was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Darrah, over Sunday.

Miss Olive Porter, of Westfield, is spendin ga week with friends here.

HARTLAND

Hartland, N. B., Sept. 20—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Campbell and their granddaughter, Miss Ena McAdam, motored to Fredericton last week.

Mrs. Frank Watson left on Monday for Portland (Me.), where she will visit friends before proceeding to New York.

W. D. Keith is attending the Retail Merchants' Association meetings in St. John this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russel motored from Hodgdon (Me.) and were the guests on Sunday of Rev. George Kincaid and Mrs. Kincaid at the Baptist parsonage.

Mrs. Arthur Y. Dickinson is spending a few days this week at Fort Fairfield, the guest of her mother.

Miss Smith arrived on Saturday from St. John to take charge of the millinery department at Keith & Plummer's for the fall season.

Miss Jean Miller spent the week-end with friends in Woodstock.

James Jackson, of Houlton (Me.), and Miss Millie Scott, a student at Reicker, Houlton, this year, were guests this week of Rev. George Kincaid and Mrs. Kincaid.

E. A. Morgan and Clyde Rideout attended the Sunday school convention held at East Florenceville Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Miss Ruth Boyer left on Friday for St. John, where she will enter the business college as a student.

Miss Elsa Sipprelle, who has spent the past month in Perth, came home on Wednesday.

About twenty members of the Philathea class of the United Baptist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Read Monday evening and presented to one of their number, Miss Julia McCollum, a cut glass water set. Miss McCollum is this month to be married to Harry Carvell, of Lakeville.

Mrs. S. S. Miller attended the Sunday school convention at Florenceville on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ziba Oiser and daughter, Thelma, spent a few days last week in St. Mary's.

Miss Jennie Boyer returned on Monday to Fort Fairfield, after spending her vacation at her home here.

Quartermaster-Sergeant Arthur B. Curtis and Mrs. Curtis, of Woodstock, spent the week-end at the home of Dr. I. B. Curtis.

Mrs. C. A. Trafton, of Five Fingers, and her sister, Miss Grace Bird, were the guests this week of Mrs. W. P. McMullin.

Ernest Beggs, of Liverpool (Eng.), is visiting this week at the home of his great-uncle, J. T. G. Carr.

Miss Cora Shannon left on Monday for Boston, where she has a position as teacher.

Miss Sara McMullin spent the week-end in Woodstock visiting friends.

Mr and Mrs. Warren White are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl to their home on Wednesday.

BAYFIELD

Bayfield, Sept. 22—Mr. and Mrs. Renwick Crawford of Murray Corner (N. B.), accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Briggs of Soence (N. B.), motored to this place on Sunday and were the guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ward and daughter, Charlottie, of Upper Cape (N. B.), accompanied by the former's mother, Mrs. Maria Ward, spent Sunday in this place, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Allen.

Miss Kathleen Allen of Upper Cape (N. B.), visited friends here recently.

Mr. Joseph Harper, of Port Elgin (N. B.), made a business trip to this place on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Spence of Spence (N. B.), accompanied by the former's paren[illegible] George Spence, mo[illegible] day, and [illegible] Am[illegible]th [illegible] ome here.

PETITCODIAC

Petitcodiac, Sept. 22—Mrs. J. E. Hiltz returned from Amherst on Saturday. While there she was the guest of her son, F. W. Hiltz.

Miss Fannie Bourness, graduate nurse, who has been taking a post-graduate course at the Lying-in Hospital, New York, is the guest of her uncle, Arthur Bourness.

Mrs. M B. Keith and Mrs. H. W. Wilson have returned from Halifax.

The Misses McDonald and Palmer are again occupying their cottage after a month spent in Boston.

N. McKay returned Saturday from Hopewell Cape, where he was attending his mother's funeral.

Edward Bourness was a visitor in St. John last week.

Miss Jennie Bent, of Salisbury, has been a visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Hiltz.

Private Henry Gogan, of the 26th Battalion, is home for a two months' rest, and was warmly welcomed by his many friends.

Mrs. Wm. Tucker, of Elgin, was the guest of Mrs. P. Mann the first of the week.

Rev. A. E. Chapman and son, Ray, of Welsford, are visitors in town.

John White is off on a trip to the west to look after real estate owned by him there.

William Killam, of Boston, spent Wednesday and Thursday with his brother, John, and sister, Mrs. A. Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Parkin and Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilmott motored to St. Stephen the first of the week.

Mrs. J. Esty is the guest of relatives in Portageville.

Mrs. John Sheridan and Miss Blanche who spent a week in town the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Stockton, have returned to their home in Buctouche.

FAIR VIEW

Fair View, Sept. 23—Rev. F. J. LeRoy, St. Martins, who has not been able to conduct his services lately on account of ill-health, is improving. He had been away on a vacation and returned to St. Matrias last week where he held services on Sunday last, but was unable to have his services here. He expects to continue his regular services here in the future.

Rev. T. Spencer Crisp, pastor of the Methodist circuit at Newtown, Kings county, but formally of this circuit made a visit to this circuit last week. Mr. Crisp held service at St. Martins and Little Beach on Sunday last. He was unable to hold any week night service on the circuit on account of ill-health. He returned to Newtown on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Ernest I. Daly, who had been in a sanitarium at St. John since the middle of June last, returned to her home here last week. Mrs. Daley has been suffering from lung trouble for some time, but has improved since entering the sanitarium and has now a hope of recovery. Her many friends wish her a complete restoration to health.

Chester H. Black, who had been employed in St. John during the summer, returned to his home last week. He is now employed by Mr. Tufts, Great Salmon River, manager of the Pejebscot Paper Company there.

Privates Lew. W. Brown and William J. Black, both of the No. 9 Siege Battery, now stationed at Partridge Island, arrived here on Saturday last on a farewell visit to their many firends and relatives, who presented each of them with a military luminous dial wrist watch. Privates Brown and Black were called to St. John again on Wednesday last but this battery is to leave for Halifax in a few days. Their many friends regret that they could not remain longer with them.

William Greer is spending a few days at Penfield, as the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Herbert Holland.

On the afternoon of Monday last a party of the young people of this place went to the woods on a hunting excursion. Although they were unsuccessful in capturing any game it resulted in a very enjoyable trip.

The farmers of this neighborhood have about finished the harvesting of their grain as the weather has been most suitable.

Mrs. Allen F. Brown, who has been very ill, has improved somewhat today.

Rev. Mason Linton, St. Martins, pastor of the Methodist church here, but formerly of the Newtown Methodist circuit, is spending a few weeks at Newtown.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 25—Mr. and Mrs. Annis, of Ayers (Me.), are visiting at Riverside, Mrs. Annis' old home. Mr. and Mrs. Annis were in Moncton to attend the wedding of the latter's nephew, and will spend a week or so at Riverside before returning to their home in Maine. Mrs. Annis, who is a sister of W. J. Carnwath and Dr. J. T. M. Carnwath, was a resident of this village some years ago, and many warm friends both here and at Riverside are pleased to see her again.

Henry E. Tingley, a popular young man of the village, was given a surprise party last evening by the young people, it being the anniversary of his birthday. An enjoyable time was spent in games, etc., with refreshments at the close of evening.

H. S. Wright, of this place, has received recent word from his two brothers, Private Hugh C. Wright and Gunner W. Clark Wright, both of whom are at the battle front in France, the former, when went over with the 26th Battalion and has ben in the thick of the fighting ever since, being now with the machine gun section of the 5th Brigade, and the latter a telephonist with the heavy artillery. Gunner Wright who was a clerk in the Bank of Nova Scotia, went [illegible]oss with the 4th Siege Battery and got to the front. The brothers met [illegible]gland before Gunner Wright cross[illegible] channel and his brother was on [illegible]nd they are now located at oppo[illegible]s of the Canadian front, doing [illegible]y for king and country. The [illegible]ng men are sons of James C. [illegible] of this village and are a credit [illegible] native place.

[illegible]well Hill, Sept. 26—Captain [illegible]rey Newcomb and Mrs. New[illegible] of Philadelphia, are visiting at [illegible]ll Cape, the guests of Mr. and [illegible] A. Tingley. Captain and Mrs. [illegible]mb are both natives of the shire [illegible] the latter being a daughter of W. [illegible]ight, for many years county sec[illegible]ry.

Among the successful hunters of big game reported has been Councillor W. H. Martin, of Waterside, who the other day shot a fine moose without getting out of his automobile and only being about a quarter of an hour from home. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Peck, of Albert, are each reported to have shot a moose.

The fine residence of J. Alton Tingley at the Cape had a somewhat narrow escape from destruction by fire a few nightsago. A smell of smoke in the night aroused the household when it was found a fire had caught under the veranduah and had burned the front door and getting inside had destroyed four overcoats and other articles. Fortunately the flames were discovered in time to prevent extensive damage.

Mrs. David Barbour, of Riverside, went to Moncton on Saturday to see her son, Private Kenneth Barbour, who went through on that night with the 145th Battalion.

Rev. Ervin Miller and Mrs. Miller, of the state of Maine, have been at the shiretown visiting the latter's mother Mrs. Ada Bennett, and returned home today. While in the county Rev. Mr. Miller occupied the pulpit of the First Hillsboro Baptist church and also took one service at the Cape.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ayer have returned to their home at Hopewell Cape after a month's visit with their son and daughter at Deepdale (Man.).

SALISBURY

Salisbury, Sept. 25—Mrs. Charles Jones who has been visiting at Havelock for a few weeks, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Keith, returned home a few days ago.

Donald MacNeil, the second son of Rev. Norman A. MacNeill, pastor of the Salisbury United Baptist church, has secured a position in the Bank of Montreal at Moncton. Mr. MacNeill is a popular young man and will be greatly missed here. He was a member of the Baptist church choir and of the Salisbury Cornet Band. His elder brother, John, enlisted for overseas service last year with the McGill College company.

Rev. A. D. McCully, B.D., was called to the Colpitts section of his pastorate on the 13th inst., to officiate at the marriage of Miss Annie Lelia Colpitts, and Charles W. Hawkes, at the home of the bride'r parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Colpitts. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkes will reside in Moncton.

William F. S. Steeves, of Hillsboro (N. B.), is paying a visit to his Salisbury relatives, and also visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wilford Jones, at Boundary Creek. Mr. Steves was for a long time a resident of Salisbury and has many friends here who are always pleased to see him.

Deacon Jordan C. Crandall, of Lower Petitcodiac, who during the last few years has made his home at Penobsquis with his eldest daughter, rMs. George Weldon, was visiting his relatives at Moncton, Salisbury, River Glade and Petitcodiac last week, and met with a cordial welcome. Deacon Crandall has reached the advanced age of 88 years and retains his strength and faculties in a marked degree for a man of his age.

Rev. A. D. McCully, B.D., exchanged pulpits last Sunday with Rev. A. E. Chapman, B.A., of Weisford. This is Rev. Mr. Chapman's native place and he was accorded a warm welcome. He was the guest while in Salisbury of his brother, William T. Chapman.

Austin Taylor returned on Saturday to Sackville to resume his studies at Mount Allison Academy. During his holidays Mr. Taylor had to undergo an operation for appendicitis which greatly marred the pleasure of his vacation. He has fully regained his former health, however.

A Salisbury woman, Mrs. Alfred Beckwith, of Monteagle, Salisbury, is being congratulated on her skill with the rifle. While visiting her husband, who for some time has been guarding the big Transcintinental railway bridge across the Canaan river, Mrs. Beckwith in taking a stroll one morning espied two fine moose near the railway track. She quietly took cover behind the crest of the railway embankment took up a position where she could take good aim and fired killing the larger moose which was a big bull with fine head and antlers. The animal when dressed weighed between 500 and 600 pounds. Many of Mrs. Beckwith's people have enlisted. Her husband is guarding an important railway bridge, her son and three of her brothers and many of her cousins are wearing the khaki. Her older brother, Fred Lewis, is the heavyweight of the 145th Battalion. If one lady in each home in Canada were as good a shot with the rifle as Mrs. Beckwith, we would have a pretty efficient home guard.

Lieutenant George Chapman, of the 145th Battalion, is spending a few days here iwth his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Chapman. Lieutenant Chapman hoped to cross over with his battalion but as his health has not been quite satisfactory of late he will remain in Canada for a time.

Miss Doris Metzler, of Moncton, was the guest here last week of Mr. and Mrs. James McWilliams.

Miss Hattie Duncan returned home recently from a pleasant visit in Moncton, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Duncan Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wortman and children, who have been at Mrs. Wortman's home at Steeves Settlement, attending the Wilson-Steves wedding, are spending a few days in Salisbury with Mr. Wortman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Wortman, before returning to their home in Moncton. The Wilson-Steeves wedding referred to was solemnized on Wednesday, the 20th inst., at the home of thebride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ssteeves, at Steeves Settlement, when their daughter, Miss Nellie Gertrude Steeves became the bride of George M. Wilson, of Moncton. Rev. R. Osgood Morse tying the nuptial knot. The bride and groom will tour the Canadian west as far as Medicine Hat, on their return they will reside in Moncton.

Quite a number of Salisbury people were in Moncton Saturday evening to say good-by to their friends in the 145th Battalion who passed through the railway city en route to Halifax.

Wilbert J. Carter, who has been spending the summer holidays here with his parents, Captain and Mrs. J. W. Carter, left on Monday for Sackville to resume his studies at Mount Allison University.

YARMOUTH

Yarmouth, N. S., Sept. 23—The death occurred Thursday morning at the home of her son, Stanley, of Jane Allen, widow of the late Dennis Horton, after a few days' illness of paralysis, aged seventy-four years and two months. Mrs. Horton was a daughter of the late Captain George Allen, of Milton, and was married to Mr. Horton on June 8, 1869, by which marriage the following children were born: Stanley, Edward and Albert D., of Yarmouth, and Wentworth, of Boston. She was a valued member of Tabernacle church, and took an active part in working for anything pertaining to its welfare. Interment is being made in Mountain cemetery this afternoon.

Colin Crawford Gray, son of James S. Gray, of this town, passed away at his home at an early hour Thursday morning of tuberculosis. Deceased was born in Halifax in 1895, but moved to Yarmouth with his parents when a small boy. He was a very clever lad in all his studies, having graduated from Yarmouth Academy, then from Mount Allison, where he attained high honors, after which he entered McGill University. Although of a very quiet nature, he was a lover of sport, and had many friends. He was also a member of Providence church, and when at home was a regular attendant at the Sunday afternoon boys' class. This is the second son that the family have been called upon to part with within the last four months. Besides his father he is survived by three sisters and two brothers. The funeral will take place from the house tomorrow afternoon, and will be conducted by the members of the 85th Battalion, with which he enlisted last winter.

Miss Muriel C. Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robbins, formerly of this town, but now of Vancouver, was recently married to Walter Gordon Shore, of the same place. The wedding took place in the Kitsilano Methodist church, and was performed by Rev. J. G. Brown, in the presence of the immediate relatives.

St. Ambrose church was the scene of a quiet military wedding on Monday morning at 7 o'clock, when Lenora, youngest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, of Cape Forchu, became the bride of Sergeant Robert Lauder, of the 219th Battalion, formerly of Scotland. Rev. Father Martin officiated. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of khaki with white picture hat, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. James Glen. Private Clarence Walsh, a cousin of the bride, also of the 219th Battalion, supported the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The bride was the recipient of many useful presents.

Mrs. A. L. Bower left by D. A. R. yesterday morning for Truro, to meet her grandson, Richard Stephens, of the signalling corps, now stationed at Ottawa.

Mrs. Adelbert B. Eldridge arrived home on Wednesday evening from her trip to the Halifax exhibition.

Misses Mame and Lena Spears, of Boston, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Alex. Spears, Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Richards left Tuesday evening for Boston to visit their son, Dr. Bradford Richards, in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Taylor and bride, of Los Angeles (Cal.), are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Taylor, Parade street.

H. B. Sadlier, of South Hamilton (Mass.), arrived here Wednesday evening via St. John to spend a vacation.

Miss Frieda Wyman, of Simmons Children's Hospital, Boston, who has been visiting her home here, left Tuesday evening to take up her duties at the above place.

Captain Robert A. Goudey, of the bark Howth, at present in New York, arrived here this morning on business. He returned this evening.

Rev. W. G. Lanes, who has been spending a week in Yarmouth, left to return to St. John Monday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Horsefall, of Boston, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Porter, left to return home Tuesday evening.

Miss Catherine Annabel left Monday morning for St. John, to visit her sister, Mrs. Thomas Ellis.

Miss Arabel McKay, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McKay, left Tuesday evening for Melrose (Mass.)

Mrs. H. H. Hatfield returned home on Wednesday from a trip to New York.

Mrs. I. M. Lovitt left Tuesday evening for Boston.

Miss Catherine Farish, who has been visiting her father, Henry G. Farish, left Wednesday evening to return to New York.

Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Williamson left Wednesday evening on a trip to Boston and Providence (R. I.)

Donovan Raymond returned from New York on Wednesday and has resumed his work at A. K. VanHorne's.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Cogswell, of Jersey City, arrived here Wednesday morning to visit relatives at Arcadia.

Mrs. Bessie Lovitt and daughter, Miss Madeline, who have been visiting in Halifax and Kentville, returned home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harry Howell, of Vancouver (B. C.), who has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Clark Robbins, left by steamer Prince George yesterday afternoon en route for the above place.

A. S. Creighton, of the Royal Bank of Canada, Port of Spain, Trinidad, arrived here yesterday morning to join Mrs. Creighton, who has been spending the summer in Yarmouth.

Miss Gladys Morrill, of the Maritime Tel. & Tel. Co., left yesterday evening to spend her vacation in and about Boston.

Mrs. John H. Killam, accompanied by her niece, Miss Marcella Johnson, left Wednesday evening for Boston.

Rev. C. B. Sinden and Prof. A. Roy Williams left yesterday afternoon for Boston.

John G. Kiliam and bride, of Portsmouth (N. H.), arrived here Wednesday morning to visit Mrs. Killam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foulis, Rockville.

Mrs. George Killam, of New York, who has been visiting Mrs. Stephen D. Killiam, left yesterday afternoon for home.

Jonathan Horton, of Bridgewater, is on a few days' visit to Yarmouth.

Miss Hazel Evans, of Halifax, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Putnam, has left to return home.

Miss Dorothy Suttie, who recently graduated from the Hale Hospital, Haverhill (Mass.), arrived here yesterday morning to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Suttie, Vancouver street. She was accompanied by Miss Hessian, also a trained nurse.

Carl D. Dennis, of Amherst, spent the week-end with his father, J. D. Dennis, Clements street.

Miss Gwendolyn Pugsley, of Amherst, is visiting Miss Dorothy Potts.

Mrs. Wm. Law and Miss Clara Cole have returned home from a visit to St. John and Digby.

Miss Hazel Marshall, of Worcester (Mass.), arrived in Yarmouth Thursday morning and is visiting her father, Wm Marshall, Argyle street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bryant, who have been spending the summer at their cottage at Pembroke Shore, left last evening to return to their home in Lakewood (N. J.)

HARVEY STATION

Harvey Station, Sept. 26—The shipment of potatoes from this station has been discontinued for a time on account of some of the potatoes that have been shipped rotting badly. It is probable that shipment will be resumed in a short time.

Rev. H. R. Boyer, of the B. & F. Bible Society, was here on Sunday and addressed large audiences at Manners Sutton, Tweedside and the Station in the interests of the society. His addresses were much appreciated.

A. E. Slipp, of Hampstead, Queens county, and his wife, who have been making an extended tour in the northwest during the summer, are here visiting relatives and friends. They are guests of Dr. and Mrs. B. H. Dougan.

Albert Robison, of Victoria Harbor (Ont.), is spending a few days at his former home here, visiting his mother, Mrs. Jane Robison.

Miss Harriet A. Hanselpacker, of Fredericton, is visiting her brother, F. B. Hanselpacker. Her many friends will regret to learn that she is not in good health.

Moose and deer seem to be about as plentiful as usual in this section but not much hunting has been done yet, although four or five moose and deer have been brought in by local hunters.

REXTON

Rexton, Sept. 22—Mrs. E Hannay and Miss Elizabeth Gifford are visiting friends in St. John.

Word has been received here of the death at Boston last Saturday of Martin Flannagan who some years ago was conductor on the K. N. R. here. Mr. Flanagan was a son of the late James Flanagan, of Richibucto. He was unmarried and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Edward Goldie, of Fairville, St. John county, and three brothers. The brothers are James and Daniel, of Richibucto, and John, of Charlestown (Mass.)

Mrs. Janie Lennox and her daughter, Mrs. A. Mundle, have returned from a visit to Moncton friends.

Mrs. W. L. T. Weldon, of Chatham, is visiting her brother, John A. Cameron.

William G. Gifford and Bruce Atkinson are attending business college in St. John.

W. A. Martin has gone on a hunting trip to Northumberland county.

Miss Emma McDonald, who has been visiting her home at Upper Rexton, left this morning for Douglastown to spend the winter with her borther, William.

Mrs. A. Wood has returned from a visit to Moncton and Harcourt.

Preston Prowse, of Murray Harbor (P. E. I.), is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Girvan, at East Galloway.

Miss Sarah Scott returned Wednesday from a trip to Montreal.

Mrs. George Thompson and children have returned from a visit to friends at Richibucto Village.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nickerson have taken charge of the Sea Side Hotel at Buctouche.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sticklin, of Chatham, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carter, of Kouchibouguas, were in town Saturday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin.

Mrs. H. M. Ferguson has returned from a visit to Moncton friends.

Dr. G. T. Leighton, of Moncton, spent Sunday here.

GAGETOWN

Gagetown, N. B., Sept. 26—Shortly after the pleasant news reached here that Sergeant Walter Marsh of the 26th Battalion had received a lieutenant's commission in that unit, came the tidings that he had been wounded, in the recent heavy fighting. The many friends here, who were glad to hear of his promotion, will look forward to news of his recovery.

A letter received last week from Sergeant Rolfe K. Nevers, who is a prisoner of war in Hanover, Germany, stated that he is now out of the hospital, where injuries to his arm were being looked after. Only part of the letter was written by himself, and did not give any very definite news of his condition.

Miss Eleanor Palmer left on Thursday for Mount Allison University where she will enter on the first year course. She will be much missed by her many young friends.

Miss Elizabeth Scovil, after spending a few weeks at her home in Meadowlands, has returned to New York.

Miss Gladys Dickie left on Tuesday morning for Houlton (Me.), where she will spend some months visiting friends.

Miss O'Connor, of St. John, who has been the guest of Miss Mary Mahoney, returned home this week.

Mrs. Michael Mahoney has returned from St. John, where she has been visiting her daughters, Mrs. Lewis O'Neill and Mrs. John Gallagher.

Mrs. O. H. Peters, of Sheffield is here spending the week at the home of her father, Jarvis Boyd.

Harry Cooper, of Boston (Mass.), who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper, has returned home.

Arch. McKeague returned on Saturday from spending the week in St. John.

The steamer "Hampstead" met with an accident on Thursday's trip up river. Just as she was coming into Fox's wharf, at Lower Gagetown, the valve of the engine broke, and, on reversing, the speed would not slacken and she crashed into the wharf, where she remained for some hours awaiting repairs. A number of passengers who could not delay, secured W. P. Fox's motor boat, and reached home several hours before the Hampstead got into Gagetown wharf.

Arthur Moore returned on Thursday from a short business trip to St. John.

James Cavicchi, of the Cavicchi and Pagano Construction Company returned on Thursday, after spending some weeks in Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Robert Vail, who has been visiting Miss Mary Vail, returned to her home in St. John this week.

Miss Bessie McMulkin returned on Thursday from Maugerville where she has been spending the past two weeks.

Miss Pearl Peters has gone to Digby (N. S.), where she will spend some weeks at the home of Dr. E. A. Du Vernet and her sister, Mrs. Du Vernet.

Many friends here were interested to hear of the quiet but happy event which took place at the Germain street Baptist church on Saturday afternoon, when Miss S. Jessie Weyman, B. A., formerly principal of the Gagetown Grammar School, and Fred. S. Dingee, of St. John (N. B.), were united in marriage. Among those from Gagetown attending the event, were the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Dingee.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirby, who motored from Hillsboro to at[illegible] wedding of her brother, F. S. [illegible] are here with their children to [illegible] few days with Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Dingee.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett Scovil, [illegible] Hampstead, left on Saturday m[illegible] on a motor driving trip to Bellisle, wh[illegible] will spend a few days with re[illegible]

Mrs. N. H. Otty went up to [illegible]ville on Friday to spend some [illegible] her sister, Mrs. C. T. Clowes.

Miss Thelma Edwards ret[illegible] Fredericton on Friday and [illegible] the winter with Mrs. John R[illegible]

Mrs. Bridges, of Sheffield (N. B.), [illegible] the guest of Mrs. H. B. Bridge[illegible]

Walter McAlpine, who has been spending a fortnight with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McAlpine, has returned to Boston (Mass.)

Sheriff Russia Williams made a trip to St. John by motor boat on Th[illegible] and returned on Friday afternoon [illegible] a boatload of dynamite for the wor[illegible] on the Valley Road.

PARRSBORO

Parrsboro, Sept. 25—Mr. and Mrs. L. Spicer and children are visiting [illegible] and Mrs. Saxby Blair in Kentville.

Miss Irene Rand is spending a [illegible] days in Canning visiting her aunt, E. B. Strong.

Mrs. S. T. Salter spent last [illegible] Halifax.

Miss Bessie Kirkpatr[illegible] Mildred Reid are spe[illegible] with relatives in K[illegible]

Mrs. A. O. Seamen is the guest [illegible] Charles Harris in Dartmouth.

Mr. John Cullen, of [illegible] Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dugan[illegible] week in Halifax.

Mrs. O. L. Price and Mrs. T[illegible]derson, of Moncton, who [illegible] guests of Mrs. F. A. Rand, [illegible] Kingston on Friday to visit [illegible] Munroe.

Mrs. Bartley, of Montreal, [illegible] her brother, Rev. W. B. Han[illegible]

Captain C. Cook and Mr[illegible] turned from New York on [illegible]

Mrs. Manning Osborne, [illegible] Mines, is visiting her mothe[illegible] E. Pugsley.

Miss Dillon, of Amherst, i[illegible] of Mrs. Joseph Lyons.

Captain and Mrs. Hanse[illegible] Glennie and Alice and Master [illegible] son, of Sackville, Me. and Mrs. C. [illegible] Hewson, Miss Helen Hewson, of Am[illegible]herst, and Mrs. Richardson, of Bangor (Me.), were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Walsh last week.

Mr. Elie Petillo, [illegible] Truro, was a visitor in town last [illegible]eek.

Mr. Edward Gillespie, who for the [illegible]

(Continued on page 7, column 4).

APPLES, ORANGES, FIGS AND PRUNES

Are the Four Fruits Used in Making "Fruit-a-tives"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say, "I won't take Fruit-a-tives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good." On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-tives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial, in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. "Fruit-a-tives" is composed of the active principle of fruit and the greatest nerve tonic ever discovered. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HOW PNEUMONIA STARTS AND HOW OFTEN PREVENTED

You catch a little cold today, and by tomorrow it has reached the throat, next day the lungs are affected and you wish you had used "Catarrhozone" which kills colds in five minutes. In the first place Catarrhozone soothes the irritated membranes and relieves congestion—then it cuts out the phlegm and destroys the germs. It enables the blood to retain a natural supply of oxygen, lung-food, and vitality. In any cough, bronchitis or catarrh it's guaranteed to positively [illegible]. Beware of dangerous substitutes [illegible] under misleading names for gen[illegible]hozone which is sold every[illegible] containing two months' [illegible] small size 50c.;

$1,000.00 REWARD FORFEITED IF REMEDY FAILS

We hope this notice will reach the eyes of people who are troubled with constipation and bowel trouble. Dr. Hamilton's Pills have been guaranteed to cure any case within three days, and the above reward will be paid for any case resisting this greatest of all remedies.

No prescription ever written could surpass Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. For years they have been curing the most obstinate cases of constipation, biliousness, headaches and sour stomach. Here is your chance to test Dr. Hamilton's Pills. If they fail—your money back for the asking. Be sure you get the yellow box, and insist on being supplied with only Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut, 25c. at all dealers.

Dizziness

and Specks before the Eyes

Liver derangement is the cause behind these distressing conditions, and only restoration of perfect natural action can secure lasting cure. That is why Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief is so immeasurably superior to the old-fashioned cathartic tablets, pills and aperient salts. Such things can only give passing relief by forcing the liver unnatural action, and have to be continued. Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief strengthens the liver, and so brings about natural action in a natural manner.

Take Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief for constipation, biliousness, torpid liver, sick headache, dizziness, specks before the eyes, flatulence and windy spasms, acidity, heartburn, impure blood and that dull, heavy feeling which is a sure indication of liver trouble.

Ask for Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief and take no substitute.

Price 50 cents, from all Druggists and Storekeepers, or direct from the Sole Agents for Canada, Harold F. Ritchie and Co. Ltd., 10, McCaul-street, Toronto. War Tax 2 cents extra.

Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief is the companion to Dr. Cassell's Tablets.

Sole Proprietors: Dr. Cassell's Co., Ltd., Manchester, England

Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief

Prepared from LIVER TONICS, ANTACIDS, CARMINATIVES, LAXATIVES

Every Woman's Ambition For Rosy Cheeks Now Easily Satisfied

Hollow cheeks with dark lines, [illegible] complexion—how a woman hates it! But rosy cheeks, clear skin, bright [illegible]—give them to a woman and she is happy.

In the blood is found the first [illegible] trouble.

It grows thin and watery, its [illegible] fades, and increasing pallor and [illegible]ness give the outward evidence of [illegible] change within.

Soon the nerves weaken, the [illegible] easily tires and palpitates, strength [illegible]clines.

The delicate mechanism of the woman[illegible]ly functions is interfered with, and plea[illegible]sures, activities and even duties are load[illegible]ed down with the burden of declining health.

Why is it that women neglect the fi[illegible] warnings?

Usually she waits till she is ready [illegible] drop—often then it's too late.

These conditions are easily che[illegible] easily cured at the beginning, but [illegible] when long established Ferrozone will [illegible]move the cause and cure the trouble.

Ferrozone's action aids the three [illegible]cipal functions of the body—digest[illegible] assimilation, elimination.

By strengthening digestion it [illegible] abundance of rich, red blood—thi[illegible] good color.

By perfecting assimilation, Fe[illegible] supplies nutrition—this gives str[illegible] vim, stability.

Elimination is assured because [illegible]zone quickens the actions of the kidneys and bowels—this ensures [illegible] maintenance of vigorous health.

Ferrozone puts you on the dig[illegible] the one that leads to health.

Not a man, woman or chil[illegible] blood, vigor, endurance—not a p[illegible] who is weak, nervous or sick, [illegible] person in ill-health who won't [illegible] immediate help from Ferrozone.

As a tonic and restorative, as a [illegible] bringer and body builder, Ferro[illegible] unrivalled. It cures because it [illegible] nourishes, because it contains [illegible]ments that build up and strengt[illegible] it yourself—sold everywhere [illegible] boxes.