TODAY'S MARKET OF SMALL SIZE

Not Much Variation From Prices Prevailing Saturday.

The market today was medium-sized. Hay was not so plentiful as last week, and sold readily at from $14 to $15 50 per ton. Oats were steady at $1 30 to $1 32 per cwt. Straw brings $7 per ton. There was no fruit on the fruit market. A clean sweep of everything saleable was made on Saturday.

Dressed poultry, dairy produce and eggs are likely to continue at Saturday's prices for this week. Commission dealers say that they will drop the price of live poultry at the end of next week, but last week's quotations will hold good until then.

In other lines there are practically no variations from Saturday's prices.

FINANCIAL

MONTREAL, Aug. 28.—In sympathy with the weakness in both the London and Wall street markets, an easier feeling prevailed in the local situation, and prices generally opened lower, but towards the close the market firmed up a trifle and values in some cases recovered a fraction. The most active issue was Richelieu, which opened at 115½, sold down to 115 and closed at 115¼, a quarter-cent lower than on Friday. Montreal Power eased off ¼, the last sale being at 161⅝. Soo, common, opened at 130, advanced to 130⅝, and closed at 130¼. Toronto Street Railway and Detroit United closed at a decline of a half-point. Rio was dealt in at 111¾ to 112. Quebec Railway and Steel Corporation lost ¼ for the day. Crown Reserve ruled about steady at 290.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(10 a.m.)—There is easier tone to London this morning. Foreign markets are disturbed over the Moroccan trouble, which comes to a head this week, when the French proposition to Germany, according to advices from abroad, being in a nature of an ultimatum. It is hardly conceivable that war will result, though the German papers talk bellicosely over the intervention of England in the dispute, and demand that the Government should show firmness. A conference has been arranged between the vice-president of Harriman lines and the heads of unions talking strike, the design being to induce acceptance of demand for recognition of federation. This may avert trouble, with the attendant dislocation of business in the west. The cotton mills are now curtailing further, while the eastern railroads are following in the wake of Union Pacific in laying off help. Fortunately crop conditions are improved so that no bad trade depression seems likely. Jacob Schiff attributes the market's slump to manipulation, but this does not explain the heavy liquidation, much of which must come from the big interests, who do not appear agreeable to give active support. We should sell on the bulges only, buying on the declines, using discrimination.

MORE NAMES ARE ADDED TO THE INDIAN LIST

Magistrate Judd Is Fattening the Roll of Honor.

Magistrate Judd sustained his record at the police court today by placing three new names on the Indian list. The latest members of the brigade are Ira Halliday, John McKenzie, both ex-listers, and Michael Tierney. Halliday was up on Saturday for being drunk and disorderly, but was let go with a warning. He didn't take it, and today he was fined $5 or five days and put on the list again. John McKenzie only comes to town every so often, but whenever he does he falls off the wagon. In order to allow John to visit him in future without his having to spend the last few hours of his time and what remains of his cash at the police station, the court thought it advisable to enroll him. McKenzie was agreeable. He didn't, however, have the $5 that he was fined also, and will be the guest of Governor Carter for the rest of the week. Michael Tierney was also advised to go on the list. Complaint had been made that he beat a horse. This, however, Tierney stoutly denied, and the court finally disposed of him by fining him $5 or fifteen days for being drunk, nad putting him on the list.

Matthew Kew, a young man who was only placed on the list on Saturday morning, told the court that he thought he could get a drink until the papers were served on him. As the magistrate on Saturday took the greatest pains to instruct him otherwise, the excuse didn't go, and Kew will spend 21 days at the jail as a result of not paying a $20 fine.

Richard Ross, another lister under the influence of strong drink, was moved to discuss reciprocity on the streets. His discussion was cut short by a policeman, and Mr. Ross is on remand for a week while the court considers what to do with him.

Ashamed of Christ.

"Being Ashamed of Christ" was the subject of Rev. W. H. Harvey's evening sermon in Askin Street Methodist Church yesterday. Rev. Mr. Harvey pointed out four prominent features of Christ's character, of which no one need ever be ashamed. These were the thoroughness of Christ, his courage, his tenderness and his sufferings in the service of others. At the evening service Miss Taylor rendered a solo, "Sun of My Soul," very beautifully.

MR. GLAUBITZ EXPLAINS THE LAWN TROUBLE

Why Horton Street Grounds Were Changed After Job Was Completed.

Much comment is being made by residents of South London particularly regarding the alleged bungling work in connection with the levelling of the ground about the Horton street pumping station. Some time ago the lawn was levelled and grass seed sown on it. A few days afterwards the ground was again torn up and a different method of laying out the grounds was adopted. Much earth was carted away, and the citizens who saw the work claimed that considerable money was wasted in this unnecessary work.

Superintendent Glaubitz asserts, however, that it is a mere trifle, and that the city is taxed but little for the improvements.

"In his contract, Mr. Beck agreed to level off the grounds," said Mr. Glaubitz. "Later $200 was set aside by the commissioners to put the grounds in good shape. Most of this money was expended in fixing the sidewalk, and in other ways. We levelled off the grounds and planted some grass seed. Mr. Beck saw the work and he did not like it, so we changed it. That is all there is to it. We did not cart away any soil or anything like that. The whole business does not mean an expenditure of $30 or $40 at the outside. Mr. Beck is paying for a good portion of it out of his contract, and all the city will pay is but a trifle. If people want to criticise, why do they not pick out something worth mentioning?"

TROUBLE IS BREWING OVER NIAGARA POWER

Charged That One of the Commissioners Lost the City a Customer—A Denial.

Superintendent Glaubitz and Water Commissioner H. A. Stevenson are going to have a lively battle at the next meeting of the commissioners, if reports are true. It is over the contract entered into by the Cook-Fitzgerald Company for the supply of power from the London Electric Company.

Some time ago, the company decided to install considerable electric machinery, and immediately power prices were sought. The London Electric obtained the motors from Victoria Hospital, and an attractive offer was made to the company on this basis.

It is charged that Commissioner Stevenson visited the factory, and on learning what the price of power quoted by the London Electric was, he then advised the Cook-Fitzgerald people to close with the city's rival, stating that the city could not meet that price. On this advice, it is claimed that the shoe company did so, the water commisisoners losing a good customer.

An Absolute Denial.

Mr. Glaubitz heard of this, and claims that he was informed that Commissioner Stevenson had done so, as stated above. H. claims also that he could have more than met the price if he had been given the opportunity.

Mr. Glaubitz has written a letter to the water commissioners on the matter, and it will be presented at their next regular meeting. It is expected that some interesting things will be said when the letter is brought up.

Dr. Stevenson denied absolutely that he in any way interfered with the water commissioners in this matter. He states that he canvassed the company for Niagara power, but they claimed that it was impossible for the cit yto compete with the prices quoted by the London Electric.

DRUNKEN MAN CALLED OUT PATROL WAGON

Joke Was On Wilson Brown, of Thames Street.

It is not often that a drunken man, no matter what foolish notions come into his head, amuses himself by calling out the patrol wagon.

On Saturday evening, however, Wilson Brown, a Thames street resident, while under the influence of liquor, thought it would be a huge joke to call the wagon.

The joke, however, was on him, for he got a ride back, and his fun cost him $2 when he came up before Magistrate Judd today.
