Short and sweet—your hours of labor when you use Pearline. Without Pearline, you may work hard and do much; with Pearline you will work less and do more.

Pearline saves your clothes in the wash, and your temper in the washing. It is the continual rub, rub, rubbing, over a washboard in the old way with soap, that wears your clothes and makes hard work.

Pearline is the new way, and does away with the rubbing. It is as safe as it is sure; be sure to get Pearline—nothing else, and you will be safe.

COASTING CATASTROPHE.

Three Young People of Goderich Badly Injured.

GODERICH, Feb. 7.—About 9 o'clock last night a serious accident took place here. A party of young people were coasting on the Harbor Hill. When about half way down and going at a terrific rate of speed the steering gear broke, leaving those on board helpless to save themselves. The sleigh dashed against the corner of the Ocean House with tremendous force. Help was soon at hand.

Richard Callon had one leg broken and the smaller bones of the other leg fractured. He was also injured in the face.

A young man named Alvin Wallace, son of D. B. Wallace, commercial traveler, had one of his thighs broken.

Miss Straiton, daughter of A. Straiton, G. T. R. agent, was knocked senseless by the concussion, and slightly injured. Medical attendance was procured and the sufferers removed to their homes.

VICIOUS VOTERS.

Elections in South America Result in Over Sixty Fatalities.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 7.—Mail advices from the City of Guatemala contain an account of election fights occurring July 11. They were started by the attempt on the party of the crowd to seize some ballot boxes. Over 60 persons were killed and 100 wounded.

THE SAME WAY IN ARGENTINE.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 7.—The Provincial elections held to-day resulted in favor of the Conciliation party, desiring an agreement between Mitre and Roca. In some towns the elections were marked by street riots. Several persons were killed and a number wounded.

His Last Sunday on Earth.

SING SING, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Chas. McElvain, the murderer of Grocer Lucca, passed his last Sunday on earth without showing any signs of fear or apprehension that his death is so near at hand. McElvain ate a hearty dinner, and from his talk it appears that he does not expect his execution to take place to-morrow as all the reporters anticipate. The death-line will be established at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. The death machinery is in order.

Perished from Cold.

GUTHRIE, I. T., Feb. 7.—Recent cold weather has caused great suffering among the new settlers in the Indian country. Three deaths have already occurred, and several settlers are now in a precarious condition. Mrs. Tolford and Mrs. Warner, living in a tent near Purcell in the Pottawattomie country, were found dead yesterday morning from exposure and lack of clothing. F. J. Daniels, from Western Kansas, died from the same cause near Chandler.

The thermometer registered 23 degrees below zero at Saratoga, New York Saturday morning. It was 25 degrees below zero in the Adirondacks.

Two Can Be Smart.

"Do you keep cornmeal?" inquired the man with the basket on his arm.

"No, sir," said the grocer. "We sell it. How much do you want?"

"Did I say I wanted any?" mildly asked the man with the basket.

And he went out and hunted up another grocery store where the salesmen were not quite so smart.

It is a Very Sad Thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Many who suffer with coughs, colds and lung troubles, leading to consumption, imagine there is no hope for them, when in reality there is every hope if Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is taken regularly. Do You Know This Person Who Writes to Lumsden & Wilson, Seaforth?

If my testimony will help to sell your medicine I will give it with pleasure, as I believe if people knew what it would do there would be very little cough medicine sold but it. My cough was so very bad that I could not lie down in bed, but had to sit up and cough almost constantly, and what a relief it was to me I can scarcely say, but before I had used half a bottle of your Balsam of Fir, I was completely cured and have not been troubled since,
