Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Cattle—Ten cars on sale; 7 cars 1,400 to 1,450 lbs sold at $3 20, and most of the other stock was peddled off.

Sheep and Lambs—Only 12 cars on sale, 5 cars of which were fresh receipts, including one car of Canadas. The load of Canadas were taken as an order, and were very good, bringing $5, but they were the only load here and were wanted; a choice deck of 76 lb lambs also went as an order at $4 60 and good 68 lb at $4 50. The outlook is improved only in the fact that most of the old heldover stock is out of the way, but the unfavorable reports from the eastern markets give no encouragement to shippers.

Hogs—The market was steady to strong for good grades; common to fair stock also ruled firm; good to choice Yorkers brought $6 80 to $6 90; choice ends, $6 40 to $6 60; mediums and packers, $6 65 to $6 90; pigs, $6 40 to $6 60.

British Grain Trade.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: "English wheat is in good request. New crop is quoted at 1s, and old crop at 6d advance; foreign wheat is 6d dearer; malting barley is firm; oats have risen 3d; corn is up 6s; flour is from 6d to 1s per sack higher. To-day all the markets were firm. New England wheats were in demand at the advance quoted above; foreign wheats were also held at higher rates; both malting and grinding barleys were 1s dearer; corn, flat and round, advanced another 6d; beans and peas were 'well held.'"

AN UNFOUNDED ATTACK.

Untruths Regarding the Seventh Battalion Band.

A Fabricated Yarn About the Young Liberal Bugle and Drum Corps.

Under the heading, "Who Sanctions This?—Seventh Battalion Bugles and Drums Used for Grit Parades and Sideshows—Major Hayes Resigns," the Free Press of Thursday morning had the following:

"Trouble is brewing among some of the officers of the Seventh Battalion in consequence of the manner in which the drums and bugles of the bugle band are being cared for. It leaked out that all the instruments, with the exception of the inferior drums used in the band that heads the boasted Hyman fleet, are the property of the battalion. Also that the bugles and drums being used to attract the attention of visitors at the fair grounds to one of the sideshows held under the auspices of the association are also Government property. These facts might never have come to light if Capt. Graham had not desired to take the bugle band with his company to St. Thomas the other evening, whither they went at the invitation of the colonel of the city battalion there, and in the interests of the regiment. When Capt. Graham made the request for the services of the band to Major Hayes, who is also adjutant, that officer raised some objections. The Grit band matter was alluded to, and the major got angry and resigned. Col. Payne used every effort to straighten out the difficulty, and the resignation will probably be reconsidered. Meantime it is pertinent to ask the commanders of the 'fleet,' 'Where did you get those drums?'"

It is almost unnecessary to say that inquiry in the proper quarters revealed the fact that there is no foundation for this attack, as the most casual inquiry would have convinced the Free Press. The Young Liberal Bugle and Drum Corps bought and paid for their instruments. Anyone who is skeptical on that point can be fully convinced by applying to R. S. Williams & Co., music dealers. As to the Seventh Battalion side of the story, the commanding officer must be allowed to speak about it. He has sent the following letter to the Free Press, which the ADVERTISER has been requested to publish:

To the Editor of the Free Press:

I notice in this morning's issue an article headed "Who Sanctions This?" Then the article proceeds to state that the bugles and drums of the Seventh Battalion Band are used in the "Grit parades and sideshows," etc. This assertion is incorrect. Some of the buglers, no doubt, are members of the Liberal Drum and Bugle Corps, and as citizens please their own political leaning and play with them. But the Seventh Battalion Bugle Band has not been on any parade except with its own corps or unit thereof. In regard to the "Grit Band" being alluded to by one of the officers of the Battalion to Major Hayes, the adjutant, that is untrue.

It looks as if the writer of the article in this morning's paper wishes to injure the regiment by rehashing politics. There has been quite sufficient of such in the past. It is the last place that politics should play a part; for it requires the united efforts of our citizens, irrespective of party, to maintain an efficient and well-disciplined regiment.

H. PAYNE, Lieut.-Col.,
Commanding Seventh Battalion Fusiliers.

London, Sept. 21.

Ho! my sisters, see the banner
Waving in the sky,
Are you broken down, discouraged?
Courage! help is nigh.

On that banner read this legend;
"Suffering women, hail!
Pierce's Favorite Prescription
Ne'er was known to fail."

The success of this remedy is wonderful. Its record is unparalleled. It has cured thousands of cases of female weakness, irregularities, and all diseases peculiar to the sex. It can always be depended on to do exactly what is claimed for it. All the proprietors ask is a trial. That will convince the most skeptical of its wonderful virtues. Price ($1) refunded if it fails to give satisfaction. Guatantee printed on every bottle-wrapper.

No language can express the feeling of deaf mute who steps on a tack in a dark room.

Severe Diarrhea Cured.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with chronic diarrhœa for over three years and received no benefit from all the medicine I tried. I was unable to work from two to four days every week. Hearing of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, I began to use it. Am now all right. JOHN STYLES, Bracebridge, Ont.

SUMMER SPORTS.

THE WHEEL.

J. W. Stocks, the English racer, has lowered the recent records established by L. S. Meintjes at Chicago. Stocks created new records from 3 to 63 miles on Aug. 30, on the Herne Hill track.

THE TURF.

Two well known English race horses have just changed owners—Buccaneer for $22,500, and Blue Green for $20,000.

Malcolm Forbes, owner of Nancy Hanks, will pay no attention to the challenge of Directum's owner. Mr. Forbes refused to discuss the challenge, but his friends say he will entirely ignore it.

Mr. McCalmont, the owner of Isinglass, took a bet of £5,000 to £100 against his colt for the Derby when Isinglass was a yearling. He also took a bet of £12,000 against £1,000 for the Two Thousand, Derby and St. Leger, and the unbeaten colt landed the three. Mr. McCalmont has made a present of £3,000 to Jewatt, his trainer.

BASEBALL.

Joe Hornung is being roasted by St. Louis critics for incompetant umpiring. The say his vision is bad and his hearing imperfect.

One of the queerest tricks in baseball was worked by Washington against the Chicagos in their last series. Farrel was at bat, and after having two balls called on him asked Kittredge to sweep the plate, the pitcher having the ball. The little catcher obligingly went for the broom, and Stricker, who was on third, stole home.

The rule of placing the pitcher back five feet ruined several of the king twirlers, among them Keefe, Crane, John Clarkson, Lovett and Haddock. And yet those men welcomed the change and voiced the belief that it would be of great benefit to them.

CRICKET.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 21.—The Australian cricketers sailed for the United States yesterday on the White Star steamer Germanic.

It is understood that Rev. F. W. Terry, who so ably captained the Canadian cricket eleven against the Americans, and also hit up a century for himself in the recent international match, has been asked to take charge of a parish in Alberta, N. W. T., and has accepted the call. He will leave for the Northwest in the near future, and thus his services will be lost in the coming match with the Australians and many important events next year. Last year Mr. Terry was a teacher in Upper Canada College.

AQUATIC.

LONDON ROWING CLUB FOURS.

The rowing committee of the London Rowing Club met yesterday and arranged the crews for the "fours" in the fall races of the club as follows: T. Carlisle, J. H. Snell, G. A. Macbeth, G. H. Gillespie, stroke; H. J. White, J. J. A. Hunt, J. Lester, A. D. McLean, stroke; L. E. Widder, J. Brown, E. A. Carpenter, J. B. Kilgour, stroke; A. B. Chapman, E. J. Meek, W. Eardley, C. A. Blinn, stroke; G. Pritchard, W. D. Richardson, R. J. Shillington, C. W. Marsh, stroke; H. Harding, E. A. Fox, J. Simpson, A. Neighorn, stroke; A. F. Gilpin, Ald. W. C. Coo, W. McDonald, R. Southam, stroke; J. C. McLean, J. Todd, W. F. Holman, H. Cronyn, stroke; E. A. Kortright, G. C. Gunn, J. C. Gamon, J. K. Ball, stroke. The trial heats will be rowed on Oct. 4, 5 and 6, and the finals at the regatta on Saturday, the 7th.

ATHLETICS.

Fitzsimmmons, the middleweight, gleefully says he will fight Corbett for the purse offered by the Coney Island Athletic Club, and $35,000 to boot.

Six thousand people saw the Napier-Vanheest fight for $2,000 at New Orleans last night. The Australian (Napier) was beaten after 28 rounds. It was a brutal spectacle.

MOTHERS AND BABIES.

Wise mothers of the present day have lost faith in the old systems and rules for nourishing infants. Medical science, and a careful study of the principles of dietetics has done much to sweep away false ideas and notions as to how the baby should be fed. An eminent medical writer says: "There can, I think, be no theory in regard to the diet of infants, except one founded upon the study of the composition of human milk, and an attempt to imitate it."

Dr. J. M. Fothergill, of London, Eng., that great authority on the subject of infant feeding, declares that Lactated Food is the nearest and surest approach to mother's milk, and he places great value upon this valuable food as a nourisher and builder. The best medical writers on this continent, who give special attention to infant dieting, are all agreed that Lactated Food is unsurpassed for building up and fortifying the weak system.

Mothers need not hesitate about using Lactated Food for their babies, seeing it has such strong recommendations. A full sized tin will be sent free to any mother who has not yet given this food a trial. Send full address to Wells & Richardson Company, Montreal.

Woman may be a conundrum, a puzzle, but the world will never give her up.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

As fencing is such a manly art it is odd that there is so much feinting in it.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you

We can learn nothing about the tomahawk from books on ornithology.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.
