HENSALL.

Hensall, Feb. 18.—Mrs. H. Cook entertained a number of lady friends at tea recently. All had a most enjoyable time.

Samuel Bullard, accompanied by his wife, is here from the West.

H. B. Ingram, of London, recently visited his home here.

Mrs. James Dougal, who has been visiting here for some time, has returned to the West.

Richard Speare has returned to the West, but his wife will remain for some time longer.

Mrs. Rathwell, who has been in poor health for some time, is still quite ill at her home.

Ferris R. Ford, who has been spending some months with relatives in this section, has left for his home in Washington State.

Russel Sterling and his young bride, formerly Miss Wilson, have started for their home in the West.

Alex. McKinnon, of Casselton, N. D., is spending a few days with friends in this district.

Colin Hudson, who fell on the ice and received serious injury, is making a good recovery.

James Gilchrist, of Hamilton, has been here visiting his little daughter.

Dr. Sellery, who has practiced dentistry here for over sixteen years, is selling his household effects, preparatory to moving to Toronto, where he intends to reside and practice his profession.

The funeral of Thomas Dick, for many years a resident of the second line of Hay, took place on Friday to Hensall Union Cemetery. He was in his 89th year. Deceased was one of the fathers of curling in Hensall, and always took great interest in the game.

Mrs. Earl Zuefle continues in very poor health. Her husband, who returned to the West two weeks ago, has come back owing to her condition.

HARRISTON.

Harriston, Feb. 18.—One of the public school rooms, with an attendance of almost 40 pupils, is at present being attended by about 20. The remainder of the pupils are victims of the measles.

Preparatory services will be held in Guthrie Church on Friday, and sacrament services will be observed on Sunday, February 23.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Montcrieff intend returning to the West in a few days.

J. B. McCready has left for Chicago on business.

Jimmy Gordon, well known in sporting circles here for years, is visiting with the few of his schoolmates, who continue to reside here.

Citizens were compelled to go without their mail on Saturday morning owing to none having arrived for Harriston. This is the second time recently that such an accident has occurred on the morning train from Toronto.

The price of coal continues at $9 here, while in other places nut coal is being advertised for $7.50 per ton.

The smoke-stack at Home's Mill was blown down recently, and the town is now in total darkness as far as the electric lighting service is concerned.

The junior hockey team has made a clean sweep of every game it has played this season.
