Another Chapter About Wash Goods

SEEMS as if the story would never end; something of interest is always happening in the Wash Goods Section. Yesterday new crepes came in. There are only three pieces, but they are so wonderfully delicate and lovely as to be irresistible.

They are a sheer French crepe—not the crinkled kind, but the kind with an eggshell surface; and they're embroidered. Pretty little roses—pale pink, blue or mauve are dropped here and there in apparent careless confusion.

You could fashion a delightful little frock out of one of them; a girlish, graceful Summer frock with a new charm.

They are very wide—41 inches—and the price is not as high as you might think—$1.25 the yard.

There are other crepes, as well, with printed all-over design and wide border of Copenhagen, roses or black and mauve. 44 in. wide, $1.25 the yard.

Ratine border crepes—plain surface with wide border composed of narrow stripes of ratine—light blue, fawn or mauve. In dress lengths only; one of a kind; the length, $5.50.

A few embroidered voiles, heavily embroidered in solid design: white with pale blue, pink or black embroidery. The length, $7.50.

Among the heavier wash goods Poplins lead in the selling ranks, with Ratines and Cotton Whipcords close seconds.
