SMALL OFFERINGS ON LOCAL MARKET

Price of Eggs Continues Firm —Butter Is Plentiful.

The local market was exceedingly small Monday morning, only one load of hay was offered for sale, and it brought $19 a ton. Grapes are on the wane, and next week will wind up the season, according to the dealers, who are finding it hard to buy in carload lots.

Apples were the most plentiful of the fruits on the Saturday market, due to the heavy winds of Thursday night and Friday morning. There were few rigs on the square that did not have an odd basket or bushel for sale, at prices ranging from 50c a basket to $1.75 and $2 per bushel.

The price of eggs continues to remain firm. Butter is plentiful, and a drop of a few cents on the pound was recorded on Saturday.

New wheat is quoted at $1.15 to $1.20 a bushel, and new oats is quoted at $1.30 to $1.40 a cwt. Very little is offered, however.

Corn—Dec., 49c; May, 54¼c.
Oats—Dec., 36c; May, 40¼c.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Bears had an advantage in the wheat market today, owing to absence of any sign of improved foreign demand. Besides, domestic buyers showed a disposition to await some decrease in the visible supply total. Rallies failed to hold. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged to 1¼c lower, were followed by material declines all around, but interrupted by one upturn to slightly above Saturday's finish.

Large receipts here weakened the corn market. After opening a shade to ⅜c lower, prices hardened somewhat and then sagged again.

Oats were easy with other grains, starting ¼c off to ⅛c up, and later showing a slight general decline.

INDIAN TEMPLARS VISIT LOCAL LODGE

Aid Hope of the West in Celebrating 14th Anniversary.

Members of Hope of the West Lodge, Good Templars, celebrated the fourteenth anniversary of their inception in the school room of the First Congregational Church Saturday.

A feature of the meeting was the attendance of a number of Indian Good Templars, members of Bearcreek Lodge at Middlemiss and Chippewa Lodge on the Muncey Reserve.

Fred W. Bobins past grand superintendent of juvenile work, opened the meeting, but during its progress vacated the chair in favor of A. E. Robinson, grand chief templar, who, along with the entire executive committee of the Grand Lodge of Canada, paid an official visit.

Among the speakers were Robert Morrison, Mrs. Joseph H. Day, Mrs. S. A. Morish, John T. Dyson, Joseph H. Day and Thomas McNaughton, all of the grand lodge executive committee.

A model session of Sunbeam Temple, a juvenile organization, called for favorable comment from the grand superintendent of juvenile work. A banquet provided by the lady members of the lodge followed.

During a special meeting of the dis-district and grand degrees were con-district and garnd degrees were conferred on a large number of candidates.

At a social gathering in the evening, the history of the lodge was outlined by F. W. Robins, Harry Johnson, Andrew Simpson and Ernest Dix, local charter members.

Other speakers were: A. H. Lyle of Hamilton, Wilson Fox and Pierce John of Bearcreek Lodge, and Henry French and Sam Moskokomon of Chippewa Lodge.

PRICES OF ORANGES AND BANANAS WILL NOT SOAR

Dealers Report California Fruit Quoted at Pre-War Prices.

Devotees of the juicy orange and the equally popular banana will be pleased to learn that prices are not expected to soar into the clouds this winter.

The crop of navel oranges in California is reported as being something more than fair, although the first shipment, it is expected, will not reach London before the first of December. Meanwhile "Valencias" will take care of the trade.

"Orange quotations in California are at pre-war prices," said one dealer. "They cost more, though, laid down in London, owing to the exchange and freight rates, and naturally the people have to pay for these. Medium-sized oranges are the most popular, and we get a fair price for them, while discounts are allowed on small and large sizes."
