CASE OF BORNSTEIN VERSUS HEISTERMAN

Judgment Reserved in Case Arising Out of Failure of Green-Worlock Bank

Dec. 14, 1906.

(Before Irving, J.)

Bornstein vs. Heisterman (trustee Green, Worlock estate)—This action arose on the following state of facts: Plaintiff had a claim against Morris Moss upon two promissory notes which were in the hands of the bank for collection. The bank also had a claim against Moss, but held collateral security for it. Under the terms of an agreement to that end, they brought action upon their own claim and that of Bornstein, the condition being that the bank's claim was to be paid first and all moneys recovered afterwards were to go to Bornstein. The bank recovered sufficient to pay its claim in full. They also sold, under the judgment then obtained, a parcel of land at Port Angeles, for $4,000, but for which they omitted to give credit as against the judgment.

Mr. Moss died, and Mr. Yates become administrator of his estate. Messrs. Beaven and Yates, as trustees of the Green, Worlock estate, put in a claim against the Moss estate for the whole of the judgment, and received a dividend of $3,900 on the same, out of which they paid Bornstein $1,200 and retained the balance.

Failing to get an account or payment from the trustees, Bornstein brought this action. Subsequent to action brought, the trustees delivered on account, giving credit for the $4,000 omitted in error, and returned to Mr. Yates the sum of $2,250 alleged to have been collected from him in error, and paid to the plaintiff a further sum of $1,600, which he accepted in satisfaction of his claim for principal, but proceeded with the action to recover interest from 1898, the date on which this sum should have been paid him.

The defence is that the payment of the last mentioned sum to the plaintiff was made in error, and properly belonged to Mr. Yates as administrator of the Moss estate, and they ask for a refund of the amount.

Judgment was reserved.

Mr. Fell for plaintiff; Mr. Bodwell, K. C., for defendant.

Re Land Registry Act—Mr. Crease applied for an order directing registration of a plan of a sub-division. The application was made in pursuance of the Land Registry act of last session, one of the provisions of which in this respect is that streets must be 66 feet in width. The City of Victoria Official Map Act of 1903, on the other hand, permits of streets being 60 feet in width.

His Lordship came to the conclusion that he was bound by the Land Registry act, which evidently had been drawn in ignorance of the City of Victoria Official Map act, and refused the application.

Re Turner et al, in the matter also of the Land Registry Act—Mr. Oliver applied for leave to deposit a map. The city solicitor consented to the deposit, notwithstanding that the provisions of the statute as to four days' notice had not been given; but His Lordship considered that the safer course was to follow the statute, and accordingly stood the application over.

Re S. A. Dale, deceased—Mr. Lowe made an application under the Interstate Estates act for leave to sell certain property.

Mr. Pooley, on the other side, consented on certain security and notice being given, and an understanding being arrived at as to the payment of certain taxes.

Hansford vs. Score—This was an application by defendant (appellant) for security for costs of appeal. An order was made that security for $150 be furnished on or before January 4, the costs of the application to be defendant's costs in any event.

Mr. Grant for plaintiff; Mr. Peters, K. C., for defendant.

Re Estate of William Munsie, deceased—Mr. Fell applied for leave to sell certain real property of the deceased. There are several beneficiaries interested, some of them being under age. All the beneficiaries but the two youngest children understood and consented to the application, but as they were too young, and as the proposed sale would be greatly to their advantage, His Lordship was asked to permit the sale.

In view of the value of the property involved, however, His Lordship felt it would be better to have the infants represented, and he asked Mr. Peters to appear in that capacity.

Yenney et al vs. Voight and another—Defendants, being the owners of certain mineral claims on Copper mountain, Similkameen, sold and conveyed the same to the plaintiffs in consideration of $2,200, which was paid in cash, the defendants undertaking to obtain crown grants for the property. Plaintiffs, being unable to obtain the crown grants, made inquiries with the result that they ascertained that defendants had re-located the claims under different names and then having transferred them to the female defendant, had proceeded to obtain crown grants for the claims. Defendants claimed that this re-location was made in the interest of the plaintiffs, whom they omitted to inform of the fact, however, and the action was brought to restrain the defendants from receiving these crown grants, to have the defendants declared trustees for the plaintiffs for delivery of the crown grants to them, and for the execution of a conveyance of the claims to the defendants.

Judgment was given for the plaintiffs as prayed.

Messrs. Fell & Gregory for plaintiffs; Mr. Bodwell, K. C., for defendants.

BILLS PASS THIRD READING.

CONSULAR REPORT.

Local United States Agent Prepares Statement of Trade on Island.

In the report just furnished the Washington government by United States Consul Smith, the following interesting statement appears:

"The principal product of Vancouver Island is coal, of which there were mined during 1905, 998,899 tons. Of this amount, 380,332 tons were sold in Canada, 427,698 tons exported to the United States, and the remainder used for local consumption. The amount of coke produced was 15,661 tons, of which 5,410 tons were sold in Canada, and 4,300 in the United States, including Alaska, while 5,950 tons were added to stock. In 1904 the mines turned out 1,023,013 tons of coal and 19,371 tons of coke. The total coal sales show an increase of 24,000 tons, or 3 per cent over 1904. The sales to the United States amounted to 53 per cent of the total, most of which was disposed of in the Californian market, the remainder going to Alaska, where the recent developments in metalliferous mining seem destined to produce a constantly increasing market for this article.

"Of the two smelters the one at Crofton was not in operation during 1905, but 'blew in' on January 6, 1906, and is treating ore from the Britannia and other coast mines. The returns from the Tyee smelter at Ladysmith was in blast 164 days of 24 hours each, and produced 28,960 tons of smelted ore. The value of the ore smelted, less refining charges, was $506,600. The copper product of the Island in 1905 was 3,457,236 pounds a decrease of 2,523,357 pounds from 1904.

"There are six lumber mills in operation in this district, the capacity of which is 430,000 feet per day. Four others are built and another building, which will be in running order in a few months, including the new shingle mill, said to be the largest in the world. In 1904, the quantity of lumber turned out on the Island was 40,249,818 feet; in 1905, 43,564,712 feet.

"The Victoria brickyards in 1905 turned out 7,500,000 bricks. The manufacture of drain tile amounted to $90,000, and the product of Portland cement was valued at $150,000. Large quantities of stone have been cut from Nelson and adjacent islands, the value of which was $100,000."

PRICE OF COTTON ADVANCING.

Advices from all factories indicate that the price of cotton goods will steadily advance. This is owing to the rapid advances that have taken place during the past few months, in raw cotton. At one period it looked as if a record crop would be harvested in the States, but owing to severe storms in the south a very large percentage of the crop was damaged, so that the majority of the cotton will only be useful for making the lowest grades of material. The mills are now finding it very difficult indeed to get good cotton for their use, and from all indications the price of raw material will advance as high this winter as at any period since the American war, added to this, the world's demand for cotton is far in excess this year of any previous record.

Owing to the conditions the public may look for a steady advance right along during the winter, and Turner, Beeton & Co., have already had to issue notices to this effect.
