OF FAIRVIEW CORPORATION.

Details of the Important Deal With an English Company Put Thru by Mr. Russell.

SHAREHOLDERS MEET JUNE 14.

Directions re Transfer of Stock — Sales of Mining Issues Yesterday.

Mr. Richard Russell, president and managing director of the Fairview Corporation, has just returned from London, Eng., where he put thru a sale of a portion of the company's properties. Mr. Russell, on behalf of the corporation, and Mr. Alfred Mori, on behalf of the prospective purchasers, entered into a preliminary agreement of purchase and sale, which is to be ratified at a meeting of the corporation, to be held at Fairview on June 14 next.

Under the terms of the deal the price for the properties to be transferred is £154,000, of which £150,000 is to be paid in 150,000 shares of a par value of £1 each, and the remaining £4000 in cash, which will more than pay all existing liabilities of the company. The amount set aside as working capital by the English company is £50,000, of which £16,000 has already been subscribed. This is in addition to the £4000 before mentioned.

Mr. Russell points out that this does not interfere with the continued existence of the Fairview Corp., which still owns other mining properties, as well as a million shares of unissued stock. Now the issued stock of the Fairview Corporation totals in value about $750,000. It will be seen, therefore, that, as the English company is to pay £154,000 for the properties, the Fairview Corporation shareholders are really getting upwards of $750,000, or in other words dollar for dollar for their original holdings.

The English Company has ample capital and is in a position to operate the Fairview properties to the best advantage. The Steinwinder mine, which has several years' ore supply already blocked out, is now being pumped out and it is the company's intention to erect a 40-stamp mill at an early date. Further development in the way of sinking, etc., will be prosecuted. Mr. Russell has been appointed managing director of the new company.

There are a few points upon which some of the corporation's shareholders seem to be at sea. Mr. Russell explains that they do not give up their Fairview Corporation stock, which can be dealt in as formerly upon the Canadian market; and on which it is expected dividends will be paid from the profits accruing upon the £150,000 worth of stock in the English company, which will be turned over to the Canadian company.

It is besides the intention of the company to immediately commence active development of the coal lands.

The management has issued the following circular:

Notice is hereby given that an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of this corporation will be held at the offices of the corporation in Fairview, British Columbia, on Thursday, June 14, 1900, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, precisely, to consider and, if deemed advisable, to pass the following resolutions, namely:

1. That so much of the assets of the company as are set out in an agreement made the 11th day of May, 1900, between this corporation and Mr. Alfred Mori, be sold to Mr. Alfred Mori of London, and Lille, France, for the sum of £154,000, to be satisfied by the allotment to the corporation or their nominees of 150,000 fully paid ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of an English company, (capitalized at £300,000), which is being formed for the purpose of acquiring such assets, and by the payment to the corporation of £4000 in cash.

2. That the said agreement, dated the 11th day of May, 1900, made between the corporation of the one part and Mr. Alfred Mori of the other part, be approved and ratified, and the seal of the company affixed thereto, and its provisions carried into effect.

Dated this 25th day of May, 1900.

By order of the board, Richard Russell, president and managing director; G. A. Robinson, secretary.

Note.—The above mentioned agreement can be inspected by any shareholder at the offices of the corporation three days before the date fixed for the meeting.

Transfer books will be closed from June 11 to June 18.

All holders of Tin Horn, Winchester or Comstock-Mammoth stock are requested to send in their script for transfer (free of charge.)

All holders of Fairview Corporation stock whose names do not appear on the certificate should send the script to Fairview for transfer. (Transfer fee 25 cents.)

Arranging for Big Traffic.

A meeting was held at the Union Station yesterday of a number of the officials of the Grand Trunk and the various trainmasters. Several changes in the situation of the latter were suggested, in view of the heavy summer traffic at some points. The officials present at the meeting were: General Superintendent McGuigan, W. E. Davis, passenger traffic manager; G. T. Bell, general passenger agent; Supt. J. M. Herbert, D. O. Pease, district passenger agent; Freight Traffic Manager Loud and General Freight Agent Pullen, all of Montreal; W R Tiffin of Allandale; G. C. Jones, Toronto. The officials from Montreal, with the exception of Messrs. Loud and Pullen, returned home in the afternoon in the private car "St. Lawrence."

Big Increase This Month.

The custom collections at Toronto for the month of May, up to Monday night, were $383,888, against $373,393 during all May of last year.

Supreme Grand Master of Orangemen of British Columbia Makes Patriotic Utterances.

SENDING OF THE CONTINGENTS

Was Forced on a Tardy Government by the Pressure of Public Sentiment.

London, Ont., May 30.—The seventy-first annual session of the Grand Orange Lodge of British America opened in the City Hall here this afternoon, with a good attendance.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

The Credit for the Contingent Being Sent to South Africa Belongs to the People.

The Grand Master, in his annual address, said the year which had elapsed since the last meeting of the Grand Lodge had been marked by events most momentous to the British Empire. When eight months ago England gave her colonial children the opportunity to aid their Motherland to repel a foreign foe, the response was quick, generous, whole-hearted—so magnificent a spectacle of the unity of the Empire as the battlefields of South Africa have presented, has buttressed Britain with strength that gives security to her own subjects and dismay to her enemies. Great Britain alone of all nations since time began has strengthened her power by transplanting her people. Why? Because Britain alone has given her colonies the same freedom, privileges and the power of self-government that the parent state possesses. She has trusted her children, and, like the wise mother that she is, has held them in bonds of love and confidence, and not thru fear nor the power of arms. The British people believe it is a just war, undertaken reluctantly, only as a last resort, and when the British colony of Natal had been invaded by the Boers. A corrupt oligarchy held the British race in the Transvaal in a state of subjection, under an intolerable thraldom, aliens to even the commonest rights of man. He then referred in brief detail to the steps which led up to the final break, and continued:

The Army of an Empire!

Behold what a great matter a little fire kindleth! In a moment the army of England became the army of an Empire. From every colony and dependency, from India, Australia, the Cape, the West Indies, Canada, contributions of men and means poured into the Motherland. The people burned with a patriotic zeal marvelous to witness, overwhelming, irresistible, spontaneous, and in no part of the Queen's domains did the spirit of loyalty glow more brightly than in this our Dominion.

Orangemen by Hundreds.

The contingent of a thousand sturdy Canadians first selected might have been duplicated a hundred fold. We gave of our best and bravest cheerfully, ay grudgingly to fight, if need be to die, for Queen and country, and no wonder is it that in such a cause Orangemen and the sons of Orangemen were numbered by hundreds. The brave lads who went forth from Canada have won for themselves an imperishable fame. They have rendered the Dominion a service we can never adequately repay, have been ever in the foremost fighting line where the battle raged fiercest, have been selected by the great commander of the forces, General Lord Roberts, for the work of greatest danger, and, therefore, of highest glory, and with their blood have cemented the unity of the Empire with bonds that, please God, neither the machinations of traitors within nor of foes without shall ever burst asunder:

"And lo! as her blade she drew
From her Empire's uttermost line,
The answering swords from their scabbards flew,
And her sons cried, 'Mother! to dare and do,
Our hearts and our arms are thine.'"

Credit Belongs to the People.

I have spoken of the spontaneous outburst of loyalty from the Canadian people when Britain called her sons to her side. I wish I could say as much for the Canadian Government. If to-day we point with pride to the work of our lads in South Africa the credit belongs in no degree to the Government, but wholly to the people. Had the views of the Prime Minister prevailed there would be no Canadian contingent with the British forces. First in the parade of peace in the Jubilee of 1897, the Canadian Government was last in the tender of support to the Queen when danger to the Empire arose. Sir Wilfrid Laurier gave as his deliberate decision, reached after careful study of the question, that no Canadian contribution of men and means could be given to the cause of the Empire, and only when the indignant voice of the people frightened the Government into a reversal of its policy was a force raised. Do not misunderstand me, brethren.

It's Not a Party Matter.

Party politics I have ever sought to eschew in the proceedings of our order, and by that resolve I adhere, for it is a matter that far transcends mere party strife. It is a question which touches the honor of the Dominion, the very safety of the State upon which the future status of Canada in the Empire depends.

Where Canada Would Have Been.

Reflect upon what would be our position to-day had the people of this country not driven Sir Wilfrid Laurier to abandon the policy he deliberately determined upon and formally proclaimed, the policy of nonparticipation in the defence of the Empire, save only when Canada is attacked. We should be beneath the contempt of the whole world, the worse than contempt of brother Britons in all parts of the Empire.

A Despicable Doctrine.

A more despicable doctrine has never been propounded by public man than that Canada should accept the sacrifices of the Motherland, the protection of her army and navy to maintain the integrity of the Dominion, and then, like a poltroon, refuse to contribute one dollar or one man to uphold the unity of the Empire. Thank God the miserable doctrine of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was no sooner uttered than the people of all parties arose in indignant might, and compelled him to play the patriot's part, however distasteful the task might be, or give way to men whose loyalty would be above suspicion, and who, in the day of the Empire's need, would at all hazards respond to the call for aid.

Straight Criticism.

The idea, voiced by more than one public man in the neighboring province, I regret to say, that a particular section of Her Majesty's subjects in Canada should not be expected to entertain fervid feelings of patriotism in the affairs of Britain, that, in fact, their loyalty is confined to the land in which they live and does not reach to any other portion of the Empire, is false, pernicious, dangerous and discreditable. Let such doctrine prevail, and not the unity of the Empire alone, but the unity of the Dominion, will be as a house built upon the sand. The obligations of a British subject are not to be cribbed and confined to the particular municipality, province or state in which he may reside; if that were so then at the first rude shock of war the whole fabric so carefully reared by the skill of generations of statesmen and protected by the lives of Britain's soldiers, would crumble to pieces. So, I repeat, the public man who, in Canada, spreads about the notion that a certain section of the people have obligations as British subjects less onerous, less responsible, less far-reaching than those of British birth and blood, is an enemy to his country, a man of perverted ideas, destitute of a pure sense of honor, and at heart a traitor.

How Orangemen Have Helped.

I have dwelt thus long upon the theme of the South African war, now happily drawing to a close in the complete success of British arms, because of the influence it has upon Imperial affairs, and because that influence is attributable in no small degree to Orangemen. The torch of patriotism can never burn out while an Orangeman lives. Our order has not been the least potent agency in inculcating that loyalty in the colonies, which is to-day the admiration of the world. We have ever moved along the lines of Imperial unity. Our very association, planted and flourishing in every corner of the Empire, is itself no mean bond of that unity, and where Orangeism is found there stands a pledge and a hostage for fidelity to Queen and country. May we not, therefore, rejoice that the seed we as Orangemen have sown thruout the Empire has yielded a magnificent harvest of earnest, zealous, ardent patriotism, founded in love and affection, the strong and sure foundation of an Imperial unity which shall endure thru the centuries.

Growing Membership.

I have had occasion more than once in my annual address to refer to the steady increase in our membership and the active interest manifested in the association, as exemplified by the great demonstrations made on July 12. Year by year, our numbers grow, and year by year these demonstrations are of larger magnitude. Those of 1899 overshadowed all their predecessors, and I am confident that the demonstration next 12th of July will prove that Orangeism in Canada closes the nineteenth century more influential more progressive, more respected and more securely established than at any previous period in the history of the order. Nor is this gratifying growth confined to Canada alone. In all portions of the Empire, and in the United States, the same story is told. Let me cite, as an example, a passage from a letter I have recently received from a Newfoundland brother: "You will, I am sure, be pleased to learn that our beloved order in Newfoundland is well on the up-grade. We had a good increase in 1898, and for 1899, when all our returns are in, we will show the largest increase for any one year in the history of the order in this colony."

Mutual Benefit Fund.

It is my pleasure to again report a very substantial gain in the position of the Orange Mutual Benefit Fund. A year ago this fund was, thru the energetic efforts of the secretary and the hearty support of our members, placed in a strong position, one commending the security to the fullest confidence, and I am happy to say that in the 12 months since elapsed the contributors to the fund have increased by about 500, a very remarkable addition. The advantages offered by the Mutual Benefit Fund ought to be availed of by every member of the order. The security, as I have said, is unexceptional, the expense of management is exceedingly small, and the cost of insurance moderate, so that for a trifling expenditure provision can be made by any member for those depending upon him.

Queen's Visit to Ireland.

It will have afforded the members of our association more than ordinary gratification to learn of the hospitable and enthusiastic reception accorded to our beloved sovereign on the occasion of her recent visit to Ireland. Nothing apparently could have exceeded the warmth of welcome bestowed upon Her Gracious Majesty by the loyal people of Dublin, who evinced their respect and admiration for the aged monarch in demonstrations of great good will and loyalty. Nor does the evidence of affection and regard seem to have been confined to any particular class or creed. Our brethren, we may be sure, were active and leading participators in the ceremonies attending the visit of Her Majesty, but I am disposed to believe that the heartiness of her reception was not less genuine on the part of Her Majesty's subjects of another creed, and I augur from this that only the agitation and misrepresentation of self-seeking politicians keep alive disaffection among any portion of the Queen's subjects in Ireland.

Growth of the Order.

Last year the Grand Lodge voted the Committee on Organization the sum of $1000, to be expended from time to time in promoting the interests of the association, and I am able to assure you that this resource has not only been timely but has been employed with conspicuous success.

During the year I was able to visit the Orangemen in many places thruout Ontario, east and west, and also the brethren in British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Manitoba. In those new portions of the Dominion I met thousands of enthusiastic Orangemen, and they received me with a cordiality that only Orangemen can give.

I was fortunate in being able to get Brother Henry T. Thrift, the then Grand Master of British Columbia, and Bro. W. McF. Evans, the Grand Master of the Territories, to devote a large portion of their time to the work of organization in a systematic manner. Their reports will be laid before you and I am sure will be received with pleasure and satisfaction. For Ontario we have secured the services of Bro. Thomas A. Duff, and in connection with the Provincial Grand Lodge of Ontario West have utilized his services so far in the latter jurisdiction. His admirable report of work done will be laid before you in due course.

The Triennial Council.

In July next an event of interest to all Orangemen occurs, the meeting in New York of the Triennial Council of Orangemen of the world. It is to be hoped that the representation will be large and that many brethren from Canada will be among the number who attend. The association in the United States is a vigorous and influential body, a leaven of great usefulness in promoting feelings of cordial amity between that country and Great Britain. As an instance of the sentiments which animate our brethren there I may mention that at a recent meeting in New York of over 2000 members of the Orange Association of Greater New York this resolution was adopted:

"Be it resolved that this mass meeting of over 2000 members of the Loyal Orange Institution of Greater New York do offer to our brethren of the Orange Order, especially the Grand Orange Lodges of England, Ireland, Scotland, Canada, South Africa, New Zealand and Australia, our dearest and heartfelt sympathies in the severe and very trying ordeal which they are presently passing thru, and that those heartfelt sympathies may be relied upon by our loyal brethren of the 'Grand Old British Empire,' and that they have our heartiest co-operation; also that our prayers are with the gallant colonial members of our order, who, true to our principles, have gone forth to strike a blow for the Queen and country, and that our sincere prayers are that they will come out of this battle crowned with success, with pride and honor."

Fraternally yours,

N. Clarke Wallace,
G.M. and S. of B.A.

Your Baths are good in obstinate cases of rheumatism. Have used them considerably and expect to give you another order at once.—John Ferguson, M.D., 264 College-street.

Those agonies which mar the years of a certain period in every woman's life are softened wonderfully by the use of Niagara Vapor Baths—and some doctors recommend them specially for this affection.

The principle of the Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinet is all right. I always use them in good old rheumatic cases.—H. J. Hamilton, M.D., 320 Church-street.

Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinets are used in the Carmelite Monastery, Niagara Falls; Loretto Abbey, Toronto, and in all the leading hospitals in Canada.

Out-of-Town Orders.

We have an agency established with five hundred druggists throughout Canada, but until we have an agent in every town we fill your order direct from our factory in Toronto and forward a Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinet, completely furnished, by express, all charges prepaid, immediately on receipt of $6; and if after trying the Cabinet for 10 days you are not perfectly satisfied with it you can have your money back for the asking. Our Baths are priced from $4 to $18. But our No. 51 folding indurated fibre board Cabinet at $6 is the most popular style we make, and leaves nothing to be desired. The size is 31 inches square by 42 inches high, entered by a door which opens onhinges on the side, and furnished complete with the new Niagara Vaporizer and Extinguisher, and with our new double cylinder glass thermometer, all securely packed and containing the simple directions for using the Bath, and list and treatment of the many diseases which are cured by the Niagara Vapor Baths.

Remember you run no risk whatever. Order Cabinet to-day and we will send it by express, all charges prepaid. Use it in your own house for ten days, and if you do not find it exactly as represented in every way return it to us and your money will be cheerfully repaid you.

We could not afford to make an offer of this kind only we are so sure that our Cabinet will give you every satisfaction.

Address your orders and make remittance of $6, by postal note money order, or draft payable to Jones & Co., 37 Yonge-street, Toronto, Ont.

It is impossible to say how often Niagara Vapor Baths have prevented a threatening disease—but the fact that they instantly relieve the distress in virulent stages of disease in almost all cases is a matter of actual knowledge among the doctors.

I have tried your hot air apparatus with good results in cases of rheumatism.—D. C. D. Parfitt, M.D., 38 Gerrard-street east.

There is only one treatment that has ever been known to cure hydrophobia and that is a Vapor Bath. You may not have hydrophobia, but if your bad health, (it may be Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or something else) is caused by poison in your system, by the use of Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinet this poison can be sweated out.

I know your Baths and regard them favorably.—W. B. Thistle, M.D., 171 College-street.

Bad blood causes all diseases and the easiest and safest way to purify the blood is to drain the poison off quickly and naturally through the pores by using a Niagara Vapor Bath. The first bath brings instant relief.

When I was in active practice I had occasion to use Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinets on rheumatic cases and was surprised with the good results.—A. M. Rosebrugh, M.D., 107 Mutual-street.

By copious perspiration you cleanse the blood and relieve the Liver, Kidneys, Heart and Lungs of all poisons and impurities. But the perspiration must be taken under the conditions provided in the use of Niagara Vapor Baths and you'll enjoy them.

I certainly approve of them.—G. H. Carveth, M.D., 239 College-street.

Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinets. If not convenient to call, telephone 1045 and we will send a Cabinet to you for examination. If you like, we will also send an attendant to serve you with a Vapor Bath and show you how simply and enjoyably you can take them.

People do not bathe half enough, and bathing that goes more than skin deep is entirely in the right direction.—F. J. Dawson, M.D., 255 College-street.

If your face is covered with eruptions, quit washing it, the skin will then become so hard that the poison in your system will not be able to force its way through. A better way is to sweat the poison out and cleanse the pores by the use of a Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinet.

In my practice I find them a capital good thing in all skin diseases. I have one in my own house and find it most beneficial.—C. J. Taylor, M.D., 315 Spadina-avenue.

An occasional tolerably copious perspiration will keep you in good health without resort to medicine. Niagara Vapor Baths cleanse the system in a natural way—and a cleansed system repels disease.

Your Vapor Bath Cabinets are all right for certain particular cases.—D. G. Chambers, M.D., 26 Gerrard-street east.

Niagara Vapor Baths will save and prolong many a life. Their use insures good health—and good health ensures happiness. And good health and happiness prolong life. Thousands are using Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinets.

Several of my patients are using your Cabinets. They prove very satisfactory in kidney troubles, etc.—J. A. Cotton, M.D., 260 Spadina-avenue.

Perfect health is assured by using Niagara Vapor Baths. They are not only of incalculable medical benefit, but they are also a luxury. Send or call for testimonials of hundreds of prominent Torontonians.

I approve of a good sweat, and I know of no better means of opening the pores than by the use of a Vapor Bath Cabinet. A number of my patients are now using them with much satisfaction.—Charles McKenna, M.D., 244 Spadina-avenue.

Don't be drowsy, dull or dopey. Get rid of that listless, languid, lazy feeling. Be bright and energetic. Niagara Vapor Baths will make you so. Their use relieves the system of the impurities which depress the spirits.

I believe the Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinet to be useful in many cases. I have personal knowledge of their value in cases of rheumatism, etc.—K. Ten Eyck, M.D., 131 Sherbourne-street.

Wonderful invention for draining poison out of the blood through the pores. Niagara Vapor Baths extract all poisons out of your system and give you perfect health. Call or write to us for particulars.

Consider them good in a very wide range of cases, including rheumatism.—W. W. Ogden, M.D., 176 Spadina-avenue.

Five dollars for the name of any disease not caused by poison in the system. Get your doctor to help you think of one. There is no better way of getting the poison out of your system than through two million pores of your body. This is best done by using a Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinet.

The virtues of your Vapor Bath Cabinets are not nearly as widely known as they should be. They are very much ahead of us in England in matters of this kind. I consider them excellent in cases of chronic rheumatism.—C. A. Hodgetts, M.D., 189 College-street.

There is not a doctor in Toronto but who will admit that Vapor Baths are a good thing, and most of them use the Niagara Vapor Baths as zealously as they recommend them to others.

I have in the past and am now using your Baths successfully in my practice; look on them very favorably in rheumatic complaints.—W. H. Graham, M.D., 198 King-street west.

Cover your body with varnish and you will be dead in twenty-four hours, allow the pores of your body to become gradually sealed up and you will die a slow death. For keeping the skin healthy there is nothing to equal a Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinet.

Am using one of your Cabinets with success in a very stubborn case of skin disease.—J. S. Clarke, M.D., 191 College-street.

A poultice is for drawing pain (poison) out of some local part. A Niagara Vapor Bath is a big poultice that will draw poison out of a million pores which are the outlets of miles of ducts full of disgustingly filthy secretions.

The principle of construction of your Vapor Bath Cabinets is good and their quality as a curative agent is beyond question. I speak from experience, as a number of my patients are using them.—H. Hunt, M.D., 379 Spadina-avenue.

Profuse perspiration under the arms and on the hands and feet, is proof that the pores on the remainder of the body are clogged with impurities. Niagara Vapor Baths clear every pore, prevent undue perspiration at any part, and keep the body delightfully comfortable on the hottest days.

Some Niagara Vapor Bath Cabinets are now being tried in the hospital, and as I am a member of the staff I am much interested in watching the results, which are satisfactory in every way.—Jean Cruickshank, M.D., 366 Bathurst-street.

A ten-minute Niagara Vapor Bath once or twice a week, on hot nights before retiring, relieves the system of the impurities which cause the odorous perspiration noticeable on some people. But the greater purpose of Niagara Vapor Baths is to ensure perfect health.
