INVADER'S VICTORIOUS CREW

Skipper Jarvis, Com. Gooderham, the Sailors and the Cup Return to Toronto To-Day.

RECEPTION AND DINNER AT R.C.Y.C.

Skipper Thompson of the Cadillac Admits That the Best Boat Won—Yachting Notes.

The crew of the Invader, Skipper Jarvis and Commodore Gooderham, left Chicago last night, and will arrive in Toronto today at 12.15. They will be met at the station by the members of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club Executive, and driven to the clubhouse in an automobile. They will go across to the Island clubhouse, where they will be dined. In the evening a big reception will be tendered to the boys at the town clubhouse. The program is an impromptu one. The sister aquatic clubs have been invited. They consist of the National Skiff Association, the Queen City Yacht Club, the Argonauts, the Don Rowing Club and the Toronto Rowing Club.

Light easterly winds prevailed from start to finish, and the final race was conceded to the Canadians before the gun was fired, wrote a Chicago critic. The Cadillac put up an unexpectedly good contest. Skipper William Hale Thompson out-jockeyed Jarvis at the beginning, and the American boat outfooted the Invader on the long reach that made up most of the beat to the windward buoy.

Several times local hopes rose to the height of enthusiasm. When the Cadillac had the foxy Invader blanketed in crossing the starting line, cheers arose from the surrounding steamers. But the Invader rounded the outer mark two minutes ahead and picked up nineteen seconds on the reach to the home buoy. The Cadillac was out-classed, and Skipper Thompson beaten at the decisive points by the keen helmsman from Toronto.

The Canadian boat won with comparative ease, altho given a run for the first part of the journey. Up to the first buoy it was an even race, and one of the prettiest ever seen on Lake Michigan. Both the skippers were on their mettle, and honors were fairly even all the way, altho Skipper Thompson of the Cadillac scored over his famous rival at the start.

All kinds of manoeuvres marked the trip to the first buoy, and here the race was really decided. It looked for a time as if Thompson would round the stake first, and if he had it is more than probable that he would have been able to hold his advantage on the run home, for it was in just that kind of a run that he gained over the Invader in Saturday's race. But Skipper Jarvis was there with the goods, and went around the stake some fifty seconds ahead of the defender. After that it was nothing but a procession, with the Cadillac struggling along in the rear, while the victorious Canadians simply took things easy. Never starting a sheet the entire last leg, it was a regular Invader day, and to win the Cadillac would have had to improve her showing in light weather. The Canadians have been singularly fortunate, it is asserted along the lake front, in having such fine weather this week. Given a stiff breeze and the heavy seas of Saturday and the American defender would have had more than an even show of winning. As it was, she was up against weather that just suited her rival.

The performance of the Milwaukee was a feature of the final day. She started over the course at a respectful distance some four minutes after the others, and she finished some seven minutes sooner than Invader, beating that boat by eleven minutes. Milwaukee's figures follow:

Start.	Windward mark.	Finish.	Elapsed time.
11.34.20	1.53.13	3.00.43	3.30.43

The Chicago Record-Herald says: The exquisite seamanship shown by Aemilius Jarvis of the Invader was a thing of wonder to spectators. He took advantage of every puff of wind and every lull. He "sweated up" his mainsail at the proper moment, and allowed not a breath of wind to go by his canvas without paying toll. He took advantage, too, of the points of his opponents, and studied the rival skipper much as he studied the fine points of the rival yacht.

William Hale Thompson sailed a good race, and proved himself a sailor in the real sense of the word. But he was matched against what is accepted as the most cunning seaman on the lakes.

The skippers of the two yachts had the following to say after the race:

Aemilius Jarvis: I think the better boat won. The fact that we took yesterday's race on a foul is a source of regret to myself and to all Canadians, but I could not afford to throw up the race for the sake of sentiment. To-day gave us Invader's weather, and the boat did just what we expected of her. We have been well treated here, and will go back to Canada with the most pleasant memories. There is one thing I must say, however, and that is that we had a good crew. A smarter company of sailors never handled ropes on the lakes than the men who sailed on the Invader with me. And their good work had much to do with the result.

William Hale Thompson, skipper of the Cadillac: The best boat won the Canada's Cup, all right, and Aemilius Jarvis is a great sailor. The pair of them put up some wonderful work. Of course, I am sorry that only three races were actually sailed, and feel that under more favorable conditions we would have made a better showing. I think that my crew, taken as a whole, will make as good a bunch of sailors as can be found anywhere.

In speaking of the race, Mr. Jeffrey Foote, resident secretary of the R.C.Y.C., said: "It's just tit-for-tat. Last year, when the Genesee raced here she had weather to suit her, and this year it's almost the same, in inverse ratio. The accident at Chicago, if you may call it so, simply offsets the accident to the Beaver here. The weather following was propitious for the Invader, and it simply narrows down to the certain fact, at least so far as can be judged, that in heavy weather, with a breeze of from to 20 to 25 miles an hour, Cadillac has a better chance, while in lighter weather, with a moderate breeze, Invader can sail all round the Cadillac."

Secretary Foote is also of the opinion, in common with most local yachtsmen, that with Beaver in Invader's place in the first race, or even in a series, with such weather as favored the Cadillac, Canadians would have had cause for rejoicing.

Royal Cork Y.C. Members Cheer.

Queenstown, Aug. 15.—The White Star Line steamer Teutonic, which left Liverpool yesterday with Sir Thomas Lipton and his party on board, for the United States by way of this port, arriving here this morning, sailed from Queenstown at 10.10 a.m. Sir Thomas was given a great send off by the members of the Royal Cork Yacht Club, who went out to the Teutonic in a body to bid farewell to the owner of the challenger for the America's Cup. The visitors breakfasted on board the steamer with Sir Thomas. Brief speeches of the usual character were made. Both George L. Watson, the designer, who joined the Teutonic here, and Sir Thomas, said they expected the Columbia would be the cup defender. W. G. Jameson, the amateur yachtsman who will represent Sir Thomas in the races on board the Shamrock, sails for New York Aug. 24 from Liverpool, on board the Cunard Line steamer Campania.

Port Dover Yacht Races.

Port Dover, Aug. 15.—The second of a series of three yacht races for the championship of Long Point Bay was held here to-day, under the auspices of the Port Dover Yacht Club. They sailed in a spanking southwest breeze and heavy sea, which scared off the smaller boats. The race resulted as follows: Skip, 1; Edith, 2; Patty, 3. Also started—The Willwin, Nancy and Peggy. Commodore Williams of Buffalo acted as referee. The course was led to windward and return, and was sailed in fast time. The winning boats were all from Port Rowan, and a large crowd of excursionists from that town came to Port Dover to witness their boats win. The last race of the series will be sailed on Aug. 29.

A. R. Gooderham's Dingy Won.

The Royal Canadian Yacht Club's dingy race was sailed yesterday afternoon with four starters, and was won by A. R. Gooderham's dingy. The course was a triangular one. The results were:

	St.	Fin.	Elapsed Time.
A. R. Gooderham ..	4.30	5.13.50	43.50
A. G. Gooderham ..	4.30	5.16.44	46.44

Parkdale Beaten at Uxbridge.

Parkdale cricketers visited Uxbridge yesterday, losing by 50 runs. For the visitors, A. G. Chambers was the only one to get into double figures; for Uxbridge, Dr. W. P. Mustard made 27 and 55 in splendid form, while A. J. Coombe ran up 36 and 31, not out, in each innings. The bowling of Dr. Mustard and A. J. Coombe was first-class, the former obtaining 5 wickets for 13 and the latter 5 for 15. The visitors tried six bowlers with honors about evenly divided. Beaverton C.C. plays in Uxbridge on Friday. A heavy rain came on about 4.30, which prevented further play, making the game a win for Uxbridge on the first innings. Score:

Cricket Slips.

The Rosedale team to meet Parkdale at Rosedale on Saturday will be: H. Cooper, G. E. Dunbar, E. J. Livingstone, J. H. Forrester, W. H. Cooper, S. H. Cooper, W. Ledger, J. W. Hynes, H. Hancock, A. N. Garrett.

Gordon, Mackay & Co.'s team will visit Hamilton on Saturday. Hamilton will play the following men, the game starting at 2.30: Counsell, Perrie, DuMoulin, Blumfield, Hope, Marshall, McGiverin, Washington, Wright and White.

Secretary John E. Hall of the Canadian Cricket Association has received a letter from Philadelphia saying that Rowcuetr's team of English cricketers would arrive on September 14, and wanted to meet a Canadian team in Toronto on Oct. 3 and 4. The team is composed of the following: A. M. Hollins, Oxford; B. T. J. Bosanquet (captain); F. Mitchell of Yorkshire; C. J. Burnup of Kent, B. N. Dowson, H. D. G. Leweson-Gower and H. L. A. Jeyes, Oxford; Surrey, L. J. Moon, R. Moore, W. P. Robertson and P. A. Warner of Middlesex.

The Western Cricket Team.

Mr. E. A. Caughell of Aylmer, who has the Western Cricketers' tour in charge, reports that in response to his invitation more than the necessary number of men have accepted. The exact personnel of the team is not yet known, but that it will be one of the strongest from Western Ontario that has yet visited Toronto goes without saying. Aylmer will send England, their crack bowler, who is also an excellent bat, Monteith and Caughell, two change bowlers and good all-round cricketers, and Horsted, the wicket-keeper.

Dr. Dean of Tilsonburg, a powerful left-handed bat and sure run-getter, will no doubt be the regular stumper, and is never chappie when a bowler's nose is within three inches of the balls.

Chatham's representatives will be Wells, a strong defensive bat with sound scoring powers; Richards, a strong bat and excellent field; Nicaols, a plucky bat and sharp field close in; Kenny, the all-round man of the team, perfectly at home with both bat and ball, and Allen, the slow bowler with "the off theory," who for two years has had one of the best averages in Canada.

Strathroy will send Pope, magnificent bat and medium pace bowler; Van Valkenburg, the bowler, comes from Forest.

London, in Williams, Bucke and Meredith, sends three good bats and excellent fielders, and Williams and Meredith are bowlers.

In Stuart of Windsor, Aitken will find a dangerous rival for the bowling honors. Stuart bowls fast round the wicket, has good command of the ball, and breaks back dangerously at times. Marcon (also from Windsor) can do some "naughty things" with the ball, too, and has almost as many admirers in the border towns as has Stuart.

The Western Eleven will, doubtless, give a good account of itself, and besides playing our individual clubs should wind up their visit with an all-Toronto break which ought to prove interesting and by no means one-sided. The games arranged are:

With Rosedale, at Rosedale, Wednesday, Aug. 21st.

With Toronto, at Varsity, Thursday, Aug. 22nd.

With Gordon-Mackay, at Varsity, Friday, Aug. 23rd.

Sporting Notes.

Winepress, winner of the fifth race at Fort Erie Wednesday, was bid up by G. W. Graydon as a sequel to the long-existing selling race fight waged against H. McCarren, jr. McCarren attacked Graydon in the betting ring. Judge Nelson suspended McCarren, and ruled out his further entries as a result of a subsequent inquiry.

Mystic Shriner, the property of Mr. George W. Beardmore, M.F.H., who has shown such good form recently at New York, has arrived at his stable in Webber's opposite the Woodbine, in the charge of Trainer Meagher. He is to be given easy work, but kept in trim for the autumn meeting. With him is the master's newly acquired purchase, Merlo, who will doubtless be in excellent shape in September.

The lacrosse match played at Oshawa yesterday between Oshawa and Cobourg resulted in favor of Oshawa by a score of 5 to 1.

News of the death of Otto Cribb, the Australian puglist, has just been received at San Francisco. On the night of July 22 Cribb fought Micky Dunn in Sydney before the Gayety Athletic Club. The fight lasted 15 rounds, and ended in a knockout, Dunn being victor. The next morning Cribb was found dead in his bed. His real name was A. O. Simpson.

TORONTOS TEN RUNS AHEAD

Nick Altrock in Great Form and Walloped Worcester By 12 to 2.

HARTFORD WON TWO FROM BUFFALO.

Providence and Montreal Split Up Double Header and No Game at Rochester.

Toronto showed a return to winning form yesterday. It has been decided to further strengthen the team, and Manager Barrow left yesterday to secure Shortstop Downey from Schenectady. Pitchers Hardy and Flaherty were on the bench yesterday, and Outfielder Brown is again ready for the game. Hartford made a big gain yesterday with the double-header at Buffalo. Providence and Montreal won one each, and there was no game at Rochester. Score

Buffalo	35	62	.360

Games to-day: Providence at Toronto, Brockton at Buffalo, Hartford at Rochester, Worcester at Montreal.

Toronto 12, Worcester 2.

Toronto scored a splendid victory over Worcester before a good-sized crowd yesterday at Baseball Park. Nick Altrock was in great shape, and but for his own wild throw in the sixth the visitors would have been whitewashed. Toronto started at Griffin off the reel. Two errors, Bannon's hit, a wild pitch and Bonner's timely single scored three runs, and thereafter the result was not in doubt. The home batsmen continued to connect regularly, and with fast base-running and a few timely errors Torontos' best efforts of recent games was rolled up. Bannon especially was in great form with the stick, getting two singles and two doubles, one of which was almost over the fence. Carr's home run came in the fifth with no one on bases.

In the sixth Rickert and Carney singled. Smoot struck out. Sharrott bunted, and Altrock threw 10 feet high to first, the two runs scoring. Crisham flew out to centre field. Wrigley singled, Hargrove making a perfect throw to stop Sharrott at the plate. The ball passed Fitzgerald, but Altrock, who backed up well, returned it in time to retire the runner.

Toronto's fielding was first-class, Hargrove making two wonderful catches in centre field. Score:

BARON PEPPER'S STAKES

Only Four Horses Started in Feature Event at Saratoga—The Outsider Landed.

EUCLAIRE WON AT FORT ERIE.

Favorites and Second Choices Divided the Card at Windsor—The Entries.

Saratoga, Aug. 15.—The Kenner Stakes, one of the old time classic events of the Saratoga Association, was won to-day by the extreme outsider in the betting, Baron Pepper. There were only four starters. The Rhymer being favorite, while Ali Green and Black Fox were strongly played. Baron Pepper was at 20 to 1.

It began to rain just before the racing started, but the track was in good condition when the small field in the Kenner were sent off. The Rhymer, close followed by Black Fox, made the running down the back stretch. Ali Green and Baron Pepper lay close up. On the far turn Ali Green joined The Rhymer with the other two still in a good position. In the run down the stretch Ali Green went to the front and, being joined a few yards from the wire by Baron Pepper, the latter's light weight stood him in good stead and he won by a good neck, with Black Fox a length and a half away. The Rhymer was cut down at the stretch turn.

Nasturtium was worked five furlongs before the races began in 1.01⅕. He will not go to the post until the Futurity, for which race he is now the favorite.

First race, 1 1-16 miles, 3-year-olds and up, selling—Alfred Vargrave, 114 (Landry), 8 to 1 and 3 to 1, 1; Hammock, 114 (O'Connor), 5 to 2 and even, 2; Barbara Fritchie, 98 (G. Thompson), 7 to 2 and 7 to 5, 3. Time 1.48. Barretto, Little Daisy, Belgrade, Thoroughbred, Hardshell, Guesswork and Mercer also ran. The latter fell.

Second race, 7 furlongs, handicap for all ages—Isidor, 128 (Shaw), 7 to 5 and 1 to 2, 1; Ben MacDhui, 110 (Landry), 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, 2; Kilogram, 110 (Woderly), 4 to 1 and 6 to 5, 3. Time 1.26 1-5. Wax Taper, Montanic and Speedmas also ran.

Third race, 1⅛ miles, Kenner, for 3-year-olds—Baron Pepper, 110 (Beauchamp), 20 to 1 and 4 to 1, 1; Ali Green, 120 (Shaw), 13 to 5 and 3 to 5, 2; Black Fox, 120 (O'Connor), 2 to 1 and 1 to 2, 3. Time 2.21 4-5. The Rhymer also ran.

Favorites and Second Choices.

Windsor, Aug. 15.—The weather and track conditions were perfect to-day. Nyx was made the favorite in the first race and justified the confidence of her backers by going to the front at the flag fall and the result was never in doubt, as she won eased up by two lengths, but it cost her owner $205 to protect her, as she was run up that much over her entered price. Herodes was favorite in the second at 7 to 5, and he was protected from the way, finishing fifth. Lacrimae, 3 to 1, won easily, with Last Knight second, and Vela third. Ben of Allen won the third and had speed in reserve, never being in any danger. Ed. Roth, the favorite, had to be satisfied with the place. Sauber pulled up bleeding. City of Detroit Handicap, fourth on the card, was a pretty race. Four responded to the call. Miss Soak and Aloah II. raced neck and neck to the half, followed closely by Enghurst and Jarboe in the same position. After passing the half Soak seemed the faltitive and finished a half length to the good. Aloha II second and Enghurst third. Nuggett, the favorite, won the fifth, Marie Tryon second, Six Bits third. Edna Gerver won the sixth in a driving finish from Marion Lynch. Mr. Pomeroy, the favorite, finished third. Fusion was left at the post. Summary:

First race, selling, 6 furlongs—Nyx, 102 (A. Weber), 7 to 5, 1; Little Chico, 94 (Ryce), 8 to 1, 2; Golden Harvest, 97 (J. Martin), 6 to 5, 3. Time 1.18¾. Ates, Pearson, Georgia Gardner, Alice Mantell, Custodian, E. P., Kid Hampton and Mudder also ran.
