Obituary.

On Saturday morning at 8.30 there passed away Mr. Elias Driscoll, of Hayward Avenue, at the age of 69 years. Mr. Driscoll was born at Lower Island Cove, and when 34 years of age came to this city, where he has resided ever since. Mr. Driscoll was a shipwright, and in that capacity was noted for his splendid and reliable work. He attended Cochrane Street Methodist Church, and was a member of the Quarterly Official Board. He was greatly respected for his integrity and Christian character, being earnestly devoted to the forwarding of every good work. He took a special interest in the Sunday School, and was one of the most regular visitors on Sunday afternoons. Men like him, honest, industrious, right-living men, form the back-bone of any community, and by his life and influence Mr. Driscoll helped to build up all that was good and useful in this community. His place in Cochrane Street Church will now be vacant, and he will be sorely missed. He was twice married. First to Miss Gillingham, of Lower Island Cove, and secondly to Miss Susan Anderson, of Harbor Grace, who survives him. His children are Jethro, Charles and Mrs. Sarah Jane Stockwell, living in this city, Richard, who is in New York, and Norman, who died some years ago at Pittsburg. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2.30. To the widow and children we beg to tender our heartfelt sympathy. At the evening service in Cochrane Street Church yesterday, Rev. Dr. Bond made a touching reference to the deceased, and at the close, the "Dead March" was played by the organist.

Feast of St. Michael and All Angels.

Yesterday St. Michael's Church observed its Ptronal Festival, on the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels, the day being especially marked by the visit of His Lordship Bishop White, this being the first occasion on which the Bishop of the Diocese has been able to take part in the Patronal Service of this Church. The Bishop was present at the 11 o'clock Eucharist, occupying a throne on the Gospel side of the Sanctuary. Rev. Canon Field was the celebrant of the Holy Sacrifice, being assisted by Rev. E. H. Fletcher. The Bishop read the Gospel and pronounced the Absolution and Benediction, as directed by the rubrics. His Lordship also preached the sermon, taking as his text: "Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister to them who shall be heirs of salvation." The large congregation will not soon forget the interesting and instructive discourse of His Lordship. The current church year at St. Michael's has been one of much activcity and forward work. It is hoped that before another Feast Day comes around to have new pews in the church, and a site for a Church and Parsonage purchased on LeMarchant Road.

"Some Rise."

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,— It is now understood that this very (?) liberal and magnanimous Government is going to give to its employees the magnificent rise in salary of "15 per cent."

Just imagine, Mr. Editor, fifteen per cent! What an insult to every civil servant doing duty to-day.

To some of the small salaried officials it will mean about SIXTY CENTS A WEEK, and isn't that, sir, "some" rise to help the half paid worker feed and clothe himself and his family?

Sixty cents a week, what a rise in salary—what a proof of the generosity of the Coaker-Lloyd-Cashin combine—what an outburst of generous aid is given here.

Sixty or seventy or even eighty cents a week on a man's salary will be a sure wonderful help to his building up a big account at the bank. Go to it Messrs. the Lloyd-Coaker Government, the civil servant is just going to give you something for yourself when you shall have the impudence to come to him and his for support the next election. You grow rich yourselves, but the poor civil servant drudge needs must accept your rotten and parsimonious dole of a few cents a week. But wait, the time will come, and then.—

Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, I remain,

Very truly yours,
SQUARE DEAL.

The Americans in France.

(From the Westminster Gazette.)

I have been hearing much lately of the Americans in France and the impression they have made upon our own men there. Without giving offence to anybody, I hope I may say that British admiration of them has gone far beyond the limits that were considered likely to be reached and that they have become strong favorites. But there is one point, in particular, which seems to have impressed every officer who talks to me on the subject. They all quite expected to find the Americans fine men physically, with plenty of intelligence and their full share of courage and dash and endurance; but they agree that they have been surprised to note the eagerness of the new Allies to seek advice. "You have been at this game for years," is, I am told the usual formula: "we are fresh at it. Tell us what you know!" It is an admirable frame of mind, and one that promises rapid progress on the part of the willing students.
