THEIR HERO OF BATOCHE.

SIR JOHN UNVEILS THE HEROIC STATUE OF COL. WILLIAMS.

A Gala Day at Port Hope—Sir Adolphe Caron, Minister of Militia, at the Ceremony—All the Military Officers of the District Present—The Old Man Returns to the Capital.

PORT HOPE, Sept. 4.—This picturesque little town had such a gathering to-day as is well nigh unprecedented in its history. The streets were decorated with evergreens, flags and bunting were displayed in profusion, and everyone was attired in holiday garb and a pleasant exterior. The town was full of visitors, to all of whom hearty words of welcome were extended. The occasion of these unusual festivities was the unveiling of the memorial statue of the late Col. Williams by Sir John Macdonald and the formal opening by the same hon. gentleman of the Port Hope Industrial Exhibition. The veteran Premier, accompanied by Sir Adolphe Caron and Mr. Fred White, arrived from River du Loup after a tedious ride of nearly two days. The party went at first to the residence of Mr. Harry Ward, M.P., and the first thing that the Old Man asked for were the services of a barber.

At 10.30 the proceedings opened. Long before that hour a great crowd had gathered in Queen-street in front of the Town Hall, where the statue is erected. There were present among others these officers of the William's Memorial Association: W. Craig, sr., president; R. H. Holland, secretary; R. A. Mulholland, treasurer; Judge Benson, D. Chisholm, J. F. Clark, J. Craik, J. H. Helm, Rev. Dr. Bethune, Mayor E. Peplow, councillors J. McMullen, R. C. Smith, T. Long, T. A. Thompson, J. H. Rosevear, W. Craig, jr., S. Paterson; Town Clerk H. W. Sanders; Town Treasurer Henry; Harbor Commissioners, E. S. Virdin, P. Robertson, W. Williamson; Mayor James Stevenson, M.P. of Peterboro, and Clerk James Macdonald; James Masson, M.P., Owen Sound; Dr. Willoughby, M.L.A., East Northumberland; Mr. Field, M.L.A., West Northumberland; Robert Mulholland, ex-M. L. A., Cobourg; E. Guillet, M.P., West Northumberland, E. Cochrane, M.P., East Northumberland; Capt. Howard of Gatling gun fame. The officers of the 46th Battalion were represented by Col. Gravely, Capt. Givins, Major Bonnycastle, Capt. Birdsall, Capt. McGaughey, Lieut. Richardson, Capt. Snelgrove, Capt. Greer, Capt. Butler, Capt. Duncan, Lieut. Campbell, Lieut. Floyd. The officers of the 45th present were: Col. Dennis on and Col. Cabitt. Of the 57th there were: Col. Rogers, Capt. Brennan, Lieut. Mason. The Durham Field Battery officers were: Major McLean, Lieut. Snyder. The 3rd regiment of cavalry officers were: Col. Boulton, Capt. Sutton, Lieut. Kent, Lieut. Strickland, Major Smith, who was second in command of the Welland Battalion under Col. Williams; Lieut. Cartwright, late of the Midland Battalion. There were also present a large gathering of prominent gentlemen from the Midland district and elsewhere, friends of the lamented officer.

Over 5000 persons were present during the unveiling ceremonies.

The proceedings opened with an address of welcome from the corporation to Sir John Macdonald. Sir John, wreathed in smiles, a Prince Albert and the ever present red tie, stepped forward amid applause and testified to his appreciation of his reception and his gratification to be present on so notable an occasion. The speech closed with many sincere wishes for the prosperity of Port Hope and the promise to aid the town as far as lay in his power.

After prayer by Rev. C. J. S. Bethune, Judge Benson, an intimate friend of the late Col., uttered a few words. R. H. Holland, secretary of the association, then read the address, which reviewed the many noble qualities of the late Col. Williams, the hearty support received from the Government towards the now accomplished work. It also reviewed the history of the work since its inception, the loyal spirit shown in its consummation and concluded by recognizing the ability and skill of the sculptor, Hamilton McCarthy, R. C. A., who had indeed ably performed his task. The address was signed by W. Craig and R. H. Holland.

Sir John then, while the bands of the 57th and 46th battalion played "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Sweet Bye and Bye," removed the Union Jack that had previously veiled the statue. A hush fell upon the audience. After a momentary pause the Premier proceeded to address the concourse. His remarks in laudation of the "Hero of Batoche" aroused the enthusiasm of the audience, who cheered him to the echo. The sentiments expressed were exactly in accord with the feelings of the multitude and all were fired with renewed loyalty.

The Old Man in his most happy style referred to the gallant deeds of the late departed soldier, so well known and which are now matters of history. His gentlemanly character, his administrative ability were al eulogized in glowing terms.

Sir Adolphe Caron, in warm terms, referred to the late colonel, eulogizing his many brave and statesmanlike qualities. He took occasion to refer to the happy relations that always existed between the deceased and the French population with whom he was associated. At Major-General Middleton's request the speaker conveyed to the audience the former's sincere regrets at his absence owing to pressure of business. In conclusion he was happy to be able to state that all over the Dominion loyal citizens had vied with each other in their efforts to swell the contribution list. The speaker concluded amid renewed applause.

The Old Man was on hand to formally open the exhibition at 2.30. In the course of a speech, in response to an address of welcome from the company, Sir John replied in effect that he was more than pleased with the cordial reception and expressed great hopes for the future of Port Hope as a grain producing centre. His remarks met with frequent applause.

The Premier paid a visit to Trinity College School, and attended a garden party given by Mrs. Frazer. In the evening a torchlight procession promenaded the principal streets. Sir John and party left for Ottawa at 11 p.m.

Sir John expects to be in Toronto Tuesday next, to open the big fair.

Flour and Wheat.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 4.—The Northwestern Miller says: The aggregate flour output for the week ending Aug. 31, was 133,380 barrels, against 16,200 the previous week and 102,100 for the corresponding week of last year. The figures for last week are the largest since the middle of November. The proportion of new wheat used in the mills runs from 25 to 100 per cent., the average being about one-half. It is said the new wheat makes a better flour than the old. The flour market is still comparatively inactive and comes short of the expectation of manufacturers. Prices are somewhat lower, patents being quoted mostly at $4.60 to $4.75. The foreign demand has fallen off and is light, ocean rates continuing high. The exports in t week were 48,230 barrels, against 31,240 the preceding week, but part of this was on book sales.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO.

Twenty Members of the Senate to Be Elected—Mr. Blake Re-elected Chancellor.

Under the new University Act the representation of the graduates on the University Senate is enlarged and must be completely renewed this month. Yesterday was the last day for receiving nominations for the twenty vacancies that have to be filled. As far as could be learned last night the candidates are given below.

The Arts Candidates.

The graduates in arts now alive number 1241 as made up by the registrar, and each hundred or fraction over fifty is entitled to one representative, in this instance to twelve. For these twelve vacancies the following twenty nominations were put in yesterday:

FORMER MEMBERS OF SENATE.

Toronto.	Outside.
Prof. Loudon	J. H. Coyne, St. Thomas
Judge Falconbridge	John King, Berlin
Prof. Galbraith	S. Woods, London
Prof. Ellis	T. D. Craig, Port Hope
Prof. Baker	J. M. Gibson, Hamilton

NEW CANDIDATES.

Arch. MacMurchy	W. Fitzgerald, Ottawa
W. Houston	E.B. Edwards, Peterboro
A. B. Aylesworth	Adam Johnston, Morrisb'g
W. F. Maclean	E. R. Cameron, London
	A. C. Lawson, Ottawa

Messrs. Aylesworth and Maclean of Toronto, Mr. Cameron (London), and Mr. Lawson (Ottawa) make up a ticket put forward by the younger graduates, who are organized to secure their return.

The Medicine Men.

The graduates in medicine are given four men. They number about five hundred. The candidates are:

L. McFarlane, M. D., Toronto.
A. H. Wright, M. D., Toronto.
W. Oldright, M. D., Toronto.
I. H. Cameron, M. B., Toronto.
W. H. B. Aikins, M. B., Toronto.
Geo. Acheson M. B., Toronto.

The three last are new men.

The Law Candidates.

The graduates in law number less than a hundred. They are entitled to two men. Up to last night the only candidates were A. H. Marsh LL.B. and W. F. W. Creelman LL.B., both of Toronto, who will probably go in by acclamation.

The High School Masters

are entitled to select two men from their number. The list of head masters will be made up in a few days by the Education Department and sent to all whose names are on it. Those receiving the list pick out two names from the list and send them to the registrar.

The Chancellorship.

Hon. Edward Blake, M.A., LL.D., Q.C., is nominated as Chancellor of the University by the London graduates, among the names on his paper being that of W. R. Meredith, LL.D. As there is no other candidate Mr. Blake is re-elected by acclamation.

How the Election Will be Held.

In a day or two the registrar will have a printed list of the graduates and their addresses, also of the candidates. Every graduate will receive a voting paper and a list of candidates. He will fill in his men and return the paper any time this month.

On October the 3rd the Vice-Chancellor and two scrutineers named by the Chancellor will count the votes.

A graduate who has two or more degrees may vote in each faculty in which he has a degree.

JUDGE M'DOUGALL'S COURT.

Three Ex-Circus Employes Sent to Jail for Stealing—A Funny Case from Scarboro.

Rosamond Micks was tried before Judge McDougall yesterday on a charge of stealing a pair of boots from Danford Roche & Co., Newmarket, last Saturday. She elected to be tried by the judge and pleaded guilty. She was allowed out on bail to appear when called upon.

Three boys, Michael Healey, James Walker and John Walsh, were tried on a charge of stealing four gold rings and other articles from the residence of John Bain, Davenport. The boys were formerly in the employ of Barnum & Bailey's circus and came up with the show from Montreal. At Toronto they were discharged and failing to obtain other employment they were reduced to a destitute condition and asked the complainant for something to eat. They were admitted into the house, where they purloined the articles mentioned. Judge McDougall gave the prisoners a lecture and sentenced them to 10 days in jail.

Mary Armstrong, alias Jennie Jones, was charged with setting fire to some carpets and clothes belonging to a man named Bolton residing in concession C, Scarboro'. She was in the employ of the family with whom Bolton was boarding and had a disagreement with her employers. Bolton attempted to eject her and she resented his interference in a rather original manner by setting fire to his clothes. The papers were not forthcoming yesterday and the accused was remanded until to-day.

Application for bail on behalf of James Dalrymple and William Bladen, the Bon Marche clerks who have been committed for trial on charges of theft, was to have been made by their counsel, Mr. H. S. Osler, before Judge McDougall yesterday afternoon. The matter, however, was deferred until this morning, Judge McDougall being absent along with Sir Hector Langevin on the Abeona.

BLOOR-STREET'S NEW CHURCH.

The Corner-Stone Successfully Laid Notwithstanding the Heavy Rain.

Two years ago the Bloor-street Presbyterians built a school-house at Bloor and Huron streets, which they have used ever since for Sunday services. Yesterday afternoon they took another step in laying the corner stone for a handsome church edifice. The pastor, Rev. W. G. Wallace, M. A., acted as chairman, and after the opening services, conducted by Rev. Dr. Parsons and Rev. Dr. Gregg, Mr. Thomas McCraken, Chairman of the Building Committee, read the documents to be placed in the corner-stone. These consisted of a history of the church and a list of the office-bearers. Mr. W. Davison then presented a beautifully engraved silver trowel to Rev. Prof. McLaren, who laid the stone.

At this point it commenced to rain and Rev. Hugh Johnston invited the party over to Trinity Methodist Church. Here congratulatory addresses were delivered by Rev. Prof. MacLaren, Rev. Elmore Harris, Rev. Dr. Parker, Rev. Dr. Gregg, Rev. R. P. Mackay, Rev. Arthur H. Baldwin, J. L. Blaikie, Rev. A. F. McGregor, Wm. M. Clarke, and Rev. Dr. Johnston.

Shutting Out Saloon Keepers.

The Catholic priests of Toronto are preparing for a determined separate school campaign for next year. They will have two objects. The first, it is alleged, is to exclude Trustee D. P. Cahill from the board, and already a candidate has been chosen to oppose him in the person of Mr. T. Hennessy. The second and most important obj ect will be an effort to exclude saloon keepers from acting as trustees. A personal canvass is to be made by the clergy, and every Catholic is to be asked to record his vote against any candidate who is in the liquor business.

Nothing Decisive Up to Date.

It is by no means certain that even now Bishop Walsh is archbishop-elect of Toronto. The administrators hold the opinion that the appointment is as good as made but refuse to definitely commit themselves. Recently a prominent Catholic wrote to His Lordship of London concerning some local church work. Yesterday an answer was received in which Bishop Walsh declined to act in the manner desired, as up to date he had not received the official papers from Rome in the matter of his appointment.

A Baseball Retter's Troubles.

Charles Walters, a recently imported English sport with great baseball proclivities, has taken out a summons against William McPherson, a director of the Toronto Baseball Association, for assault. It is charged that Walters while talking to a friend in the grand stand was struck in the jaw by McPherson who charged him with betting. The dispute will be heard to-morrow.

DERVISHES WIN A BATTLE.

THE "FRIENDLIES" DEFEATED IN A SHARP ENGAGEMENT.

Heavy Losses on Both Sides—The Dockmen's Strike—The Companies Yielding—Liverpool Employers Concede the Advance Demanded—General Cable News.

SUAKIM, Sept. 4.—The dervishes defeated a force of "friendlies" near here to-day. The losses on both sides were very heavy.

The London Strike.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—One hundred thousand strikers' relief tickets of the value of one shilling each were issued yesterday. It is suggested the Lord Mayor, the Governor of the Bank of England and the President of the Chamber of Commerce might succeed in settling the dispute between the men and the employers. The dock directors have again issued a statement of the terms they are willing to concede. The Strike Committee contemplate issuing a manifesto setting forth the conditions on which they will permit the dock men to resume work.

There was a marked increase this morning in the number of dock men receiving work, and business on the wharves presented a rather brisk aspect.

John Burns delivered an address to the strikers on Tower Hill. He denounced arbitration and denied the report that the dockmen were going to work. He said it was expected that strikes would be inaugurated in Glasgow and Southampton on Thursday.

The steamers of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Co. are being loaded by Lascars, assisted by the captains and other officers of the vessels.

The police fired upon a crowd of strikers who were obstructing the work of loading steamers, fatally wounding one man.

The Strike Committee sat until 2 o'clock this morning. It was agreed that the committee would consent to the men resuming work at any wharf paying 6d. an hour ordinary time, and 8d. over time, the "plus" in piece work to be equally divided between journey men and foremen.

The Southampton dock-men are not disposed to strike, work being plentiful.

Liverpool Employers Yield.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 4.—The strike here is ended, the employers having conceded the advance demanded.

FIRES OF A DAY.

Gilmour & Co's, Shingle Mill at Trenton Goes up in Smoke.

TRENTON, Sept. 4.—About 3 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the shingle mill of Gilmour & Co., which was completely destroyed. Loss about $20,000, insured for $13,000. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The mill had been partly shut down for some time.

UKIAH, Cal., Sept. 4.—An incendiary fire at the Palace Hotel yesterday destroyed it, with the Wells-Fargo Express office, Western Union Telegraph office, Reed's Theatre and Oddfellows' Hall. Loss heavy.

BLUE SPRINGS, Neb., Sept. 4.—Two children of David Guys, while playing with matches in Mr. Andrews' barn yesterday, set fire to it and were burned to death.

LOUD CRIES IN YORK-STREET.

An Early Morning Scene in That Demonstratic Thoroughfare.

"Thieves, murder, robbers!" was the cry which startled residents in York-street south of Wellington-street about 2 o'clock this morning. The loungers of that early hour ran to the place whence these extraordinary and alarming outcries were proceeding. The policeman on the York-street beat preceded the crowd and arrived at 44 York-street two minutes after the alarm had been given. No. 44 stands back about fifty feet from the pavement and is surrounded by a high brick wall. At best it is a lonely spot and when this morning such gruesome cries were uttered the residents around thought that nothing less than a tragedy had produced them. The house is occupied by Jacob Levi and his family, consisting of three daughters and two sons. At the early hour above mentioned one of the daughters awoke and hearing a noise for which she could not account shrieked out "Wake up, father, there is some one in the bath-room!" A general confusion ensued and one of the sons rushing out into the grounds surrounding the house thought he saw a face peering through the gate. He ran out and pursued three men running up York-street, who were really running in response to the cries, in search of policeman. Two officers arrived. The father, Jacob Levi, was greatly excited and rushing out exclaimed, pointing to the young men who had called the officer: "There they are I would know them any where." No arrests were made, however, and it is probable that the mysterious affair will be further investigated to-day.

Another New System of Sewerage.

Col. Gzowski has written a letter to the Mayor highly recommending the adoption on trial of a new system of sewerage evolved by Major Mayne of the Royal Engineers and professor at the Kingston Military College. One of its merits is that it is a cheap system.

Buffalo Fair.

The N. Nav. Co. will sell tickets to Buffalo and return during the great Buffalo fair (3rd to 13th Sept.) for single fare. Tickets and all information to be had at the office of A. F. Webster, 58 Yonge-street.

The Scientists at Sudbury.

The delegation of scientists who left Tuesday night to visit Sudbury and the other mining districts in Northern Ontario numbered 25. They had a special C. P. R. car, arranged for by Mr. Callaway, and under the guidance of Mr. Haslett. They were at Sudbury yesterday.

Sale of Furniture.

The sale of Hess & Co.'s furniture will be held at the warehouse, 56 King-street west, by Suckling, Cassidy & Co. on 12th and 13th inst. The goods will be put up in lots to suit buyers, which should make the sale an attractive one to housekeepers. 246

Cyclorama.

This place of entertainment may be termed illusion ball, as there is a constant increase in the number of illusions displayed this week. With other figures are given with beautiful dissolving effects the "Witch in the Moon," "Galatea," "The Angel," "Britannia," Faith, etc., which are produced in such a manner as to not only mystify but also to charm the audience.

Autumn Beauty.

The poet writes of the field and flower
And the beauty of Autumn days;
Of the rosy dawn and the twilight hour,
And the charm of the woodland ways.

He wrote of the zephyr's perfumed sighs,
The sweets of the autumn night
Of the bewitching beauty of quinn's new ties:
In blank, in colored and white.

THE D. B. A. MEET.

Winners in the Dominion of Canada Match—The Prizes to be Presented To-night.

OTTAWA, Sept. 4.—The weather at the Dominion Rifle Association meet to-day was terribly hot. The sight was excellent but a nasty "fishtail" wind made the shooting hard. Some excellent scores were made in the Dominion of Canada match. The winning teams were:

WHAT KILLED KELLY?

A Sudden Death at Hamilton—Funeral of Father Leanen.

HAMILTON, Sept. 4.—The death of F. B. Kelly in a boarding house in Hughson-street north, at an early hour on Monday morning, presents features which make it of unusual interest. Mr. Kelly was a middle-aged English gentleman, affable and well liked, who came to Canada a number of years ago and settled at Ancaster in a comfortable residence called "Fairview." He lived there several years. One way and another Mr. Kelly lost what money he had—he had been very well-to-do—and domestic differences arose which resulted in the sale of the Ancaster property and the practical, if not formal, separation of husband and wife. For some time past Mrs. Kelly has been stopping at the American Hotel here. During the past summer Mr. Kelly has been at Grimsby Park and a fortnight since he came to Hamilton, taking up his quarters at the house of Mrs. Windesmersmer, 265 Hughson-street north, a few doors from Barton-street. Mr. Kelly has not been in the best of health since being there, though nothing serious appeared to be the matter with him. On Sunday night he retired about 10 o'clock, and was the last he was seen alive. At 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon the landlady became alarmed and entered his room. He was cold in death. The indications were that he had been dead for some time. The remains were interred yesterday afternoon. Dr. Ma kelcan gave a certificate of death from apoplexy, but the story is going the rounds that Kelly committed suicide.

The remains of the late Rev. Father James Lenaon of Galt, formerly assistant priest at St. Mary's and St. Patrick's churches of this city, and of Dundas, arrived last night and were conveyed to St. Mary's Cathedral, where the funeral services took place this morning in the presence of a large assemblage.

Bishop Dowling returned last night from his trip to Ireland.

Frank Cavanagh, the runaway lad who fell into the hands of the police here about ten days ago, was this morning sentenced by the Police Magistrate to three years in Penetanguishene reformatory.

George Aikin, a young man employed by J. M. Lottridge, disappeared from his house, corner of Bay and Sheaffe-streets, on Sunday, and has not since been seen. He is 25 years old, five feet five inches in height, weighs 150 pounds, wears a small light mustache and is of fair complexion.

A meeting of the veterans in and around Hamilton has been called for next Saturday evening at the Gore Coffee Tavern. Steps will be taken to form an association here similar to the one in Toronto.

ANOTHER CHICAGO INCIDENT.

Worshippers Drive Their Pastor From the Church During Mass.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—Trouble has broke out again among the members of Holy Trinity church in Noble-street. The church has been divided over the deed of the building being made to the Archbishop. When Father Kobrzynski started to speak some of the worshippers began to stamp the floor with their feet; others threw their rituals over their heads. In the midst of all this the pastor began to say mass.

When in the midst of mass, however, the worshippers left their seats and scrambled pell-mell over the sides of the inclosed pews. Father Kobrzynski, fearing mob violence, rushed from the altar and out through the parsonage way. He was secreted for several hours by personal friends, who feared the excited people would use him roughly if they laid hands on him. It is expected that the Archbishop will deal severely with the offending parishioners and further trouble is anticipated.

EXCUSED FOR CAUSE.

Why Talesman Turner Was Not Allowed to Sit on the Cronin Jury.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The work of securing a jury on the Cronin case was resumed this morning. The only matter of interest developed thus far was a ruling by Judge McConnell excusing Talesman W. P. Turner for cause. Mr. Turner testified that he was a member of the American League or Independent Order of Deputies, whose object is to prevent members of the Roman Catholic Church from holding or controlling political offices in this country. The talesman thought this would not influence his action and that he could give the defendants a fair trial, even if it were shown that they were members of the Clan-na-Gael. The defence challenged him.

THE ADVENTURESS WEEPS.

Mrs. Hamilton Informed of the Arrest of Her Confederates.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Sept. 4.—Mrs. Hamilton was informed by Sheriff Johnston to-day of the arrest of Mrs. Swinton and Mann in New York. She broke down entirely under the shock of the disclosure and wept bitter tears. She seemed to find some consolation in hugging little Beatrice Rey and said again and again that it was her own dear child. Her condition was most pititul, and it is feared she will commit suicide should opportunity offer.

Holiday Trip.

Before starting for a railway or ocean trip for the summer the traveler will, if prudent, obtain an accident policy from the Manufacturers Insurance Company, 83 King west.

KINGSTON CAPTURED.

The Limestone City Surrenders to the Delegates to the I. C. B. U. Convention.

KINGSTON, Sept. 4.—The Young Irishmen captured the city to-day. Right royal'y did the young men of the Catholic societies welcome the coming of the delegates to the twenty-first annual convention of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union of America. It was about 10 o'clock when the parade passed through the streets. In the procession were the following organizations: Toronto I. C. B. U., and band, Kingston C. M. B. A., with band, Kingston and Portsmouth St. Patrick's Society and band, Kingston I. C. B. U. and band and delegates to the I. C. B. U. Convention. Altogether 800 were in line.

At St. Mary's cathedral the visitors, in the absence of Archbishop Cleary, were welcomed by Rev. Father Kelly.

The delegates were taken down the river this afternoon, and to-night W. P. Killcauley, president of the local I.C.B.U., read an address of welcome.

The annual report of the secretary shows that $2227 has been given in aid of the Johnstown sufferers, $65,125 for the relief of the sick members of the society and $23,115 contributed towards the widows' and orphans' fund.

TERRIFIC LANDSLIDES.

Incessant Rain and a Cloudburst Start a Fatal Avalanche.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 4.—A destructive landslide is reported at Incarnacion, State of Hidalgo. For a week previous to Aug. 25 rain had been falling incessantly, and on Sunday night it culminated in a cloudburst, which caused the streams to overflow their banks, and loosene t the earth on the mountain in rear of the iron works of Richard Henry. At midnight a landslide occurred, bringing down with it the huts of the laborers who had built on its side and covered many others and their inmates. The night was very dark and the rain fell in torrents. The many laborers employed in the works commenced to hunt for the unfortunates caught in the slide. They managed to take out several alive, but a woman, her daughter and an infant were not found until several days after.

At 9 o'clock the same night another slide, fifty times as large as the first, rushed down over the settlement, breaking down walls, filling doorways, covering gardens, crushing huts and depositing immense rocks, which the men cannot move. This fresh slide caused great terror to the miners and workers in the mills, who sought safety in flight. When morning dawned the rain had ceased, but the magnitude of the devastation caused by the breaking away of the mountain side was apparent. Nearly all of the huts, hundreds in number, had been swept down into the valley and piled up one above the other and buried in the mud and stones several feet deep. Houses at the base of the mountain were crushed, walls had been swept away and the devastation was most complete. For three or four days afterward, searching was carried on in the slide and five bodies were taken out. It is believed that many others were buried.

THE DEMANDS OF LABOR.

Resolutions Adopted Yesterday by the Congress at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—The Labor Congress to-day adopted these resolutions:

That the system of subsidising railways by land and money grants is detri mental to the interests of the country, and that this Congress request the Government to discontinue the said practice, but that when need arises the Government shall provide facilities to the citizens of this country to exchange their products with each other and not delegate this important duty to private corporations.

That any terms or stipulations other than the rendering of an equivalent for wages insisted upon or demanded by employers in the engagement of employes should be declared by law null and void, and that any attempt at this exaction be declared a criminal offence, punishable by imprisonment for a specified term on proof and conviction of any court of competent jurisdiction. Be it therefore resolved that both the Dominion and Provincial Governments be respectfully petitioned to introduce and pass into law measures to that effect.

That all wage earners should in all cases be paid weekly, and the power to call out the militia in case of riots be vested only in the Governor of the Province and the Mayors of cities.

A PUZZLE FOR THE DOCTORS.

Havens' Heart was on the Right Side and all His Other Organs Wrong.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Sept. 4.—Frank Havens, aged 38, dropped dead last evening. A post-mortem disclosed an abnormal arrangement of the vital organs. The heart was on the right side. A coagula amounting to about two quarts of blood surrounding his heart. The liver was on the left side of the abdomen and the stomach on the right. The lungs were only one-third the regular size and were pressed upwards. How the man could have lived any length of time after birth seems a mystery to the surgeon.

Darkness at Centre Island.

The apparatus of the Ball Electric Light Co., which has been illuminating the park at Centre Island, was shut down last night and will be removed to Exhibition Park at once. The residents of this favorite resort at the Island are regretting that the light has got to go so soon; also that the work of filling in the lagoon which might have been finished this season has been so suddenly suspended.

Terpsichore.

The well and favorably known Prof. Thomas reopens his extensive dancing academy at 203 Yonge-st. to-day for the season. Those wishing to learn the light-fantastic art should become a member of his academy. The reputation and ability of Mr. Thomas as a teacher will no doubt greatly increase the number of pupils this season. His fancy dances, viz., the Court-Minuet at the "Art Fair," and the National Dances at the Industrial Exhibition of last year will be remembered. Call at the academy for terms.

New Novels.

Wm. Bryce, Toronto, has issued a Canadian Copyright Edition of Justin McCarthy's new story Roland Oliver.

For comfortable foot wear there has been nothing introduced that is equal to a fine cashmere sock. It has all the advantages of a wool sock, withoutits disadvantages, in that it will not shrink nor get harsh with wear. We have imported a specially fine line, which the maker guarantees both color and lasting qualities. A. White, 65 King-street west. Laundry in connection.

SEEING THE TOWN INCOG?

A LITTLE RUSE OF SIR HECTOR'S THAT DID NOT PAN OUT.

The Minister of Public Works and His Three Daughters Take a Boat Ride in a Pelting Rain—A Journey to the New Gap—Don't be a Provincialist.

Sir Hector Langevin, Minister of Public Works, made an unsuccessful attempt yesterday to enter the city incog. Sir Hector came from Montreal over the Grand Trunk in the morning, and with his two pretty daughters, the Misses Langevin; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapais, the latter lady also a daughter of Sir Hector; Mr. E. Roy, his private secretary, registered at the Queen's Hotel and took possession of a suite of rooms. Mr. Chapais, who is editor of Le Courrier du Canada of Quebec, looks very much like our esteemed townsman, W. S. Jackson, the assistant classical master at Upper Canada College.

Sir Hector and his party, after breakfast, took carriages and made a tour of the city. They visited the University of Toronto, Normal School, and other educational institutions.

When Mayor Clarke and Ald. Dodds, chairman of the City Reception Committee, heard of the minister's presence in town they made arrangements to have him survey the harbor improvements now going on in the Eastern Gap. For this purpose Mr. Albert Gooderbam kindly placed his steam yacht Abeona at their disposal. At 3.45 the party left the wharf of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club. They were on board, besides Sir Hector, his three daughters, Mr. Chapais and M. Roy, Mayor Clarke, Ald. Dodds, Booth and Shaw, John Small, M.P., William A. McCulla, M.P., Brampton, Hector Cameron, Q.C., Guy Bolte, W. S. Lee, E. M. Hardwick, Judge McDougall, W. H. Beatty, T. McGaw, A. Boultbee and the owner of the Abeona.

The trim little craft steamed round the western end of the Island into the lake and made straight for the new gap. Before reaching that point, however, she encountered a heavy rain storm, which materially interfered with Sir Hector's observations of the improvements. Had it been for she rain it was the intention of the party to go ashore and look around. Off the gap the Board of Trade cruiser Viola, with a large party of ladies and gentlemen on board, was passed and salutes were exchanged.

In the cozy cabin of the Abeona a little impromptu meeting took place, and Mayor Clarke graciously proposed the health of Sir Hector. His Worship alluded to the courtesy with which the Minister of Public Works had always received the deputations who went from Toronto to Ottawa in quest of harbor and other improvements. Sir Hector made a happy reply to the Mayor's toast, and he told the party amid breathless silence that it did not pay to be provincialist. After telling them that he would not enter the broad question of politics on such a festive occasion he said:

I am not a local man, not a Quebec man, but a Dominion man. I have always tried to feel that we were one people and the good of the entire community should be studied.

The Mayor (sotto voce): "Don't be a Provincialist, gentlemen!"

Then Sir Hector went on to say how futile had been his attempt to enter the Queen City in cog. He was merely traveling with his daughters for pleasure. He was happy to notice the great strides in the van of progress that Toronto, and in fact all the Ontario towns and cities, were making. Not the least important part of the Queen City's prosperity was due to her magnificent harbor, and the Government had always recognised the importance of keeping this in good repair.

The minister again referred to a cohesive people in the Dominion, and remarked that although he had first learned the French language on the knee of his mother, when he came among the English-speaking people of the Dominion he always liked to appear as one of them and speak as one of them. Sir Hector in conclusion said he intended to come to Toronto next year when he might have something to say about the great political questions of the day.

The Abeona got back to her wharf at 5.30 and Sir Hector's party drove to the Queen's. The Minister of Marine may still go to Niagara, returning this evening. At 10 o'clock to-morrow morning the Reception Committee will show Sir Hector some interesting features in connection with Toronto's progress. At 2 p.m. his party will take the boat for Montreal, going down through Quebec.

The Misses Langevin were dressed in charming costumes on board the Abeona, one in plum-color and the other in fawn-color.

Frank Turner, Q. E., came down to the wharf to see the venerable minister, but forgot any heed to Captain Gooderham's reminder: "All aboard!" Albany's president, therefore, remained behind.

Mr. McCulla, M.P., joined the party accidentally. He met them en route to the boat and casually went along.

During the trip Mr. Small and Sir Hector had a very earnest tete-a-tete. It is said that it was about new furniture for the Custom House, and John is to occupy in the near future, so it is said.

"Emperor" David Creighton called on Sir Hector at the Queen's last evening.

THE NEW LAW SCHOOL.

What and How Students are to be Taught—The Text Books and Fees.

The Legal Education Committee of the Law Society have approved of a curriculum for the new law school, which, with Mr. W. A. Reeve, Q.C., as principal, will open on Monday, the 23rd inst., in the present examination-room in the east wing of Osgoode Hall. The course is a three year one and all students except those admitted to the society prior to Hilary Term, 1889, and who reside out of Toronto, graduates who have entered their second year and non-graduates who have entered their fourth year, will be required to attend the school.

The course embraces lectures, recitations, discussions and other oral methods of instruction and the holding of moot courts. The text books prescribed for the 1st year are: Smith on contracts, Anson on contracts, Leith's Williams' real property, Broom's common law, Kerr's students; Blackstone, Bks 1 & 3; Snell's equity. In this year two lectures each day will be delivered at 9.30 to 10.30 a. m. and 3 to 4 p. m. Every other Friday instead of a lecture a moot court will be held from 10 a. m. to 12 noon. For the second year the text books will be Kerr's Blackstone, Bks 2 & 4; Harris' Criminal Law, Deane's conveyancing, Leith & Smith's Blackstone, Williams on personal property, Leake on contracts, Bigelow on torts, Eng. ed., H. A. Smith's equity, Powell on evidence, Bourinot's Constitutional History of Canada, O'Sullivan's Gov't in Canada; statutes, &c. In this year there will be two lectures in this year on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 11.30 a. m. and 12.30 p. m. and 4 to 5 p. m., and on Friday moot court 4 to 6 p.m.

Examinations will be held at the end of each term, and students passing these may be called to the bar without further examination. The term fee is $10 and old students may attend the school on paying the prescribed fee. It is understood examinations for old students will be held as formerly.
