be found who are in nearer touch with each other and are likely to benefit more by anything that tends to knit their relations more closely."

Admires Americans.

Australians of all classes, indeed, have a decided liking and admiration for Americans,due to sentimental,commercial and political causes. In the first place, as Australian newspapers and orators not infrequently observe whenever the question of Asiatic immigration to Australia comes up, or that of Australasian national defence, America is the nearest Caucasian neighbor, and friend that the commonwealth has. This fact is given added strength because Australasians are almost supersensitive over Asiatic proximity, prestige and influence. They are apprehensively mindful of their great physical separation from any cognate people. This feeling, it may be added, is fostered by leading politicians, especially those in the powerful Labor party and it includes Japanese, altogether regardless of the Anglo-British alliance.

This distrustful attitude towards things Asiatic and this strong leaning towards things American, has a corollary in Australian jealousy of European colonization in the south Pacific. Whereas the commonwealth has always been complaisant over America's possession of Pago Pago, Samoa—which the fleet will visit—it has never been overpleased over Germany's possession of Apia, and the commonwealth manifested so much feeling over territorial rights in the New Hebrides and trading privileges in the Marshall Islands that the imperial government was forced to treat with France and Germany respectively regarding these disputes.

In brief the United States is the only foreign power with territory in the Pacific for which Australia has a distinct liking.

Government is Similar.

Aside from the cardinal consideration that the commonwealth's whole scheme of government is patterned after that of the United States, there are strong commercial and other ties between the two countries. Mr. Deakin himself is an enthusiast over the United States. He visited America for the Victorian government in the eighties to inspect the irrigation works, and he has never forgotten the country or its greatness. The Australian people are notably hospitable, and they will outdo themselves in entertaining the American officers and sailors.

While plans are not yet made, it can be said that the functions and pleasures in Sydney will be rather more on the naval side than those here will be. Sydney is fond of the jacktars, and the sailormen will not have cause to complain of their stay. Melbourne's round of enjoyments will be somewhat more circumscribed, but this city is still the federal capital, and Melbourne in the season is one of the gayest of places.

It is more than probable that sports of all kinds—for Australia is devoted to out-of-door life—will play an important part in the entertainment to be arranged for the Americans.

Indeed, the visitors will arrive just when the Australian baseball season—for they play that game in the commonwealth—will be at its height, and there are other sports in plenty for those who may wish to vary the round of social entertainment with something in the way of more robust pastimes in the open air.

Where can anything more certain be found than Dr. Hamilton's Pills? Take them at night and feel better next morning—they work wonders in the body while you sleep. "For an invigorating spring medicine I recommend Dr. Hamilton's Pills," writes Mrs. E. E. Edward of Plattsburg. "We have used them in our family for five years—give them to the children for their blood, use them for headaches, constipation or loss of appetite; they always do immense good, and are so easy to take that we wouldn't think of being without Dr. Hamilton's Pills." All dealers, in 25c boxes.

A Useful Exhibition Says Russian Press

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—The Slavo says that the return of the American fleet as announced is as sensational as its departure for the Pacific. Apparently, The Slavo thinks, the danger of war has disappeared, for, it adds, "while this arouses deep satisfaction in Europe, the preservation of peace is due to the display of the big stick of the United States, the prudence of Japan, and the good offices of Great Britain.

The Novo Vremya says: "Whatever the original purpose, the cruise has done a useful service by a public exhibition of the American navy. We regret that the course of the fleet lies away from our shores, where it would meet with the heartiest welcome."

ROCKEFELLER AND LIQUOR.

Is Glad He's Never Touched—Believes in Prohibition.

"AUGUSTA, Ga., March 15.—"I am an old man, and I am glad to say I never touched whiskey."

John D. Rockefeller made this statement to a newspaper man. He talked freely on the subject of prohibition. He regards it, "as a good thing to keep liquor away from the negroes and lower classes of whites."

"I know there are many problems to be considered in connection with this great question, but in the end I think it will be best for the state," he said, indicating his view with reference to the present situation in Georgia. "It uplifts the people, strengthens them, teaches them to save. It is best."

Mr. Rockefeller believes that the prohibition sentiment is growing not only in this country but in England as well. It is his belief that the wave of anti-liquor sentiment is steadily gaining ground thruout the United States.

May Be a Murder.

MIDDLETOWN, N.Y., March 15.—Coroner Crist and Dr. Hardenberg, who examined to-day bones taken from the ruins of the burned home of Daniel Kelaber, near Montgomery, believe the bones are not those of a human being. Coroner Crist is now making every effort to discover the whereabouts of Kelaber, who was believed to have been murdered in his home before it was set afire.

Russ Prisons Overcrowded.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—M. Chtcheglovitoff, the minister of justice, has asked the douma for $1,000,000 for the enlargement of the Russian prisons, which are overcrowded.

There has been an increase of 111 per cent. in the number of prisoners since 1906. In January, 1908, the total number was 159,537, and February 165,588, of which 13,000 were political prisoners.

At 6.39 a.m. Sunday there was a fire at 817 West Queen-street, in a three-storey brick building, occupied by the Todd Remedy Co. Damage to building was $50; to the stock $600. The stock was insured in the following companies: Queen City $1000; Standard $2000; Excelsior $2000; building insured in the Queen City for $2000. The cause of the fire was an overheated stove. The alarm was turned in from box 162.

HON. A. G. MACKAY PAYS VISIT TO NEWMARKET

Fred Underhill Resigns Candidacy --Funeral of Late Mr. Armstrong--County Items.

NEWMARKET, March 14.—(Special.)—The visit of Hon. A. G. MacKay, leader of the opposition, to Newmarket this afternoon, at the annual meeting of North York Liberals, was made the occasion of a popular demonstration to the ex-minister.

The gathering was held in the town hall, which was packed to the doors, and Mr. MacKay's appearance evoked round after round of cheers.

Little time was lost in preliminaries, and following the election of officers, speaking was begun. The chair was occupied by Mayor Pearson of Newmarket.

A Surprise.

Apart from the visit of Hon. A. G. MacKay, and which was hurriedly arranged, the Liberals of North York present to-day were treated to a genuine surprise in the formal resignation by Fred Underhill of his candidature as the Liberal nominee in the riding. The reason assigned by Mr. Underhill was an accident which happened to him on Thursday, fracturing a bone in his ankle, and which it was feared would prevent his further canvas of the county. In view of this Mr. Underhill tendered his resignation.

The meeting tendered sympathy with the candidate, and promptly decided to call another mass meeting for the selection of a candidate, and Saturday, April 4, was fixed as the date.

Hon. Mr. MacKay in his address covered largely the same ground as in other places, on recent occasions. He scored the Whitney administration on the alleged failure to grapple with the educational questions, and repeated his charge that the appointment of Hon. Dr. Pyne was due to personal reasons.

The Montreal River Pulp Co. concession was reviewed, and it was charged that the present contract was inimical to the best interests of the settler and province at large. The member for North York was scarified for his action in the matter.

"We have a one man government in the Queen's Park, and no factious opposition comes now from the opposition benches," were some of the statements thrown out by the opposition leader. He defended the "Soo" loan and concluding said, "I never gave a vote in my life which gave me greater satisfaction."

Among the Liberals attending the meeting to-day speculation was rife regarding Mr. Underhill's successor, presupposing that he is not again tendered the nomination, which does not seem probable. A number of names are prominently mentioned, among them Henry Cane, head of the big United Factories, Limited; Joe Rogers, ex-reeve King Township; Jesse Walton of J. M. Walton & Co., private bankers, Aurora; ex-County Councillor Lundy, and "Billy" Johnston, lumberman, and farmer of Pefferlaw, and ex-warden of York County. That the choice will be between J. M. Walton and ex-Warden Johnston with the odds in favor of the latter was generally conceded. At the last provincial election the riding was redeemed by "Herb. Lennox" by a majority of 305.

TORONTO JUNCTION.

Big Representation of Railway Men at Funeral of Comrade.

TORONTO JUNCTION, March 15.—There was a large representation from all the different railway organizations at the funeral of Engineer Charles Armstrong, which took place on Saturday afternoon to Prospect Cemetery. The pallbearers were Joseph Fair, William Pickrel, John Hubert, Geo. Wanless, Albert Maynes, William Ritchie, all members both of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Masonic Order. The engineers and trainmen were represented from London and Havelock. A private service was held at his late residence, 56 West Annette-street, and a public service afterwards at Victoria Church, conducted by Rev. Dr. Pidgeon and Rev. T. Beverley Smith. The Masonic service at the graveside was conducted by Worthy Master W. D. Thomas and the brethren of Stanley Lodge A. F. and A. M.

Dedicate New Organ.

On only one occasion in the history of Victoria Presbyterian Church has the attendance been greater than was the case to-day at the dedicatory services in connection with the installation of the new organ. Especially at the evening service was standing room at a premium, with scores of people crowding the aisles and vestibules. Rev. Dr. Milligan of Old St. Andrew's preached at the morning service. Solos were rendered by J. F. Hill, leader of the choir, and Miss Harshaw. Rev. Dr. Pidgeon preached at the evening service, and Miss Ellis was soloist. The musical part of the services was rendered by Dr. Torrington of the Toronto College of Music, who in his masterly style showed the splendid instrument to its best advantage. The congregation were impressed with the depth of tone, and especially at the half hour's recital which Dr. Torrington gave after the evening service, was the harmony idealistic.

The collections to-day for the organ fund netted $715.. The recital to be given on Tuesday evening will clear a good part of the $500 which still remains to be raised, and it is confidently expected that Dr. Pidgeon will be able to announce next Sunday that all expenses in connection with the installation are completely paid.

Frank Campbell of 36 Franklin-avenue fell unconscious on the sidewalk in front of Davies' store on Dundas-street, about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. With blood streaming from a cut in his head, occasioned by the fall, Campbell was carried to Dr. Mason's surgery, where he soon recovered. The doctor found he had had an epileptic fit.

The Carnegie library project will be one of the matters discussed at the meeting of the town council to-morrow evening.

There are 54 cars of stock in the Union Stock Yards for to-morrow's market.

The regular service to Keele-street was interrupted for about half an hour on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, on account of one of the trucks of a car running off the tracks when turning the Y at Keele and Dundas-streets. A stub line was kept in operation to and from Humberside-avenue while the car was being got back again on the tracks.

Tracks All Right.

Engineer George Abrey gauged the tracks for the entire distance from Keele to Humberside on Saturday and found that the tracks haven't spread 1-16 of an inch at any point except at the switch at Union-street, where the frog was sprung a little. An expert engineer engaged by Mayor Baird accompanied Mr. Abrey during his measurements. The defective spot at Union-street was repaired by the Toronto Railway Co. on Saturday afternoon.

At Cutts' bowling alleys on Saturday evening the second game between Town Treasurer Jackson's team and Police Magistrate Ellis' team resulted in a victory for the latter.

The teams were: Treasurer Jackson, ex-Mayor Smith, Superintendent McMulkin and Chief Robinson. The scores were 456, 446, 423; total 1330.

Magistrate Ellis, Architect Ellis, J. Paterson, Mayor Baird. Scores, 466, 446, 483; total 1395.

Miss Mary A. Thompson died on Saturday morning at her mother's home, 72 Quebec-avenue, aged 47 years. The remains will be taken on the 5.15 p.m. train on Monday to Teeswater, for interment.

E. Scott of lot 51, Prospect-avenue, found a sum of money on Saturday between the corner of Keele and Dundas-streets and his home. He will be pleased to return the money to the owner, when notified.

Niagara Power in Suburbs.

In a few days Niagara power will be used by the Suburban Railway Co. The connections are almost completed and Manager Royce states that additional new machinery will be installed in the near future.

R. L. McCormack's condition is much improved. He is now able to be downstairs, after being confined to his bed for about 16 weeks.

The death occurred this morning of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Curtis, wife of William Curtis, late of the Bank of Hamilton apartments. She leaves a baby 3 months old. The funeral will take place from her late residence on Medland-street, to-morrow morning. The remains will be shipped on the 8.30 a.m. train for Barrie, where interment will take place.

A number of petty thefts have occurred in town with in the past few days, and the police are more than usually busy.

Miss Maggie Keaney of 120 Quebec-avenue is seriously ill with appendicitis, and was removed to the Western Hospital yesterday.

NORTH TORONTO.

Association Have Fine Meeting and Discuss Good Topic.

NORTH TORONTO, March 15.—"The beautifying of the town's streets by plenty of shade trees, and the ways and means to so do," formed the basis of a lengthy discussion at the Ratepayers' Association meeting in the town hall on Saturday evening.

D. D. Reid suggested that the council purchase trees wholesale and retail them to the residents at cost price, or that the town should spend an appropriation of, say, $500 for planting trees on Yonge-street and 500 feet east and west of Yonge-street. He also suggested the making of a sidewalk in front of the town hall, in order to conform with the rest of the sidewalks on Yonge-street, and also to have the town hall repainted.

Cost Comes High.

W. G. Ellis, the president, figured it out that if each tree planted would cost 15c it would entail a cost to the town of about $2400 for purchasing the trees, exclusive of planting them.

H. H. Ball said: "Personal experience has proved to me that if one property owner is planting trees, his neighbors will follow suit." He urged upon the members of the association to lead off with a good example.

E. Jury said he wanted to plant shade trees years ago, but had no guarantee that they would be protected against stray cattle.

T. A. Gibson said the point was not well taken by Mr. Reid as to Yonge-street,as no trees could be planted on the west side, owing to the Metropolitan Railway, and there was no suitable place for planting them on the east side, but the side streets should be looked after in this respect. He considered it improper that the council should take up this matter exclusively.

Mr. Le Cras favored co-operative committees for the carrying on of this work.

Councillor Parke said: "I do not like the idea of shoving everything onto the town council, especially as there is a bylaw on the books of the council offering a bonus of 25 cents for every tree planted." He said further, "one member of the council has taken up this matter already, and received an offer of 50,000 trees free of charge if taken out of a bush, and the Ratepayers' Association should try to enthuse private citizens to plant trees, independent of being coaxed to do so by the council."

Mayor Fisher favored leaving the matter in the hands of the council, and thought that the Ratepayers' Association should work in conjunction with the council. The work could not be done in one year, but the council may make an appropriation of $100 this year to pursue this work.

Endorse the Plan.

"A motion by T. A. Gibson and D. D. Reid requesting the council to consider the question of planting shade trees along the boulevards of the streets of the town, and t furnish trees at cost price and plant them on streets where the people will undertake to care for them, was carried.

The executive committee was requested to co-operate with the town council in the furtherance of tree planting thruout the town and to appoint sub-committees.

The question of locating parks and play-grounds in town was laid over for discussion until Saturday evening, March 28.

Building operations promise to be brisk in town this summer. Robert Armstrong has started to erect two dwellings on Briar Hill-avenue, six houses will be erected on Glencairn-avenue, and a large mansion on Victoria-avenue.

The squirrels have wrought havoc with the spruce trees this winter. The ground under these trees is thickly covered with tender branches and shoots bitten off by them.

Members of the local Orange Lodge went to Lambton Mills last night, where they paid a fraternal visit to Humber Lodge, L.O.L.

The dog poisoner on Sherwood-avenue is busy again. This morning J. M. Letsche lost a valuable collie dog from this cause.

Mrs. Dr. Reta Kilborn, M.D., of the Chinese Mission, spoke in Eglinton Methodist Church to-night.

Rev. S. C. Phillips preached in the Davisville Methodist Church this morning.

Mrs. Victoria Waites of the Industrial School, president of the local W.H.M.S., will represent Mimico Society at the annual convention at Hamilton, March 18 and 19.

The theatrical entertainment given by the Rosedale Dramatic Club in the town hall was an enjoyable event, and attracted a great audience. The play given, "The New Minister," a new and original comedy, was well rendered. Miss Anna Crabtree as "Jane" was a great success. Other artists were Miss Susanne Adair, Miss Luella Hunt, and Messrs. Menton, Cudmore, Giblin and Carson.

The instrumental music was in charge of Miss Harman and Mr. Giblin.

THISTLETOWN.

Ladies of West York Establish Another Institute.

THISTLETOWN,March 14.—A branch of the West York Women's Institute has been organized at Thistletown with Mrs. George Farr, president; Mrs. Geo. Stewart, vice-president, and Miss Thusnelda Kingdon, secretary-treasurer. The first meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Farr, on Thursday, March 19, at 2.30 p.m. Miss Libby Duncan of Emery will address the meeting. After this meeting it was decided to hold meetings on the third Wednesday of each month at 2.30 p.m. All ladies are cordially invited.

Large Audience Enjoy Address on "Socialism."

DOVERCOURT, March 15.—The audience assembled under the auspices of Victory Lodge, I.O.G.T., listened with rapt attention to an hour's address on "Socialism" by John Wanless last Friday night. His somewhat original presentation of a co-operative plan for industrial enterprises appealed forcibly to many present. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Wanless for his able address.

W. W. Brack of Toronto Junction will speak in Davenport-road Church Presbyterian Church to-morrow night at 8 o'clock on "The Higher Life."

ELIA.

Women's Institute Hold First Meeting on Wednesday.

BALMY BEACH.

St. Aiden's Makes Great Progress—Propose to Change Name of Town.

BALMY BEACH, March 15.—The writ issued some time ago by the trustees of St. Aiden's Church against Joseph Lea has never been acted upon, as the differences between the trustees and Mr. Lea have been amicably arranged, to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. The outlook for St. Aiden's, under the ministration of Rev. E. A. McIntyre, coupled with the happy solution of the difficulties, is the very brightest. The seating capacity of the church is already taxed to the utmost and the meetings are all marked by the greatest interest.

The visit of the district deputy to Beaches Masonic Lodge on Friday evening was a notable event in the history of the junior lodge. There was a fine gathering of the members of the craft from East Toronto, the city and other points. Following the regular work of the lodge, adjournment was made to the banqueting hall, where following a recherche lunch a delightful vocal and instrumental concert was given.

The advocates of annexation are delighted with the progress being made, and claim that canvass of the district east of Greenwood to Howard-avenue, and south of Gerrard-street, shows at least 80 per cent. of the ratepayers favorable to annexation.

A movement is on foot, more especially at the south end of the town, to change the name from East Toronto to "Beachdale, or "Beach Heights," as being more in keeping with the scenic and residential properties of the place. Just how the townspeople at large will view the proposal remains to be seen.

On Saturday afternoon about eighty members of the Toronto Horticultural Society paid a visit to the hot-houses of the Steele-Briggs Company on King-street east. They were received very kindly by R. C. Steele, the president, and S. E. Briggs, vice-president, and had a pleasant two hours' stay. Each lady on leaving was given a pretty little bouquet. Next Saturday the society expects to visit J. H. Dunlop's rosary on Bloor-street.

Leslie Harris' Finale.

Leslie Harris, the English entertainer, closed his Toronto engagement Saturday night in Massey Hall before a large audience, that was thoroly well pleased. The program was completely changed and in so doing Mr. Harris seemed to lose none of his powers to amuse. In fact he seemed to cater especially on his closing night more to the risibilities of his auditors than to their musical tastes, tho his different numbers on the piano and vocally, were given in his usual artistic style. Mr. Harris, whose rotund form makes it appear that his work on the platform is done under difficulty, related his experience with a veteran musical critic who was comparing the Englishman with the masters:

"I have heard Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Chopin and the rest, and not one of them begins to perspire so much as you."

I.P.B.S. Service.

About 150 members of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society attended divine service in Trinity Methodist Church last night. The association gathered in the Sunday school and marched in a body to the church, where the centre front pews were reserved for them. Rev. W. F. Wilson preached an appropriate sermon.
