FOUR FAVORITES WIN THRU WOODBINE SLUSH

Nasturtia and Canvas Break Their Legs and Are Destroyed—Make Books Under Umbrellas.

The rain come down with a vengeance on the fifth day of the fall races at the Woodbine Park and still four favorites finished in front in the sloppy going. Joe Rose, Semele, Lucetta and Theo Cook. Bergoo, second choice, beat Pretty Michal in the steeplechase. The selling race and the plate feature went to third choices. Elfall and Prince Ahmed. Owing to the condition of the track scratches were numerous, only five facing the starter in the Epsom Handicap out of a field of sixteen.

The Minoru mile, $1500 added, that closed with 35 nominations, had nine on the card, but only five faced the barrier, Bob Co being an added starter. Hanbridge was installed a hot favorite at even money and shorter. Great Heavens, second choice, Prince Ahmed at 3 to 1 and the other two around 8's. Great Heavens showed the way to the stretch, Hanbridge and the Prince racing together second and third. Old Honesty and the 2-year-old strung out nowhere. Ahmed showed in front rounding the turn, ran wide and stayed on the outer rail, winning in a drive by 1½ lengths, from the favorite, Great Heavens third alone.

Theo Cook, Davenport up, set his own pace in the $1200 handicap, went around his field and won by a length and a half. Booger Red, three or four ahead of the long shot, Casque, the gaunt Smiley Corbett outside the money.

With Canvas down at the second jump, only two raced for the steeplechase money, Pretty Michal led to the last jump and then Bergoo won on the flat, going away.

Joe Rose trailed the leaders in the first and then won by an open length. Semele at odds on, annexed the second race for the president, the four strung out at the finish.

Elfall won from a big field in the third by a stretch run. General Marchmont, the favorite, did not like the going.

Lucetta, at short odds, galloped in the fourth, Belle Kingston and Eulalia May driving for the place.

In order to live up to the letter of the law the books were forced to do business under Chepontuc's open umbrellas and there were only about a dozen all told, some cutting in after the first race.

The day was marred by two serious accidents to horses, making it necessary to despatch both. In the third race J. H. Mason's 3-year-old b.f. Nasturtia, by Nasturtium—LaGascon, fell soon after start, broke his foreleg and was shot in front of the paddock. In the steeplechase G. P. Sherman's 5-year-old b.g., by Compute—Andrisa, hit the second jump at the club house, breaking his left fore leg and a friendly bullet also put the lepper out of misery.

The card to-day consists of two steeplechases and five flat races. On Saturday the meeting winds up, the features of closing day being the O.J.C. Cup Handicap, 2¼ miles, and the three mile steeplechase.

KIEV, Russia, Sept. 23.—(A.C.P.)—There has been no massacre of Jews in Kiev, tho there have been some slight disorders which apparently were foundation for sensational reports sent abroad. But these encounters were so unimportant, that they were not even mentioned in the local newspapers.

OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE FIRM IN EXISTENCE

Prince Ahmed, 5-1, Won

was handed out by us for a cinch to win yesterday.

TO-DAY ! TO-DAY !

we have one that can simply fly in the mud. He worked seven-eighths after the last race yesterday in 1.29 3-5. The way he accomplished it convinced his trainer that it would take the best horse at the track to give him a race. He'll be a price, too; and you can go as far as you like straight to win. Any time we recommend a limit bet, such as we are going to do to-day, you can rest assured that it is something that cannot possibly go wrong, barring some unforeseen accident.

ATTENTION !

You who are able to attend the races Saturday, and are a loser on the meeting, will be given an opportunity to not only recuperate your losses, but to win a large sum of money to boot. A certain horse will be cut loose that worked a mile better than 1.41 on two different occasions in the past ten days. This one has been kept under cover for a long time with but one end in view, and that is to make one of the biggest killings of the year with him when they were ready to cut him loose. Saturday was selected as the day to set him down, because there will be a big play in the ring, and they can get considerable more money down than they could any other day at the meeting. He has not shown anything in his races to warrant him beating the class of horses he will be entered with, and a big price will prevail. If you miss this one you'll miss the opportunity of a life-time.

See our Saturday's advertisement for further particulars.

A Too-Hearty Farewell.

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S., Sept. 23.—The Arctic steamer Roosevelt, on which Commander Robert E. Peary journeyed to the far north, left North Sydney at midnight last night on her journey to New York. Hundreds of steam craft whistled their farewell as the Roosevelt slowly made her way down the harbor.

Shortly before the Roosevelt pulled out Matthew Henson, Commander Peary's colored body guard, leaned over the side of the Roosevelt to shake hands with Chief Engineer Swicker of the Tyrian, standing on the deck of a launch. Swicker held fast to Henson's hand as the Roosevelt swung away and Henson was drawn over the the side and fell into the sea. He was promptly fished out by Swicker.

Indicted for Huge Conspiracy.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Sept. 23.—The United States grand jury this afternoon returned indictments against J. C. Mowbray and 82 alleged confederates, charging conspiracy to defraud by the use of the United States mails in connection with the promotion of alleged fake races.

Eighty-four victims from all parts of the country are named. Half a million dollars are involved.
