WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 13, 1888

Local and Provincial.

SAY!—Don't miss the "Strawberry" & "Ice Cream" festival in Witter's hall Wednesday 18th inst. See Posters.

FATHER CHINIQUY.—We understand there is a prospect of Father Chiniquy being in Wolfville on Sabbath week. Many of our people would be glad of an opportunity of listening to him.

HOLIDAYS.—The summer vacation in the public school began on Monday last and will continue for five weeks. We trust that teachers and scholars alike may spend a pleasant holiday.

NEW BARNS.—Mr Wm Regan has purchased a piece of land from Mr C. A. Patriquin on the street leading to Gaspereau, and is erecting a neat barn upon it.—Mr James Elderkin is erecting a fine large barn on his farm.

CALLED.—Rev. M. B. Shaw has received and accepted a call from the Baptist church at Milton, Yarmouth county. Mr Shaw has had charge of the church at Cow Bay, C B, for the past few years. We wish him success in his new field.

15c. 15c. 15c. for Eggs at Prat's

PRESBYTERIAN.—The Presbyterian pulpit has been occupied for the last two Sabbaths by Rev. G. F. Day, who has preached with much acceptance. Rev. Mr Ross returned from his vacation on Tuesday and will fill his pulpit next Sabbath.

BOARD.—A lady boarder wanted in a private family for the summer. Apply at ACADIAN office. 3ins.

A DAISY.—In another column will be found an adv. of the "Daisy" churn for which Mr D. Mumford is the agent. Dairymen would do well to inspect this very excellent article which is we believe all that it is claimed to be—the best churn made.

A big stock of Stone Butter Crocks at B. G. Bishop's.

ANOTHER CAUGHT.—The schr. Sarah Glass, Hooper master, from Port Williams for Boston with a cargo of lumber, got aground on the flats at the mouth of the river over a fortnight ago, and, owing to the tides being very low, was unable to get off till Wednesday last she proceeded on her voyage.

A lot of Hay Rakes Forks &c &c at cost at B. G. Bishop's

MRS BAXTER.—We are glad to hear that the W. C. T. U. of Kentville has made arrangements to have Mrs Marion B. Baxter, the talented lady who delighted audiences in Wolfville and other parts of the county in February, lecture in that town during the present month. We do not know whether Mrs Baxter will lecture in Wolfville or not but hope she may be induced to do so.

WORMS! WORMS!!—A big stock of London Purple at B. G. Bishop's.

FRUIT GROWERS CONVENTION.—On Tuesday Mr C. R. H. Starr received a telegram from the president of the Ontario Fruit Growers Association asking if Nova Scotia will cooperate with the other provinces in a Dominion Convention of Fruit Growers to be held in Montreal next January. Mr Starr replied favorably. Such a convention cannot fail to be beneficial and we hope our province may send a large representation.

Buy your Fishing Tackle at Prat's. 3

TESTIMONIAL.—Rev. W. G. Lane has received from England fourteen handsomely bound volumes of the Pulpit Commentary. Printed in letter of gold on the inside of the cover of the first volume in this sentence: "Presented in recognition of two years faithful service as right worthy grand templar and efforts made to unite the two orders of good templary." This testimonial is from the supreme lodge of the order and is highly prized by the recipient.

OBITUARY.—We record to-day the death of one of the oldest and best known residents of Grand Pre, Mr Wm Stewart, Sr. He had been quite ill and was recovering when a relapse occurred and he died at an early hour Tuesday morning in his 73d year. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev's R D Ross, D W Johnson, and George Johnson. A touching incident was when the six sons bore the coffin into the cemetery and deposited in its last resting place. The deceased was universally respected in Grand Pre where he so long resided, and many friends mourn his demise.

RAIN.—Refreshing showers of rain fell yesterday.

TEMPERANCE DRINKS.—Bigelow's Ginger Pop, nice drink on a warm day, at SHAW'S.

APPOINTMENT.—Kentville has been created a first class port of entry and Collector Rand, of Cornwallis, will hereafter have his headquarters here. Cornwallis will hereafter be an outport of Kentville, with Edward Harris as subcollector.—Western Chronicle.

Plenty of Straw Hats at Borden's for 10 cents.

APPOINTMENT.—John W. Brown, Owen E. Davison and Wm. E. Anderson, of Gaspereau, have been appointed commissioners, "under chapter 69 of the 5th revised statutes, for conveying logs and lumber down the Gaspereau and Black Rivers, and for removing obstructions from said streams, from the Simpson bridge westerly to the mouth of Black River; thence up said river to the north branch of the Fork River, near the Rogers meadow, so called; thence up said river to the Ten Island lake."

IMPROVEMENT.—An improvement is noticeable on the street leading to Gaspereau in the replacement of a new fence on Mr Edward Paine's pasture land. Mr Paine is a thoroghly practical farmer and believes in making his farm neat and attractive as well as profitable, evidences of which are to be seen everywhere about his premises. The hay which he cut this week on his field on the same street attained a remarkable growth and was probably the finest field of grass in the county. May our respected fellow citizen long live to enjoy his well-earned prosperity.

A SUCCESSFUL FARMER.—We had the pleasure of paying a visit to the farm of Mr Benj. Ward, at Long Island, a few days since. It is very prettily situated and is in an excellent state of cultivation. Mr Ward gave us specimens from his potato field which were as large as good sized hen's eggs, and are the earliest we have heard of. He has corn which is low over three feet high. Mr Ward also claims to be ahead in big hen's eggs, having had one which measured 8 inches by 6¼ inches in circumference. He is a progressive farmer and any person who thinks farming cannot be made a success would do well to pay him a visit. Though well fixed in this world's goods he is not above going into the field to work when necessary and hence his success. Though getting somewhat advanced in years he is hale and hearty and we trust good for many years yet.

B. G. Bishop sells mixed paints at $1.40 per gallon, the best in the market and in all shades. 38

WOLFVILLE DIVISION.—This Society which is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, Division in the county, continues to prosper. The attendance which diminishes in all societies during the summer months continues good. Last Monday evening a very pleasant time was spent when strawberries and cream was provided by the male members. Following are the officers for the present term which began last meeting:—

W. P.—W. S. Wallace.
W. A.—Miss Sarah Hand.
R. S.—H. S. Davison.
A. R. S.—Miss Burns.
F. S.—J. R. North.
Treas.—T. R. Wallace.
Chap.—B. O. Davison.
Cond.—F. B. Sanford.
Assist. Cond.—Miss Effie Coldwell.
I. S.—Reginald Gillmore.
O. S.—Lewis Bishop.

In the past this society has done a large amount of good work and its prospects for the future are good.

B. G. Bishop sells Greenhead lime a $1.50 per cask.

FAREWELL.—Rev. F. Friggens preached his last sermon on this circuit in the Methodist church last Sunday evening. The text was from Luke 13:24—"Strive to enter in at the strait gate; for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." The sermon was a thoughtful and earnest one, characteristic of all his discourses, and was listened to with marked attention by a large gathering. At the close of the service, in a short address, he expressed his deep regret at his departure from our village and his congregation. His associations in this place had been of the pleasantest kind, and the memory of them he would ever cherish. The regrets at his departure from our village will be reciprocated not only by his own congregation but by all the numerous acquaintances he has made during his year's labor on this circuit. Mr. Friggens is an original and clever speaker and gives promise of achieving great success in his beloved calling. May he be successful in great measure.

NEWS, NOTES, JOTTINGS, ETCAETERA.

☞Rev. D. O. Parker is our representative in Berwick, and is prepared to take orders for job printing and advertising. We are constantly adding to our plant, and will give prompt attention to all work. Get our prices.

—MRS E. Hodge, of Orient Heights, Boston, Mass., is making her annual visit to her old home in Somerset.

CHRIST CHURCH (Anglican).—Divine service next Sunday at 7 p. m.

REV. M. C. WADE, Incumbent.

METHODIST.—Preaching at the Methodist church, Berwick, next Sabbath at 11 a. m; Harborville at 7 p. m.; Welsford at 3 p. m. T. D. HART, Pastor.

—Mr Parker has a fine show of furniture in his new warerooms. He represents this paper in Berwick and takes subscriptions for it and orders for advertisements and job printing.

—Strawberries for the week were forwarded from the Berwick station to Halifax as follows: Thursday, 257 quts; Friday, 1414; Saturday, 578; Monday, 2648, Tuesday, 1570; Wednesday, 2599; making eighty-one bushels and seven quarts. Who can beat it?

—Posters are out for a grand promenada concert, to be held on the grounds of Dr. Middlemas next Tuesday evening, with the promise of the "refreshments of the season." We suppose that means strawberries and ice-cream sandwiched with brass band music, all for 25 cents.

—Seven of the candidates for licence to teach from the Berwick school went to Bridgetown this year for examination, drawn, it is said, by peculiar attractions. In the trying ordeal we hope the successful work of their heads will not be seriously affected by the affection of the heart.

—Our old friend, Dr. H. S. Jacques, of the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, at the yearly meeting of the Nova Scotia Medical Society, held last week in Digby, read a paper on "The use of the stomach tube in gastric disorders." His article received flattering comments from the medical fraternity present. He has been recreating a few days in Berwick and vicinity and we are pleased to see him looking hearty and hale. Perhaps he will favor us with a paper on the hygienic benefits of rusticating. Please send it along.

—The members of the Baptist Sunday School will give a concert in the Baptist church, Berwick, on Sunday evening, July 15th. The entertainment, which is to be "An Evening with Frances Ridley Havergal," will consist of readings and recitations from Miss Havergal's writings. The music will be of a high order, having been carefully selected from among her favorite pieces. Several of the members of the Berwick Brass Band will be in attendance. Miss Eaton, a leading soprano singer from Halifax, has kindly offered to assist. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Sunday school library. The audience will be favored with printed programmes and the entertainment promises to be as interesting as it will be unique. There will be a small admission fee.

"The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of Hosts."—Hag. 2:8.

LONGFELLOW.—To the poetic genius of Longfellow our province, and Wolfville in particular, is indebted for its place among the imperishable inspirations of song more than to any other honored name in Acadian history. His "Evangeline" is a legacy bequeathed to the "Acadian land" better than a million of gold. On the grounds in front of Acadia College Longfellow in bronze or marble on a pedestal of granite should grace that beautiful and classic hillside with his perpetual presence. It only wants an enthusiastic start in the right direction to accomplish it and thus pay the large debt of gratitude due to this distinguished poetic artist. Wolfville should have the honor of taking the lead. Let a judicious move be made and the lovers of home and poetry will help from all sections of the "Acadian land," and multitudes of Acadian Americans in the United States will only be too ready to help.

B. G. BISHOP ON BUYING.

To buy or not to buy: That is the question. Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous dealers, or take arms against this sea of troubles and by opposing get bargains. To buy: To make purchase, and by that purchase we end the heart-ache and the thousand natural shocks that flesh is heir to. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished for. To buy: To purchase: Perchance to be gulled. Ay! there's the rub; For in that purchase I can give value in stock,
