FROM THE COUNTRY.

News from the Districts About Us

As Reported by Our Active Correspondents.

Accidents, Personal Intelligence, and Things in General.

BEAR ISLAND.

Notes of Interest From the Parish of Queensbury.

BEAR ISLAND, Jan. 2.—Rev. Gideon Swim, of Nova Scotia, has taken the pastoral care of the Lower Queensbury, Bear Island and Dumfries F. C. Baptist churches. He has held revival meetings which have been attended with much success in Lower Queensbury and expects to begin a series of meetings in Bear Island shortly.

The river is now sealed solid and teams are crossing at different points. The river was very late in closing this year along this portion of its course.

The farmers have experienced a good deal of trouble with their aqueducts this winter. Owing to the lack of snow many of them have frozen up and bursted. Last winter although a very mild winter, the farmers had little or no trouble to speak of with their aqueducts, as there was an abundance of snow.

Mr. Hedley VanWart and Mr. J. H. Marsh have purchased of Mr. Albert Lounsbury a pure bred Ayrshire bull which was imported by the Southampton and Queensbury Agricultural society. Of all the pure breds purchased by this society, this one as a stock getter is the favorite. His get have taken first prize at the fairs at which they have been exhibited.

LOWER KINCARDINE.

The Storm of Wednesday Last—Houses and Barns Damaged.

LOWER KINCARDINE, Jan. 2nd.—After ten days of fine weather and good roads, things took quite a change on Wednesday night. About seven inches of snow fell, and the wind blew a perfect hurricane doing considerable damage to buildings in Upper Kincardine. It took the roof off Mr. A Crocker's barn and racked Mr. Jas. Atkin's barn so badly that he was have to rebuild. There was considerable damage done to several houses in this section, putting the people to a great inconvenience at this season of the year. It was a mild storm all round, but this is the only damage done that we hear of.

CAMPBELL'S SETTLEMENT.

School Examination—Lots of Snow and Good Sleigh.

CAMPBELL SETTLEMENT, Jan. 2.—The school closed here last Thursday. The teacher took home to spend her vacation.

Mr Jas Hutchin is home spending his vacation. He closed his school at Canterbury for vacation last Friday. His examination was very satisfactory and largely attended.

We are getting plenty of snow now to make up for the scarcity of the last few weeks.

Your reporter had the pleasure of attending another examination in the adjoining district. After the school work was examined, Santa Claus got in an appearance, much to the amusement of the children and visitors. He very liberally distributed candy and other refreshments.

Most of the men are home from the woods to spend Christmas.

We would advise the young of every place, especially those who have any idea of going over to the States, to organize a rink such as we have here every Tuesday evening.

Judging from the steady attentions paid by the gentlemen to the various objects of their admiration, there will be weddings without number next spring.

CAMPBELLTON.

Death of an Old Soldier and Member of the Firemen's Fraternity—The Funeral Services.

CAMPBELLTON, Jan. 2.—We regret very much to note the death of Robt. Chamberlain, eldest son of Mr Alex. Chamberlain, who died on Sunday evening last at six o'clock.

The deceased being an Oddfellow and a member of the firemen's brotherhood, the funeral was conducted under the auspices of both orders. The Oddfellows marched from their hall to the station, where they were joined by the firemen. Mr J R Hoe, superintendent, had kindly put a train of two passenger cars and the engine at the service of both orders, which took them to the residence of Mr. Chamberlain, which is situated about a mile from town. Mr Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, had conducted the service, the procession was formed as follows:—

Hose and sleigh, with Mr Brown; 4 engineers and 15 firemen; members of the brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, 36 Oddfellows, marshalled by R Jardine; hearse, 61 teams.

On arriving at the grave, Rev Mr Brown made a very touching prayer, after which the Oddfellows' service was conducted by Jno Venier, N G, and Robt Jardine, acting chaplain. The firemen's was conducted by Jno Morton, master, and Jno Devereaux, chaplain. After the ceremonies were concluded the two orders reformed and marched back to the train which brought them back to town.

The deceased was a young man of no questionable character, liked and respected by all, always had a kind word for his companions on the road and in town. Two weeks before his death he had to give up work on account of sickness which turned to typhoid fever and on Thursday terminated in his death. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their sad bereavement.

NASHWAAK

An Accident and Some Sentiment, Which Should be a Warning to Some People.

NASHWAAK, Jan 3.—Mrs Jas Bell, of this place, was the recipient of a valuable Christmas present the other day from Mrs Boswell, of Boston, with which she was highly delighted.

Miss Ella McBean, who was thrown out of the sleigh on Christmas day and was hurt, is no better yet. She is attended by Dr. Moore of Stanley.

An accident occurred at Zion Station on Saturday of last week, which should serve as a warning to persons leaving freight remain too near the margin of the platform. Seven or eight barrels of flour, which were unloaded from the morning train, were left standing on the platform, and in the afternoon they were struck by the wood which projected from the cars of the train for Fredericton and completely demolished. One barrel, on which John Stewart was sitting, was knocked from under him and thrown thirty feet. John did not feel disposed to follow the barrel. He made for home.

LOWER CANTERBURY.

An Unfortunate Young Man—Entertainment—Trying to Be a Literary Society—Sleigh Accident.

LOWER CANTERBURY, Jan. 2nd.—The new year has come, and with it a heavy rain storm.

Messrs Grant & Ritchie have begun hauling lumber to the river.

Mr. Warden Bradley is having poor luck this winter. Having about recovered from the bullet wound he received recently, he received a severe cut on his leg last week, which will, it is feared stop his work for some time.

Messrs Grant & Ritchie's camp is favored with a visit from the fair sex. Last week another party was out, and enjoyed a pleasant evening. This time the cook was the recipient of some valuable presents.

Miss Eva Fox has been engaged to teach the Sullivan Creek school for the ensuing term.

SOUTHAMPTON.

The Escaped Horse-Breaker—Narrow Escape Broke—A Runaway on Christmas Eve—Sleigh Accident.

SOUTHAMPTON, Jan. 7.—McCausland, the escaped horse breaker, although closely pursued, stopped long enough at his sister's to get his supper, leaving there, it is since learned only a few minutes before the pursuing party arrived. Since the last writing nothing has been heard as to his whereabouts. The question now is, how much did it cost him to make good his escape. Mrs. Akerly is steadily improving.

The young people have been having quite a jolly time during the holidays between dining parties and surprise parties and the like.

Lemuel Cummings, working in the woods for Mr G W Brown, had a narrow escape from death one day recently. The limb of a falling tree struck him, knocking him senseless in which state he lay until the team for which he was chopping came back from the yard, when he was taken to the camp and is now nearly recovered.

On Saturday last Mr. Hall's tannery narrowly escaped burning down. The bottom of the boiler gave out, and the fire worked down under the floor and across to the side of the building, where it was discovered and put out before any considerable damage was done.

A number of young ladies, driving themselves to the "send-off" given Willie Grant, upset the sleigh, when some that gentleman's house, and gave the party a subject to talk upon.

Miss Morell, of the Normal School, was the guest of Mrs. Hatfield during the holidays.

Miss Ada G. Brown and Mr. Allan Schriver, also normalites, spent their vacation at home.

Mr. Tyler Mason took his departure for Wyoming on Friday, where he will join his uncle.

Mr. W. Grant, son of J. N. Grant, left on Friday to take a course in the business college of Augusta, Me.

Mr. N. W. Brown is spending a part of his vacation at home.

We have plenty of snow now. About eight inches fell on Wednesday, and on Sunday about four more inches, followed by enough rain to keep it in place.

HAYNESVILLE.

Blocked Goods—An Interesting Law Suit—Mill Notes.

HAYNESVILLE, Jan. 2nd.—The weather is very cold and the roads are blocked.

D. Lindsay, J. P., tried a very interesting law suit recently concerning the disturbance of a meeting on Saturday last.

The mill on the west forks, formerly owned by Mr Brewer, and now by the firm of Brewer & Murchison, is to be repaired. The new machinery which will be put in will include a fine rotary. The proprietors expect to have the mill ready for work by the spring.

TEMPERANCE VALE.

Mr. David McCollum Dies Suddenly Dead on the Road.

TEMPERANCE VALE, Jan. 2.—Mr David McCollum, an old and respected resident of this place, dropped dead while returning from Pulskie on Thursday last, and within a few yards of his own house. His body lay on the road for some time before any one saw it. Mr. Woodman was walking along when he found the body lying on its back on the road. It was at once taken into the house when Mrs. McCollum became almost distracted. The deceased leaves a large family, all of whom are married, and his sorrowing widow is now left alone. He was nearly seventy years of age. He owned several farms in this vicinity which he sold only a short time ago. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of his death.

Mrs Wm Beechem, of Nortondale, was taken suddenly and seriously ill Sunday morning. A physician was at once called and is doing all in his power to restore her to health. We hope to hear of her recovery soon.

Mr Peter Draper, who was working in the woods for Mr John Grant, at Canterbury, came home Saturday. He reports the lumbering operations progressing favorably. Mr John McElwain, of this place, has been furnishing the teamsters with their supplies.

LAKEVILLE, C. C.

How Christmas was Spent—Horse Racing—Personal.

LAKEVILLE, Jan 1.—Old King Winter has now fairly begun his reign and his loyal companions, the keen frost and the north wind, are doing their best to compel the aged to keep close to their "ain fireside" and recall memories of their younger days and [illegible]
