A fire was discovered in a vacant house, 26 Richmond street east last night, and an alarm given from box 75. The fire was soon extinguished. The building is owned by C. E. English, and it is supposed was set on fire by tramps. $30 will cover the damage.

Madame C. C. Rossiter at Temperance Hall.

Madame C. C. Rossiter appeared in a varied entertainment at Temperance hall last evening before a good audience. Her piano solos were given with considerable dash, but lacked expression and distinctness in execution. She, however, received a well merited encore for her rendition of the solo Alice by Ascher, which was one of her best pieces, and in response played a composition of her own. Her recitations were well received, and her voice not being a strong or full one, she wisely chose selections of a light character. Madame Rossiter, in addition, gave a unique performance on the concertina, which took well with the audience, and she also sang a solo. Miss Beaver assisted in several contralto solos.

The Oaklands Jersey Dairy handle no other products than those from the celebrated Oaklands Jersey Stock Farm.

Vacant Presbyterian Pulpits.

A deputation from the Parkdale presbyterians waited upon the Toronto presbytery yesterday and urged the translation of Rev. R. P. McKay from Scarboro to their church. The congregation was in a disorganized condition, and Mr. McKay was just the man to build it up again. A delegation from Scarboro pleaded hard that Mr. McKay be not removed. The rev. gentleman placed himself in the hands of the presbytery, which decided for his removal to Parkdale by 22 to 17. The presbytery supported the call of the St. James' square presbyterian church to Rev. John Smith of Berwick-on-Tweed, Scotland. The call is signed by 361 members of the congregation, and the salary offered is $4000 per annum.

Other Lands Than Ours.

Chas. Caughy took a trip with his audience at the People's to London (Eng.) last night. The views were extremely fine, Windsor castle by moonlight and the various views of Westminster abbey being especially good. Mr. Caughy is no mean speaker, and his lecture is replete with humor of the Artemus Ward style. Much information may be gained by visiting the theatre during his stay. This afternoon the children of the various charitable homes will be treated to an exhibition of London. In the evening, Art Gems of the Old World.

The Wicked Milkmen.

EDITOR WORLD: Will any milk dealer or any one member of the association tell me over his own signature or the public why they are going to advance the price of milk to morrow, Oct. 1, 4 cents per gallon, and at the same time will they tell me why they sell their milk at 14 cents and lower per gallon to hotelkeepers and are charging the public 100 per cent more, viz., 28 cents per gallon. They certainly are making a nice little potfull for themselves. One who lives by the people for the people and of the people. MORE ANON.

Toronto's Prosperity.

—Within the past few years Toronto has more than doubled her population, and well paved streets now take the place of bleak and sandy commons. The principal thoroughfares are resplendent with handsome shops, the windows of which would do credit to either Regent street, London, or the rue Laffitte of Paris. Dineen—the hatter—northwest corner of King and Yonge street, as usual takes the lead in all matters pertaining to his particular business. His shelves are filled with hats, caps and furs of the finest descriptions, marked at such low prices that astonish all. —Adv.

Supported by Wood.

Mr. E. Malone, the tall young lawyer, was on the street yesterday limping on a crutch. Some weeks ago he injured his foot when cutting kindling with a sharp axe. He will leave edge tools alone henceforth.

EXTENDING THE STREET RAILWAY.

Shall the Toronto Company or the Metropolitan Have the Right.

Ald. Defoe presided at the board of works yesterday afternoon, all the members being present except Ald. Turner and James. The street railway company reported it was willing to extend the Yonge street line as far as the Ontario and Quebec station, and that it would be willing to bear a portion of the expense of cedar paving Yonge street north. Secretary Gunn thought a temporary bridge should be placed across the tannery hollow until the improvements were completed. Ald. Carlyle advised delay, as the solicitor would have to report on the application of the Metropolitan street railway for the right of Yonge street north. Ald. Hastings said the Metropolitan street railway had not complied with the terms on which the Yorkville council granted it power to lay rails on Yonge street. A letter was read from Secretary Gunn stating that the street railway company would not pay any portion of the cost of repairing the cedar blocks inside its tracks.

It was then proposed that Christopher Robinson, Q.C., should be asked to send in a written report as to whether the street railway had to repair the cedar blocks, but Ald. Hastings promptly sat on this motion by saying "we pay for Mr. McWilliams' services, and if he can't do our work we had better discharge him, and get an official who can." The matter was referred to Mr. McWilliams.

Two-thirds of the cost of the Avenue road sewer is to be borne by property-holders who will be benefited thereby, and the other third by the city. The proposed improvements on College avenue cannot be proceeded with this season. The road will also have to be reduced in width, as if it is left its present size the trees on each side would have to come down.

Ald. C. L. Denison moved that the $14,000 appropriation be transferred to the general account. This was carried after some discussion. The board refused the Metropolitan street railway company the right to extend its line on Yonge street, and also decided to defer giving the Toronto street railway the right to put down rails on Yonge street until it agreed to keep the roadway in good repair, or the question of liability was settled.

Jameson avenue, from Dundas street to Bloor street, is to be opened, the property-owners benefited to bear the cost. A street is to be opened across the Northern tracks north of Dundas street, from St. Helena's avenue to the eastern limit of the Toronto, Grey and Bruce railway lands. Sewers are to be constructed on Rusholme road, from Hepbourne street to College street; Dundas street, from Jameson avenue to Dufferin street; York street, from Front to the bay, and one between Henderson avenue and Conway street, west of Clinton street.

A MERRY NIGHT AT THE ISLAND.

Mrs. Ed. Hanlan et al Entertain One Hundred Friends.

A more social event has not taken place on the Island this season than the one which occurred at the Hotel Hanlan last night. Although the house has been closed up for a couple of weeks, those who were there can amply testify that they never saw the Island home of the champion more resplendent with mirth-makers. A party of ladies, composed of Mrs. Ed. Hanlan, Mrs. Robt. Hull, Mrs. Geo. Milligan, Mrs. W. Booth, Mrs. Durnan, Mrs. Capt. Turner and the Misses Turner and Miss Sutherland got up the social and invited about 100 of their lady and gentlemen friends to be present. Nearly every one of the invitations were accepted, and the jolly party was taken to the Island on the John Hanlan. The dining-hall up-stairs was converted into a dancing room, and to the tuneful music of the Italian band and the festive floor-management of Mr. Ed. Sullivan, the gay whirl paid tribute to Terpsichore until 3 o'clock this morning.

At midnight a very palatable supper, gotten up by Mr. Hughes of the Criterion, was spread down stairs and much enjoyed by the company. The health of Mrs. Hanlan and other ladies of the committee was enthusiastically drank with hot tea and coffee, and the champion's lady returned her own and her assistants' thanks.

A New Industry.

H. W. Booth, an old Toronto man, recently manager of the E. T. Barnum works of Detroit, has opened a manufacturers' and inventors' agency at Detroit and Windsor. Mr. Booth's ability and experience of such matters renders him peculiarly fitted to conduct such a business. Canadian manufacturers and inventors having articles they wish to have introduced in the United States cannot do better than put the matter into the hands of Mr. Booth.

Taking Stock.

D. R. McRae, tinware, Deseronto, assigned. R. S. Donnelly, general store, Mattawa, assigned, and offering 35 cents on the dollar. W. F. Fawcett, planing and sash factory, Strathroy, failed. J. M. Crawford, groceries and liquors, Mount Forest, assigned and stock to be sold by auction. M. Taylor & Co., groceries, liquors, etc., Toronto, assigned and stock to be sold by auction.

The Cygnet Strikes the Breakwater.

Yesterday afternoon about 4.30 the yacht Cygnet and her crew passed through the eastern gap and out into the lake. This was a very foolish move, as a dead calm prevailed. The yacht was driven on the bottoms of the breakwater, opposite the Wiman baths. It took a good deal of tugging and jerking to release the craft.

The Real Estate Boom.

S. H. Janes & Co. report the real estate market lively. They have recently disposed of some valuable properties at a good figure. An advance of prices during the fall months may be looked forward to.

Found at Last.

—We have at last discovered, at 205 Queen street west, a few doors west of Simcoe street, a place where watches of every description can be skilfully repaired at moderate charges and all work warranted by R. Given Doherty, member of the British Horological institute, London, Eng. 1-3-6

—West Toronto Junction is within a few minutes of the Union station by the trains of either the Ontario and Quebec and the Grand Trunk or the Northern. Real estate in the neighborhood has steadily risen in value and promises to advance still more rapidly. Some of the best lots in West Toronto are to be had from George Clarke, 295 Yonge street.

Police Court Pointers.

Eli Scott got forty days for stealing a pair of boots from Wm. Walsh. Thomas O'Brien, stealing a pair of boots from Wm. Chon, was sent to the central prison for three months. W. J. Ward and John Burns, charged with swindling Peter Cullen out of a horse, were committed for trial. John Gregor was fined $20 and costs for selling liquor during prohibited hours. Rachel Jackson was granted an order of protection against her husband, John Jackson.
