THE AMHERST TEAM.

The hockey team had the best practice they have held this season last night, when for over an hour they were at it hammer and tongs. Two teams were made up and for half an hour a strengueur game was industed. hour a strenuous game was indulged in. The boys were not handling each other very gently either, for the defense was getting in some good checking. The team is rounding into shape very fast, and with a little better shooting ability on the part of some of the players, which will come with the players, which will come with practice, will be in good shape for the opening of the season. Among those on the ice last night were: Twaddle, Murray, Simpson, Will and Carey Curry, Frank and Ed. Curran, Chas. Curry, Staples, L. White, W. Brown,

THE TRURO TEAM.

A News representative yesterday had an interesting chat with a Truro man that is generally well versed in the hockey news of that town. He told us that there were to be some big changes in the Truro lineup this year. Dave Hay, who was with New Glasgow last winter, will again be at centre, with Captain Perey McDoneld on the control of the conditions of the three days ago, has been matched to fight Tommy O'Toole in Philadelphia Jan, 12.

Amby McGarry and his old-time rival, Unk Russell, have been matched for a six-round meeting in Philadelphia, to take place New Year's eve.

Frank Mantell of Pawtucket, one of the coming lightweights of New England, has been matched with Tom Sayers of Maine and will fight in Augusta.

OF THE UNITED gow last winter will again be at centre, with Captain Percy McDonald on one wing. The other two forward positions would be filled by men named Matheson and Moffat, who it is said, hail from Hull, Quebec. Will Hay will again be seen at cover, while "Os" Kane has retired and his place at rount will be taken by one McGaw, be-Kane has retired and his place at point will be taken by one McGaw, belonging, we understand, to P. E. Island, and who was in New Glassow last. McKenzie will again guard the nets. If the above is true and our authority is a pretty good one, it looks as though Truro were going in for the trophy in earnest. It's interesting anyway when one considers all the talk in the Truro News a short time ago re "amateur hockey."—Truro News.

MONCTON DOES A LITTLE SHOUT-

Organized only a few days, the New Brunswick Outlaw Hockey League has received already one or two setbacks which will not be by any means encouraging to the teams, which broke away from the New Brunswick League and formed the new organization. One of the turn-downs received, and which comes in the nature of a sharp rebuke from one of the best known and fairest sportsmen in New Brunswick Her.

MONCTON DOES A LITTLE SHOUT-

Intimation has also been received here that the Marysville rink managemens is not at all favorable to having the games of the new organization played in that rink, and it is certain blayed in that rink, and it is certain that the Fredericton rink management will not give their rink over to the Marysville team after the discourteous treatment of Fredericton by the Marysville representatives to the N. B. H. L. Hockey of such a type as will be furnished by the nev league is not likely to prove a paying venture, and on that account it is likely that rink managers, with an eye to profits, wil

NEW YORKERS SUFFER

BY EXTREME GOLD

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Several cases of suffering, three of which are likely to prove fatal, were reported to the police as attendant upon today's cold snap. Two men and a woman were taken to Bellevue hospital late tonight suffering from exposure. Mrs. Helen Stacey, aged 60 years, was found unconscious on an east river dock. Two men were found senseless in a doorway on the East side. One of them had a card in his pocket which bore the name "William Higgins." There is no means of identifying his companion. The conditions of the three patients is critical. Should the men survive they will probably lose their lower limbs.
