Silver Cord," which first Week.

—The dramatic incidents would fill many a volume, rso tried last week in find fitting place in one of pers for bigamy, and one ses the over-much may evidence of the two brides nclusive, and so the aged timony with a view, not ge for the benefit of the ut her William ought to be ge for his actions. The le old lady brought tears, eyes of more than one juror. well, appeared refined and ly like what she represented n visitor of sick and poor ment in fact from her son.
ecular face, exhibited the ated sympathies. She told ble story of misfortune and ldhs for her son, who sta afflicted with "somethin e was followed by scarlet ough, pure, and some years fever, to say nothing of ed unhappiness. After ge he fell from a five-story the back of his head so ntended. He was thrown e Hudson River, and was ldhs three times; he also a shot-tower. When Mr.
with an apology at the same this father died, the a violent fit of weeping ed to commit suicide, while his d in a lunatic asylum. The ment the words were out ed with unhappiness, threw in unmistakable weeping ical and prolonged. At last vered so as to resume her anibed the intense nervousness ntercepted her son's manners t ever since he came from ldhs. The case was given to the ly a counsel dwelling particuletter proofs, and also upon prisoner showing when he nd time that he was already his first wife. The appeal, Wills, and the story of Will did not screen him from juswas convicted of the offence fine course will add involunfrom the public greatly the
of misfortunes that have at-

OF THE INCOME TAX.—It was
ed by the initiated that London Merchants made false Not that they returned proper amounts, but greatly
, as a means of bolstering up hose the figures were pretty and become a matter of jus-business circles. Now, how-development has taken place, system of employing extra ing period, and for every most confidential, kind of ment is established in our ner Government offices; and ns assigned to these temporary ed to collating or copying ar returns. When, having ed the appointed wages, n were dismissed, they, or at their number, carried with of the returns, which were par-ating as showing that a great ts in the city of London, reed