JAPAN'S TECHNICAL EDUCATION.

Japan realizes the value of technical education and her zeal for the extension of this feature continues unabated. In the thirty-third annual report of the Japanese Minister of Education it is set forth that true education is not merely a collection of information, it is as well, the preservation and development of the national consciousness and the making of men and women of high culture and social refinement, fitted to take a part in the work of the world and inspired with high ideals of civic and national duty. The Minister issued instructions to the effect that upon fidelity to the empire and love for the country all kinds of education should be built. He goes on to tell in his report what developments have taken place in general and in technical education. The principal universities have been extended in their various departments and in these engineering schools from the highest point reached. These schools now compare very favorably with those of Germany. A very large number of institutions are to be found in all parts of the country, which give training to those who intend to engage in productive labor, such as agriculture, agriculture and commerce. There are five kinds of technical schools, viz:—Agricultural, Industrial, Naval, Commercial and those devoted to general technical training. The technical schools number 303 of which twelve are under direct government control, 237 are public institutions, similar to our own public schools and the remainder are conducted by private corporations. Japan is well in the lead in commercial training under government supervision.

UNCLAIMED BALANCES.

In both Canada and Britain there have been discussions during the past week or two, on the subject of unclaimed balances in chartered banks. In the British Commons, Mr. Horatio Bottomley suggested that banks should be under direct government control, 237 are public institutions, similar to our own public schools and the remainder are conducted by private corporations. Japan is well in the lead in commercial training under government supervision.

MABEL—NEW VERSION.

MABEL, pallid Mabel Put her face against the pane;
And thus she gets the hush of health That seem like what they want.

Oh, Mabel, chalky Mabel, She really is a sight;
She eateth fudge throughout the day And stayeth up all night.

Oh Mabel, bloodless Mabel, You ought to learn to swim;
One half a week upon the links Would give you lots of vim.

Oh pale, anaemic Mabel, Get out and rake the hay;
And then you needn't rush to rouge To drive the blues away.

Keeper—"Hi, boy! You can't catch Bats here without a permit." Boy—"Well, I'm getting on well Enough with a worm!"

A health officer recently received The following note from one of the residents in his district:

"Dear Sir—I beg to tell you that my child, aged eight months, is suffering from measles as required by Act of Parliament."

Cholly—"Dye know, old chapsy, I went to three balls at the theatre last night."

Weggy—"Bal, Jove, old chapsy, you're in luck. I know. I had to go to three balls before I could attend the theatre at all."

Actor—"Lend me five shillings, Jones." Jones—"I should do so willingly if I thought you would be able to pay it back, but—"

Actor—"Able to pay it back! Why, man, the third act I have to steal ten thousand sovereigns!"

"Do you sometimes have thoughts," asked the aesthetic young lady, "that are absolutely unutterable?"

"I do," answered the popular poet.
"And sometimes when I am looking for a rhyme, that I can't find I have thoughts that are absolutely unutterable."

Scene: A Court of Justice. Tedious K.
C. is addressing the jury in an accident case, a bag having fallen from a window on to the head of the plaintiff.

Tedious K. C.—"I know not, gentlemen, for my instructions do not tell me what were the contents of the bag. Conceivably it may have been a bag of coals; possibly it may have been a bag of malt; perchance it may have been a mail-bag."

The Judge—"Perhaps it was a wind-bag."

"What do you mean, sir," said the infruct man in the crowd, "by sticking your umbrella in my eye?"

"Oh, no," replied the cheerful offender, "you're mistaken, I assure you."
"Mistaken," he roared. "Do you mean to say that I don't know when my eye is hurt? Why, hang it, sir, I saw you do it. How the dickens can I be mistaken?"

"I assure you that you are, nevertheless," was the easy rejoinder. "You may know when your eye is hurt, but you don't know my umbrella. This is one I borrowed."

SENTENCED BIGAMIST
KISSES SECOND "WIFE"

No. 1 Then Says She Will Seek Divorce From "Count" von Helden.

NEW YORK, July 29.—"Count" Roone von Helden, who posed as a German nobleman, with a $100,000 estate on the Rhine, and who was convicted of bigamy in the Westchester county court, was today sentenced by Judge Platt to hard labor in Sing Sing prison for a term of not less than three years and three months or more than four years and nine months.

Von Helden took his sentence coolly.
It was proven in court that he had three living wives, one of whom is the mother of four children. Mrs. Jennie O'Reilly von Helden, wife No. 1, of Jersey City, and Gertrude Caroline Lewis, wife No. 2, of New Rochelle, were in court to see the "count" sentenced.

Mrs. Emily Brambach, wife No. 3, of Mount Vernon, was sent to California by her parents to break her infatuation for the bigamist.

The "count" before he went to prison, kissed wife No. 2 affectionately, but said no attempt to kiss wife No. 1. The latter says she will instruct her lawyer, Judge Lett, immediately to bring a suit for divorce from Von Helden, naming wife No. 2 as co-respondent.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Stanley Ketchell and Hugo Kelly, who will start in a 20 round bout at the Coliseum tomorrow night, have finished their period of training and are now in condition. The battle carries with it the middleweight championship of Ketchell, the holder, having won it by his recent defeat of Papke in Milwaukee.
The men will weigh in at 6 p. m., and must not exceed 150 pounds. Interest in the contest is keen and there was a tremendous rush to purchase seats when they were placed on sale yesterday. Betting favors Ketchell at 2 to 1.

SANDPOINT, Idaho, July 30.—Abe Attell was awarded a decision over Eddie Marino at the end of a ten round battle last night. Marino was outclassed and was given a hard pumpmelling, being saved in the third round by the gong.

TURKISH REFORMERS

NOT YET SATISFIED

Many Unpopular Officials Have Been Removed

But the People are Clamoring for a General Clearing Out of all the Old Crowd—Report of Plot.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 30.— Street demonstrations here have now practically ceased, but public indignation is growing at the delay in removing the obnoxious ministers and other government officials. Many reports are current of the dismissal and the flight of various officials, but it is impossible to ascertain the details.

It is confirmed, however, that the Minister of Marine, Rami Pasha, has been forced out of office and replaced by Ismail Pasha.

An irade issued yesterday appoints Izzet Pasha, President of the Commission for the inauguration of the Hejaz Railway. He will leave Constantinople for that region at once.

It is stated that Zekki Pasha, Inspector of Military Schools has been dismissed, while Zemin Pasha, Minister of Mines and Forests, has fled with his family to Brindani. The reformers further demand the dismissal of Tahsin Pasha, one of the chief advisers in the Palace and Abdul Houssei, the Sultan's astrologer.

Izzet Pasha's new appointment is equivalent to exile. Three hundred officers of the Third Army Corps in Macedonia have been ordered to replace an equal number of officers of the Imperial guard.

Mr. Ormanian, the Armenian Patriarch of Constantinople, has resigned.
The report originating in Vienna that the young Turks have called upon the foreign agents to quit Macedonia, is unfounded, dispatches from Monastir state that all the mutinous troops have returned to duty.

VIENNA, July 30.—A special to Die-zelt from Constantinople gives details of an alleged plot against the Sultan's life, which, it says, finally determined the Sultan to grant a constitution.

ATHENS, July 30.—A semi-official statement has been published calling attention to the enthusiastic approval of the new regime shown by Greek residents throughout Turkey. The residents of the unclaimed discontent of the Bulgarians. The statement announced that Greek bands everywhere are laying down their arms and are joined in the movement of conciliation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 30.—Although the demonstrations on the streets of Constantinople over the granting of a constitution have practically ceased, nevertheless there are signs of much dissatisfaction among the public as the delay in the reconstruction of the ministry by the inroduction of liberal elements. Some of the wildest descriptions continue in the cafes, where officers and civilians embrace each other and express their delight at the ending of the tyrannical regime.

The situation still lacks orderliness and it is impossible to forecast the next development. The young Turks are masters of Constantinople and the European provinces and except in the capital the feeling is anything but favorable to the Sultan. Even in Constantinople distrust is still rampant.
During the recent street demonstrations, at a banquet in Zeres to celebrate the anniversary of the Sultan's enthronement, the name of the Sultan was hoisted, while the Christians at this place are beginning to distrust the professions of the young Turks.

Hardly any news has been received from the Asiatic provinces, where the Turks owing to their hostile attitude toward the constitution.

Everyone has been greatly impressed with the perfect organization of the young Turk movement and the absolute discipline in all ranks. The directing hand is still unknown. The only incident of today has been a noisy dethe Artillery, whose withdrawal was
