Our Meat Regulations, What of Them?

The public are anxious to learn what measures have been taken by the authorities to prevent the importation and distribution of unwholesome meat since the Canadian Regulations requiring the inspection of such foods before they were sold to Newfoundland dealers were suspended. The papers were prompt to call attention to the outrage, and it was then up to the authorities to act and to notify the public of the steps taken. So far we have not been informed of any action, and it is only natural to suppose that those responsible would have stated what they had done, if they acted at all, were it only to indicate that they were zealously looking after the interests of the public.

We are at a loss to understand why we should be at the mercy of the suppliers in the neighbouring Province in the vital matter of deciding what food we shall eat. Certainly they are within the law as laid down in the Pentateuch, which says: "Ye shall not eat of anything which dieth of itself; thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in the gates, that he may eat it, or thou mayest sell it to an alien," but if we are to have our tastes in the matter of meat decided by those regulations, is there not a likelihood that our friends over the water will go even further in that direction?

GRAFT!

This growth of government—the growth of its powers, of its revenue, of its personnel—has given rise to the greatest class of evils that has afflicted the nation. These evils involve the use of government for the private and profitable ends of individuals and groups of citizens as opposed to the common interests of all the citizens. When such favor-seeking groups can so influence government as to enact laws in their own interests or in any other way to direct the powers of government in their own behalf, these groups have become the real government of the country.—Kansas City Star.

The Aims in Training the Boy.

"My idea of education is not only to train the boy to know the right thing and do the right thing, but to enjoy the right thing. Betting and gambling are symptoms that people don't know how to enjoy things worth enjoying.

Boys come to school with the wish to do things rather than to learn things, and it is through doing that they learn."

"Science teaching has been altogether too cut and dried, too schematic. We want it to be creative, dynamic."

"The business of a school is to imbue a boy with the ideal, Each for all, all for each."—J. L. PATON, Headmaster Manchester Grammar School.

KYLE COMING DIRECT.—S. S. Kyle is at Port aux Basques awaiting arrival of Wednesday's express, which is presumed to have arrived there at noon hour. The Kyle will get away for North Sydney early this afternoon, and on the return trip she will come in to St. John's direct.

Expenditure on Model Farm Investigated

Expensive Electric Light Installation—Christmas Cards and Cups charged to Farm Account.

When the enquiry opened this morning, the Commissioner stated that he had looked over, since adjournment on Friday last, Mr. Watson's report and had found one or two things which were not cleared up. One of these was in connection with the Summer's cheque.

MR. WINTER—In conection with that matter and one or two others connected with it, these matters are now being handled by the Justice Department.

COMMISSIONER—At present that case suggests the possibility of wrong doing in the Department.

MR. WINTER—Yes.

COMMISSIONER—The cheque was a "bearer" cheque and as far as can be seen the proceeds never got to Summers at all. There is also a question with reference to alleged overcharges for supplies for logging operations, Quigley, Squires and others. Do you intend to call them?

MR. WINTER—If you would like we shall make an effort to have them here.

Before proceeding to probe the Model Farm expenditure, Mr. Winter called Mr. P Knowling in reference to some bills for supplies which were put in evidence in connection with the logging operations.

HANDSOME PROFITS.

MR. KNOWLING explained that Squires was employed in the Knowling wholesale department and left there 10th Nov., 1923. He is now supposed to be in Montreal.

WITNESS, asked if his firm had sold any supplies to the Government in this connection, said he had found on investigation that a purchase had been made by a man named H. M. Maddick from the retail department of goods amounting to $75.00. Maddock had first gone to Squires, who brought him to Mr. Johns to have the order filled. The first item on the list was three cases of sugar; these were sold by Knowling's for $37.50. Squires' bill to the Government for the sugar was $50.00. The next item was 4 bags raisins, $29.07. Squires' charge to the Government was $68.40, or 30 cents per lb. The other item was 2 cases of powder, sold at $7.00 each. These were charged to the Government at $23 per case, making the total $46.00. Mr. Knowling explained that had it been known that Squires or anyone else in the employ was supplying the Government he would be dismissed. He explained that since Friday last he made enquiries of Mr. Johns and he said Squires brought Maddick to him to have an order filled and Squires was not known further in the matter.

MATTERS TO BE INVESTIGATED.

Following a short cross-examination by Mr. Howley the matter of investigating the Model Farm expenditure was taken up by MR. HUNT. After explaining the various votes by the Legislature for the establishment of the farm, Mr. Hunt dealt with the various expenditures which called for investigation, viz., cab driving, motor hire and repairs, payments for special services, installation of an electric lighting system, prices charged for feed, utensils and implements purchased when there was no need for them, other expenditures such as subscriptions to Christmas magazines and the purchase of Christmas cards, Cups and a Medal for prizes.

The first witness called was Mr. A. J. Bayly of the Agriculture Department. Mr. Bayly said he was Secretary to the Model Farm, and in 1920-21 he with Dr. Campbell paid regular visits there. Up to 1921 he kept the accounts, after which the bookkeeping was taken over by Mr. Ryan. Questioned about the vote for 1921-22, witness said it amounted to $12,500, and was charged into the Agriculture and Model Farm account. The Agricultural vote that year was $15,000, and there was a supplementary vote of $13,000, making the total $40,500. Witness explained the situation of the Model Farm and gave some details of its acreage to the COMMISSIONER.

PROFIT AND LOSS ON FARM.

Witness could not tell if Dr. Campbell charged anything for the use of his farm on the Cockpit Road, as no bill had been sent to the department. The total expenditure of the Model Farm for the year 1921-22 amounted to $13,932 against this was returns from the sale of pigs and milk amounting to $767. In 1922-23 the total expenditure was $27,846.05. The vote for the Legislature amounted to $15,000 and there was $1,871.32 returns from sales. The net over expenditure was about $10,900 for the year.

Witness detailed the amount of stock held by the farm at the 31st Dec., 1921.

Witness questioned about the employees said as many as 19 men were on the farm at certain periods. Questioned about a motor car used in connection with the farm, witness said it was an ordinary Ford, and was for use of the Board of Agriculture. In the latter period the car was kept in Dr. Campbell's garage.

Witness said Dr. Campbell visited the farm very frequently in the car. He also went there on many occasions to consult with the Doctor and Mr. Reid, the manager, on the cattle and any alterations needed. Questioned particularly as to the number of visits, witness said they would sometimes amount to three visits per day. He did not believe there was any necessity for this number of visits.

COSTLY INSPECTION.

Questioned about the stock held in 1922-23, witness gave the following list:—4 stallions, 4 work horses, 18 cows, 21 bulls, 18 calves, 4 rams, 13 pigs. Witness asked if it was good business to spend over $1,200 per year in cab hires to inspect these animals, he said no, it was very poor business.

Witness questioned about the payments made on account of this farm, said all were made by cheque.

PAID FROM TWO ACCOUNTS.

Shown a list of cab hire payments made to Mr. P. Gladney, witness said the cheques were paid to Gladney on orders of Dr. Campbell.

The Commissioner pointed out that the payments covered the same periods as he was paid under the nitpron account.

MR. HOWLEY explained that Gladney, he thought had an agreement for $60 per week, half payable from the Model Farm account. Witness knew of this double payment. Asked about the Ford car, witness said it cost $1,300 when purchased in the fall of 1920. In connection with its repairs, witness used to make frequent payments. He explained that whilst the car was out of commission, Dr. Campbell used his own machine. Several bills were put in evidence showing fillings of 18, 12 and 14 gallons of gasoline. Witness did not know how much gasoline the Ford tank could contain.

PRODUCE FROM PRIVATE FARM.

Asked about payments made to John Nolan, a servant on Dr. Campbell's private farm, from April, 1922 to same period 1923, witness explained that the $835 was paid for farm produce and stock owned by the Doctor. In signing the cheques, witness had no way of checking the quantities of turnips and potatoes sold. Shown a bill which had been paid to a man named Chafe in May, witness said Chafe demanded $4 per barrel for the turnips, and he paid the amount.

CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR MODEL FARM.

Shown another bill for $26, witness said it was for 2,000 Christmas cards and 2,000 envelopes. The bill was made out to the doctor, but he (Bailey) paid it on the Minister's orders.

Shown a bill for $52.74, witness said it was for a silver cup for a horse race in 1922 on Quidi Vidi Lake. The cup was imported specially for the Agricultural Department. A bill for a similar cup for last year's race was also put in evidence. A third bill for a cup $65.00 was put in evidence. Witness said the cup was given by Dr. Campbell to Fr. Rawlins to encourage pony racing. Witness could not say if it was presented in the name of Dr. Campbell.

A bill of $12.50 for a medal given to the Nfld. Amateur Association was next put in evidence. Witness could not tell what the giving of this medal had to do with the encouragement of Agriculture.

Lighting Fixtures for Stables.

Witness shown a bill from Mr. Winsborough of $1135.40 for installation of electric lights at the Model Farm buildings, Dr. Fraser's and those on Dr. Campbell's farm, explained the situations of the various buildings and the terms under which they were held.

COMMISSIONER—You put electric light into premises over which you had no control—a handsome present to the owners is it not? Can you tell me the buildings on Dr. Campbell's farm that were illuminated?

A.—The stable, where some horses, bulls and sheep were kept. Witness said the installation was made in 1923, but shortly before the farm was given up.

PIG STYS ILLUMINATED.

In Frazers case a house, two barns and a stable were wired. The lighting system in this case also was never put in use. Questioned about the building or the main farm, witness said that both the stables and pig stys were lighted.

The COMMISSIONER remarked that lighting the pig stys was a luxury he had seldom heard of.

Bills from the St. John's Heat and Power Co. also put in evidence showed that the total lighting installation cost $1,492.

WITNESS could not say that Winsborough's bill was exhorbitant.

POTATO DIGGER FOR THE WEST END.

Shown cheques for $350 paid Wm. Brennan in March 8th, 1923, for a stallion, witness said the animal was not delivered until June 30th. It was sent to Harbor Grace in August. Witness said the animal was not taken delivery of for want of accommdation and Brennan was paid $30 for its keep. The next item referred to was a potato digger bought from Tessier's for $200 in October, 1922. Witness explained that when the farm was given up in 1923 the machine was sold for $40. It had never been removed from the store at which it was purchased. Witness, asked if the machine was for use on the Model Farm, explained that Dr. Campbell intended it for use of the people of the West End. Witness said it was not charged to the Model Farm account as no potatoes were grown there.

Adjournment was taken at 1 p.m. until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Falls Through Window

While Mr. James Walsh was passing west along Water Street on Saturday evening about 6 o'clock, he slipped on the icy sidewalk and fell through a large pane of glass in the store of Wood's West End Candy Store. Mr. Walsh received a few slight cuts from broken glass but was otherwise uninjured. The glass panel was severed by insurance.

Railway Line Clear

The railway on the eastern division is now clear of snow and the whole road will be open when the Rotary plow, which is pregeding the west bound express, reaches Port aux Basques, which was expected to be about noon to-day. The snow storm which prevails over the Eastern section of the line to-day will very likely interrupt traffic again.

PEPYS BEHIND THE SCENES.

March 1st.—Up betimes and abroad, wearing my new spring suit, the weather being mild, and is a good omen for an early spring. At noon to the Board of Trade, and Mr. Crowe discourses on the industries he will open in Bay d'Espoir. He says he will spend 10 million dollars on his plant for paper making, which is a mighty big sum, and a good thing for the country if he does it. Much that he says of Bay d'Espoir I know of my own knowledge, being that I did make a journey to St. Alban's in May last, and the prettiest place I did ever see. At night, comes Vane and carries me to the Masons' Club, where we play a game of billyards. I see how they have now a new floor of hard wood to their Banquet Hall, which is a very fine thing to dance on, and is, indeed, the finest dancing floor in the city.

March 2nd, (Lord's Day)—Went not out all the morning; but after dinner to walk with Povey, and to discourse of publick affairs. Among other talk he did speak concerning the Enquiry, which will, he says, end this week, for which, if it be true, I am very thankful. He says, too, how he has it on the best authority, that there is little of consequence in the last two paragraphs of the Commission, which I am quite ready to believe after the Pit Prop fiasco.

Another burglary which was also placed before their notice and which is receiving attention, is the raid of best from the store of a well known butcher on Hamilton Street. The police are of the opinion that both burglaries are the work of one individual.
