CLOSE 1,000 SALOONS.

ANAPOLIS, Aug. 27.—The Anti-League has undertaken to close by the State Supreme Court by remonstrance against appli- for licenses at the September of County Commissioners. It is desire of the league to close one each month during the year. Twenty-six counties are fighting saloons with the blan- trance recently held to be by the State Supreme Court. They want to close 1,000 sal- next July.

COLPITTS REUNION.

A Pleasant Day Enjoyed—Over 350 Present—Speeches By Hon. R. Emmerson, Dr. R. C. Welton and Others.

FOREST GLEN, West. Co., Aug. 28.—Yesterday, the day appointed for the gathering of the Colpitts tribes, dawned clear and fine. In fact, it dawned too fine, and when the sun began arising withdrew himself behind a bank of clouds, the weather prospects shook their heads wisely, and indulged in gloomy forebodings. However, this time it wdont seem that the sun had concealed himself in any spirit of ill-humor, but merely to complete his

For, about ten o'clock he again appeared and smilingly the rest of the day. As it happened the same day had been chosen for a horse race at Elgin, and a good old deacon at the picnic remarked that doubtless the presence of those who wish to see the horse race had averted the rain.

Two years ago the first gathering of the Colpitts family was held at Little River, Coverdale, on the farm taken up by Robert Colpitts, the proprietor of the family, who came from Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, in 1783. At that time the pleasure of the day was marred by the rain, and so it was decided to have another such gathering as soon as possible.

The present gathering was held on now owned by the heirs of the late Havelock Colpitts, originally settled by Ralph Colpitts, a son of the said Robert Colpitts. A more beautiful place could not easily be found for such a gathering. A wide and level interval, dotted here and there with old maple and willow trees, with the Pollett River running through the midst. The farm is about two miles below the village of Forest Glen, but those coming by train were allowed to get off near the grounds.

At about ten o'clock the teams began to arrive, and before noon the grounds presented a lively appearance. Everything was done in picnic style. Those living near brought their baskets, and visitors who came from a distance were made welcome, and if any went away hungry it must have been their own fault, for there seemed to be an abundant supply for all. A book had been provided in which all were asked to write their names, though of course some neglected to do so. However, 342 names were thus secured, which is a fine record for the name. About 80 were visitors, not being related to the family directly. The majority present of course came from within a radius of thirty miles, from Pleasant Vale, Mapleton, Elgin, Forest Glen, Petticoat, Little River, and Moncton. But there were representatives from many places far distant. None came from California, but those from Amherst, but north they came from Woodstock, from Bellefleur River, Gloucester Co., and even as far as Gaspé Basin, Quebec. Even they came from St. John, Portland, Me., Boston, Everett, Medford, Lowell, and Allston, Mass. Two visitors registered from Ohio, and one inscribed his name as coming from California. Had it not been for the backwardness of the may-making many more would have been present, who under the circumstances felt that they could not afford to lose a fine day. The guests of honor were of course Hon. H. R. Emmerson and Dr. Weldon. The former arrived by train about noon, but Dr. Weldon drove from Penobscot and did not reach the grounds until after one o'clock.

After dinner had been disposed of the gathering was called to order and a few words in explanation of the purpose of the gathering were spoken by R. J. Colpitts of Petticoat. In view of the similar gathering in the future, it was decided to effect some organization, and Ralph E. Colpitts of Pleasant Vale was elected president and R. J. Colpitts secretary. A committee representing the various branches of the family was also elected as follows: W. A. Colpitts, Mapleton; J. A. M. Colpitts, Pleasant Vale; C. W. Colpitts, Little River; Robert Colpitts, Coverdale; Rev. Barnford Colpitts, Woodstock; George Molinas, Middlesex; Will Horstman, Forest Glen; Alfred M. Day, Wickham.

After the election of these, some items of family interest were presented to the secretary, J. R. Colpitts. Since the previous meeting some old letters sent from England to Robert Colpitts between 1788 and 1809 had been discovered, and extracts from these were read. One of these letters appeared in the Sun not long ago. After the former gathering an inquiry was inserted in the Newcastle-on-Tyne Chronicle, and several answers were returned. Below is given a copy of this correspondence:

15,384.—The Colpitts Family of Durham County—My name is Margaret Colpitts, and my daughter is Robert Colpitts, of the city of Durham. There are living in the city of Durham over twenty years ago; probably some of them are there yet.—W. Fawcett, Batley.

15,385.—The Colpitts Family.—The directory of Northumberland and Durham for 1857 (Parsons and White) contains names of William Colpitts, farmer, Norton, near Stockton, next township being Carlisle (see below). Mary Colpitts, butcher, 22 New Market, Newcastle, House at Haworth. Possibly widower of George Colpitts, butcher. Poland parish is probably that given by the querist as Portland.

15,386.—The Colpitts Family.—The Canadian query will either forward a facsimile (exact) copy of the entries in his family Bible to the editor of the Weekly Chronicle, or to me, perhaps I may be able to give him fuller particulars.—J. W. Fawcett, Salford, Darlington.

15,387.—The Colpitts Family.—Having examined the register of All Saints' church, Newcastle, I find that Joseph Colpitts, son of Thomas Colpitts, butcher, Newcastle, was baptised in April, 1783, that George Colpitts, son of Joseph Colpitts, and grandson of Thomas Colpitts, was baptised in August, 1783. Joseph Colpitts, son of Joseph Colpitts, and grandson of Thomas Colpitts, was baptised on March 11, 1802, and was registered at Heworth church, Newcastle. The direct descendant of the above family is Thomas Colpitts, born July 27, 1835, now residing in the parish of Heddon, Northumberland.—Thos. Colpitts, Jun., Market Place, Bedlington.

15,388.—The Colpitts Family of Durham County—Descendants of a Colpitts family are residing here, and I have been told that they are of the name of R. P. Colpitts, Canada.—M. A. E. Barber, 29 South View, Newsham, Northumberland, England.

Personal letters have also been received from Margaret Colpitts, Washington, Durham Co., Thos. Colpitts, Bellington; Mary A. E. Barber, Newsham; Mrs. Annie Sarsfield, 64 Crossgate, Durham; and Mrs. Hannah Colpitts, Stockton-on-Tees. There were also read, though they did not plainly establish the relationship between the family here and the family in England. The speaker referred also to the spelling and pronunciation of the name, deprecating the practice of some in dropping the final letter and pronouncing the name with a short 'o', which the general practice both here and in England is to make the 'o' long.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson then spoke briefly, expressing his pleasure in being present, and referring to the similarity between the history of the family and the history of the province. Dr. Weldon, both because of his own merits and his connection with the family, received the greatest applause. He referred to his political experience in Albert Co. and the large support which he received from so many of the family. He spoke of the work of the pioneers, and their success as evidenced by the great prosperity at present enjoyed by Canada, and of the spirit of loyalty to Great Britain, which characterized the early settlers and which is still strong today.

Eve Tempted Adam.

And Adam has been tempting Eve ever since. Imagine a man selling woman's rands, tutu, while keeping her attention fixed on a prize given with the rands! A woman may be tempted by "prizes" to buy common soap, that she may not know will soon ruin her clothes and hands. But she soon finds out the difference between common soaps and Sunlight Soap. She finds Sunlight Soap—Osgood Bar—prize in itself. Her clothes last longer and her hands are saved from eczema. 228
