ONTARIO'S PHARMACISTS.

What is Being Done to Prevent Infringements of the Law—Case of Incorporated Companies.

At the council meeting of the Ontario College of Pharmacy yesterday, the Infringement Committee's report stated that a hard fight had been made during the year to bring offenders to time. Every portion of the province had been visited during the past six months and examinations had been made in 144 cases. Above $200 had been collected in fines. They were for keeping stores open without a graduate in charge and for keeping two stores open under the one fee. After the expenses were all paid there was a balance of $144.

The committee reported that they had been unable to secure any favorable judicial interpretation of the law regarding the selling of drugs by incorporated companies. Legal opinion had been obtained, but the council had been unable to make a conviction under the present law.

The Committee on Bylaws and Legislation reported that it was impossible for the Ontario Drug Associations to co-operate in framing a model law, owing to the peculiar pharmaceutical laws of the Province of Ontario.

A FIGHTING PREACHER.

Went Prepared for an "Egging" and Scattered Roughs But Probably Killed a Little Girl.

Washington, Ind., Aug. 6.—Rev. John Walstein, who has been holding revival services at Concord Christian Church, near here, received word that he would be egged if he preached again. He went prepared, and when he opened services he laid a pistol on each side of his Bible, announcing that he would defend himself if necessary.

It was not long before a disturbance was raised at one of the windows. In an instant the minister commenced firing toward the window. He scattered the roughs, but one bullet passed through the abdomen of the 3-year-old daughter of John Standiford, who was sleeping on one of the seats. The little girl is dying. In the excitement Walstein made his escape.

THE CHARGE AGAINST DOCTORS.

Defendant, Through His Counsel, Says He is Willing to Apologize.

The case of F. J. Peel of Brantford, charged with accusing Drs. J. D. Thorburn and Burnham with conspiracy to defraud, was continued in the Police Court yesterday and enlarged for a week.

Mr. Heyd, who appeared for the defendant, stated that his client had been misinformed, and had written the letter in question under impulse. He felt that an injustice had been done the two doctors, and expressed his regret at what had occurred. The operation had been a successful one, and, although it only took from five to ten seconds to perform, was worth what was asked. Mr. Peel expressed himself as quite willing to pay in full for the operation.

Mr. Heyd contended that his client had not committed a criminal offence, although he might have been guilty of an indiscretion.

The Magistrate will come to a decision as to whether what was done was an offence or not, and at the end of the week the charge may be withdrawn or the case further adjourned.

CREDITORS MEET TO DAY.

The Affairs of J. W. Lang & Co. to be Discussed at Mr. Clarkson's Office.

A general meeting of the creditors of J. W. Lang & Co. will be held this morning at the office of Mr. E. R. C. Clarkson. The creditors wish to arrive at some settlement without further resort to the courts. At the meeting yesterday there were present: Mr. Fasken, representing Mr. Lang; Mr. Francis, representing the Standard Bank; Mr. Bell, representing the Canada Sugar Refining Company, and Mr. Clarkson, representing the other creditors. A statement was presented showing liabilities as follows: To the bank, $78,000 on paper under discount and $6,200 personal account, secured; trade liabilities of $26,000. The assets were shown to consist of real estate valued at $40,000, encumbered $16,000, and book debts to the amount of $15,000 held as security by the bank.

Business Embarrassments.

Stocktaking has been completed in the estate of Bachrack & Co., but as yet a full statement is not prepared. The liabilities are $65,000, with assets of $54,000, showing a deficit of about $18,000. The creditors will meet on Monday afternoon.

M. Goldstein, tins, Ottawa, is financially embarrassed.

Aibert E. Williamson, tailor, Midland, has assigned to W. H. Bennett.

H. F. McGuire & Co., general store, Webbwood, are offering unsecured creditors 25c on the dollar.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the Guelph Norway Iron and Steel Company, it was decided to place the estate in liquidation, confirming a resolution passed at a previous meeting recommending the winding up of the company. James Nasmith, secretary-treasurer, was appointed liquidator, with the directors as inspectors.

Midsummer Chances

Mr. Philip Jamieson, the men's and boys' clothier and outfitter, corner Queen and Yonge-streets, announces a week of unusual bargains—it's a clearing-up sale of summer goods, including furnishings, boots and shoes, clothing, hats, in fact each department has its quota of rich and rare offerings. The store's staff has for the past few days been busy marking down goods and getting everything in readiness for this "great midsummer sale," which begins at 8 o'clock Monday morning. Shrewd buyers will find many good investments among the rich stocks that will be offered, and clothing-wanters everywhere will be sure to take a keen interest in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

BIG RISE IN N. W. LAND CO. STOCK.

Investors are turning their attention to Canada Northwest Land Co. shares. The preferred stock was the feature on the Toronto Stock Exchange to-day. It sold up to 47½, while the closing bid yesterday was 42. In Montreal it closed to-day at 44 bid, with 50 asked. There is little or no stock on the market. The outlook is favorable in the Northwest. The harvest, already begun, will be a large one, and prices of wheat are higher than for several seasons.

The farm land sales by the Canada Northwest Land Company continue to increase. Those for July were 4410 acres, for about $25,000. The total since Jan. 1 is 21,611 acres, for $119,019. These figures show an increase of over 50 per cent., as compared with the corresponding period of last year.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

There were 72 car loads of live stock on the market yesterday, made up as follows: Cattle 1139, sheep and lambs 522, calves 92 and 700 hogs. The market was slow all round, excepting for stockers and hogs, for which there was a good demand.

Prices for export cattle ranged from $4.12½ up to $4.85.

Mr. Jesse Dann bought from Mr. McNicholl two car loads, averaging 1400 lbs, at $4.62½ per cwt.

William Levack bought one load of choice heifers and steers, weighing 1125 lbs each, from A. Dames for $4.12½, less $10 on the lot. C. S. Rawlings sold 19 exporters to R. Ironsides, weighing 1250 lbs. each, at $4.60 per cwt.

R. Stone sold one load of steers, weighing 1350 lbs. each, at $4.40 per cwt.

Butchers' cattle were also dull compared with Tuesday's market, and the general run was from $2 to $3 per head less than Thursday's quotations.

John Henderson sold one load of choice butchers' cattle, weighing 1000 lbs. each, at $3.60 per cwt., and 7 cows, averaging 1200 lbs. each, at $3 per cwt.

William Levack bought 7 loads which cost him from $2.85 to $3.87½ per cwt., and 2 loads for which he paid $3.25 per cwt., weighing from 950 to 1150 lbs. each.

S. Halligan bought 3 loads, weighing from 1000 to 1100 lbs. each, at $3 to $3.50 per cwt.

Bulls were scarce, and good heavy ones would be worth $4 per cwt., and light $3.50.

Light feeders and stockers in good demand. Charles Rose, Essex County, sold 16, averaging 700 lbs. each, for $3.15 per cwt. to C. Zeagman.

William Crealock sold 20 stockers, weighing 975 lbs., to C. Woods for $2.75 to $3 per cwt.

Cows sold from $30 up to $40, and there were about 25 on the market, and a very poor lot, too, generally speaking. Good cows will fetch a good price, and we saw some dairymen who were wanting good cows turn away, as they did not see anything to suit them.

Calves from $3 to $6 each.

Sheep sold from $3 to $3.25 per cwt., for export ewes. Bucks $2.25 to $2.50 per cwt.

Lambs sold for $2.75 to $3.25 each, and a few extra quality heavy weights brought $3.50.

George Robinson, Orangeville, sold some export ewes at $3.12½ per cwt., and 30 lambs at $2.60 each.

The hog market remains firm at $6 per cwt. for the best.

The shipments per C.P.R. were: J. & J. W. Dunn, 5 cars of cattle and 2 double decks and one single of sheep; L. Delorme, 3 cars cattle; R. Ironsides, 5 cars; Brown & Snell, 1 car; Mr. Maybee, 1 car; W. Harris, 2 cars of hogs, and per G.T.R.: Brown & Snell, 6 cars of cattle and 1 double deck of sheep; James Eakins, 6 cars of cattle; Williams & Hall, 5 cars cattle; William Levack, 2 cars cattle; J. Lunness, 1 car cattle; A. Carey, 1 car cattle; S. H. Reynolds, 1 car cattle, and A. L. Buck, 2 cars stockers for the west.

THERE IS A REASON
for everything and the chief reason of our wonderful success is the grand values we give at low cash charges. When we discarded the old credit system we reduced all our prices from 20 to 25 per cent. The effect was pleasingly surprising. Our business increased in a rapid manner, necessitating an increased staff, and our values have given and are giving such satisfaction as to satisfy the most critical. Our Scotch Tweed Suitings at $20 and $22.50 are a good specimen of what values we offer.
