Professor Anderson addressed the meeting on the tonic sol fa system of music. He argued that if music was taught in the right way, it would develop the physical as well as the moral strength. He also argued that there is only one in a thousand who is able to speak, who cannot sing.

Art Sale Tomorrow.

The sale of Mr. Miles' sketches at Lockhart's auction room this afternoon was well attended, and the bidding was quite brisk as some of the paintings were offered for sale. Most of them, however, were sold much below their actual value, for it should be borne in mind that they are all original sketches of New Brunswick scenery and never can be duplicated except with the consent of the owner. Such pictures are generally more highly valued than studio work, because they are more faithful to nature, being finished while the artist is in the presence of the scene by which his picture is inspired and full of its inspiration. Many of Mr. Miles best sketches are reserved for the sale tomorrow at 10.30, among which are, Willow Lane, Vanwart's Landing, Norton Hills, Nerepis Hills, View on the Restigouche, Poquiok Road, View below Woodstock, View on the Jemseg, and the Bedroom at Indiantown. The latter should fall into the hands of some one of our mill owners or lumber operators. It is hoped there will be a large attendance at the sale tomorrow morning.

New Buildings.

John S. Seaton has commenced the erection of a two story wooden building 22 feet wide and 32 feet deep on the lot north of Dr. McLaren's residence on Charlotte street. The lower part of the building will be used by Mr. Seaton as marble works while James Boyd painter will occupy the upper flat. Hazen Brown Jr is having a building erected on Portland street near Orange corner to accommodate a branch of his tailoring establishment.

Police Reports.

Samuel Lantalum, the young Indian boy who came to the police court so often for protection, was sent to his home this morning in Campbellton, Ontario.

The door of the Y. M. C. A. on Charlotte street was found open by the police last night. The key was in the door at the time. The door was locked by police and the key taken to the police station.

Police Court.

John Gillis, drunk on Carmarthen street, fined $4.

Joseph McAfee, drunk on Union street was fined $4.

A BENEFIT DANCE was given Messrs. Allan and Duffee, the musicians, by the Glee Club, in Segee's hall, Mill street, last night. The dance was well attended. Music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Messrs. Allan, Duffee, Toner and McMahon. It is the intention of the Glee Club to hold a dance every Wednesday evening in the Segee building.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTES.—The St. John County Sunday school Association have arranged to hold a series of Sunday school institutes, the first of which will be held in Queen square Methodist church this evening at 8 o'clock. The programme will include: a new method of encouraging the study of the lesson at home, by Rev. T. F. Fotheringham, and shall we teach the children to give gifts rather than to receive gifts at our holiday festivals? by Rev. A. J. Macfarland.

VICTORIA RINK.—Weather permitting, the Victoria rink will open to the public next Tuesday evening and from the way in which the tickets are being disposed of the directors look forward to a very successful season and there is certainly no spot were one can spend a pleasanter evening during our winter months than at this old favorite place of amusement. Tickets are on sale at Morrisey's, King St., Short's, Garden St., Davis, Indiantown, Travers, Main St., and from the secretary, Mr. Ritchie. They make splendid Christmas presents. The street railway will issue tickets to holders of rink tickets at reduced rates.

CHRISTMAS TRADE.

A Peep into Kedey & Co's Dry Goods Store—Gorbell's Art Store—G. H. McKay's and J. & A. McMillan's Book Store.

MESSRS. KEDEY & CO'S DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT

on Union street should be visited by all who are in search of articles in the line of dry goods suitable for presents. Their stock, always very complete and embracing all the latest styles of goods, is even more so now than usual. They are prepared to do a large holiday trade and offer great inducements to purchasers. Besides the usual lines they have a very attractive lot of bonnets for children which they are selling at very low rates during the holiday season. These bonnets are very pretty and nothing would please a little girl more than to get one of them for a Christmas present. They have a nice lot of goods selected for the trade of this season and it is always a pleasure to make selections in their neat and well arranged store. Their business is growing, as they always give their customers satisfaction.

S. L. GORBELL'S ART STORE

on Union street is Santa Claus' headquarters this year for everything in the way of toys, dolls, books, novelties, pictures and other things suitable for presents. There are big dolls and little dolls dressed dolls and naked dolls and representatives of the doll family of every size and kind. Then there is a great variety of pretty Japanese novelties which have been imported direct from Yokohama by the C. P. R. As the name of the store implies, this store is also the headquarter for artists' materials and all who are doing fancy or decorative work of any kind can find everything they need at Gorbell's. A great variety of easels are shown at very low prices. Fire or draft screens for use in offices or residences are becoming very fashionable and Mr. Gorbell has a variety of them in the three fold style. They are splendidly gotten up and the prices are surprisingly low. He has also a lot of smokers sets that attract attention and which make very acceptable presents. There are some beautiful little writing desks and other useful articles in the store, suitable for presents to ladies. A nice picture is a very acceptable present at any season and those who decide on making a present of this kind should not fail to call at Gorbell's in time, for he has a great variety of very gems in art and can give you a frame of any desired style at the lowest possible prices. This making of frames is a special department; finely finished hand made work is furnished in gold, bronze, antique oak, oxidized silver of all patterns and sizes. Beautiful plush work both in frames and in placque covering is also done. There are so many attractive features about the store that it is a pleasure to visit Gorbell's art store at any time, but now no one should miss making a call there to see the holiday goods displayed.

G. H. MCKAY'S DRY GOODS STORE

on Charlotte street was lined with buyers when the reporter called. It was an early hour in the day for such a rush of business but it was not an unusual thing for that store. There is a rush there all the time. From morning till night people stream in and out, and the many clerks are kept on the hustle measuring out the goods and taking in the cash. Mr. McKay had faith in the principal of selling cheap for cash and faith in advertising. He understands his business fully and has met with great success in following out his own ideas. After all the large advertisements he has had in the columns of the GAZETTE, it is unnecessary to point out any of the striking bargains he offers in his line. That the offers have been read and are being taken advantage of is evidenced by his present rush of business which has of late become so great that he finds some difficulty in properly accommodating his increasing trade in his present premises. It is on this account that he has reduced his advertising space. In March, however, he will move into the large store on Charlotte street, formerly occupied by Macaulay Bros. & Co., and there he expects to be able to give his business room to grow still more.

MESSRS. J. & A. MCMILLAN'S BOOKSTORE

on Prince William street is a great resort for purchasers of Christmas presents, for there is no better stock in the city to select presents from than theirs. The store, always a model of neatness, is more attractive than usual now when the many articles selected for the holiday trade are on exhibition. Many beautiful art novelties are shown. The line of illustrated books and books of illustration is a splendid one. Illustrated Europe, The Sermon on the Mount, Ideals of Beauty, and books of fac-similes of water colors by eminent artists are among the newest and best of these. There is a fine collection of picture books of all kinds for children, including all the best annuals of English and American magazines. Blocks and games such as Santa Claus delivers are also ready to be sent out on order.

Handsomely bound sets of the works of the best authors, photo albums, photo screens and photo boxes in several styles, gold pens, holders and pencils, and silver do., in the newest and prettiest designs, pocket-books and purses of the most durable as well as the most fancy makes, prayer books and bibles, hymn books and books of all kinds in history, biography, fiction, etc., are included in their stock of goods suitable for presents. The display of booklets and Christmas cards shown in the store is one of the most attractive features in the store. It includes some beautiful little gems of art. The cards are all in the newest designs and some of them are quite unique. Some cards are in the shape of leaves while others are full blown flowers rich in perfume and colouring. It is too big a task to enumerate all, or even the most important of the grand assortment of goods shown in Messrs. McMillan's establishment to supply the holiday trade. Everybody should go and see, and choose from it for themselves.

THE DEATH is announced at St. Louis, Mo., recently of Christopher Dunn of Birmingham, Alabama. Mr. Dunn was formerly a resident of Rothesay his father being in business in St. John as an insurance agent. After the death of his father and mother "Kit" as he was known amongst his friends, though young in years developed such manly traits that he won the respect and admiration of all his friends. Together with a younger brother whose care he assumed the young man, then a mere lad, started for Chicago and afterwards went to St Louis. Hosts of friends here will hear with regret of his death at the early age of 23 years. His remains were interred at Birmingham, Alabama. An older brother, Professor James E. Dunn is principal of the Avondale public school in Birmingham.

NOTWITHSTANDING Climo's thoroughness of work in Photography his prices rule lower than in any other part of the world for highly finished effects. 85 Germain street.
