GAVE WHISKEY TO 12-YEAR-OLD GIRL

Dereham Man Fined Twenty Dollars By Magistrate at Ingersoll.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, July 18.—A case of unusual interest was heard in the police court yesterday afternoon in which Charles Bowerman, of Dereham, was charged with supplying liquor to Annie May Potts, a girl twelve years of age. The child is a sister of the wife of the accused, anld it was claimed that while with Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman in Tillsonburg last Saturday she had been given a drink of beer by Bowerman and also two or three drinks of whiskey while on the road home. The girl herself stated that she was stupid from the effects of the liquor and had to go to bed immediately on arriving home. Other witnesses testified that the girl was staggering and appeared to be under the influence of liquor.

Bowerman and his wife both denied that the girl had been given intoxicating liquor. They said she had been given lemon sour. Their evidence, however, was contradictory. The magistrate found Bowerman guilty and imposed a fine of $20 and costs, or one month in jail. He took the days.

Kenneth Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Daniel, Wellington street, has gone to Montreal to accept a situation in the office of the C. P. R. Ken's many friends will unite in wishing him a full measure of success in the eastern metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hyde announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Cornelia May, to William J. Gerbracht, of Nelson, B. C., the marriage to take place quietly early in August.

The activity which the mothers of the town have experienced for several days culminated this morning when baskets were packed and with children looking forward to a day of unalloyed pleasure they entrained for Port Stanley. The town presents quite a deserted appearance, as places of business are closed, the mayor having proclaimed a public holiday. The representation at the lakeside will be about the largest Ingersoll has ever had, and as splendid arrangements have been made for the outing all are counting on a most enjoyable time.

STRUCK ON HEAD BY FALLING HAY FORK

Thamesville Lad Was Badly Hurt and Has Arm Paralyzed.

Thamesville, July 17. — Glen, the four-year-od son of Mr. William Parney, Thamesville sideroad, had a narrow escape from death. He was in the barn where the men were working when the hay fork fell, striking him on the head and cutting it badly. The little fellow was unconscious for several hours, and his arm was paralyzed. He is now making rapid progress toward recovery.

BARN UNROOFED

High Wind Also Blew Down Many Trees Around Napier.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Napier, July 17. — A very severe storm passed over this neighborhood Monday afternoon. This was followed by a downpour of rain, so that the water lay upon the roads and in the ditches for a considerable time. The wind broke down trees and branches, and some damage was done to buildings. The roof of George Winter's barn was torn off, causing much trouble and inconvenience, as some of this year's harvest is stored in it. In spite of the damage done, the rain was a great blessing to the district, the crops being helped greatly at a critical time.

Haying is almost completed, and wheat will be cut within half a week. The hay crop is proving better than was expected, although in some places it was quite light.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Strathroy, July 17.—A bylaw to establish a general hospital in Strathroy was introduced and passed at a special meeting of the town council here last evening. The bylaw provides that the general management of the hospital shall be vested in a board of trustees of sixteen members.

KINCARDINE FETE GOES MERRILY ON

Big Crowd of Visitors Came In From the Surrounding District.

THE WINGHAM NINE WON

Fast Ball Game With Home Team—Old Boys Continue to Arrive.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Kincardine, July 19. — Kincardine was the Mecca for thousands of persons from all over the district again today as a result of it being civic holiday in a number of towns. A number of special trains brought in hundreds of visitors, and a gala time was spent by all.

The afternon events included a baseball game, in which visiting old boys defeated home boys, and a baseball match between Kincardine and Wingham, in which Wingham won by a score of 9 to 8. There was great enthusiasm over a tug-of-war between Bruce and Detroit, five men to a side. It lasted for eight minutes. Detroit winning. There will be another pull.

In addition to the visitors from the district, every train brings in a large number of old boys from a distance. The best of order has prevailed, notwithstanding the big crowd that is here, and everyone is having the best kind of a time.

ONLY ONE PASSED

Clandeboye Pupils Had Hard Luck for Two Years.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Clandeboye, July 18.—The local pupils who tried the entrance examinations were very much disappointed in the reports. Out of the eight who tried only one was successful, and this pupil made only 52 marks over the pass. Four of the others who failed tried last year also. Last year's results were similitar to this year's, only one passing out of a class of six.

Miss E. Lintott, of London, is spending a few days with friends here.

Messrs. E. Porte and J. Tone, of Edmonton, are spending a few days with relatives.

Mr. U. Cunningham, of Camrose, Alta., is visiting his sister, Miss Jennie Cunningham.

Last night's rain was appreciated, especially by the farmers. The crops in this section are all in fine shape. The wheat is ripening up very fast, and it will only be the course of a few days until it will be ready for cutting.

Mrs. A. Jones and her son Lloyd are visiting relatives in London.

WINDSOR DROWNING

Canoe Upset When Big Freighters Went Down the River.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Windsor, July 17.—Caught with their canoe between two freighters moving in opposite directions, a party of three young men from Detroit—Charles Brett, Alexander Pinder and Edward Macher—were thrown into the river just opposite the Walkerville Boat Club this evening, and Macher was drowned. A power launch from the clubhouse rescued the others as they were about exhausted. Macher was 20 years old, and was here on a visit. His home is at Galeston, Pa. The body was not recovered.

DRESDEN.

Dresden, July 17.—Miss Lois Wiley, daughter of Dr. W. D. Wiley, Brantford, a former Dresdenite, won the scholarship prize offered by the public school board of that city to the pupil passing the entrance examination with the largest number of marks. She secured 90 per cent of the total marks.

Sixteen of the seventeen students of Mr. R. Brandon's class, who tried the entrance examinations here, were successful.

Mrs. Sydney Marks and daughter, Violet, of Mount Clemens, Mich., and Mrs. Kenyon, of Marine City, are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Shaw.

APPIN.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Appin, July 17.—Mr. Duncan McIntyre has returned to Detroit.

Miss Anna Hyttenrauch is visiting in Walkerville.

Mr. Fred Brown has returned from the West.

Rev. Henderson, formerly pastor of Appin Presbyterian Church, is ill in British Columbia. Mr. Henderson visited his son there after attending the assembly in Edmonton.

Mrs. Harold Hyttenrauch is visiting at Dr. Hyttenrauch's.

Anniversary services were held in Bethel Methodist Church last Sunday. Miss Tena Eddie, Alfred Bardwell and Earle Webster, of Appin Presbyterian Church, gave assistance in the song service.

Mr. Will Henderson, of London, is spending the summer with Mr. McKee of North Ekfrid.

A terrific wind swept through this vicinity on Monday afternoon. The storm was heralded by clouds of dust, which were immediately followed by a downpour of rain. Clothes were torn from the lines and carried away, and the field produce was levelled. The fierce wind did not abate for fully twenty minutes. The rain was badly needed, as fruits and grains were suffering.

Quite recently a man, claiming to be a German from Detroit, entered the G. T. R. depot here and took away nineteen railroad tickets. He travelled in an automobile and went to Glencoe. He presented one of the tickets at the Glencoe depot, but his actions caused suspicion, and he was arrested and placed in the Glencoe jail, but as there was no night watchman the German made his escape. He was followed to McMaster's woods, where he eluded his pursuers. Detectives are still working on the case.

The phones are still out of commission as a result of the storm yesterday afternoon.

July Sale, Black Dress Goods

About 70 Dress and Skirt Lengths One-Third Off

This is a clearing of all dress and skirt lengths, including lengths up to 7 yards. Some long enough for skirts, but most of the pieces have sufficient for dress or two skirts—from 5 to 7 yards. This is the best sale of the year as it takes in almost every class of goods carried in our stock, and the fact that there is only a few yards left is the best argument we can offer that these ends are the choice of the collection, and the customer's choice. Skirt, suit or dress lengths, in Serge, Broadcloth, Worsted, Voile, Cashmere, Henrietta, San Toy, Poplin, etc., in all-wool and silk and wool mixtures, and not an undesirable piece in the whole collection. Our best every-day selling lines. The sole object of the sale is to clear the shelves of all odd ends, preparatory to receiving fall importations which are now on the way. If you need a fall suit length or odd skirt or a new black dress, here is your opportunity to save a third and get your choice of the very goods you want. This means 75c goods for 50¢, $1.00 goods for 66 2-3¢, and $1.50 dress goods for $1.00 a yard. We will list a dozen lengths taken from the collection, which will show you the exact amount you may save on these lengths.
