BOXING FATALITY.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, the third annual boxing competition promoted by the Executive of the Stanhope Amateur Athletic Club was held at the White Hart tavern, Windmill street, Tottenham Court road. The programme, which included two six-round contests and an 8st 6lb. competition for members, was being gone through when a most unfortunate accident occurred. J. Levitt and J. Williams met in the first bout of the second series of the competition, and both lads, although showing little more science than first-season novices, were evidently bent upon scoring a victory. Williams displayed a far better knowledge of the art than his adversary, and held a good lead, according to the Amateur Boxing Association Rules, until three-quarters of the regulation time in the last bout had elasped. He then fell weak, and Levitt's superior physique enabled him to get both gloves on the face and head several times in succession and knocked his opponent on to the ropes. Williams falling forwards the timekeeper's services were called into requisition and he ticked off the usual ten seconds Vice-captain Harvey immediately stepped into the ring and lifted the lad, who had lapsed into unconsciousness, to his corner, where endeavours were made to reproduce animation. These failing, Williams was taken to a hospital where he died at two o'clock next morning.

H. Mullins	11	Jno. J. Harrington	10

The second series will begin immediately and the match will probably finish before Saturday. On Friday next four rinks from here will play the same number of the Campbellton curling club, at Campbellton. It is expected that as the elections in Northumberland are over, the Chatham club will pay the Bathurst curlers a friendly visit. They will be accorded a hearty welcome.

The Claymore club of St. John did not play at points yesterday owing to the rain.

Four rinks of the St. Andrews curling club leave this afternoon for the capital, where they will play the Fredericton club to-morrow. The skips chosen by the St. Andrews club for this match are, John White, A. O. Skinner, S. S. Deforest and A. Watson.

DEATH OF WM. KILPATRICK.

An Interesting Sketch of His Life.

Mr. William Kilpatrick, the aged and respected secretary of the old Portland Board of School Trustees, died at his residence, on Main street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

A week ago Sunday Mr. Kilpatrick was out to church, and in the afternoon walked to the east end of Union street to visit his daughter. After returning home in the evening he became ill, having contracted a cold. He had been suffering from kidney trouble for some time, and to this together with the cold the cause of death is assigned. The news will be received by his many friends in the city, and by older people throughout the province with deep regret, as he has been through his long life a most active and useful citizen, and one who has won the respect of all with whom he ever came in contact. Notwithstanding his advanced age, nearly 87 year, and the fact that he was a man of small stature, his mental and physical activity have always been most surprising to everybody.

Mr. Kilpatrick was born in Raphoe, Ireland. He came to this city in 1820, at the age of 17, and went to Shepody, Albert Co., where he built a small house and cleared a farm, having to carry in his provisions and other supplies on his back. In 1836 he was appointed crown land surveyor and surveyed large tracts of land on the Miramichi and in Albert Co. In 1837 he left the farm which was well stocked with horses cattle and implements, to his parents, and came to Portland with $3,200 in his pocket. He invested in real estate and lost everything by the big fire of '38. Soon after went to work with R. Rankin & Co. at Rankin's wharf and was in their employ 26 years. In 1871 he was appointed secretary of the Portland school board which position he has held ever since.

He was married in 1837 to Margaret Moore, and by this wife had three children, Mr. S. G. Kilpatrick and Mrs. Thompson, are the two now living. By his second wife, who survives him, he had seven children, of whom three daughters and one son, Albert, are still living.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, and the remains will be taken to St. Luke's church where a funeral service will be conducted by Rev. L. G. Stevens.

Re Fred A. Walton.

The proceedings that followed the GAZETTE summary of this case yesterday afternoon consisted in an agreement between the counsel that a telegram be sent to Montreal for a certified copy of the information and have it sent here by train this afternoon.

The question having again been raised about the prisoner being returned to Montreal by the C. P. R., His Honor said he would not allow such a proceeding. Walton in that case would have to pass through American territory. While no effort might be made to kidnap the prisoner the opportunity would be thus afforded, and he would take every precaution to see that, if it was decided to hand Walton over to the Montreal authorities, he would reach there safely—even if he had to order Chief of Police Marshall to convey him to Montreal.

The court then adjourned until this afternoon at four o'clock.

A telegram was received by Detective Grose last night, stating that a copy of the information made against Walton and on which the warrant was issued, would reach the city on to-day's C. P. R. train. The information was made by Superintendent Stewart of the Dominion Express company.

The Emperor will himself compare the facts derived from these reports and draw his own conclusions.

It was stated last evening that the two buildings on Hollis street, occupied by Forsythe, Sutcliffe & Co. (and owned by the Thompson estate) has been sold to Mr. Sutcliffe for $16,500. Not long after the Revolutionary War in the States it was owned by Mr. Andrew Folmar, grandfather of Philip Thompson, of the City Treasurer's office, and from him it passed to the latter. Land was cheap in those primitive days—it is said this was originally bought for £25.—Acadian Recorder.

Baggage Master James Broadhurst, of the I. C. R., met with an accident at the deep water terminus at Halifax, Monday night that may prove fatal. While a train was leaving the shed Mr. Broadhurst, who was standing on the platform, ran after it and while attempting to get on the platform of one of the cars he lost his balance and fell. He was dragged a considerable distance and crushed between the platform and train. When picked up it was found that he had been badly injured. In addition to his being bruised and injured materially, his collar bone, hip and a rib were broken. The latter penetrated the left lung.

The Civic Elections.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE:—

Sir,—As the time is now drawing nigh for the election of representatives to the Common Council, there is a large number of wolves in sheep's clothing going about trying to get the electors to indorse them and their selfish motives. Is it not time, Mr. Editor, that the press of St. John undertook the herculean task of waking up the people to a sense of the responsibility devolving on them to send men to the council board who are above reproach and have honesty of purpose to do what is right in the interest of the rate payers of the united city, irrespective of any pecuniary gains that may accrue to themselves or their friends?

The electors of Brook's ward will not be a party to sending Mr. Lockhart to the council board for the purpose of carrying out A. C. Smith's views and compel the electors to turn the grindstone for the purpose of grinding A. C. Smith's little hatchet. It is to be hoped that Smith, Lockhart and company will live long enough to realize the fact that the fools are not all dead while they are living.

Carleton is today represented by three rustics. There is no valid reason why that should be the case. There are in Carleton gentlemen competent to fill any office in the gift of the people without importing them from Shin Creek, Image Creek and Butternut Ridge, and the cry is, still they come.

Albert C. Smith, the Oromocto B. Y. O., is about retiring from the council board and is very anxious that his political Lucifer, Lockhart, the gentleman who got the hay contract from the Common Council, a clerk in Mr. Smith's employment, should succeed him at the council board.

The electors of Brooks are not in the mood to be trifled with, in what they consider to be a matter that they can settle themselves without being dictated to by the Smith syndicate. Brooks Ward is not for sale in the interest of the gentleman who was elected to the local house as had carried the ward. He must not, in his ignorance and presumption, think that he owns the whole earth. There is one little spot on God's foot-stool that he has not got a mortgage on.

The electors of Brooks ward will meet at an early day for the purpose of selecting candidate to represent them at the council board The Parvenu hay seed aristocracy of the West side need not apply. Boodlerism is dead in Brooks ward and will be buried on the first Tuesday in April. Friends are respectfully invited to attend.
