Up to about forty years ago Cornwall, England, supplied nearly all the tin used in the world, but now only about 7 per cent of the total supply comes from there. Prince Rupert of Bavaria, eldest son of the eldest son of the regent of Bavaria, has just become the father of a boy, who in course of time will, if he lives, become king of Bavaria, and, according to the Jacobites on both sides of the Atlantic, the de jure sovereign of the British empire. For Prince Rupert's descent from the Stuart kings of England is less remote than that of King Edward. The latter has to go back to King James in order to establish the connection, whereas Prince Rupert need only go back to King Charles. Prince Rupert's wife, the young mother, is a daughter of that occultist, Duke Charles Theodore of Bavaria, who is a brother of the last Empress of Austria.

Literary Note.

In almost every walk of life there have been great women. But has there ever been a woman who has reached the very highest pinnacle in any field? In the June Cosmopolitan Ella Wheeler Wilcox answers this question in the negative and declares that even in the essentially feminine vocations of cooking, dressmaking and millinery men excel women. "Women," says Mrs. Wilcox, "have not the concentration which gives a clear perspective. They lack system and patience and are distracted by details or turned aside by vanity."

Chatham World: Mr. Gould received a letter on Monday from his son. It was mailed at DeAar, April 27. In the 30 day voyage from Halifax to Cape Town only two ships were sighted and land was seen but once. Some whales were seen. A letter from Gordon McNaughton says L. squadron, in which the New Brunswickers are, won the tug of war contest on the steamer. One Miramichi man, Wailing, was on the winning team.

Quite a serious accident happened to the young son of Mr. R O Leary, Richbucto, last week. While he, with a number of other children, was coming home from school they were throwing stones at each other, and William Barnard, son of Mr. Alex. Barnard, threw one which hit the O'Leary boy on the temple, making quite a nasty gash. He was taken home unconscious.

Blenheim Tribune: Michael Clary, of Chatham township, Ont., sold a load of hogs last week, receiving therefor $133 75. When he went home he placed the money in the back of the stove for safe keeping. He got up next morning and kindled the fire. Some time afterwards he thought about his money. He was $133 out. Seventy-five cents was all that was left.

Alice Blackwell, of Boston, daughter of the woman's rights leader, Lucy Stone, in an address to her associates at Chicago a few days ago, during a reception to delegates en route to Minneapolis, said: "Hereafter the American woman must cease to be a hen, which could do no better than cackle and scratch. She must cease to be a mere nightingale that can only feed her young and warble. She must be the eagle mother, and her slogan must be: 'Woe betide the male chicken hawks who swoop upon her offspring!'"

The passion for gambling pervading the smart set in London threatens to lead to much scandal. Stories are already current of well-known women in financial difficulties over gaming losses, in one case amounting to, it is said, $3000 ($40,000) at a single sitting. The World exposes the universality of the craze, saying: "Every one is bent on begging his or her neighbor. It is the smart hostess, who regardless of all considerations of hospitality and friendship, invites guests to her house for the express purpose of winning their money. Her only aim is to get together those who will play roulette or bridge and can afford to pay up handsomely when the hour of reckoning comes. There is no less danger for the gilded youth in the country house, on his friend's yacht or in a London drawing room than on the turf or at Monte Carlo."
S. S. Prince Edward on a recent trip is credited with making the run from Portridge Island light to Digby light in one hour and forty minutes, beating by four minutes the Prince Rupert's best record.

Shattered Nerves and Weakened System, THE AFTER EFFECTS OF LA GRIPPE.

Have You Had La Grippe?
Did it Leave any After Effects?
If it did, read what Mr. F. J. Beophy, of Montreal, Que., has to say of the good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did him.
He Writes: I had a very severe attack of la grippe, which left me all run down, very nervous and extremely weak. I could not sleep at night and was troubled with profuse perspiration, which caused me much annoyance. Hearing of the good effects of Milburn's Pills, I began taking them. Much to my gratification they braced me up, invigorated my whole system, and made me feel like a new man. I can recommend them to all suffering as I did.

A peculiar case is engaging the attention of physicians at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Montreal. Eliza Durette, a young girl belonging to Lacolle, Que., has been asleep at the hospital nearly two weeks.
