Auction Sale of Boats, &c.

Messrs. Lockhart & Chipman sold at auction, this forenoon, the property of the St. John Boating Club. Some of the boats were in good repair, and brought fair prices, while others were sold cheap. G. Lawrence purchased a shell wherry for $6, and J. King another for $8. A four oared boat in good repair was sold to C. McLauchlan & Co. for $27. A pair-oared boat was sold to D. Douglas for $30, and a lap-streak to Mr. Murray for $10, A. H. Ellis purchased a wherry for $27, a pair-oared boat for $13, and the Boat House for $27.50. The oars and smaller properties realized fair prices.

City Police Court.

The prisoners this morning were half white and half black, and looked in the dock like the squares of a checkerboard. The result of not protecting Queen Square was seen, as most of the cases were the result of rows in Sheffield street.

Daniel Doherty, charged with being drunk and disorderly in Sheffield street, was fined $6, or two months in the penitentiary.

John McCarthy committed the unpardonable offence of lying drunk in front of the Bank of New Brunswick, for which he was fined $4. The question was not asked him if the disgraceful pile of sidewalk in front of this Bank was the cause of his fall. It is bad enough to cause the fall of a saint.

William Cooper and John Scott were charged with fighting in Sheffield street. Both admitted fighting, but one said he was doing it in self-defence. The plea of self-defence was not heeded, and a fine of $10, or 2 months in the penitentiary, was imposed on each.

David Fowler was arrested on a warrant, at suit of Phœbe Diggs. Both the parties live in Sheffield street, and it appeared that Fowler went into the house of Phœbe looking for his wife. Not finding her, he abused, struck, choked and even kicked Mrs. Diggs. As he made an open confession, he got off with half the usual fine, $10.

William Cornado was charged with assaulting Charles White, while the latter was quietly returning from enjoying "Swamp Angels" at the theatre. As the assault was entirely unprovoked the prisoner must pay $20, or spend two months in gaol.

John Donovan and Charles Donnelly were charged with assaulting Laura Keough. They denied the charge and the case was adjourned until this afternoon.

Mrs. Madigan and her son were charged with assaulting Jameson. Witnesses were required, and the case will come up to-morrow morning.

Yesterday John Phillips, on complaint of Jeremiah Hennessy, was charged with selling rum without license. He was fined, and was fined $40. Michael Neill, of York Point, is charged with the same offence, and George Anderson, of Sheffield street. The Temperance ranks are marching on.

Portland Police Court.

John Damary was charged with fighting in the public streets and generally disturbing the public peace. He got off with a fine of $5, as he promised to try and not violate the law again.

Margaret Boyle, also on a complaint of fighting, touched a sympathetic cord in Mr. Tapley's heart, and was allowed to go scot free, though charged with drunkenness in Main street.

Canadian, British and Foreign.

[To the Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, June 29 p. m.

Thermometer 95 in the shade.

Joseph S. Sprague, a highly esteemed gentleman, connected with the Boston banking house of Matthew Bolles & Co., shot himself and daughter, aged 6 years, yesterday, near his residence, in Medford, Mass. He was temporarily insane from the recent death of his wife.

LONDON, June, 29 p. m.

Despatches from Madrid brlug intelligence that Marshal Concha was killed yesterday in an attack upon the Carlist Intrenchment at Muro, near Estella. When the National forces learned of the death of their commander they returned to their former positions without disorder, leaving no trophies in the hands of the enemy. The command of the Republican army will now be taken by General Zabala, Minister of War. Senor Cotoner will succeed Zabala as Minister of War, and Sagasta will become President of the Council.

LONDON, June 30.

JENKINS WANTS TO KNOW.

In the Commons Mr. Jenkins asked Disraeli if the Standard's assertion that the Canadian Government aimed at annexation to the United States was reliable.

Mr. Disraeli replied that the relations of the Canadian Dominion and the Imperial Government are most cordial and satisfactory.

THE DEATH OF CONCHA is considered in Paris an event of great political importance, as it is believed that Concha intended to proclaim Prince Alphonso King as soon as the campaign against the Carlists was successful. Beside Concha one brigadier and two staff officers were killed at the attack of the Republicans on the Carlist entrenchments.

ARMY MOVEMENTS.

By orders from Madrid the whole army has fallen back to Lerin, eight miles from Estella.

MARSHAL SERRANO

arrived at Madrid last evening.

RUSSIA AND CHINA.

There is a possibility of a collision between Russia and China.

MORE TROOPS.

The Spanish Government is organizing fifty battalions for immediate service.

THE BODY OF CONCHA

will arrive at Madrid to-day and have an imposing funeral.

CENTRAL ASIA.

Caravans arriving from Central Asia, bring reports that Yahoob Bey is arming against Russia. It is believed he is prompted to this by agents of Great Britain.

A TOWN BURNED.

Destructive fires are reported in the town of Benditchev, Russian Poland, by which 1200 houses were destroyed and thousands of persons made homeless.

NEW YORK, June 30.
