The Newspaper Man.

Little they know, or even think
Of the work they do in shedding ink
By the busy wielders of pencil and pen—
Generally known as the "men of the press"
Generally "In Sanctum," Knights of Life,
"Factious," and common rife.
"Saturday Notes" and Sunday news,
"All Sorts of Paragraphs," to amuse;
Market reports and marine disasters,
Puffs of pills and patent plasters;
Now at the theatre in white cravat,
Gay—hearty coat and open hat;
Then to the prize-ring, where you write
Each step details of a bloody fight—
Back to the city, just in time
To report the sermon of some divine;
Steamboat collision, or railway smash;
Election returns to brother gray moustache;
Agents dramatic, with long winded story,
To write up his star to theatrical glory.
Duels and scrapes, murders, rows;
Balls and parties, minstrel shows,
Stock speculations, bubbles of air,
Tossed about by ball and bear;
Praising the belle in the dancer's pose,
And next the calves in the cattle shows;
Pencil in hand at the racing course,
Taking the time of a trotting horse;
Jotting down each stroke and catch
Made in a famous base-ball match;
Now of a street row taking a note—
And then of a row in a college boat,
Or some new fear of the crazy things
At which the tireless pencil swings.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Perforred creditors—Those who don't dun.

The most enterprising speculator in human hair—The wild Indian.

Chemists say no matter is ever lost. Printers deny it.

When is a young lady like a music-box? When she is full of airs.

A Chicago minister if affectionately advertised as being "out of a job."

An Editor.—A poor wretch who empties his brain to fill his stomach.

Why is the elephant the most sagacious of travelers?—Because he never takes his eye off his trunk.

Mrs. Smith says her husband is like a tallow-candle, because he always will smoke when he is going out.

If there is one time more than another when woman should be alone, it is when a full line of clothes comes down into the mud.

Adam had one consolation when he fell. Fifteen or twenty acquaintances didn't stand on the opposite corner and laugh at his mishap.

"Think of it Mr. Bobbs, the United States drinks $90,000,000 worth of spirits every year!" Bobbs (excitedly), "How I wish I was the United States!"

Should cremation ever become adopted here as a system, the tender expression, "Peace to his ashes," will mean something.

The origin of the word "muff," applied to a fool, is said to be that a muff holds a woman's hand without squeezing it.

A Maine debating society is now wrestling with the question: "Is a sabbath-school superintendent justified in wearing a red necktie?"

Kansas is still very far from that ideal civilization which philanthropists anticipate. A man has been hung out there for making an angel of his mother-in-law.

A small boy arose at a Sunday-school concert and began quite glibly: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell by the roadside, and the thorns sprang up and choked him."

A San Francisco widow keeps the skull of her deceased husband in a glass case. She once remarked to a friend, who was viewing the remains, "Alas! how often have I banged those bones with a broomstick. I am sorry for it now!"

A sentimental young man, in speaking to his father's coachman of a neighboring family, remarked that "they were happy until sorrow suddenly came and left her traces there." The coachman looked puzzled, but finally responded, "Indeed, Sir; an' what did she do with the rest of the horses?"

"Sir," said a pompous personage, who once undertook to bully an editor, "do you know that I take your paper?" "I've no doubt you do take it," replied the man of the quill, "for several of my honest subscribers have been complaining lately about their papers being missing in the morning."

True Love (at Her Majesty's).—Leonora—"Oh, Charles! do pray look at the stage and listen to the music." Charles (not yet married, but in hopes)—"Oh, Leonora! I seem to feel the music so much better when I look at you."

"What a sermon we had last Sunday!" said a poor woman (who kept a small shop) to her neighbor, "What was it about?" asked her friend. "I can't remember what it is about, only that it made me go straight home and throw away my false weights!"

The Moderator of a certain Presbytery in Scotland once said to a candidate for the ministry, who had left broom-making:—"My young friend, the Presbytery believes that all men should glorify God in some way—some by preaching, some by making brooms, and that you are one who should make the brooms."

A darkey was once attempting to steal a goose, but a dog raised an objection, and Sambo retired. The next night, during a thunder shower, he attempted it again, and just as he was on the point of getting away with the fowl the lightening struck close by, and the noise nearly frightened the poor fellow to death. Dropping the goose, he started away, muttering "Peers to me der am a mighty lot of fuss made 'bout a common goose."

An Unexpected Remedy.—A subordinate functionary was complaining of the lenness of his desk, little doubting that the necessary alterations would be granted to his wishes, when his dream of comfort was suddenly broken by the reply, "O yes, we must get a shorter clerk." There were two ways of adjusting the regulations of clerk and desk; the complainant had thought of only one.

"How much better it would have been to have shaken hands and allowed it was all a mistake," said a Detroit Judge. "Then the lion and the lamb would have lain down together, and white-robed peace would have fanned you with her wings and elevated you with her smiles of approbation. But no; you went to clawing and biting and rolling in the mud, and here you are. It's $5 apiece."

It is related of a Scottish lady in a remote part of the Highlands, noted for her profuse liberality, that being sometimes over-burdened with habitual "corners," when one of them outstayed his welcome, she would take occasion to say to him at the morning meal, with an arch look at the rest of the company, "Make a good breakfast, Mr.——, while you're about it. Ye dinna ken whaur ye'll get your dinner." The hint was usually taken, and the "corner," departed.

A pretty playfulness with which little children charm away the cares of their parents is illustrated by a touching occurrence in Indiana. A boy of six years, after watching the laundry proceedings, and especially the way in which the wrinkles in the linen disappeared before the flat-iron, retired to meditate in the room where his father was taking his after-dinner nap. There, gazing upon the furrows which years of struggle had made upon the marble brow of his parent, he was seized by a beautiful idea. In less than a minute that devoted little boy was smoothing out those marks of time and sorrow with a very hot flat-iron.

There is a bush story of a negro who, for a bottle of rum, agreed to strip to the waist, and lie on his face, to be bitten for a quarter of an hour by mosquitoes, at the Joggins of New Brunswick. He endured his pests manfully, and had nearly won his prize, when one of the lumbermen who stood by laid on him a small piece of live charcoal. The negro wiggled and twisted about frightfully; at last unable to hold out any longer, he jumped up, calling out, "Wooh! not bargain for dat; dat is a Gon fly!" Lumberman play sad tricks on the negroes sometimes. At a colored tea-drinking a lumberman slipped a plug of tobacco into the kettle, when an old negro who presided ended out "Mo' water! mo' water! too strong for massa 'tomach."

Manufacturer of Corsets.—We will now give an account of the system adopted by Messrs. Jones & Co., of Toronto, in the manufacture of their corsets, at the Stratford Road Station.—Stratford Beacon. 1365

TO THE PUBLIC OF British North America.

In consequence of frauds that have been practised upon you by two or three individuals (who for a time took the name of the "New York Chemical Company") making and selling something which they call "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," and which, for a season, were freely sold in many parts of the British Provinces as my genuine Pills and Ointment, I have for some time past considered it my duty to caution the public, through the medium of the press, against buying these spurious articles.

Judgments have been obtained against this Bankrupt Crew; in one case by a Mr. Osmond, who, when about to levy, at the latter end of October last, found the name of the Chemical Company had been painted out and that of Samuel Voss substituted.

Many respectable Firms in the British Provinces, who obtain my medicines direct from here, have very properly suggested that I should, for the benefit of themselves and the public, insert their names in the papers, that it may be known that my medicines can be had genuine from them.

The following is a list of the Firms alluded to; and I particularly recommend those who desire to get my medicines to apply to some of the Houses named:—

Messrs. Avery, Brown & Co., Halifax, N. S.
Messrs. Forsyth & Co., Halifax, N. S.
Messrs. T. B. Barker & Sons, St. John, N. B.
Mr. T. Dee Bainy, Charlotte Town, P. E. I.
Messrs. Langley & Co., Victoria, B. C.
Messrs. Moore & Co., Victoria, B. C.
Dr. John Pallen, Chatham, N. B.
Messrs. Munro & Co., Montreal.
Messrs. J. Winer & Co., Hamilton, Ont.
Mr. H. J. Rose, Toronto.
Mr. A. Chipman Smith, St. John, N. B.
Mr. John Bond, Goderich, Ont.
Messrs. Elliot & Co., Toronto.
Mr. J. Chalmer, St. John, N. B.
Messrs. Harington Bros., St. John, N. B.
Mr. R. S. Priddy, Windsor, Ont.
Mrs. Orpen, Morden, N. S.
Mr. George C. Hunt, Jun., Fredericton, N. B.
Mr. W. H. Thompson, Harbor Grace, N. F.
Mr. J. M. Wiley, Fredericton, N. B.
Messrs. W. & D. Yule, Montreal.

My Pills and Ointment are neither manufactured nor sold in any part of the United States. Each Pot and Box bears the British Government Stamp, with the words, "Holloway's Pills and Ointment, London," engraved thereon.

The medicines are sold at the lowest wholesale prices, in quantities of not less less than £20 worth—viz., 8s. 6d., 22s., and 34s per dozen boxes of Pills or pots of Ointment, for which remittances must be sent in advance.

THOMAS HOLLOWAY.

N. B.—Chemists and other vendors of Holloway's genuine Pills and Ointment may have their names inserted in the local papers if they will please apply to the Proprietor.
